

Telling About Visit to Italian Restaurant at N.Y. World's Fair

Miss Edith M. Barber Says That All Who Patronize the Italian Restaurant at the World's Fair in New York Dine in Comfort and Luxury and Enjoy Delicious Dishes

For beauty, luxury, comfort and delicious food there is no restaurant which ranks higher than the Italian at the New York World's Fair! By this time you will be thinking that it must be very expensive! This would be true

By EDITH M. BARBER

If you have the full course meal. There are entrees, however, which are served in such generous portions that you may enjoy a simple meal at a reasonable price. And, by the way, I have never sat in such comfortable chairs! The decorations are lovely and just as attractive as the young girls in the costumes of the different provinces who bring you the famous Italian wines if you order them.

The menu is extensive as you would expect when you learn that the restaurant is managed by the Italian Line whose boats have always been famous for this. Of course, I suggest that you order a native specialty such as Ravioli, Spaghetti or some other form of pasta, or one of the veal specialties. All of these have sauces to dream about.

You may have your choice of almost any type of dessert including fine pastry. You should not miss the cheese tray which offers a selection of native products. This will help to complete your epicurean education, opportunities for which are so unusual at the Fair.

Veal Scallopini

- 1 1/2 pounds veal cutlet
 - 1/4 cup flour
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons olive oil
 - 1 peeled clove garlic
 - 1/2 cup white wine
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- Have veal cut 1/4 inch thick. Wipe meat with damp cloth. Mix flour with salt, pepper and rub into veal. Heat olive oil in heavy frying pan and saute garlic and veal until light brown. Remove garlic. Add wine, water and lemon juice and simmer 30 minutes until veal is tender. Serve on hot platter and garnish with parsley.

Italian Sauce for Spaghetti

- 1/4 pound salt pork, cut in cubes
 - 1 peeled clove garlic
 - 1 tablespoon olive oil
 - 1/2 cup minced onions
 - 1/2 pound sliced mushrooms
 - 1/4 cup chopped parsley
 - 1/4 cup tomato paste
 - 1 cup mushroom stock and water
 - Salt, pepper, paprika
 - 2 teaspoons sugar
- Add cubed salt pork with garlic to olive oil and saute until light brown. Remove garlic. Add onions, mushrooms and parsley and cook 3 minutes. Add tomato paste and stock, made by cooking tough portions of mushrooms in water, and seasonings to taste. Add sugar, reheat and serve with boiled drained spaghetti.

Too Generous

The chairman of a London hospital says the most generous people have very little to say. This should come as a relief to those friends of Lord Nuffield who have been afraid that he might give himself away one day.

Toronto Telegram:—Dead men tell no tales, but the live ones make up for them.

Surprise Party in Honour of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson

