Successful Tea by Ladies of S. Porcupine Legion

South Porcupine, March 17 .- (Special to The Advance) - The ladies of the Legion held a most successful St. Patrick's Day tea and sale of baking in the Masonic hall on Saturday afternoon. They had been very busy making the hall attractive with St. Patrick's emblems, and the tea tables were set out daintly and decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Ewing and Mrs. Wm. Thomas were in charge of the apron table, and most of the very attractive articles were sold before the afternoon was over. Mrs. B. Curtis, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary; received the guests during the affair; and wishes to thank all who patronized the tea, in addition to those ladies who helped so whole-heartedly with her to make the tea such a success.
