The Pioneer Paper of the Porcupine. Established 1912

Vol. XXV. No. 48

Published at Timmins, Ont., Canada, Every MONDAY and THURSDAY

TIMMINS, ONTARIO, MONDAY, JUNE 17TH, 1940

Published at Tmmins, Ont., Canada Every MONDAY and THURSDAY

Single Copy—Five Cents

Believe France to Continue Fight from Colonies

Three Thousand Citizens In Big Parade at South Porcupine Yesterday

People of South Porcupine and District Demonstrate Their Devotion to King and Country. Impressive Service. Resolution Passed Urging Greater War Effort on Canada's Part and Sterner Methods to Suppress the Subversive.

South Porcupine, June 17-(Special to The Advance)-Such a rally as has never before been seen in South Porwas that of Sunday, when all Continue Porcupine, including some organizations from Schumacher and Timmins in number around three thousand marched to the ball park for public

It was heartening and made one feel proud of our town to see so many loyal people showing their devotion to Canada and the Empire in such a fash-

The day was perfect, and the order and organization of the parade admir-Meeting on the Public School grounds the order of parade to the ball park was as follows:-Timmins Pipe Band.

Col. Scebell; President T. Wilson (Legion); G. Countryman Past Presi-Brownies and leaders of South Por-

Guides and officer of South Porcupine with colours flying. Rangers and officers of South Por-

Dome Brownies, Girl Guides and

(Continued on Page Six)

Pistol Owners Asked to Have Guns Registered

Owners of pistols and small arms vices will be at the Notre Dame des who have not had their weapons re- Lourdes Roman Catholic Church, with gistered since 1935 are asked to bring interment in the Roman Catholic them to the police station for re- Cemetery. registration

Police said today that approximately 150 pistol owners had not had their guns registered since that time. They said that if the owners did not soon bring them in they would be forced to take action.

It was emphasized that only small arms need to be registered.

Rose Grows on Apple Tree in New Liskeard Orchard

The Temiskaming Speaker of New Liskeard, last week had the following nue, and two sisters, Antoinette and article of special interest:-"Temiskaming quite often produces the unusual.

"From time to time nature goes a little 'haywire' and produces something just a little out of the ordinary. This time Temiskaming has produced an apple blossom the size of a large rose. "Blooming all by its lonesome, after all other blossoms have fallen to the the week-end, both of them yesterday. ground, on a yellow-transparent apple At 3.28 p.m. firemen were called to 68 tree at Mrs. Snetsinger's on the Lake Second Avenue, rear, for a chimney fire. Shore Road is a huge white flower, the Lter during the day, at 6.28 p.m., a call shape of a perfect rose. Petals are as was received from 113 Hemlock Street, large as a half dollar, and the entire where there was a smudge, believed to flower is about four times the size of have been started in a refuse can by an average apple blossom."

Weather to Unsettled

One-Tenth of an Inch of Rain Fell Since Thursday Last.

Weather will continue to be changeable during the next twenty-four hours predicted Sydney Wheeler, Hollinger weather expert, this morning.

Mr Wheeler said that rain since Thursday last measured .10 inches in depth. Maximum and minimum temperatures during the same period were as follows: Thursday, 56 and 38; Friday, 68 and 44; Saturday, 56 and 40; Sunday, 72 and 54. At eight o'clock this morning it was 60 degrees.

Funeral To-morrow Mrs. H. Chenier Who Died Saturday

Had Been Resident in Timmins for Three Years.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 9.30 o'clock for the late Mrs. Hector Chenier who passed away at St. Mary's Hospital on Saturday, June 15th. The ser-

The late Mrs. Chenier had been ill for only one week, and her death came as a shock to many friends in town and district. She was born at St. Sixte, Quebec, and was forty years of age. Before her marriage to Mr. Chenier at Thurso, Que., she was Diana Boivin, and the family came to Timmins three years ago from Edmonton, Alberta. The family residence is at 43 Crescent Ave-

Left to mourn her loss are her husband, one daughter, Cecile (eighteen years of age), at home; two sons, George and Ronald at home; one brother, Carmel Boivin, 14 Crescent Ave-Marcia, of Toronto.

The remains are resting at Chenier's Undertaking Parlour.

Two Minor Fire Calls Received; Both Sunday

There were two minor fire calls over youngsters.

