

Notable Work Being Done by Timmins Branch of the Red Cross Society

Officers Re-elected at Annual Meeting. Reports for Last Year Submitted. Nearly 150 Women Taking Home Nursing Courses. $1,000 Each Sent to Polish and Finnish Relief Funds.

The annual general meeting of the Canadian Red Cross Society, Timmins Branch, was held on Monday evening in the town hall, with the president, Mr. Austin Neame, presiding.

Reports were given by the treasurer, Mr. Munroe; by the home-nursing committee; the Cod-Liver Oil Committee; and the Women's War Work Committee.

In reading the report prepared by Mrs. Reeves, who is in charge of the Home-Nursing, Mrs. A. Neame said that between one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty women were taking the course, that fourteen trained nurses were in charge of the instruction, and that two doctors assisted in the lectures.

Mrs. Reeves is the graduate nurse in charge of the home-nursing classes, and has done exceptionally fine work in this line. Her assistants are all graduate nurses—Mrs. Gooding, Mrs. Slabotsky, Mrs. J. Morin, Mrs. Harold King, Mrs. C. T. Tenny, Mrs. J. Dalton, Jr., Mrs. J. Mascioli, Miss Robinson, Mrs. J. Parker, Mrs. W. B. Hurst, Mrs. R. Tuss, Mrs. James Reid, and Mrs. F. Graham, (nutrition). Various doctors have given lectures at the meetings, this work being in charge of Dr. MacKechnie, and Dr. Martin preparing the speakers for the lectures on dental work.

Mrs. Neame also read Miss Farr's report on the Cod-Liver Oil Committee stating that about fifty families had received cod liver oil.

The campaign committee reported that the funds did not equal the goal, but with the monthly donations, there would be ample funds to carry on the work of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Neame read the Women's War Work report, a complete summary of which is carried elsewhere in today's Advance.

Through the local Red Cross branch, the Polish Aid Society sent $1100 to Polish sufferers, and Mr. Neame read a letter of thanks from the National Polish Aid Society in Toronto. Mr. Neame also expressed thanks to the following firms for their co-operation in the Red Cross work: Herman's and Montgomery's, Timmins New Method Laundry, Singer Sewing Machine, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Bardeason for the use of their home.

Mrs. Albert Cain's resignation as vice-president was accepted, all other officers being re-elected to office. Mrs. Joe Sullivan and Mr. J. Douglas were elected as 1st vice-president and 2nd vice-president respectively.

Mr. John Knox was elected honorary president of the Timmins branch of the Canadian Red Cross, and Mr. E. L. Longmore, of the Hollinger Mines, was elected to serve on the executive committee.

The meeting decided that the amount of $1000 each would be sent to the Polish and Finnish Relief Funds.

In addition to the present work being carried on by the Red Cross here, it was decided that the branch would supply milk to mothers through the Town Clinic, and a committee will be formed to attend to the comfort of local men now overseas.

The following is the 1940 executive of the Timmins branch, Canadian Red Cross:

Honorary president, John Knox. President, Austin Neame. J.P. 1st Vice-president, Mrs. J. E. Sullivan. 2nd Vice-president—J. Douglas. Secretary, Mrs. Francis A. Woodbury. Treasurer, A. H. Munroe. Smith, Mrs. Philip Theriault, E. J. Transon, E. L. Longmore, R. J. Ennis.

Consumers' Co-operative Entertain One Hundred

About one hundred people enjoyed a "different" event in the Hollinger Recreation hall on Tuesday evening, when they were the guests of the Consumers' Co-operative Society at an evening of dancing and games. The games were simple yet interesting, and were the main reason for which the event is called different. These games added to the event, and gave much pleasure to everyone attending.

GROUP AT RECENT CHARMING WEDDING EVENT

Mrs. Sharp Honored on Occasion of Her 86th Birthday

Number of Friends Visit Honored Citizen on Birthday Event.

