Record Gathering of Ex-Servicemen

 mins and immediate district. He asked all ex-servicemen who could do so to register for this work, which it was expected would be to guard vital points and prevent sabotage, and other similar duties and special work. The speaker stressed strongly that no one should throw up his job to take guard or other duty. The unemployed should, and would be, placed first, as far as possible.

Letters were then read from the New Canadian organizations: The Croatian Society and the Ukrainian Progressive Association, both pledging loyalty and assistance to the Dominion in case of need. Mr. Neame said he knew there were other letters to come along the same lines from other societies. The Polish Veterans were then introduced and the large crowd gave vent to their feelings in enthusiastic manner.

"There is not much we can do in regard to the alien situation," said Mr. Neame, "until the authorities decide upon their action." Several names had been turned in and these would be called for registration when the time came.

"A recruiting officer could do good work here," said the speaker, in reference to the fine type of young men who had been to see him in regard to enlistment. "They are not all unemployed, either; some are of a fine type of young manhood with good positions and good prospects."

In closing Mr. Neame, said that a close touch is being kept with both the military and police and he knew the Legion and ex-servicemen were ready to be of service when the time came. Mayor Bartleman, who was present at the meeting was asked to address the gathering and said:—"I wish every citizen in the town could see the splendid spirit of this gathering. Those who may go overseas will be in a better position this time, as they have the leadership of the Canadian Legion behind them, said the mayor in his brief talk.

Walter Groves, asked if there were any special subjects any of those present would like to have discussed, there were several minor subjects, such as times of flag flying at the post office, etc. but the main complaints dealt with the hearing up of necessities in Timmins and the sudden jump in prices, making, as one described "a grafting outrage." The chief complaint was in connection with an increase of 1c a pound on sugar and 50c per ton on coal. All meetings endorsed the policy that the Legion should draw this to the attention of the government and keep a very close check upon this matter during the coming weeks.

It is expected that another meeting will be called very shortly and that arrangements will be made for a larger hall to accommodate the large number of ex-servicemen expected.

Monday's meetings made the largest gathering of veterans ever held in the Town of Timmins. A close estimate gives the number as near to 500.

Mr. T. A. Skelly One of the Members of School Board

In the list of members of the Timmins public school board published in the special school opening section of The Advance last week the name of Mr. T. A. Skelly was accidentally omitted. The article mentioned that there were six members of the public school board but only five names were given, the omission thus being evident. The member not listed was Mr. T. A. Skelly, who is a valuable member of the board. Mr. Skelly was chairman of the board last year. The board this year is as follows:—F. W. Simpson, chairman; W. Rinn; T. A. Skelly; W. R. Dunbar; James Cowan; E. L. Urquhart.

Increase in Number of Marriage Licenses Being Issued

Increase Not Due to War, However. Other Causes.

This month seems to be starting out with a very marked increase in the number of marriage licenses issued as compared with last month and last year. Last month there was an average of about one a day for each day the office was open, while this month so far the average is over three a day. In the six days of September this year there have been 14 licenses issued, while last year there were only four until the end of Sept. 6th. The natural tendency may be to "blame it on the war," but this is not fair nor accurate. In fact the difference is more apparent than real. In August of last year there were 37 marriage licenses issued, while this year there have been only 23. Accordingly from Aug. 1st to Sept. 6th this year there were in all 43 licenses issued, while the same period last year the total was 41, a slight increase this year that is more than explained by the increase in population in the past year. Also, it may be noted that most of the licenses issued recently are known to have been planned for some time and so are not sudden decisions. Also, the cynic may have something to explain when the fact is quoted that in some of the cases known the marriage was decided upon because the groom in the cases referred to wished to enlist and wanted to have his affairs settled before doing so.

Council Asks Method of Setting Up Local Board

 thier. The Mayor agreed that it was possible that some citizens who had more ready money than others would be able to buy large quantities and thus create a shortage for those who were not so affluent or foresighted.

Extra Constables
 Authority was given the Police Commission to hire extra men temporarily during the crisis if police felt they were necessary. The resolution provided that they be hired on an hourly basis.

"A large number of men might be needed at any time," said Mayor Bartleman. "The rate of wages paid will of course be dependent upon that paid guards hired all over the country."

A letter from the Attorney General's department pointed out to the Council that it would be wise to provide men to guard vital points such as water-works, hydro plants and other municipal nerve centres against possible sabotage.