Democratic Cause Still Alive, Finn M.P. States

Believes Finland Will Prove to be Indigestible Morsel for Russia to Swallow. Is Making Speaking Tour for Finland League for Democracy. Believes Russia Will Aid Germany.

Although defeated by their larger, Finland, thought Mr. Kuuhisto, brutal neighbour, Soviet Russia, Fin- would eventually be a rather indigestland still is fighting for democracy. The | ible morsel for Russia to swallow. nation has not given up hope of turning the Russians out of the sections will eventually swing in this present of Finland which they have inhabited, European conflict?" Mr. Kuusisto was said Mr. August Kuusisto, who was a asked. member of parliament in Finland and who is now making a speaking tour of Canada and the United States for the Finland League for Democracy.

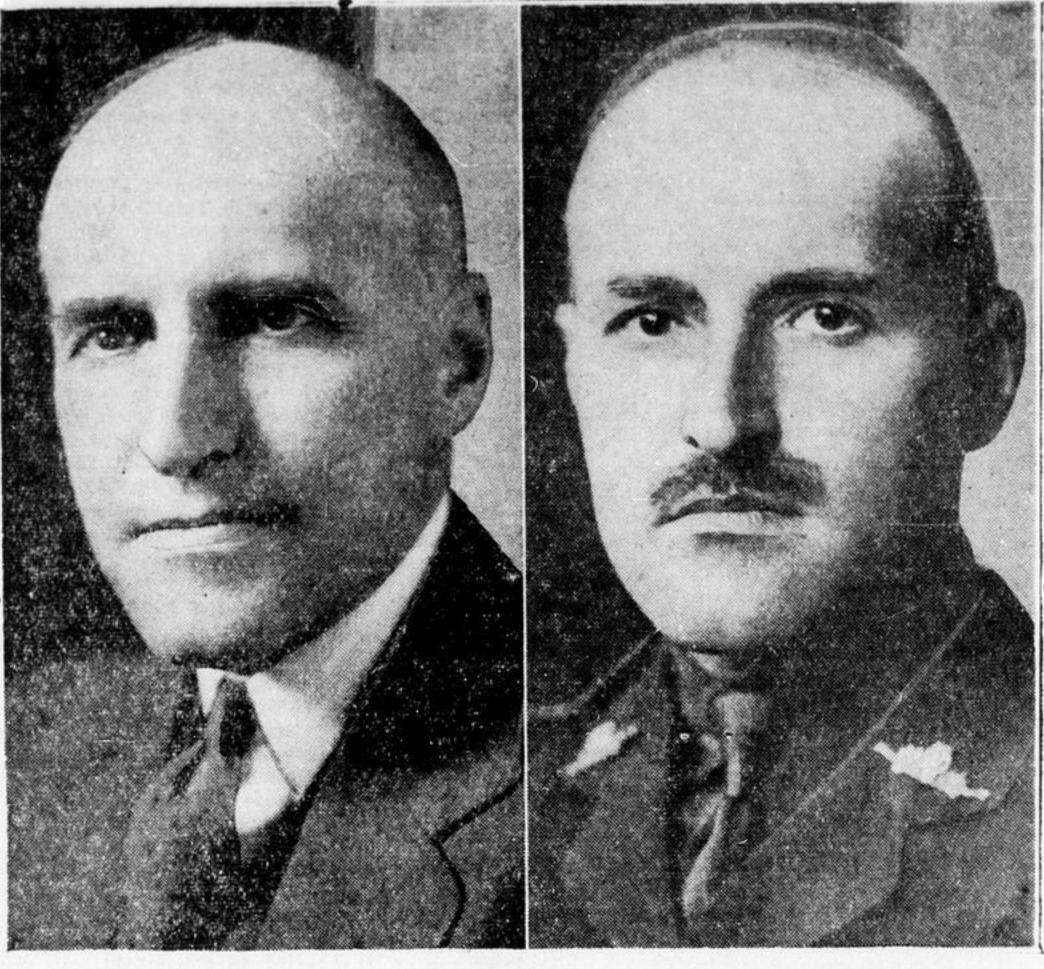

Asked how the Finnish were taking Russian ocupation, Mr. Kuusisto first went to some pains to explain that the popular belief that Finland was now everrun with Reds was erroneous. Sections of the country had been an- 3 by way of Stockholm and Oslo. From nexed by Russia but they were comparatively small. Of course, he said, the whole country was under the domination of the Soviet in an indirect manner.