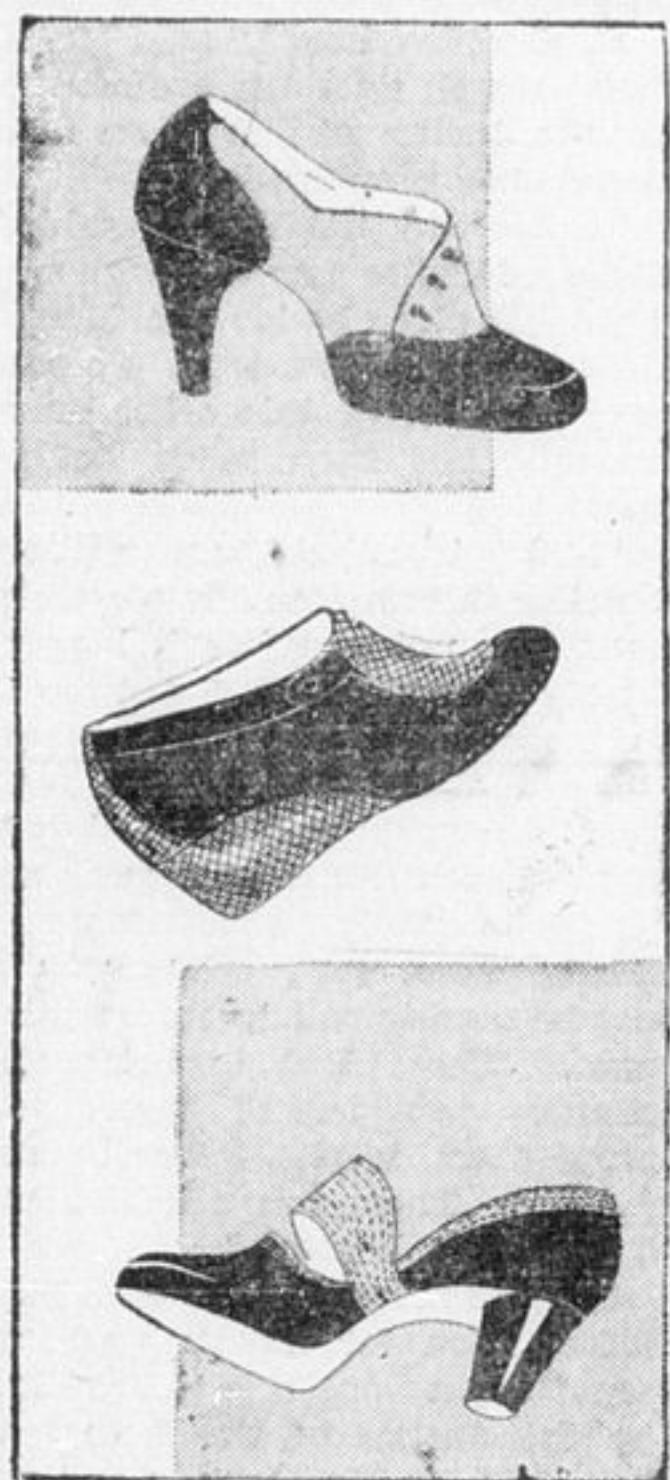

Pleasing Event at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Newell

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson, whose marriage took place at Sillwater, Nova Scotia, in September, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Newell on Friday evening, to honour the couple at a surprise party, and to present numerous lovely gifts to them.

About thirty guests were present, many of whom were former residents of Nova Scotia, and enjoyed a happy musical evening. The gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Anderson by little Miss Jean Newell, who made a charming picture in a long pink organza frock, presenting the gifts from a wagon decorated in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have taken up residence at Balsam street south. The bride was formerly Miss Jane Fraser, of Sillwater, Nova Scotia, and had many friends in this district, having spent a year visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Nelly, formerly of Timmins, but now of the Buffalo-Ankerite. Mr. Anderson is also very well-known and popular in the district, and was the groomsman in January last for Mr. Charles Pennie whose marriage took place in Schumacher.

TO-DAY'S FASHIONS

Fashionable footwear.

By VERA WINSTON

HERE ARE three new models in footwear to show you which way fashion's shoe is pointing. First is a suede and kid style, a three-button high strap affair in dark green. The next model combines lizard with suede for walking shoe. The strap slips under the inset of lizard which covers the vamp. Colored stitched suede is combined with dull black leather for the daytime pump, bottom, with keel heel. The wide strap and collar trim are of suede.

Chief Item

Architect: "Now, if you'll give me a general idea of the kind of house you need . . ."
Client: "I want to have something to go with a door-knocker my wife brought home from Oxford."

Onward.—A farmer in Czechoslovakia went to bed one evening with all his farm in his own country; when he awoke he found that, while his house was still in Czechoslovakia, the farm was in Hungary; and he has to show his passport whenever he goes to work in his fields.

Pupils of Schools Write on "Stanley and Livingstone"

Many Interesting Essays Win Passes to the Palace Theatre.

