

HOLLINGER TAKES FIRST ENNIS CUP GAME

Smash Out 13 Hits Against Bussiere to Win Opener by Score of Six Runs to None

Dorey Takes Care of Hurling Duties for Hard-Hitting Hollinger Squad in First Ennis Cup Game With Toburn in Kirkland Lake on Saturday Afternoon. Hollinger Makes Hay in Last Inning With Three Runs.

Kirkland Lake Ont., June 23—Hollinger Green-shirts packed too much hitting power in their Ennis Cup debut at Hargreaves sport field here on Saturday afternoon as they defeated Toburn Beavers 6 to 0 in a keenly contested game.

Rolly Bussiere, for Toburn gave up a total of 13 hits during the afternoon a total which included four triple smashes and a double which firmly stamped Vince Barton's gang as one of the gasouse variety. Reg. Dorey was very disabbling in the bingle department allowing the Toburnites no more than one clout in any inning.

It was a 4-4 hard fought ball game until the last inning when visitors scored exactly half of their runs. Bussiere buckled to allow four hits in that frame a triple by Romauldi, a double by Cookson and singles by Rudel and Chase. Prior to that the Northerners had enjoyed a good inning in the fifth when Romauldi's single, Lawton's triple and Chase's one-base hit accounted for two runs.

The first Hollinger run came in the second inning when Cookson tripled to deep right and scored home on Oltean's triple to deep left.

Boiled down one could say that it was a case of well placed triple hits winning the game. The three base smashes pounded out by the four players directly effected the scoring or runs. Despite the one sided results, the game was the best played here this season.

Teams—Hollinger, Rodney, Jf, Savioe, 1b.; Romauldi, 2b.; Lawton, rf.; Chase, 3b.; Cookson, cf.; Rudel, ss.; Oltean, c.; Dorey p.

Timmins Boxers to Meet Kirkland Boys in Nine Bout Card

Kirkland Lake, June 22—Nine boxing and wrestling bouts, featuring two rematches in the latter class which should surpass anything shown here in the last two years, have been arranged by the Kirkland Lake Boxing and Wrestling Club, under the promotion of Johnny Mitchell, and will be staged at Lake Shore Arena next Thursday evening.

The bill includes two mat bouts and seven ring features. Yesterday Mitchell announced that all bouts and the show will be under the supervision of the Ontario Athletic Commission which is represented locally by Jess Spring.

Two Return Bouts

Altogether only one of the return engagements is listed as the main go, both give promise of deserving such high rating. Several weeks ago, when Mitchell staged his first indoor show at the Arena, Stew Gordon, of Wright-Hargreaves, took a decision from Neil Butler, Timmins boxer holding the Northern Ontario title. The match was fiercely contested and Gordon finally showed a small edge in the last round to win the nod. Butler has asked for the return bout with the Ontario champion and there should be an even closer argument than in the first meeting of the two leather pushers.

Jack Simmons, Timmins heavyweight has also sent down a request for a rematch with Alex Deschamp, Wright-Hargreaves, Ontario heavyweight title. The Deschamp-Simmons bout was practically a repetition of the Gordon-Butler fracas, although the lighter fighters could not expect to land the crashing blows Simmons and Deschamp scored that evening. Both boys took a lot of punishment and received a lot, and Simmons request paves the way to a natural main bout.

A new Timmins opponent is being brought down for Gordon Fitzgerald who was Ontario welterweight finalist in 1939. Omar Maissoneuve is the man and he is reported to pack a mean punch which will give Fitzgerald plenty of trouble, according to his Timmins backers.

The first bout will go on at 8.15 sharp.

Here is the line-up:

Wrestling
158 pound class
Reg. Woods (Town) vs. Ray LaPointe (Wright-Hargreaves).
Gordon Hamilton (Wright-Hargreaves) Ontario finalist, vs. Eddie Wasnick (Wright-Hargreaves), Ontario champion.

Boxing

Eugene Girard (Town) vs. Vio Theriault (Timmings).
135 pound division
Kid Corvino (Town) vs. John Pineault (Timmings).
John Broderick (Wright-Hargreaves) vs. Joe Senega (Timmings).
Stewart Gordon (Wright-Hargreaves) Ontario champion vs. Neil Butler (Timmings), Northern Ontario champion. Re-match.

