Kiwanis Club at South Porcupine to Discuss Democracy This Evening

Public Affairs, Citizenship, Included. Prizes to be Presented to Students of the Various Grades in Tisdale High Schools for Essays. Other South Porcupine and Dome News.

South Porcupine, June 26—(Special to The Advance)—Kiwanis meeting this evening will be in the Legion hall. The committee on Public Affairs, Citizenship, etc., will conduct the meeting with the chairman of that committee—Mr. Mias Clarke, presiding. This meeting is one of the most important in the club year (says the Kiwanis bulletin) in that it is to be given over to the conclusion of the "Democracy" essay contest which was sponsored by the club amongst students in various grades of the two high schools of the township. Prizes for the winning essays, all of them really excellent and enlightening pieces of work will be presented to the winners. (Prize—a copy of Neville Henderson's book, "Fallure of a Mission").

Permission has been obtained for the erection of the Kiwanis Road Signs at each end of the town. These will be erected under the capable direction of Mr. Clarence Anderson, and will proclaim to all and sundry that we have a Kiwanis Club in South Porcupine.

The following are prize winners in the "Democracy" contest and we have been granted permission to print the essay of the fourth form winner in South Porcupine, the fifth form winner in Schumacher in the next edition of The Advance. (The recipients of prizes will be present at the Kiwanis dinner.

Delightful Tea Held at the Home of Mrs. R. E. Dye

South Porcupine, June 26th. Special to The Advance.

A very successful tea was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Dye, Dome Mines, sponsored by the Ladies' Guild of the United Church. Although the weather-man was not kind and the day was unfavorable many people made an extra effort and got out to the tea, some coming in from Timmins and Schumacher and the surrounding mines besides Dome, Dome Ex. and South Porcupine being well represented.

It really was a strawberry tea as most delicious strawberry shortcake was served. (The bake table was, as usual soon depleted of its fine array of good things and the many nicely made and attractive hand-drawn articles found a ready sale.

Mrs. R. E. Dye and Mrs. Libby (Guild president) formed the reception committee with Mrs. Kneetel, Mrs. Clarence Anderson, Mrs. F. Hepburn, Mrs. F. H. Hall and Mrs. Stitt waiting on the tables, which were prettily decorated with forget-me-nots.

Mrs. D. Reed and Mrs. T. Kelly presided at the sewing table; Mrs. Wilfred Deacon and Mrs. R. Wood at the baking table with Mrs. Burton as convener of the kitchen committee, Mrs. E. Webb and Mrs. Douglas assisting.

The Ladies' Guild is grateful to Mrs. Dye for loaning her home for the occasion, and to all who patronized the affair.

Schumacher Ladies' Guild Held Successful Social

Schumacher, June 27th. Special to The Advance—The Schumacher Ladies' Anglican Guild held a very successful Strawberry Social on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Waddle, Platt Vet. property.

The tea tables were attractively decorated with tulips and lilacs. Mrs. Butler, the convener was assisted by Mrs. Eveson, Mrs. Percival, Mrs. J. Cowden, Mrs. Wallace and Miss F. Keen.

Mrs. Jensen, convener of the bake-table was assisted by Mrs. Keen and Mrs. Loader. There was a nice lot of home-made cake, cookies and buns displayed at this table.

Kitchen help was given the convener, Miss Ward, by Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Jacks, and Miss M. Ebell. Mrs. Waddle acted as hostess assisted by Mrs. H. Dobson.

The Strawberry Social was planned to be held on Mrs. Gilbert's lawn but owing to the inclement weather the social was held in Mrs. Waddle's home.

Saturday Wedding at the Trinity Manse, Schumacher

Schumacher, June 26—(Special to The Advance)—A pretty wedding was held Saturday, June 22nd, at the Trinity United Church Manse, when Estelle Mae Murray, of New Glasgow, N.S., became the bride of William Ross Fraser, Schumacher. Mrs. George McDonald attended the bride and Mr. George McDonald was groomsmen. The Rev. F. J. Baine officiated.

Pretty Wedding at the Manse, South Porcupine

South Porcupine, June 26—special to The Advance.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon in the Manse, S. Porcupine, when Miss Ida L. Andrews became the bride of Mr. Stanley Bruce Edmondson. Miss Andrews is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrews, of Douglas Ont.; and Mr. Edmondson is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Edmondson, of Toronto.

The bride looked charming in an afternoon dress of queen's blue crepe with short jacket and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a white hat and white accessories and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, lily-of-the-valley and fern. Miss Jean Andrews, niece of the bride, looked very pretty in an afternoon gown of copenhagen blue silk jersey, with large matching hat, and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. J. R. Andrews acted as best-man to the bridegroom. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews.

Rev. J. A. Lytle performed the marriage ceremony, and the wedding party left soon after for the wedding dinner which was held at Fern Cottage, Timmins.

The newly married couple left on the Northland for a short honeymoon in the Ottawa valley and Toronto, and on returning will reside at 66 Rae avenue South Porcupine.

The brides going-away attire was a beige color dress with black and white coat, and white hat.

We extend best wishes for future happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson. (Renfrew "Mercury" please copy)