"And what way do you think Russia

"I understand and feel that Russia and Germany are allies. I feel that no matter what friendly overtures Russia may make to the Allies she is a friend of Germany, and will, in the long run, be in the war on the same side as Germany," was the reply.

Mr. Kuusisto left Finland on April the latter port he caught a boat for New York and crossed the Atlantic with no untoward happening.

As a member of parliament Mr. Kuusisto was not in the army. In any Then, in answer to the question, he event, he said, men of his age were said: "How do you think you would not called. He stated that the country take it if an armed robber came into was badly wrecked by the war which your house and robbed you? You raged over it; that cities were razed would not like it? No-well the Finnish and that it would be years before the people don't like Russian occupation work of rehabilitation would be comRALSTON'S APPOINTMENT APPLAUDED

National Festival This Week

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Evenings.

The National Festival which will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, promises one of the most varied programmes of dancing, singing and music ever held in the district. Ten groups of New Canadians are taking part and will give talented interpretations of their National festive customs. All groups taking part will appear in their beautiful national costumes, these alone being worth the price of admission to view. Some of the groups will feature dancing and others singing. Two choirs will compete for the special trophy for this class,-the Finnish Aid choir of 60 mixed voices and the Canadian Ukrainian Prosvita choir. The Croatian Star Orchestra will be another feature attraction. The clever dahcing of the Scotch Lassies along with the playing of the Porcupine District Pipe Band should be a feature to delight all. The clever group of English dancers along with the three special dancers and the singing of this group will be another highlight. All who witnessed the Polish dancers of last year will not wish to miss this group's performance.

Space in this issue does not pennit of the full programme being published, but it will appear in Thursday's issue. Meanwhile read the advt. and secure your tickets now!

To Speak Here To-night

A very general invitation has been extended by the Salvation Army here to all to attend the public welcome meeting for the visit here of Col. Geo. W. Peacock, Chief Secretary for Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Alaska, and Mrs. Peacock, head of the S.A. Red Shield Ladies' Auxiliary, in the S.A. Citadel, 12 Birch street, south, this (Monday) evening, June 17th, at 8 p.m. The chair will be taken by G. A. Macdonald, while others on the platform will include local clergymen, Major John Cornthwaite, C.O., Timmins, and Brigadier Joseph Acton, Divisional Commander Northern Ontario

Summary of Council Meeting

Disregard petition to use influence to have bans on Ukrainian groups lifted.

Refuse use council chamber to local branch of Trades and Lapour Council Receive regrets from Depart-

Ontario Department of Health. Allow Legion branch to hold Conklin's Shows over for additional three days.

ment National Defence and from

Allow application for Kiwanis Carnival on Cedar Street, Aug. 8 and 9. . . .

Have Birch Street lane question dumped back in municipal lap by Ontario Municipal Board.

Music Examinations to be Held Timmins From June 25 to 27

Will be Conducted by Peter Pianoforte Teacher.

Examinations for the Toronto Conservatory of Music will be held at Timmins from Tuesday, June 25th to Thursday, June 27th. The examinations this year will be conducted by Mr. Peter C. Kennedy, who enjoys a wide fame as a pianoforte teacher In reference to Mr. Kennedy, the following biographical particulars are given:-Peter C. Kennedy, who is to conduct current examinations of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, began his musical career as a boy chorister in

Arriving in Canada as a young man he studied at the Toronto Conservatory of Music under Guiseppe Dinelli and

Dr. Edward Fisher. In 1911, at the request of the late Sir Albert Gooderham, Mr. Kennedy or ganized and was the first musical director of the Canadian Academy of Music, which is now part of the Toronto Conservatory of Music,

Mr. Kennedy has been especially successful in piano teaching. Many of his pupils hold important positions in Canada and the United States, both as teachers and performers.

As an organist and choirmaster, he has held several important posts and as an adjudicator at musical festivals and lecturer on musical subjects his services are much in demand.

