Card told the following story. He is in the bush. On June 14th he came into town with a cheque of $74 in his pocket. After cashing and paying out money he had $40 left and bought a pair of boots and a pair of pants. He saw Wm. Daley in Timmins and drank with him at the Kingston Hotel. Or hearing that Daley could get him assessment work to do in Shaw he left Timmins with him in a car on Thursday. They stopped at the Gold Range Hotel in South Porcupine on the way out for beer and went on to the Redstone Road. Then he was taken to a and rendered unconscious. When he came to, he found he had lost his money, his boots and his pants which were in a parcel. His face was hurt and he went back to town, stopping overnight with a man he knew. Next day he went to Timmins and laid the charge before the Provincial Police

Every year at this time the Church Army sends out a group of young men to go through the country and preach the gospel usually working in conjunction with Church of England clergymen. At the Army's Toronto headquarters, there was a garden party to give the caravans a send-off. The following are shown here (LEFT to RIGHT): Mrs. T. Stannage Boyle, Miss M. Baker, Dr. Mabel Cartwright, former dean of St. Hilda's college; Rev. T. Stannage Boyle, rector of the Church of St. Alban the Martyr and warden of the Church Army; and Capt. W. J. Lennox, director of the Church Army,