Says Too Many Commissioners in Timmins

Attorney General's Department Denies Council's Request That New Commissioner be Made.

The request of the Council that I. E. Dunn, Relief Officer, be appointed a Commissioner to take oaths in connection with relief work, was denied by the Attorney General's Department. In a letter to the Council the Department said that there were "far more Commissioners in Timmins at present than are necessary for the convenience of the public."

"This should be referred to the Finance Committee to draft a staff resolution for return to the department," said the Mayor. He remarked that the department apparently did not know how many commissioners were out of town at present and how many could not be reached when they were needed. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

Parade Next Sunday

The parade which was to be staged by the Porcupine District Trades and Labour Council on Labour Day, Monday last, and which was postponed because of rain, will be held next Sunday. Application was made to the Council at its regular meeting last night and was granted. The parade will begin at one o'clock. The Mayor said the parade should be held between one and five, so that there would not be trouble with the churches.

A request from Wendel Brewer, coal dealer, that he be allowed to take scrap iron from the Town dump on the condition that he pay the town fifty cents a ton and do all the work in connection with its removal himself, was referred to committee.

"The motive is quite plain," said the Town Clerk. "Scrap will bring a good price now that it is war time."

Permanent Employees

At its last meeting the Council passed a resolution providing that all permanent town employees be granted a day's pay on Labour Day. At last night's meeting the interpretation of the phrase "permanent employees" was discussed. Eliminated from the day's pay after some discussion were: truck drivers under contract to the town and men not on the regular pay roll.

Throughout the meeting of Council the Mayor, who had a small radio at his elbow, turned it on to listen for war news. When a broadcaster did come on with developments the Council called a halt to heated discussion and for five minutes listened to an account of strife far greater than they create at their most heated meetings.

Specify Duties of Town Clerk and Treasurer

Outline of Each Man's Duties Approved by Council. Prepared by Auditor

The duties of the Town Clerk and the Town Treasurer were specifically outlined last night in resolutions passed by the Town Council in session. The Town Fathers felt that greater efficiency could be obtained in the Town Hall if both municipal officers knew their various duties specifically and had control over the staffs of town employees who carried them out.

The Town Clerk was put in charge of all proceedings of Council and records such as minutes and other business. By-laws came under his sphere of influence and the administration of such acts as might apply to a municipality, such as The Mothers Allowance Act, The Old Age Pensions Act, The Marriage Act and The Vital Statistics Act. He was to have control over bookkeeping and accounting and the preparation of periodic statements for the members of Council. In addition he was to be purchasing agent for the Town.

The Treasurer, on the other hand, had all assessment work put under his control. This included assessment field work and the care and maintenance of the tax collection and assessment rolls.

The collection of taxes was seen to be his business and the collection of all income such as water rates. The financial end of purchasing was to be his business with scrutiny of departmental orders in order to make certain that they were within each department's budget. The town budget was also to be his concern.

All the financial data concerning capital expenditure, local improvements and debentures was to be his job and all statistical reports concerning those and other financial matters.

Other duties included the town's insurance and the maintenance in good order of the town's documentary titles, rights of way, etc.

The duties were specified in resolutions, which the Mayor said, were prepared by the Town's auditor. He considered him capable of outlining the duties belonging to each man. It was pointed out that the town employees whose work was connected with the duties of either of the men would be under that man's jurisdiction.

Chief Regrets Malicious Rumours Here

No Aliens Have Been Picked Up or Questioned. Says Rumors About Canadians Malicious.

Reports that Porcupine people, many of them Canadian born, with names which might be construed as foreign, have been arrested or picked up and brought in for questioning by police are entirely without foundation.

Chief of Police Leo H. Gagnon said today that no aliens had been arrested or questioned in this area and that, so far as he knew, outside police had not detained local people in any way. The Chief regretted the spread of malicious rumours about good Canadians, which he admitted, were prevalent in Timmins.

Says Low Food Reserves Will Lose War For Huns

If conditions in Germany are still as they were when he was there last winter, the nation can not hold out long in this war, Roy Thompson told the members of the Kiwanis club at their regular meeting this week.

Mr. Thompson said that Germany did not have great troop reserves and depended to a great extent on their air force. He felt that they could never win unless Russia joined them in the conflict.

J. L. Fulton, President, was in the chair. George Drew spoke briefly on the Boy Scout work.

Sudbury Star.—At least there is no longer any necessity to wonder whether there is to be war or peace.