Portrait of Mrs. C. C. Farr Presented to Haileybury

Mayor S. J. Mason, of Haileybury last week presented a beautiful framed portrait of the late Mrs. C. C. Farr to the town. Mrs. Farr was the wife of the founder of Haileybury and the picture was taken in 1939 on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of her arrival. The council accepted the gift of the framed portrait with suitable expression of appreciation for Mayor Mason's thoughtfulness and interest. | |

-Photo by Swaine

Thunderous applause greeted Premier King's announcement in the House of Commons that Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of finance, will succeeed the late Hon. Norman Rogers as minister of defence. Col. Ralston will assume his new duties after he has presented his war budget. Dynamic, forceful and enjoying the full confidence of all shades of political and public opinion throughout Canada, Col. Ralston has an outstanding military record both in war and in peace. He won the D.S.O. with bar and the C.M.G. in the last war, and was twice mentioned in dispatches. He rose to lieutenant- colonel overseas and after the war became a full colonel, commanding the 17th Infantry brigade. At Right he is shown in uniform.

Another Concert by Timmins Citizens' Band Last Night

Event Featured Patriotic Numbers.

certs in the bandstand on Spruce street preciation. last night.

There was a very large crowd of music lovers out. In keeping with the first concert given, the band under the C. Kennedy, Leading Always Be An England" was enthusiastically applauded.

The programme played by the band:

"O. Canada"—Anthem. "The British Legion"-March.

"Carry On"-March.

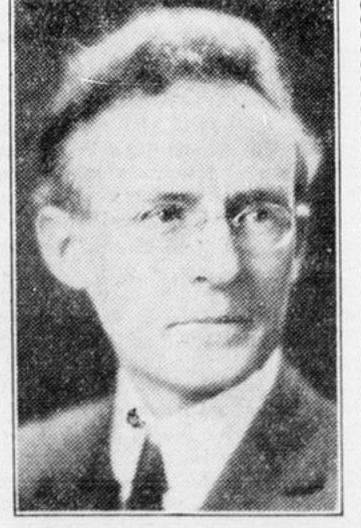

"The Maid of Orleans"-Overture.

"There Will Aways Be An England' Patriotic Song

"The United Kingdom"-Selection

"Colonel Bogey"-March. "The Maple Leaf Forever"-Anthem "God Save the King."

Peter C. Kennedy

Peter C. Kennedy, one of Canada's leading pianoforte teachers who will conduct current examinations for the Toronto Conservatory of Music in Timmins from June 25 to 27, and Iroquois Fall on June 28. Mr. Kennedy organized and was first director of the Canadian Academy of Music, which later became part of the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Petain, Who Succeeded Renaud Sues for Peace: Britain Defies Germany

Reported to Have Sought Terms in Broadcast This Morning. Hitler and Mussolini to Meet and Discuss Terms. Have Asked Franco to Join Them. British Reaffirm Intention to Fight Until Germany Defeated.

Fight at Conklin's Saturday

Assaulting Police Officer.

"Hey Rube" was the cry which echoed through the grounds of Conklin's Shows on Saturday night when two men were alleged to have picked a fight with some of the show's employees. With the calling of the showmen's bat-, signed his office yesterday. With him tle cry the fists began to fly.

As a result of the fracas two men were charged with disorderly conduct. One of them, police said, may face the very serious charge of striking a police

Police stated that the two men Harry Lalonde, 132 Commercial avenue, and Richard Anglehart, 35 Wilson Avenue, picked a fight with the attendant at one of the rides. Police interfered and Anglehart is alleged to have kicked the officer.

Alice Breux, 116 Wilson Avenue, faces a charge of shoplifting. The woman is alleged to have attempted to steal some the struggle alone. goods in the Metropolitan Store on Saturday evening.

Presentation Made to Miss M. Easton by Dance Pupils

Flowers and Silverware Given as Mark of Appreciation.

ing's presentation of the dancing recital of Miss Margaret Easton's pupils here was an interruption to allow the pupils to present an expression of their went on at the removal of Generalisaffection for their dancing teacher and simo Gamelin from office, could be appreciation of the patience and untir- revealed. At that time General Weying skill given to their training. Miss gand said: "Militarily the situation Easton was presented with a beautiful cannot be repaired." He was underbasket of roses and also a handsome stood to mean that with the military silver bowl and tongs. The presentation | means then at her disposal France was made on behalf of the other pupils | could not hope to ward off the Gerby charming little Anne Bennett. Miss | mans with their superior numbers and The Timmins Citizens' Band gave a Easton, though taken completely by weapons. second of their summer series of con- surpise, expressed her thanks and ap-

Authoritative British sources voiced the belief today that France would carry on the war in the theatres outside French soil. There was no reason to believe, it was said that France would not place all her resources at the disposal of the British. The French armies in the Near East, it was noted, and the French fleet are intact.

