

Ski Pictures at the Goldfields Theatre Thursday and Friday

Porcupine Ski Club to Hold Theatre Party on Occasion.

This week ski-ing pictures are to be at the Goldfields theatre in very special way. The feature picture is "Trapped in the Alps", and there are also three other ski "shorts" on the same bill. Thursday and Friday this week, Feb. 23nd and 23rd is certainly ski days at the Goldfields. In the feature picture "Trapped in the Alps" much of the interest and action centre round ski scenes. There is a Pete Smith specialty "Ski Birds," "Ski Technique" and "Ski Girls". The Porcupine Ski Club intend holding a theatre party to view these pictures Thursday evening.

The feature picture, "Trapped in the Alps", shows the master touch of H. Eckel, the famous producer of "The Hall of the Palaces", and "The Blue Light". The film is an exciting detective story, most of the action of which is set in the Austrian Alps. The climax is a ski chase in which the hero and the heroine are pursued over the snows by a gang of criminals, is undoubtedly one of the most thrilling and magnificently made sequences that has ever been shown in a film. In fact an ingenious plot, polished acting and many scenes of great scenic beauty combine to make "Trapped in the Alps" a most satisfying piece of entertainment. The story is concerned with a gang of forgers whose headquarters are a hotel high up in the Austrian Alps. As a result of their operations England is being flooded with forged banknotes and Detective Inspector Forsyth of Scotland Yard is appointed to enquire in to the matter. How he eventually brings the criminals to justice in spite of the fact that he suspects the girl he loves of being involved with them, forms the basis of a really excellent film.

Anthony Bushell plays the detective with Jane Baxter as the girl and Ronald Squire, polished and delightful as ever is the chief suspect. Athole Stewart and Margaret Rutherford, exceptionally good as a woman crook, are other members of the cast.

Give Tacit Consent To Raise Citizens Band Grant to $500

Will Also Pay Half of Debt Accumulated Last Year. Hear Deputation.

Tacit consent to grant the Timmins Citizens' Band the sum of $500 this year and to pay half of the band's accumulated debt of $270 was given by the Council on Friday when it met for an informal session in the committee rooms.

A deputation from the Band's financial committee composed of Jim Douglas and W. O. Langdon, appeared before the Council on behalf of the band.

Giving a short history of the band, Mr. Douglas said that it was started here in 1919 when the Town gave $315.00 with which second hand instruments were purchased. Since that time said Mr. Douglas, all those instruments have been replaced out of band funds. In 1919 an agreement was made whereby the Hollinger would give dollar for dollar with the Town. If the Town gave $1,000 the Hollinger would do likewise.

Between 1923 and 1933 the band's funds were not perhaps handled as carefully as they should have been and a committee of men was formed to take care of the financial end of the band's affairs.

Members of the committee were, Councillor Spooner, representative from the Council, Mr. Chatauvart, from the Town, Mr. Douglas, from the Hollinger, Mr. Greaves, from the Legion, Mr. Langdon, from the Kiwanis Club, Dr. Kelly, from the Lions Club, J. R. Walker, from the Board of Trade and Mrs. Parsons, from the band.

In 1933 the band volunteered to accept a reduction in grant from $1,000 to $600. In the last two or three years there was no grant however. Last year a small portion of the usual grant was given, $225.

Liabilities at the end of the year were $270, said Mr. W. O. Langdon. The bandmaster's wages were in arrears and the caretaker at the school where the band practiced had not been paid.

Describing the band as "the town's baby," Mr. Langdon said that it suffered last year from approaches made to the Council by organizations which did not belong to the town. "The Scotties are all right, but other than them I don't know of any other organization which should get a grant. This Gold Belt Band, for example. What is it or who is in charge of it?" asked Miss Terry.

A consensus of opinion showed that members of Council were agreeable to the suggestion that the band be given $635. That amount will be included in the estimates.

Councillor Spooner was reappointed the Council's representative on the band committee.

In view of the fact that there was so much business to be dealt with on the agenda and because the Mayor and two of the members of Council had to leave, it was decided to hold another special meeting before the next regular meeting. The special session will be held on the evening of Thursday next.

Lost Opportunity to Sell His Photograph for $250

By not being present at the Palace Theatre weekly Foto-Nite, Mr. James D. Kelly of 53 Bea Street, North, lost the opportunity to sell his photograph to the management of the theatre for the amount of $250. The "Foto-Nite" was on Thursday evening, and the sum of $100, was offered to Mr. F. Boudreau, of 102 Avenue Road, who also was not present in the theatre.