A few members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Timmins United Church visited the home of Mrs. Sharp, 108 Birch street south, on Monday to honour Mrs. Sharp on the occasion of her eighty-sixth birthday. Mrs. Sharp is a popular and respected citizen of the town, and has been active in church and other circles for many years. Her guests found Mrs. Sharp in fine health, bright and happy, and enjoyed a few delightful hours in her company.

Social Evening Held by Auxiliary of the Legion

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion entertained on Tuesday evening at the monthly social evening, only a fair number of members attending, but all enjoying the event. Mrs. Harvey was convener, and led the group in community singing early in the evening.

Included on the programme were a gymnastics display by two Central Public School students, Jean Plant and Aili Salminen, whose agility and progressiveness in this work were greatly admired, and received loud applause. The girls returned later to present an encore performance.

After the young ladies had left, Mr. Hardy and Mr. Howarth managed to get into humorous entanglements in trying to present the acrobatic numbers which the young misses had given, and their antics brought much laughter and added a great deal to the evening's programme.

Musical selections were given by Muriel Harris at the piano, and Mr. Dimock at the guitar, and Mr. R. Hardy, M.C., led the gathering in another group of songs.

Square dances, fox-trots, Paul Jones, and waltzes were enjoyed by the members and their friends, and a dainty lunch was served by the kitchen committee in charge of Mrs. Jennings.

The regular monthly general meeting will take place on Monday, February 5th, and on Tuesday, February 13th, another evening of whist will be held.

dional and religious facilities, and the operation of careens (dry), and generally to render assistance of an auxiliary nature to His Majesty's armed forces."

Mr. Magladery pointed out that the years of experience behind the Legion enables the Legion War Services Incorporated to be of great help to new enlistments. Long-established facilities including war padres, are at the disposal of the recruits, and advice and guidance are available for personal problems. The Legion War Services is giving its help and knowledge in such matters as personal debts, separation allowances, care of families and dependents while on service and all the many problems that arise during war. Recruits may feel that their families will be looked after by War Services, and their own interests will also be guarded by men who know and understand. The providing of entertainment, concert parties, etc., for the troops overseas, and the provision of sports and recreation are other branches of the Legion War Services work. Capt. Magladery touched in very able and effective way on each branch of the War Services work, its necessity and value to the soldier on service and to aid in his successful return to civil life at the end of the war.

Dr. McClinton stressed the educational branch of the Canadian Legion War Services Incorporated. In collaboration with the Canadian Association for Adult Education, the War Services plan was to make it possible for members of the Forces to continue in large measure their educational studies even though on active service. Committees, comprised of outstanding educationalists, are being formed in each military district, and facilities are being made available for the continuation of education and for general studies for betterment and advancement when civil life is resumed. Overseas, the close co-operation of British and French educationalists is assured.

Mayor Emile Brunette briefly but effectively made it plain that the council was in favour of the Canadian Legion War Services Incorporated, and behind the campaign 100 per cent.

Mr. Austin Neame is urging support of the War Services pointed out that it did not conflict with other war efforts but supplied a serious need for the enlisted men here and overseas. "I have heard several people say, 'What is the reason for all these campaigns?' Mr. Neame stated, "We in Canada are very fortunate when we think of the strain and stress of the peoples in Europe, with the heavy war taxation, the rationing of food, the personal danger. We should feel proud to contribute to all these funds and thus assist in winning the war."

Mr. Al Wetmore outlined the measures taken to form the campaign committee for Timmins.

The following were adopted as the members of the local campaign committee:—
Patrons—Mr. John Knox, Mr. R. J. Ennis, Mr. J. Reddington, Mr. J. D. Barrington.

North Seeking Two More Ridings for Dominion House

Jos. A. Bradette, M.P., and Other Northern Members Urge Fair Representation for North.

North Bay, Jan. 31.—When the problem of redistribution is dealt with following the next Dominion census in 1941, Northern Ontario will likely press for an additional two representatives in the House of Commons.

