To be Wedded This Afternoon at the Notre Dame Church

Priest's Home to be Scene of Quiet but Pretty Event

The priests' home of the Notre Dame des Lourdes Roman Catholic Church will be the scene of a quiet yet charming wedding this (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Ethel Elizabeth Bateman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A R. Bateman, of 61 Maple street south becomes the bride of Mr. Leo Anthony Chenier, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Chenier, of 33 Middleton avenue. The Rev. Fr. Roberge will perform the ceremony.

The lovely bride will wear a streetlength ensemble of Queen's blue Marie Antoinette crepe, fashioned with simple round neckline, slightly gathered bodice with buttons for neckline to waist, and short puffed sleeves. The full flared skirt features triple pleating throughout the front and a bolero Jacket, with elbow-length sleeves fastened with novel shirred waistline picture hat, white gloves and shoes and a corsage of pink Briarcliffe roses

Mrs. W. Briggs, sigher of the groom will be matron-of-honour, wearing an afternoon dress of sand crepe, fashioned with wide panels of japonica and brown at the front, and bearing a redingote style coat to match. She will wear a matching picture hat gloves and shoes, and a corsage of