The Palace Theatre makes an offer at each weekly Foto-Nite to some one of the many persons who have registered for Foto-Nite. The offer next Thursday will be the sums of $250, and $125.

Noted Play 'Raffles' at the Cartier Four Days This Week

Melodrama from Famous Story of Amateur Cracksman.

Some time ago the Cartier Theatre announced that the noted picture, "Raffles", was coming to that place of entertainment, and this week the picture is at the Cartier. "Raffles" was the feature at the midnight show at the Cartier last night, and will remain at the Cartier to-night and Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday this week Feb. 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22nd.

"Raffles" is a picture of outstanding interest built on the famous story of the same name by E. W. Hornering. It depicts in dramatic manner the amazing and amusing adventures of the dare-devil gentleman and crook who divides his time between jewel robberies, cricket, romance and deeds of helpfulness and chivalry. In the picture David Niven is starred as "Raffles", while Olivia De Havilland co-stars. The rest of the cast are equally effective, making the picture one to be long remembered.

"This picture 'Raffles', gives striking evidence of the progress made by the film industry, many parts of the play tempting the words, "Well, what next won't they be able to do?" One of the "props" in this drama for instance, is a television set used by Raffles in the course of his business."

"Raffles" has just about everything in high adventure, mystery, the Robin Hood style of crime, romance, drama, art, skill, interest. The picture has proven unusually popular. It is a Samuel Goldwyn production, which is equivalent to say that it is outstanding.

To be Physician in Charge Class 18 Hospitalization

Official word was received this morning from the Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion that Dr. J. E. Barry, of Timmins, has been appointed physician in charge of Class 18 hospitalization. As noted recently in the Advance St. Mary's hospital was made a contract hospital for treatment of returned men under a new plan. North Bay and Sault Ste. Marie are two other similar hospital centres for the North. Previously veterans needing hospital treatment had to go to Christie street, Toronto.

