

Maple Leaf Line Ups Should Give "Whites" Edge In Series

Irvin-Coached Training Squad Looks Stronger on Paper Than Eddie Power's "Blues." Latter Have Half Dozen Rookie Forwards.

The line-ups of the Maple Leafs announced for their games at the McIntyre Arena, Schumacher, to-night, Friday and Saturday will give local fans an opportunity of seeing a real National Hockey League team as it operates during the season.

Dick Irvin's "Whites" would appear to have an edge on the "Blues" on paper as the Leaf coach has the ace forward line of Apps, Drillon and Davidson and the sturdy defense duo of "Bouncing Bucko" McDonald and his hefty hip-slinger, Reggie Hamilton. For his second line, Irvin will have Gus Marker and Sweeney Schrinier with the up-and-coming, Pete Langelle centering them. The wingers are sure of their places and Langelle is making a great bid for a berth. Mann will be the extra forward and Phil Stein netminder.

Eddie Powers will have to do some masterminding to pull his Blues to a victory as, Pep Kelly and Murph Chamberlain are his only big time forwards. Of course he has two youthful defencemen in Bingo Kampman and Walter Stanowski backed by Turk Broda in the nets. Lex Chisholm will centre the first line and the second trio will be three rookies, Billy Taylor, centre, and Red Heron and Don Metz on the wings, with Hank Goldup as spare.

Capt. Red Horner and Nick Metz will not be with the squad, due to injuries.

Pouppore Cup Goes to Kirkland Lake for Week Anyway

Lakeshore School Holding High School Grid Trophy Waiting for Final Series.

The Kirkland Lake Senior Rugby team did not take only a victory over the Timmins High and Vocational School squad back with them on Saturday but they also took the Pouppore Cup, back to the Lake Shore town with them and will play off against the North Bay-Halifax semi-final winners for possession of the trophy.

Realizing that they will have to be playing heads-up football to win the honours, the Kirkland Lake laddies apparently figured that a bird in the hand was worth several anywhere else and that it would be pleasant and perhaps inspiring if the big silver mug were on display at the Kirkland school for a week or so before the final.

The winner of the Haliburton-North Bay semi-final will meet Kirkland Lake in a sudden-death meeting. If Haliburton wins, the game possibly will be there, if North Bay carries the Southern chances, Wright-Hargreaves Field here will be the scene of the final.

North Bay Has Edge
After M. J. Pouppore donated the cup in 1927, the North Bay Collegiate team won it for three consecutive years until Sudbury High and Technical School gridders broke the bubble in 1930. The Nickel Belters held it until 1933 when Leo Troy's North Bay crew captured it again, keeping possession until 1936. In 1935 the Green Wave from the Gateway City successfully defended the silverware against the local school here winning 6-4.

In 1936, the strong Blue and White brigade from Timmins brought it North for the first time, but dropped it to Scollard Hall of North Bay the following year in a grueling battle at the Bay. Timmins again copped the award last season and held it until the Kirkland Lake team knocked the Porkies out of the running on Saturday.

Special Train from Kapuskasing for Maple Leaf Game Here Friday

Net Proceeds to go to Red Cross Funds.

The following is from the last issue of The Northern Tribune of Kapuskasing:—

Special Train to See Maple Leaf Hockey

Through the connection of Jack Cusack as trainer with the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey team in the season of 1931-32—the last time they won the Stanley cup—hockey fans hereabouts are being given a good chance to see the revamped Maple Leaf team in action next week-end at Schumacher.

The Leafs are departing this season from their usual pre-season conditioning and training at Preston. Next week, after a brief period of limbering up at St. Catharines, the whole roster of players swing up North for a series of games against the best that we can put up against them. That's not exactly the situation though; the Leaf players will be divided into two teams of equal ability, except that local players who are deemed good enough for a tryout will be put on one or the other of the teams. Canny Conny Smythe thinks this is a good way to scout promising talent, and he and his board of strategy will have keen eyes open for any player who seems to have "the goods". It follows that any such players will be given work-outs with the Leafs, to see if they can measure up to the exacting standards of big league hockey.

Conn Smythe, general manager and spark-plug of the Leafs, phoned Jack Cusack from Toronto as soon as he decided on this Northern trip, and asked him to come down to Schumacher for three days or so and help in the conditioning of the Leaf team. The outcome of this call was an arrangement to run a special train from Kapuskasing for the second night's match there, at a minimum cost. A more attractive private offer was made to the Spruce Falls Co.'s chief of police in this connection, but the decision was to run the special train at lowest cost, make a contribution to the Red Cross out of the proceeds, and give our fans the best chance they will have to see a real hockey game of league calibre.

