Ladies of United Church
Guests at Stork Shower

The ladies of the United Church choir were guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. Mackie, 32 Wilson avenue, on Tuesday evening, at a delightfully arranged stork shower in honour of Mrs. L. Worthington.

During the evening, the guests enjoyed card games such as "Hearts" and "Pig," the former being won by Mrs. Geo. Drew and the latter by Mrs. J. Griffin. Both ladies received lovely prizes.

The gifts were presented to the guest of honour in a white basket, daintily decorated with roses, and were a charming array of tastefully chosen articles. The guest of honour suitably thanked her friends for the event and for the gifts.

The hostess served a delicious lunch. Among those present were: Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Geo. Drew, Mrs. K. Cambridge, Mrs. W. Roberts, Mrs. P. H. Carson, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. J. Griffin, Mrs. T. Gay, Mrs. Surman, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. W. Jardine, Miss Edith Richardson, the hostess, Mrs. Mackie, and the guest of honour, Mrs. Worthington.

Others who were unable to attend but who sent gifts were Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Robinson, Miss White, Mrs. Coombs, and Miss M. Richardson.

Fred H. Thompson Northern Pioneer Dies at Swastika

Prominent in Public Life in North for Many Years.

Frederick Harold Thompson, prominent and esteemed in the North for thirty years, died at his home at Swastika on Monday evening at the age of eighty-one. Until some months ago he enjoyed good health and strength and was active as a man fifteen years younger. Since March of this year, however, illness confined him to his bed, and the end came Monday evening.

The late F. H. Thompson was born at Oakville, Ont. As a young man he had the pioneer spirit and spent several years in the Northwest as a member of the Dominion Land Survey Department. He first came to the North in 1905, taking up residence in Halesbury. His interest in mining, however, preceded his move to the North by several years as he was one of the members of the original stock exchange in Toronto in the nineties. Following his closer touch with the North, he settled at Swastika and from the earliest years of the Kirkland Lake Camp he was an advocate and believer in the Kirkland and Swastika mining areas.

The late Mr. Thompson was prominent for many years in board of trade and other public and semi-public activities. Anything that he believed would help the progress of the North could depend on his hearty support.

His wife, the former Lucy Margaret Palin, died over 35 years ago, and is buried in Toronto where the family lived for several years.
Mr. Thompson is survived by six children, Mrs. Kathleen Grover, Ottawa, Mrs. Helen Newlands, Portland, Ore., R. P. Thompson, Toronto, Mrs. Margaret Olson, Swastika, and W. Roy Thompson, Swastika. Sisters who survive, all of whom live in Toronto, are Miss Annie Thompson, Mrs. C. A. Billings and Mrs. Newton May.

A prominent oarsman in his younger days, Mr. Thompson twice rowed with Canadian Argonauts at Henley regatta, in England. Of later years he had taken a great interest in curling, first being a member of the Halesbury Club, going down there to play before the Kirkland Lake rink was built. In the Kirkland club he was the dean of the players, and was actively engaged in the game this winter until illness came.

The funeral took place yesterday at 4:30 p.m. from Swastika United Church, the body being taken on the south-bound train to Toronto for burial in the family plot there. Rev. H. A. Sims of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Kirkland Lake, conducted the service at Swastika.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Badour and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eastman and children, were visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Badour in Cobalt.

Among the social and personal items in Tuesday's issue of The Northern News, of Kirkland Lake, there is the following paragraph of local interest: "Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin and children Francis and Stanley left yesterday for their home in Middleton, Nova Scotia, after a two weeks' holiday during which they visited Timmins and Kirkland Lake. While in town they were guests of Mrs. Martin's mother and sister Mrs. S. MacMillan and Mrs. M. Cameron."

Reports Circulated About Dr. Maresch Absolutely Untrue

Started by Subversive Agents in District.

After the inspiring addresses here by Dr. Maresch, Austrian refugee, now in the teaching staff of Pickering College, reports began to circulate to the effect that he was a German spy, that he had been arrested, and so on. Naturally these false reports annoyed the South Porcupine Kiwanis Club under whose auspices he was brought here, and when the suspicion grew that the reports had been started by subversive agencies in the camp, it was decided to make official denial. Effort is being made to prove the origin of the slanders and it is taken to punish those responsible. In the meantime, the public may rest assured that there is no shadow of truth in the reports. The following letter from Mr. Joseph McCulley, headmaster of Pickering College, Newmarket, Ont., makes this very plain:—

Newmarket, Ont., May 27, 1940
To the Kiwanis Club, South Porcupine, Ont.

Gentlemen:—This will acknowledge your enquiry of May 25th with regard to Dr. Maresch.

I am terribly disturbed by the rumours you say are being circulated about him. There is, of course, not the slightest basis for such rumours. Dr. Maresch is still with us here at the school, and is carrying out the balance of his programme of lecturing engagements.