Britain Loses Sixth Destroyer Torpedoed Sunday

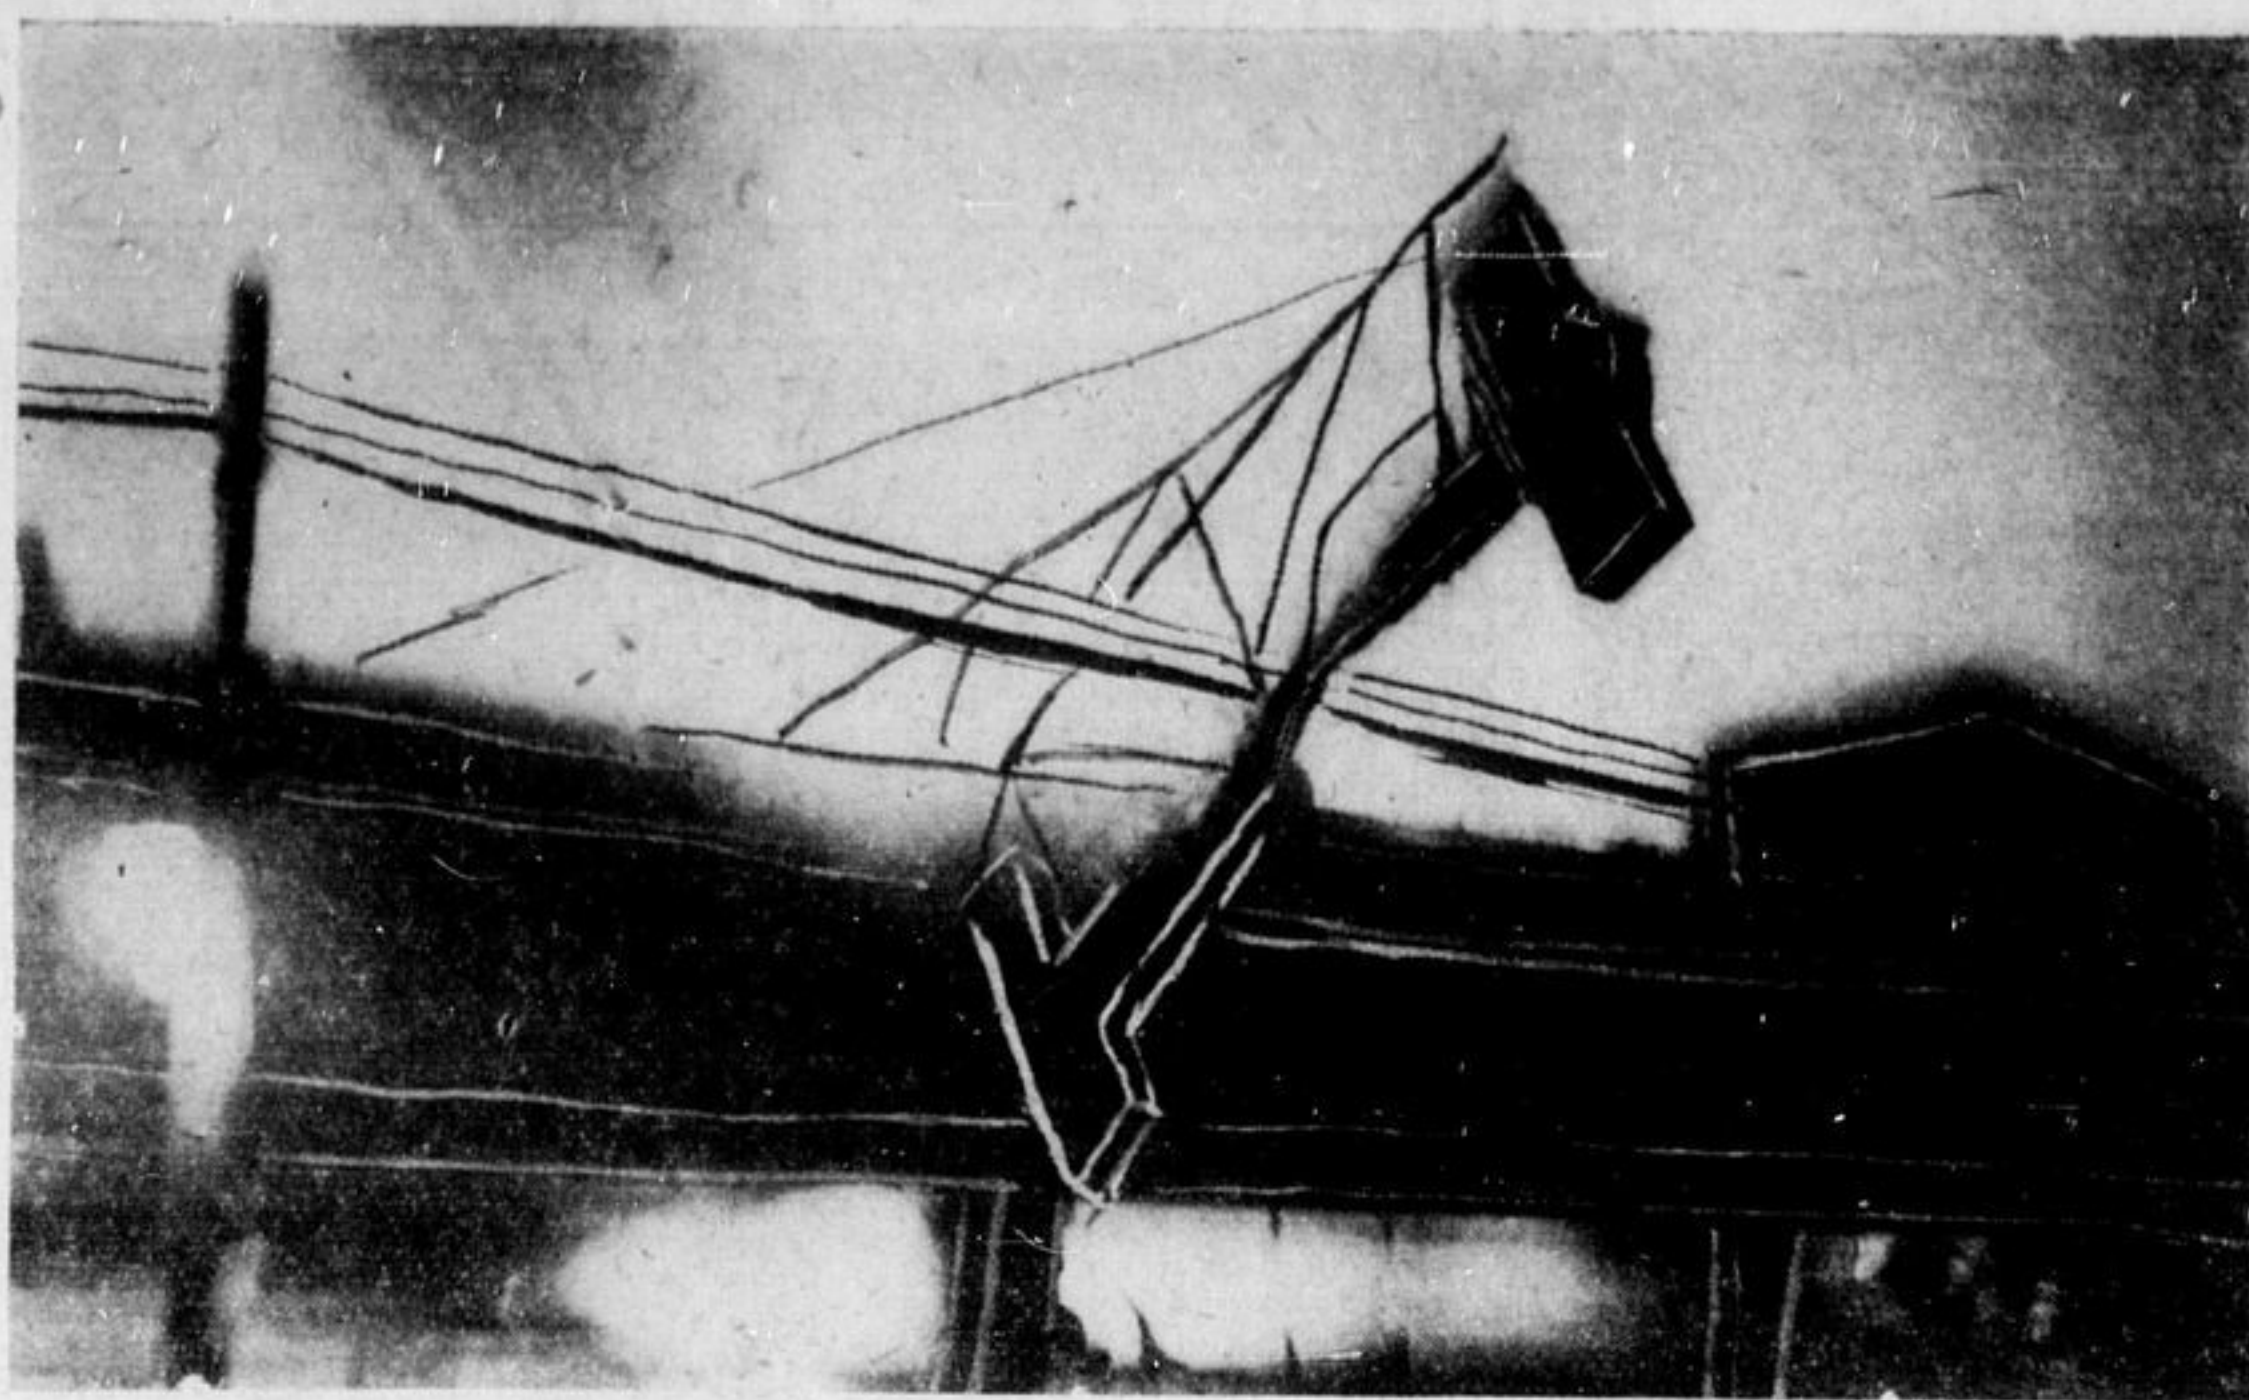

Britain lost her sixth destroyer yesterday when the "Daring" was torpedoed. Where the ship went down was not disclosed by the British Admiralty.

One officer and four men were picked up and nine officers and 148 men believe to be dead. The "Daring" was a member of the seven year old class of Destroyer ships.

Other ships which have been sunk are the Blanche, Gypsy, Duchess, Exmouth, Grenville.

Searching For Cause of Allergic Symptoms

Allergy—sensitivity to various substances—has become a common word in our language but frankly, when we think of allergy, most of us have in mind hay fever due to pollen of ragweed, or perhaps hives—urticaria—due to eating strawberries or lobster.

But what about other cases of allergy with obscure headaches, with peculiar abdominal symptoms evidently of considerable severity but unexplained by usual examination? What about peculiar skin rashes, dark spots, inflamed spots, and the eczemas for which there is no apparent explanation?