Eddie Miller and John Arsenault have undertaken to handle the sale of the combination tickets, which will not be sold at the C.N.R. ticket office. Five dollars pays the return fare on the special train, which will leave Schumacher after the game in good time to reach Kapuskasing in time for starting work Saturday morning; and it also pays for a reserved seat in the magnificent new McIntyre arena, where artificial ice permits an early start of hockey. Latest advice from the arena management is to the effect that there has been such a rush to buy seats for both night, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 26th and 27th, that when the block of seats reserved for Kapuskasing has been sold out, only standing room will be available. This need not deter anybody from going down on the special train, though, because they will be able to see the game just the same, this being taken care of by wiring ahead.

This trip to Schumacher promises to be a pleasant break for those who like to see first-class hockey in big time tempo; and the contribution to the Red Cross funds arising from it is much appreciated by local workers in Canada's war effort. All aboard!

Twenty-two Tables of Whist at Ladies' Auxiliary Event

Hallowe'en Dance on Tuesday Night by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Twenty-two tables of whist were played at the whist party held on Tuesday evening by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion. These events have become very popular, and a large crowd attends each whist drive.

Winners at whist were: Ladies, 1st, Mrs. E. Chaloux; 2nd, Mrs. H. A. Ogilvie; 3rd, Mrs. E. Beaulne; gentlemen: 1st, Mrs. B. Richards (playing as a gentleman); 2nd, Mr. W. E. Ezanson; and 3rd, Mr. H. Donovan.

Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Wilkinson, and Mrs. Ann Harvey were the M. C.'s during the evening, and a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Jennings and the kitchen committee.

The ladies are assisting in the work of the Red Cross at the St. John's Ambulance hall, and this week the members are taking charge of the distribution of wool, and collection of knitting at the hall.

All-star centre of the Toronto Maple Leafs, Sylvannus Apps is one of the most popular players in the N. H. L. and one of the most gentlemanly. Apps, along with his wing partner Gordie Drillon will be seen to-night and to-morrow night and on Saturday afternoon with their teammates at the McIntyre Arena. Apps and Drillon will play the first period of Saturday afternoon's game before they enroute for Montreal to take part with the All-Stars in the Babe Seibert Memorial game.

On Tuesday, October 31st, the Ladies' Auxiliary will entertain at a Hallowe'en Masquerade party at the Legion hall. This will be an enjoyable event, and all members and their friends are invited.

Globe and Mail:—In the opinion of hockey experts there is one Polish name that is destined to survive gloriously, and that is the name of Stanowski.

Sweeny Schrinier

Formerly the scoring leader of the N. H. L., Sweeny Schrinier has changed the Star-Spangled uniform of the New York Americans to the Blue and White of the Toronto Maple Leafs and will be seen in his new livery when the pros play at the McIntyre Arena at Schumacher on Thursday and Friday evenings and on Saturday noon. This is Schrinier's first year with the Leafs.

Haileybury Wins Two Grid Crowns in Rugby Field

Seniors Qualify to Meet North Bay in Pouppore Cup Semi-final series. Haileybury Juniors ready.

New Liskeard, Oct. 25.—Bringing the second championship to the school this season, Haileybury High School won 16-0 over Cobalt in Temiskaming Inter-scholastic senior football. The game was a sudden-death affair here to decide group honors and the right to meet North Bay next Saturday in Pouppore Cup playdowns.

Three touchdowns, one of them converted, comprised the score for the winners, while for Cobalt it was the third successive shut-out. The teams, only entries in the senior section this season, finished the regular schedule on even terms.

Previously, Haileybury juniors had annexed the honors in their group, defeating both Cobalt and New Liskeard teams to take the district trophies to their school for a year at least.

Ski Club Organize for Winter Season With New Officers

Dave Wemyss Elected President of the Porcupine Ski Club—Hope for Membership of 500.

More new trails, twice as many members as last year and a strong junior section, are the major aspirations of the Porcupine Ski Club as outlined at the annual meeting this week when the new officers were elected to run the club this fall and winter.