140 pound class
"Cast-iron" Freddy Young (Macassa) vs. Kid "Timmings Express" Gratton (Timmings).

147 pound class
Gordon Fitzgerald (Wright-Hargreaves), Canadian finalist vs. Omer Maissoneuve (Timmings).

Special Meeting of Women's Branch of Red Cross Thursday

Plan to Organize for Emergency Work Calls.

A meeting has been called for Thursday evening, June 27th, in the town hall, Timmings, for members of the Red Cross, Women's Branch, and all who are interested in the work and wish to become members. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize for emergency work, such as the recent call for blankets. Such calls are likely to be more frequent and urgent as the war proceeds, and it is earnestly desired to be so organized that such calls may be promptly and properly met.

In addition to organizing in regard to any emergency calls, there will be other matters of interest and importance in regard to the Red Cross work before the meeting and it is particularly desired to have a large attendance. All women who are members of the Red Cross and all who are interested in this valuable work are specially urged to attend the meeting in the town hall on Thursday evening of this week.

Globe and Mail:—It is well to remember that vocal sympathizers with Russia's attack on Finland and the Reds' activities elsewhere still are at large in Canada; not so vocal perhaps, but with unchanged sentiments.

Liskeard Kiwanis Cancel Plans for Swim Instructor

Because of the grave situation in the war overseas the New Liskeard Kiwanis Club has cancelled the plans to have a swimming instructor and sports director for boys this year. The Club also decided that it would not operate the usual camp for underprivileged children this summer. The club wishes to conserve all its funds to help in the various war effort; it being felt that the war is more important than anything else at the present.

Sergt. Allan Stringer Brings Down Man Who Killed Officer

Was on Holiday, but Joined in Hunt for Murderer.

Sergt. Allan Stringer, of the provincial police force here, on Thursday last shot and killed an unidentified man at Navan, near Ottawa, after this man had shot Constable Harold Dent of the provincial police when the latter stopped him to question him as a suspicious character. Sergt. Stringer was on holiday at Navan, but hearing of the injury of his friend, Constable Dent, he visited the scene of the crime and secured Constable Dent's own gun to join in the hunt for the criminal. Constable Dent died before Sergt. Stringer left him. Sergt. Stringer eventually sighted the fugitive who fired two or three shots at Sergt. Stringer. The latter, however, was not held up by the shots, but returned the fire and the murderer of Constable Dent was laid low with a bullet between the eyes. He was dead by the time the officers reached him.

Previous to coming to Timmings, Sergt. Stringer was stationed at Ironquios Falls, Kirkland Lake, Elk Lake, and other northern centres. He is known as a fearless and able officer, zealous in his duty, but never abusing his authority, and always kindly and considerate to the public.

The unidentified man who shot Constable Dent is said to have been a foreigner, though he gave the name of Sectt. He had been loitering around the Navan station and when Constable Dent went to question him, he suddenly drew a gun and shot the constable, then ran away. A posse was quickly organized to capture him. Sergt. Stringer joining the posse.

Says Trans-Canada Planes Ideal for Use as Bombers

Only Very Minor Changes Would be Necessary.

Operating from coast-to-coast, the fast airliners of the Trans-Canada Airlines could readily be converted into fighting craft if the air division of the Federal Department of National Defence needed them. Lockheed officials, builders of the giant aircraft, point out that the Trans-Canada fleet could be converted into highly-efficient fighters quickly, says The Sudbury Star.

Built on the exact lines of the Hudson Bombers, used by the Royal Air Force, which have taken heavy toll against the Germans, this commercial model is slightly slower and less manoeuvrable than its militarized counterpart. The largest concentration of these fast commercial aircraft in the world is operating in the Trans-Canada services.

These commercial transport planes are flown exclusively in Canada by Trans-Canada Airlines. In the original commercial version, the plane is a low-wing, twin-engine passenger carrier, equipped for air line duty. Eleven passengers, a crew of three, and more than a ton of cargo constitutes its normal load for peacetime operation.

Installation of belly and rear gun compartments and the building of bomb bays into the ships could be accomplished in short order. The change-over would deviate slightly from the basic commercial design. The principal change would be the installation of larger engines, which are readily available from the American manufacturers.

