Thirty French Planes in Attack on Gibraltar

Some thirty French planes said to be from French Morocco made a fierce attack on Gibraltar on Tuesday. The attack was in the form of a series of attacks in ten-minute intervals, the blasting lasting about two hours all told. British anti-aircraft guns fired almost continuously for the two hours and some attacking planes were said to have been brought down. The docks were made a special target but the town itself is stated to have been undamaged. After the bombing had ceased British vessels of war left the harbour and it was thought that a naval bombardment of Morocco was planned as

Hebrew Women of the Porcupine Hold Inspiring Meeting

Making Enthusiastic Effort for War Work.

About forty-five members of the Hebrew Women of the Porcupine met in the Hebrew Synagogue on Tuesday evening at a very enthusiastic meeting, to plan for war work for the coming year. Mrs. A. J. Shragge, president, was in the chair, and guest speaker was Mrs. James E. Barry, who is in charge of the surgical dressings department of the Red Cross Rooms in the Shragge store.

Mrs. Barry gave an interesting outline of the work that is being done, and many of the members who were present volunteered their services in the making of bandages, accompanied Mrs. Barry at the meeting.

Mrs. H. Friedman was appointed Captain of the collection for the Red Cross, and during the meeting gave a report of the Red Cross Executive meeting held recently.

Representing Mrs. S. R. Harrison, who is chairman of the war work committee of the local Red Cross Society, Mrs. W. J. McCoy stated that a call has been received from headquarters, asking for numbers of various articles of clothing for evacuees. Among other articles, the Timmins branch has been asked for twenty coats in size 40, and the Hebrew Women of the Porcupine volunteered to take charge of the collection of coats. The response of the members at the meeting was very encouraging, three new coats being donated and forty-five dollars being collected for the purpose during the evening.

Headed by the president, Mrs. Shragge, a committee of members including Mrs. Cantor, Mrs. Scholes, Mrs. J. Lieberman, Mrs. Perzovsky, Mrs. Wilner, Mrs. A. Feldman, and Mrs. Soles, will canvass among the one hundred members of their club to furnish the twenty coats. This work is being undertaken by the club, besides its regular Red Cross activities.

Mrs. A. Miller, secretary, read the minutes, and Mrs. Cantor, convener of the knitting groups, gave a report of the large amount of work that had been accomplished by the club members since the beginning of the war.

All the conveners of the various work committees accepted the same responsibilities for the ensuing year. They are Mrs. Abrams, in charge of surgical work at the Red Cross Rooms in the Shragge store on Monday afternoons; Mrs. Cantor, convener of knitting on Monday afternoons at the Ambassador Hotel; Mrs. Halperin, convener of sewing on Thursday afternoons; Mrs. Friedman, procuring the materials for work; Mrs. Rogg resigned as convener of one sewing group which was taken over by Mrs. Alex Feldman in addition to her own group which is conducted once a month in the Bardessono Red Cross Rooms.

Mrs. Rose Cohen was the instructor of knitting and conducted two junior groups during the year.

A great deal of work was accomplished during the evening, and the response of all members to the needs of the Empire was enthusiastic and inspiring.

Claim That Over 50,000 Nazi Troops Lost in Channel

The London, England, Daily Mail of Tuesday published dispatches claiming that between 50,000 and 60,000 German troops were lost as a result of the Channel storm last week, followed by bombings from the R. A. F. The report came from the Daily Mail's correspondent on the Franco-Spanish border. The German soldiers lost were described as "picked troops." Other sources claimed that large numbers of troops were lost at sea when they were paid a surprise visit by R. A. F. bombers while embarkation exercises were in progress, but these sources suggest the 50,000 loss may be an exaggeration. British military sources refused to comment on the Daily Mail's dispatches. There is general agreement, however, that in the past week German losses in both men and boats have been heavy in the last attempt to organize or practice for an invasion of Britain by sea. It is said that the Germans are even now attempting to reorganize for another attempt at invasion. The weather and tides from now on, however, will be increasingly fighting on Britain's behalf.

Church Adorned With Flowers for Wedding Yesterday

Miss Pearl Katherine Rock and Mr. R. J. Knifton Married.

Gladioli, asters and fern adorned the Timmins United Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Pearl Katherine Rock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rock, of Gowanstown, to Mr. Richard "Dick" J. Knifton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Knifton, of Sidney, Nova Scotia. The Rev. W. M. Mustard performed the marriage ceremony.

Mr. Herbert C. Treneer presided at the organ, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. T. Gay sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grand-uncle, Mr. W. H. Severt, was lovely in a floor-length ensemble of twilight blue chiffon velvet, fashioned on princess lines. The long leg o' mutton sleeves tapered to points over the wrists, the neckline was square, the fitted bodice featured shirring, and the long fitted waistline fell into a gracefully flared skirt. She wore a matching blue turban, with shoulder-length veil, and silver slippers, and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, with lily-of-the-valley in the streamers. Her only other adornment was a gold necklace, gift of the groom.

Mrs. W. H. Severt, grand-aunt of the bride, was matron-of-honour, becomingly attired in bishop purple crepe, with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Severt, 153 Mountjoy street south, where Mrs. Severt received the guests assisted by Mrs. Fred Flowers of the

Nazi Battleship Reported One of Raiders in Pacific

From Manila comes the report that the Scharnhorst or its sister ship, the Gneisenau, is one of the raiding Nazi ships in the Pacific and that it is receiving supplies and support from Japanese ports. Japanese aggression in S. Asia is also reported as suggesting that Japan is about to enter the war in open way after a period of undercover aid to Germany. The Scharnhorst has twice been bombed, battered and torpedoed by British ships and planes and has been twice put out of commission. It may be that it has been repaired so as to be able to resume activities or it may be that the sister ship, the Gneisenau, has followed the plan used before by the Germans, of taking the name of the disabled ship.

Conlaunum. Mrs. Flowers chose for the occasion a street-length dress of powder blue sheer, with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. Pouring tea were Mrs. Phelps, of Schumacher, and Mrs. Jack Arscott, of Timmins, and they were assisted by Mrs. Cuthell, Miss Tackaberry, Miss Emma Ellies and Miss Claire Morin.

The bride's table was centred with a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Flowers. Later that afternoon, the bride and groom left by motor for Kingston, where they will visit the groom's sister, at Gowanstown, to spend a few days with the bride's parents, Toronto. Owen sound and other points south. For travel the bride chose a black crepe dress, with costume jewellery, a black turban, black coat trimmed with silver fox fur, and a corsage of roses.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Knifton will take up residence on Golden avenue, South Porcupine.
