Education the Topic at Meeting of the Women's Institute

War Work of Institute Also Reviewed

The Women's Institute held its September meeting in the Hollinger hall on Wednesday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. P. G. Howard, in the chair.

Announcement was made of Officers' Rally to be held in Monteith on Thursday and Friday, and eght or nine members of the local branch will attend the rally on Friday.

A letter of thanks was sent to Mr. Korman, thanking him for kindly donating the milk for the Women's Institute picnic.

The roll call was answered with "A Country I'd Like to Visit" and members gave interesting answers to the query.

The programme, entitled "Education" was convened by Mrs. G. Kirk, and opened wth the members all joining in the singing of "O Canada." Mrs. Kirk then read a report of the convention at New Liskeard two weeks ago, which proved interesting to the meeting. Members were asked to save all wrappers from "Clover Leaf" articles as the Women's Institute in Canada is yourselves from idols." (I John 5:21). making a collection of these wrappers to send back to the manufacturer, and receive a cash sum in return for the wrappers. It is expected that with the money thus earned, the Women's Institute will purchase an ambulance.

Mrs. Jack was the guest speaker, and in speaking of education, gave an in-_teresting outline of what it stands for The meeting closed with "God Save the King."

During the social hour that followed afternoon tea was served, and Mrs.

Mrs. Gibson, convener for the Red Cross work, announced that the Instiute would use the Red Cross room in the Bardessono home on the fourth Wednesday of each month,

A few new members were initiated, and mention was made of the departure that day of Mrs. Mel Livermore, who will take up residence in Toronto.

Red Cross Rooms in Shragge Basement Now in Active Use

The Red Cross room in the basement of the new A. J. Shragge store was opened for work on Tuesday of this week, the equipment and workers moving to the new room on Monday The room has been donated to the Red Cross work by Mr. and Mrs. Shragge, and it is a fine location for the work which is to be done there.

In charge of the surgical dressings is Mrs. Barry, and she presides at the room two days a week. Wednesday and Friday, Mrs. J. McChesney, who is the mother of three sons serving overseas, and one in uniform in Toronto, supervises the work of making bandages on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and is assisted in the work by Mrs. Clayton McChesney, Mrs. K. B. Kempers, and Mrs. J. Parker.

Two registration cards have been posted in the new room, and any women wishing to take part in the work are asked to register, stating which work they would prefer to domaking bandages or dressings.

The room is equipped with sewing machines and seven rollers, with which the bandages are bound tightly into small rolls, five or six hundred of which fit into each box, for shipment The work is very interesting, and the women who are helping in this worthwhile activity are spending many hours in the brightly lighted new

Dressings are prepared in three sizes, and are composed of a layer of absorbent cotton, a heaveir cotton and then wrapped in gauze. The wrapping must be done expertly to prevent any rough edges from touching the wound. The Red Cross room will be open each day of the week, and it is expected that a large amount of work will be accomplished in the new quarters. Windsor Star: The "Secret Weapon" the Germans have been talking sp much about may be the adding machine they use, which multiplies instead of adds, when they're counting the number of British planes shot down.