David Wemyss was chosen president and Joseph Winton vice-president. The other officers selected were:—secretary, Martin McHugh; treasurer, Henry Bengary; trails committee, Al Parsons; entertainment, Charles Jolliffe, assisted by Misses Simone Savard and Gerry Turcotte; transportation, Laurie Rice; jumping, Vic Banning; competition, Russ Foster; house, Murray Green-span; membership, Rolland Mathieu, assisted by Miss Maisie Newton; juniors, Nick Basciano and Ernie Lacey.

There was an encouraging turnout of members to the organization meeting over which Adolf McFadden presided until the new officers were elected, when the turned the chair over to the new president, Mr. Wemyss asked all the members to extend their fullest co-operation to the new executive.

The committee for jumping was organized to operate this year for the first time and plans for encouraging and training junior members were discussed.

A half dozen new trails have been cut and more are on the way. This week-end the clubhouse is going to receive a new coat of paint and have the roof repaired.

The first social activity will be a dance scheduled for Nov. 10th at Riverside.

In order to get the club organization moving along, the executive are planning bi-monthly meetings.

Canadian-Italian Women Give Event for Red Cross

About Five Hundred Enjoy Italian Spaghetti Supper.

About five hundred people thoroughly enjoyed real Italian spaghetti, prepared in a manner that is known only to Italian chefs, at the Palais Royale restaurant on Wednesday evening, when a group of Canadian-Italian women acted as hostesses at an exceptionally tasty supper.

Proceeds from the event, which was a great success, will be given to Red Cross work, and although all returns are not as yet turned in, the amount will be a very fine one.

The Palais Royale was given to the group free of charge, by Leo Mascioli, who also helped in other ways, and the Italian Sacred Heart Church furnished the dishes for the occasion, and helped the ladies in other ways.

Mrs. A. Mascioli was in charge of the group which included Mrs. J. Carnovale, Mrs. D. Mascioli, Mrs. D. Ferreri, Mrs. D. Colameco, Mrs. R. Bernardi, Mrs. L. D'Alesandri, Mrs. R. Conzales, Mrs. D. Marcantonio, Mrs. D. Colvincenzo, Mrs. Adele Rossi, Mrs. P. Paolone, Mrs. Bagatto, Mrs. D. D'Marco, Mrs. V. Spada, Mrs. D. Dionisio, and about fifteen young Italian girls who served at the tables.

The group is to be congratulated on the delicious supper they prepared, and on the pleasing arrangements for the event, and also on the success attending it.

All Rules Broken

Jimmy had found a new pup, and the visitor was interested. "Is it a setter or a pointer?" she asked.

"It's neither," replied Jimmy's mother. "It's an upetter and a disappointment."

Here is a smile from Gossip:—A doctor's little daughter, deeply interested in radio, glanced one morning into the office where her father was testing the heart and lungs of a patient. "Getting any new stations, daddy?" she inquired.

Kirkland Lake Student Wins Segsworth Scholarship

(From Northern News)

A student of the High and Vocational School here last year has won a $500 scholarship at Queen's University to assist in his studies in the mining course at that institution. The scholar who led all others from Northern Ontario mining centres was Victor Behaz, Chaput-Hughes.

Word was received by Principal A. G. McColi yesterday that the award had been made and that one of his students was the recipient. The $500 award will be paid at the rate of $125 each of the four years required to complete the course.

Victor already is attending Queen's and taking the mining course. The scholarship was donated this year by Robert S. Segsworth of Timmins, who is interested in several Northern Ontario properties, and was open for competition in the graduating classes of High Schools at Timmins, South Porcupine, Schumacher, Iroquois Falls, Kirkland Lake, New Liskeard, Haliburton, Cobalt, Copper Cliff and Sudbury. Last year Victor took first class honours in eight papers and was awarded the Judson trophy as the outstanding student of the graduating class. He was never absent or late all during the year.

He has some practical experience at mining as he worked for two summers in the Macassa Mine, where his father, E. O. Behaz, is employed as a mill man.

His energies were not devoted to his studies alone, while he was attending school here, as he was a regular on the senior rugby team; president of the Boys' Athletic Association; a member of the debating team which won the shield for inter-school competition and he took part in the Dramatic Club's activities.

Mr. McColi and members of the High and Vocational School staff are delighted that one of their students was named the first recipient of this new and valuable scholarship.

Globe and Mail:—The Globe and Mail has been deluged with letters denouncing Colonel Lindbergh. It is possible to publish only a few of them. The consensus is that he was well nicknamed "The Flying Fool."
