atre on Sunday evening by the Canadian Legion, Branch 88, was quite well attended, and was appreciated by all who were present to enjoy the delightfully arranged programme.

The Gold Belt Band directed by Mr. Walsh, was a special feature of the evening's entertainment, and included on the programme were numbers by Charlie Roberts, Evan Williams, duet by Joe Jago and Percy Harris, and intricate dance numbers by pupils of Henry Bergeron's dancing classes.

Mr. Walter Greaves, president of the local branch of the legion, was chairman, and Messrs. Geo. Hale and Harry Hopkins acted as accompanists during the evening. Councillor Bill Roberts was the featured speaker, giving an cutline of the Canadian Legion War Services Incorporated, its aims, and its ideals, and explaining the service in a very interesting manner.

A collection was taken during the programme, the proceeds to be used in the War Services Incorporated.

New Hollinger Orchestra to be Featured at Event.

An event of very special interest is scheduled for to-morrow (Tuesday) evening in the Timmins United Church. This is the recital by the Porcupine Music Teachers' Association. The programme is sure to be an unusual one there being so much outstanding talent among the music teachers of the district. Recitals by the pupils in the past have delighted music lovers. It is confidently expected that the recital by the teachers will be a notable occasion indeed. A special feature of the evening will be the fact that the new Hollinger orchestra will make its first public appearance on this occasion, This orchestra, under the direction and leadership of Mr. Michael Rose, will be found to be especially attractive and

The event will commence at 8.15 p.m.

Asks for Support for Government in War Activities

ond Address Here.

Saturday evening, Mr. Jos. A. Bradette, M.P., made his second address for the day over the local radio. He reviewed the situation preceding and following the declaration of war, noting that Premier King had made known that he would resign if parliament failed to agree to Canada's participation in the war. He outlined the measures taken by the Government to speed war effort, enumerating the many commit tees and commissions set up to facilitate war work and prepare for the days after the war was won. "The Government and the Liberal party are determined struggle for existence against Nazi aggression," said Mr. Bradette. "Already we are spending a million dollars day in that effort. We are championing and adopting the great Imperial Airtraining scheme. We have sent without delay a fully-equipped divisional field force to the Western front. There is another division that will be sent in the spring, and a third one is in formation We have convoyed shiploads of men and munitions to the war front. We are busily creating air fields, manufacturing war materials and strengthening our

LORD TWEEDSMUIR DIES

For the past five days the attention of Canadians has been centred on Montreal where Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, was taken following a fall from which he sustained a severe concussion. At 7.13 p.m. yesterday Lord Tweedsmuir died. Death followed the blocking of an artery in his brain. Three cranial operations were unable to release the pressure and check the bleeding. A state funeral service will be held in Ottawa on Wednesday and the burial will be held in Great Britain.

Reds Gain No Ground

Held on Three Fronts Over Week-End. Snow Falling and the Weather Turning

The Russian offensive on the Mannerheim Line contiued over the weekend with merciless ferocity. No great gains were reported to have been made by the Soviet troops according to Finnish sources of information.

Intensive action was seen on two other fronts. No gain was made by Red troops on the front northeast of Lake Ladoga nor at Aittojoki, the stronghold west of Soujarvi. On both of these fronts the loss of Red troops is said to be great.

Snow and cold weather have again come to the aid of the Finns and are expected to hold operations in the north at a standstill for the remainder of the winter season.