As you are probably aware, he entered Canada by special arrangements made through the Department of Immigration, all his antecedents having been thoroughly investigated. During the time he has been with us he has been a very valued member of our school, and, as you are aware, has spoken in the strongest possible terms on the public platforms of this Province against the Nazi regime in Germany. I am not surprised that those who are opposed to Dr. Maresch's ideals and attitudes will do everything they can to discredit him. You are hereby assured, however, that he is still associated with us, that he has been in regular touch with the authorities, and that to date there has been no question raised about any of his activities or any suggestion of any curtailment of his freedom to move about the Province making his contribution from public platforms toward the cause in which the whole Canadian people is so vitally interested.

You are at liberty to use this letter in any way that you see fit, if it will help to counteract the effect of the unfounded and malicious rumours that have been spread.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) Jos. McCulley

Canada Gold Stocks Pre-eminent Among All Investments

(By the Mining Editor of The Globe and Mail)
Now and then a voice comes out of the past, or an old record is found, that tells us, even though our present situation leaves much to be desired, there have been worse times, so far as markets are concerned, and that, then as now, gold securities of Canada stood out among all investments on this continent.

Nine years ago this writer kept a few United States friends advised of mining events in Canada through a private news service. In the mail a few days ago a copy of the issue of May 22, 1931, sent to us by an old friend whom we have known since the days of the open Curb Market on Broad Street, New York, and through the years that have followed.
In that issue of the service, under the caption "Sacred Investments vs. Gold Stocks," we said: "Gold stocks are in a class by themselves. While the whole world of finance seems to be tottering, when practically all classes of sacred idols of investment have disclosed feet of clay, golds are the only securities that have generally appreciated in value during the most drastic decline in history; and, what is more, every readable sign points to continued activity and increased values."

Emphasizing the point, a table was presented showing the appreciation of eight leading gold stocks quoted upon the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange since the first big crash ushered in the deepest depression of all modern times in October, 1929, side by side with the depreciations scored by eight other classes of stock picked at random from the list of Toronto Stock Exchange (before consolidation of the Toronto and Standard exchanges), and eight, also picked at random, from the ultra-sacred list of N. Y. Stock Exchange. The prices then submitted are so eloquently confirmatory of that statement that we reproduce the list in its entirety below:

Standard Stock & Mining Exchange	Oct.	May	Inc
Lake Shore	$21.50	$27.90	30
Teck-Hughes	5.75	7.20	25
Wright-Hargreaves	1.45	2.85	97
"Dome"	8.60	10.75	25
McIntyre	1.85	22.50	51
Hollinger	5.50	7.15	30
Kirkland L. G.	.64	.72	13

Toronto Stock Exchange	Oct.	May	Dec.
Abitibi	$90.00	$ 3.50	96
Brazilian	66.00	16.00	75
Can. Cement	23.50	10.00	67
C.P.R.	53.00	26.50	50
Dom. Stores	30.00	18.75	37
Ford A	38.50	18.00	53
Massey-Harris	49.00	4.75	93
Walkers	13.25	5.00	62

New York Stock Exchange	Oct.	May	Dec.
American Can	$161.25	$95.75	40
U.S. Steel	212.25	97.75	54
Beth. Steel	107.25	42.50	60
New York Cen.	218.00	82.75	62
Chrysler	54.25	16.50	70
Packard	23.00	7.00	70
Westinghouse	215.00	60.00	72
General Motors	60.25	38.00	36

Now, compare the picture of just nine years ago with that of May 22,

1940. Here it is, with the dividends paid by each of the eight gold-mining companies since Jan. 1, 1931:

	May 22 '40 Dividends
Lake Shore	$20.00 $35.95
Teck-Hughes	3.15 5.08
Wright-Hargreaves	5.75 5.10
"Dome"	18.25 32.35
Hollinger	10.50 9.35
Sylvanite	2.15 1.68 1/2
Kirkland Lake	.80 .51

—Dome paid $21.35 per share on capital of 1,000,000 shares and $5.50 on capital of 2,000,000 shares since increase in 1938.
Thus it will be seen that if any of these stocks had been bought at the lowest point on Oct. 22, 1929, when the market world crashed no mistake would have been made. Lake Shore would represent income of $35.95 per share, against a small capital loss of $1.50 if shares were sold now; Teck-Hughes, income of $5.75 against capital loss of $2.60; Dome, income of $32.35 and capital appreciation of $27.90 on the old shares; McIntyre, income of $19.00, plus capital gain of $26.65; Hollinger, income of $9.35, and capital gain of $5.00; Sylvanite, income of $1.68 1/2 and capital gain of $1.55; and Kirkland Lake Gold, income of 51 cents per share and capital gain of 16 cents per share.

We are not afraid to match this record with any other class of securities available in the Americas. These are war times—the greatest war of all times—and yet Canada's gold stocks have stood up to the test in a degree far above that shown by any other class. We believe history will be repeated in the years to come—that the opportunities of the present match those of just nine years ago.