I am quoting from the Boston number of the Medical Clinics of North America, Clinic of Dr. Francis K. Rackemann, Massachusetts General Hospital.

While there is, perhaps, no direct method by which the question of whether allergy is or is not causing the symptoms a good deal can be done by getting a complete history of the case. Among the points to be considered are:

First, the symptoms must be explained by a pathology, or damage, due to muscular contraction, stimulation of glands, or by the tiny blood vessels allowing too much liquid to pass through their walls and form the hives or the swelling of eyes, lips, or other parts which is on outstanding symptom of allergy.

Second, the evidence of allergy is not usually just one symptom because patient has usually more than one. "An abdominal pain becomes easier to understand when a few hives appear."

Third, members of the family, either the parents or the children may have allergy; and then finally with allergy goes the finding of positive skin tests and the finding of an increase in the number of certain cells in the blood.

History of the case may show that the abdominal symptoms and hives occur after eating strawberries or lobster, that the head cold is due to the fur of the family cat. But the true allergy, the symptoms must disappear when patient is not exposed to the allergic substance.

The use of a diary in which is written each day the places visited, food eaten, and other circumstances, may give the clue as to the causes of the allergic symptoms.

Allergy
The old saying "What is one man's food is another man's poison" is especially true of allergy or sensitiveness to various foods or other substances. Symptoms such as head colds, stuffy noses, abdominal upsets, hives, rashes, and others may be the result of being allergic to some substance. During the fire last week at the Bardessona block, one of the incidents was the crashing down of the big neon sign on the Friedman store. The street wires, however, caught and held the sign from falling to the street. The photo was taken when the fire was about at its worst, the photographer being Geo. Archambault of the finger print department of the local police force.

Funeral Yesterday at Orono of the Late Mrs. W. S. Jamieson

Popular Resident Here for Fifteen Years Dies at a Montreal Hospital.

Wide circles of friends in town and district received a genuine shock in the news coming from Montreal that Mrs. W. S. Jamieson had passed away in the hospital there on Friday morning. While Mrs. Jamieson had not been in the best of health recently her death was most unexpected to her many friends. Recent ill health was followed by Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson going to Montreal several days ago to secure specialist treatment for Mrs. Jamieson. At Montreal an operation was advised, and though Mrs. Jamieson rallied after the operation, death followed in few hours.

The late Mrs. Jamieson, whose husband is the manager of the Timmins branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been a pioneer resident of Timmins for more than fifteen years. She was daughter of the late Charles Armstrong, for many years a prominent business man of Orono Ont. The funeral took place yesterday at the old family home town of Orono.

The late Mrs. Jamieson is survived by her husband and two daughters, Elizabeth and Nancy, to whom the deep sympathy of all will be extended in their sad loss. Mr. Jamieson and children are in Orono this week where they attended the funeral yesterday.

Hollinger and Macmen to Contest Play-off Berth

The Hollinger Greenhirts and the McIntyre Mine meet tonight in a sudden death final game for the fourth place play-off berth in the Porcupine Mines League. The game will be played at the McIntyre Arena and is one of the most important of the season's games inasmuch as it means elimination for one or other of the teams.

The game will be played as a result of the recent ruling of N. O. H. A. heads who decide that they would repeal the unfair ruling that in the event of a deadlock, the team with the most goals scored would take the superior position. The new rule makes tonight's sudden death game the deciding match.

Shaheen Stores to Re-Open in New Quarters Soon

Announcement is made that the Shaheen Department Store and Shaheen & David Ltd., Mens wear store will reopen in new quarters at a very early date. These were two of the stores whose premises were destroyed last week in the fire at the Bardessona block. Plans are now well under way for the re-opening of these stores in new quarters. Further announcement will be made at a very early date.

TWO-DOG-POWER VEHICLE NEEDS NO GASOLINE OR OIL

Saturday night's shopping for Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacMillan of Toronto, and their three-year-old daughter, Mary Gai, is a case of going to the dogs. Here's Mary Gai with Major and Queenie, known in dogdom's best circles as Wallstark English Rover Canadian champion St. Bernard, and Muskoka Queen, runner-up for the title. Hitched to a miniature cutter, the dogs pull four persons up to 10 miles without bating an eye. "They cause quite a sensation when we drive them over to Yonge St. to do the family shopping," Mr. MacMillan reported.
