

Large Attendance at Tea and Fashion Show for Benefit of the I.O.D.E.

Pleasing New Premises of Shaheen's Store Decorated for the Occasion, Which was Also the Formal Opening of New Store. Address by Regent of I.O.D.E.

The new Shaheen's Ladies' Wear Store opened formally on Wednesday afternoon with a fashion show and afternoon tea in the splendidly decorated new premises in the Bardessono Block. The event was under the auspices of the Golden Chapter I.O.D.E., and was attended by a large number of women from Timmins, Schumacher and South Porcupine.

Manager of New Store

Manager of the Falcon Shoe Store, opening Saturday in new Bardessono Block, Mr. Phil Pocock, was formerly manager of the Sudbury branch of the firm with which he is associated. He has had ten years practical shoe experience. Mr. Pocock is married and has one child. His family will reside in Timmins.

Featured were furs by E. Herman and Co., Mary Muffet Dresses, Princess and Tattler coats, all of which were fashioned in the newest of fall styles. Mrs. L. Johnson, representative of the E. Herman Co. was present from Toronto for the event, and brought with her many of the finest styles presented by the company. These furs will be displayed at the store throughout the remainder of the week.

The charming models were Mrs. Wm. Roberts, Mrs. Chas. Pozzetti, and Misses Annabelle Lang, Mary Adams, Phyllis McCoy, Vivian Pierce, Aileen Teeple, Janet Fisher, and Margaret Keeley. Two little misses, Rayette Brochu and Myrna Vaillant, added greatly to the attractiveness of the event with their daintiness and "grown-up poise." Little Rayette Brochu also presented a tap-dance number that won much favour.

Mrs. A. Booker, war work convener, was in charge of the afternoon tea, and received the guests assisted by Mrs. E. Wheeler. Pouring tea were Miss Ellen Terry, 2nd vice-regent; Mrs. Jas. Keene, past vice-regent; Mrs. A. Carriere, past vice-regent; and Mrs. Halperin, substituting for Mrs. L. E. Dorway, 1st vice-regent.

Those who assisted were Mrs. E. Wheeler, Mrs. Alex Allen, Mrs. Dorschner, and Mrs. Coulson. Mrs. Holtz acted as treasurer, and Mrs. Gordon Hall, of Schumacher, presided at the piano during the afternoon.

In opening the event, Mrs. H. L. Traver, Regent, thanked Mrs. Shaheen on behalf of the I.O.D.E. and also extended a vote of thanks to all who attended the event. She emphasized the fact that Canadian women should buy British and Canadian goods, in this way assisting the Mother Country at this time.

A draw for a beautiful tablecloth and serviettes was won by Mrs. C. Pozzetti.

Baskets of flowers, containing congratulatory messages on the opening of the new store, and flags were used in the decorations for the event. All proceeds will be used in the war work of the I.O.D.E.

13-Year-Old Kirkland Lake Stands Up for Algonquians

(From Northern News) One "fifth-columnist" in Kirkland Lake is out of business for the time being and so is a young patriot who couldn't stand hearing him joking about the soldiers on parade, and the uniforms they wore.

The lad who took personal responsibility for checking such an outburst by another young lad is Jack Kellaway, 81 McKelvie Avenue, just 13 years of age. Just now he is wearing his hand in a cast, as the price of super-patriotism.

A few days ago Jackie was standing watching the No. 12 Forestry Company parading through the streets when another youngster made some remark about the soldiers, and disparaging the uniform. These were fighting words to Jackie whose own father and his grandfather had served in the last war.

Jackie bopped the other youngster with his fist and broke some bones in his own hand. His hand had to be x-rayed and then put in a cast. He did not give many details for some time as to how the incident came about. But one day he broke loose and said what