The possible splitting of Nipissing, Canada's largest electoral district, was raised yesterday when speaking at Sudbury, Dr. J. R. Hurlbut, M.P., for Nipissing, spoke of the redistribution problem.

Discussed by M.P.'s
Adequate representation geared to the rapidly expanding population requirements of the Northland was discussed when Northern Ontario members met in North Bay prior to the session which ended last week in the abrupt dissolution of Parliament.

At that time, J. A. Bradette, M.P., for Cochrane, forecast not only division of Nipissing, but the merging for division into three ridings the electoral districts of Temiskaming and Cochrane.

The 1931 census gave the population of Mr. Bradette's riding as 58,284, roughly 15,000 more than the population now of Timmins and its adjacent municipalities of South Porcupine and Schumacher.

Mr. Bradette estimated that the population of his riding in the past 10 years, due to the amazing growth of the Porcupine mining towns, has nearly doubled, giving the Cochrane electoral district a count of well over 100,000.

In Temiskaming
Speaking of Walter Little's riding of Temiskaming, Mr. Bradette said the same population increase, perhaps on a smaller scale, applied as in the Cochrane district.

The 1931 census set the population of the Temiskaming riding at 37,594, of which, at that time, Teck township which includes busy, booming Kirkland Lake, formed a much smaller part than it does today.

Accurate figures on the population of Teck township are difficult to determine, but estimates pretty well average around 25,000, a little less than 12,000 under the census total for all of Temiskaming.

Mr. Bradette estimated the population of Timmins and its immediately surrounding municipalities in excess of 30,000.

Basis of Forecast
It was on the huge increases in population of Teck township and the Timmins area which Mr. Bradette forecast merging for division into three of either Cochrane or Temiskaming to provide another Commons member for the North Land.

At that time, Mr. Bradette admitted that Nipissing was in the sorest need of readjustment of electoral district boundaries and declared that doubtless the rapid growth of the City of Sudbury would warrant the division of the riding for the provision of a second new member for the North Land.

Mrs. C. Pierce Entertained On Occasion of Visit Here

Mrs. Charles Pierce, formerly resident in Timmins, but for the past few years of Toronto, is a visitor to Timmins this week, and was entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Tomkinson, of Elm street, south.

Many friends from the district gathered to welcome Mrs. Pierce to Timmins again, and to enjoy a happy social afternoon in a friendly group. During the afternoon, bridge was played, and the winners were: 1st, Mrs. Burnell, 2nd, Mrs. Wm. Hatch, and 3rd, Mrs. O'Sullivan.

Mrs. Pierce was presented with a lovely gift as a memento of the occasion and the hostess served a delicious lunch.

One of the loveliest of this season's weddings was the event at the Church of the Nativity on Sunday afternoon when Miss Mary Krupka and Mr. Michael Hladysch were united in marriage. A particular touch of charm is given to the group picture above by the fascinating little train-bearers, Clifford Krupka and D'Arcy Krupka, nephews of the bride standing at the front. Bride and groom are shown in the centre of the picture, while at their sides the attendants stand.

Beverage Room is Scene of Epic Fight Between Two Women

Combatants Well Marked After Fight in Which the Marquis of Queensbury Rules Ignored.

An epic fight in a beverage room last night was the signal for waiters to call police. When the officers arrived they found the two combatants battling furiously and there was no consideration for the Marquis of Queensbury rules. Everything went and interested spectators were treated to a living illustration of the fact that the female of the species is more deadly than the male.

Spectators and police said that when the women finished with each other they looked as though they had been run through a ball mill. One of the combatants was sporting a pair of "shiners" and the other was well marked.

Fights in beverage rooms between men are not frequent here, but it is still more seldom that police are called to mediate between women who engage in fistcuffs and such little pleasantries as trying to pull each other's scaps off. Believing that each of the female gladiators had punished the other sufficiently, police did not lay charges.