May Charge One Man With Her army crumbled, France sought peace with Germany today and left the British Commonwealth to face the combined might of Germany and Italy which now are in a position to dominate all of Europe. Invasion of England is seen to be imminent.

Prime Minister Paul Reynaud reresigned the whole cabinet. In his place was appointed Marshall Henry

Today, at 4 a.m., in a broadcast from Bordeaux, Petain is reported to have said: "I have applied to our opponent to ask him if he is ready to sign with us as between soldiers after the fight, a means to put an end to hostilities."

"It is with heavy heart," he continued, "that I say we must cease fighting." It took the 84 year old hero of Verdun less than five minutes to make his fateful speech which gave Great Britain the task of continuing

Immediately after the French capitulation the British war office is reported to have reaffirmed its intention to continue the war until Germany was defeated. Tomorrow, in the British house, Prime Minister Winston Churchill is expected to ask for action turning the whole of Great Britain into a great fortress. France's decision to capitulate was received with the deepest of regret in London without surprise or bitterness and the French army, it was known, had crumbled in the past week. The British Government intensified pre-Just before the close of Friday even- paration for invasion, which was believed imminent.

Now that capitulation had come, it was officially stated, some of what

Prime Minister Churchill will address the House to-morrow.

The Department of National Defense

felt that that policy had been main-

The Separate School Board urged the appointment of an additional public pointed out that there was a large

Mr. and Mrs. H. Charlebois wrote to thank the council for the gift and message sent their son, Captain Gerard

Charlebois, on the occasion when he was "aptain of the Guard at Bucking-

Lee Copps was engaged as life guard.

Ukrainians Ask Council direction of F. J. Wolno played patriotic numbers, and one piece "There Will Always Be An England" was enthusi-On Their Group Lifted

State 225 Ukrainians Met on June 9 and Made Sharp Protest Against Governmental Action in Outlawing Ukrainian Labour-Farmer Temple Association and the Canadian Ukrainian Youth Federation.

In a letter to the council which en- regretted its inability to send a report closed a resolution passed at a protest of a recent survey made of health conmeeting, the Ukrainian Labour-Farmer ditions in Timmins and Tisdale. Be-Temple Association urged the council cause of the pressure of business, said to use its offices to have the decree the letter from J. T. Fair, Chief Mediwhich illegalizes that association and cal Officer of Health, the report had also the Canadian Ukrainian Youth not yet been completed. Federation, lifted. The resolution, which was said to acknowledged a letter from the Town have been passed at a meeting of 225 of Timmins in which the municipality persons, held on June 9, contended that asked that recruits for a third division the edict making the two organizations be taken from the north and that the illegal was in complete opposition to Algonquin Regiment be permitted to the principles of democracy and contra- maintain its identity. dicted the basic right given by the In recruiting, said the Department, Magna Carta. No hearing was given, an effort had been made to be fair and there were no complaints and no ar- equitable and to take a fair represenrests made, it was pointed out. The tation from all parts of the country. It ban was peremptorily imposed. For 22 years, said the resolution, the tained.

nickles and dimes of the members had built and supported the two organizations. It had been a cultural and edu- health nurse and urged that she be cational centre for progressive and bi-lingual. The letter to the council deomcracy-loving Ukrainian Cana-

French population in Timmins and that The council took no action with remany of the school children here spoke gard to the resolution and the letter, French. which was signed by J. Pacik.

Councillor Roberts commented:-There is no reason why we should interfere with the decision of Mr. Justice Lapointe. If he saw fit to include these two organizations among those outlawed, he no doubt, had good rea-

"That's the way I feel," said acting

Mayor McDermott.

son for doing so."

ham Palace,

His salary will be $4 a day. Resolution was passed ordering the No other member of council made payment of $3,285 to the Feldman Timany comment and the matter was ber Co. The money was in payment for trucks bought by the 1939 council The Ontario Department of Health on the time payment plan,