In connection with the recent showing in Timmins of the notable motion picture, "Stanley and Livingstone," the Palace theatre offered prizes of free passes to the theatre for the best essays by pupils of the schools in town. Many in the several school wrote very interesting compositions. The teachers were the judges in the competition. The following were the winners in the High School:—

Miss Briffett's room — Janet Macmillan, Evelyn Booker, Aurora Raffaele.

Miss McGarry's room—Billy Tanner, Adolph De Luca, Glen Code.

Mr. Geerie's room—Joe Sunega.

Miss M-Namara's room — Jean Mason, Peter Loudon.

Mr. Schweitzer's room—Leslie Miller, Mr. McHull's room—Anthony St. Jean.

At the Separate Schools the winners included:—

Rita Millett, Leo Blais, Therese Lacroix, Jeanine Morin, Paul Paquette, Roland Philbert, Fernand Philbert.

One of the essays taken from the group is given as follows:—

Stanley and Livingstone (by Rita Millett)

Mr. Henry Stanley was a newspaper reporter who would go anywhere to get his story. Once he started something he finished it. Livingstone was a doctor, missionary and explorer, whom the people thought was dead. Mr. Bennett, editor of The New York Herald, didn't believe that, but Lord Tice, of The London Globe, said it was true. So, Mr. Bennett sent Stanley to Africa to look for Dr. Livingstone. Stanley went to see the Governor of Zanzibar to get a pass to go into Central Africa. The Governor's daughter told Mr. Stanley he couldn't get through because it was too dangerous, but nothing could stop Stanley. A year of hardship passed, with fever and heat and native attacks. At last he reached Dr. Livingstone, who was an old man by now. Stanley had planned to bring him back to America, but it was impossible. The Doctor's heart was set on Africa. When Mr. Stanley saw how kind he was to the natives he knew he couldn't bring him back with him. Dr. Livingstone welcomed him very graciously. Stanley told him of the trouble he had in finding him. Dr. Livingstone felt very sorry but he could not do as the reporter wanted. Dr. Livingstone told Stanley what country he thought could be explored. After a while Mr. Stanley returned to America. He told about everything he found, and supplied the maps given to him by Dr. Livingstone. But the people wouldn't believe him. After all hopes had failed his dream came through. The president of the Geographical Society received a note saying that Dr. Livingstone was dead. He had sent a message to Mr. Henry M. Stanley asking him to continue his work of exploring.

The majority of American women complain of a dry skin condition. Those who have normal texture, or even slightly oily, should be happy about it for their skins will not age and wrinkle as quickly as the dry skin. Dry skin requires constant attention. Lubricating in the summer weather and lubricating in the colder weather. And at the same time it is essential not to allow the pores to become clogged by the constant application of creams.

The extremely dry skin can stand only infrequent washings with soap and water—perhaps three a week. The possessor of such a skin condition must use a very rich cleansing cream (similar to old-fashioned cold cream texture), a mild refreshing tonic after a skin cleansing, and always a protective foundation beneath her make-up. She will find it absolutely necessary to cream her face morning and night, followed by the tonic. Every other night she may wash her face well with a rich cold cream soap, warm water and a soft complexion brush or a turkish face cloth.

The Normally Dry Skin

The girl with what we call a normally dry skin may wash her face with a rich soap each day if she desires. She must, however, use either a lubricating cream during the night, or a protective cream during the day—or both types. She does not need a skin tonic unless she likes the sensation of it after a "reaming" of her skin.

Now the protective cream or foundation must be of a certain consistency to do any good. During the cooler weather, our foundation formula may have more oil in it for lubrication, than during the warmer months. Some women even favor face oils to face creams—those which come prepared and are blended scientifically. After a good washing, these oils are smoothed onto the skin sparingly and after a gentle massage the excess oil is wiped off with cleansing tissues. This leaves sufficient lubrication for the skin and holds your make-up on well.