Comparing the commercial model, used by Trans-Canada Airlines, and the military type with the Royal Air Force, the Canadian officials are to be complimented for their wisdom in selecting this transport for the trans-continental service. In the selection of this type of transport, Canadian officials directed their steps along the right path, with the future defence of the country in mind.

The success of its militarized counterpart overseas, assures the Canadian government, and the people, their choice of equipment has been an apt one. Originally built for commercial purposes, this type of plane was converted into a weapon of defence for the Royal Air Force. In the conversion it became a general purpose bomber equipped basically for reconnaissance missions. During the Norwegian campaign it was used extensively. It was also used successfully against the Germans in the Narvik sector.

The huge successes of the militarized type of this plane in the raging air battles since the invasion of the Low Countries and France demonstrates the faith of the British flyers in the Hudson type. In its militarized ver-

Godoy Battered and Slashed by Champion Louis

Still Didn't Want to be Taken Out After Technical Knock-out in Eighth.

New York, June 22—Battered into a terrible condition by Joe Louis' fists and semi-conscious, Arturo Godoy of Chile still was able to lift his hamburgered features in the dressing room at Yankee Stadium on Thursday night and say proudly:

"But I can take it, can't I? Sure, Arturo can take it."

There wasn't much doubt about that and the crowd, gathered around the fallen Chilean, told him so. Arturo had been knocked down and out in the eighth round of the 15-round battle for the heavyweight title, but he had acquitted himself with courage.

None of the nine other men Louis has beaten since he became champion took more awful punishment than was meted out to Godoy before he finally fell forward on his battered face and was spared further blows by Referee Billy Cavanagh.

The Chilean had been down twice under terrific punishment before Cavanagh stopped the bout. He was up but out on his feet after taking a count of six when the bell ended the seventh chapter. His seconds worked heroically to send him out for the eighth. It would have been more merciful to have left him on his stool.

Louis, never a man to let his wounded prey escape, tore into the semi-blind Godoy savagely and in a minute had dropped him for a count of eight. Again the Chilean groped his way erect, only to run into another hurricane of lefts and rights. A final short, sharp right pitched him forward as blood gushed from a long cut over his eye. Cavanagh stopped it.

When he realized what had happened, Godoy went plunging across the ring to get at Louis and it took the strenuous efforts of four or five men, including his manager, Al Weill, to calm him down. But it was only a wild, heart-broken gesture.

tion it manoeuvres rapidly and, as a result, is now in active daily combat against Nazi hordes in the Somme sector.

Daily despatches reporting British flyers scoring major successes with the Hudsons are encouraging to Canadian people when it is noted that the commercial version of the plane, which can be readily converted into fighting craft, is in service on all routes of the Trans-Canada Airlines.

Famous Gracie Fields Made Big Hit in Canada

Gracie Fields, the famous British comedienne who is scheduled to make a tour of Canadian cities in aid of the Navy League, took Valcartier training camp by storm recently when she appeared as guest at a concert staged by the entertainment division of the Canadian Legion War Services.

The blond Lancashire songstress, who a few weeks ago was in France entertaining in the war area, bantered and kidded the troops until their sides were splitting with laughter. Singing and dancing on the stage and then down through the audience, she so thoroughly delighted the lads that their cheers could be heard for miles.

"Miss Fields is one of you—she recently sang under shell-fire at Arras and Lille," Captain Ben Allen, director of entertainment for the C.L.W.S., announced in introducing Gracie to the audience. With howls of applause they threw their caps at her and gave her the "thumbs up" sign, which means "o.k." to the troops.

Gracie, who was described by Captain Allen as "the sweetheart of British sailors, soldiers and airmen," and whose "Shipyard Sally" movie has sent her stocks up higher than ever before, told the lads about a "blackguard from Devon" and then swung into the "Woodpecker's Song," "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "Oh, Johnny," "Alouette," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and many other ditties that have helped to make her famous.

The "piece de resistance" of the evening, however, was when, after conducting community singing, she sang a piece of Cockney about "Anging Tiler Tigh." The troops roared with delight.

Gracie came to Canada with her husband, Monty Banks, English film director, and went on to Hollywood to visit her mother and sister when the Navy League's campaign for funds was transferred to early autumn. She'll be back in August.

June 26th, from three till five o'clock on the lawn at Mrs. F. Gilbert, Platt Vet. Property, Fourth avenue. After the business the hostess served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.