I find cream rouge is better to use with such a foundation than compact rouge, and I like to apply powder generously with a down puff and brush most of it away with a powder brush! The thin film of powder which remains blends perfectly with the skin tone and people have to look very closely to see if you are powdered at all! It gives the illusion that your skin is vitally alive with glowing color.

Some of the foundation or protective creams which are on the market are too drying, or too vanishing, for dry skins. You put on a cream before your make-up to protect your skin. If the cream quickly disappears into the skin it is apt to clog the pores and not furnish the protection you need.

Best for Evening Make-Up

There is a lot to be said in favor of those foundation preparations which come in compact form and which require a dampening with skin tonic for application. They do hide minor blemishes and they do give your skin a velvety looking texture. They should, however, be held in reserve for night make-up because they tend to rob the face of a healthy tone—in daylight

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

Beauty and You

by PATRICIA LINDSAY

RITA HEYWORTH applies her face powder with a fresh puff over a special protective foundation. She then brushes excess powder away leaving an exquisite finish.

Cooler Days Require Skin Lubrication

The majority of American women complain of a dry skin condition. Those who have normal texture, or even slightly oily, should be happy about it for their skins will not age and wrinkle as quickly as the dry skin. Dry skin requires constant attention. Lubricating in the summer weather and lubricating in the colder weather. And at the same time it is essential not to allow the pores to become clogged by the constant application of creams.

The extremely dry skin can stand only infrequent washings with soap and water—perhaps three a week. The possessor of such a skin condition must use a very rich cleansing cream (similar to old-fashioned cold cream texture), a mild refreshing tonic after a skin cleansing, and always a protective foundation beneath her make-up. She will find it absolutely necessary to cream her face morning and night, followed by the tonic. Every other night she may wash her face well with a rich cold cream soap, warm water and a soft complexion brush or a turkish face cloth.

The Normally Dry Skin

The girl with what we call a normally dry skin may wash her face with a rich soap each day if she desires. She must, however, use either a lubricating cream during the night, or a protective cream during the day—or both types. She does not need a skin tonic unless she likes the sensation of it after a "reaming" of her skin.

Now the protective cream or foundation must be of a certain consistency to do any good. During the cooler weather, our foundation formula may have more oil in it for lubrication, than during the warmer months. Some women even favor face oils to face creams—those which come prepared and are blended scientifically. After a good washing, these oils are smoothed onto the skin sparingly and after a gentle massage the excess oil is wiped off with cleansing tissues. This leaves sufficient lubrication for the skin and holds your make-up on well.

I find cream rouge is better to use with such a foundation than compact rouge, and I like to apply powder generously with a down puff and brush most of it away with a powder brush! The thin film of powder which remains blends perfectly with the skin tone and people have to look very closely to see if you are powdered at all! It gives the illusion that your skin is vitally alive with glowing color.

Some of the foundation or protective creams which are on the market are too drying, or too vanishing, for dry skins. You put on a cream before your make-up to protect your skin. If the cream quickly disappears into the skin it is apt to clog the pores and not furnish the protection you need.

Best for Evening Make-Up

There is a lot to be said in favor of those foundation preparations which come in compact form and which require a dampening with skin tonic for application. They do hide minor blemishes and they do give your skin a velvety looking texture. They should, however, be held in reserve for night make-up because they tend to rob the face of a healthy tone—in daylight

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

The list of floral tributes and spiritual offerings takes up the greater part of a column in The Perth Courier, many of the tributes being from friends and acquaintances in Timmins and the North.

and James, of Detroit, and one sister, Mrs. M. McCann, of Perth. The funeral was held from Mr. Conlon's residence to St. John's Church on Thursday morning, where Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Dean M. J. Meagher, with Rev. Ahearn present in the sanctuary. At the close of the service, Mrs. M. J. O'Donohue rendered a vocal solo, "Lord Have Mercy and Compassion." The pallbearers were D. J. Hogan, John Brady, Fred Publou, Daniel O'Neil, Daniel McParlan and Walter Troy. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

Social Event for New Members of the United Church

Re