IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear mother and Grandma, Mrs. Eliza Ellen Lloyd who passed away October 19, 1937. Time speeds on, three years have passed.
Since death its gloom, its shadows cast Within our home, where all seemed bright,
We miss the light and ever will.
Her vacant place there's none to fill.
Down here we mourn but not in vain
For up in heaven we will meet again.
—Mrs. C. F. Hitch and family, 79p

GIRL GUIDES IN TIMMINS

51st I.O.D.E. Girl Guides
The first I.O.D.E. Girl Guides held their regular meeting in the Hollinger Scout hall on Thursday night. Capt. Wadsworth and Capt. Sheridan opened the meeting.
Patrols were formed and inspection and attendance taken by Capt. Wadsworth and Lieut. Starling. Horseshoe was formed and Purple Heather and Bluebell Patrols marched on the colours. "God Save the King" was sung and the Guide Prayer repeated. Guides then formed ranks for marching. After this the Guides formed a circle for campfire. A few songs were sung and the Guide paper was read by the Bluebell Patrol. Captain Wadsworth dismissed the Guides after the Guide National Anthem was sung.
Guides are reminded of badge night this Monday in the basement of St. Matthew's Church at 7 p.m.
Those old Guides who have a Guide uniform or parts to sell, get in touch with Captain Wadsworth. Phone Schaefer at 78 Commercial Ave.
—B. Sheridan.
Instead of the regular Guide meeting, on Monday a Badge Night was held in St. Matthew's Hall.
Guides of the 51st Company and the 106th Company passed tests for proficiency badges.
On Friday there will be a weiner roast for the Guides of the 106th Co. The girls are asked to meet at the hall at 6 o'clock sharp. Each Guide is requested to bring her own rolls and soft drinks.

Mr. Thomas Huntley, one of the popular old-timers of the camp, now at Wawaiton Falls, was a visitor to town this week and was warmly greeted by old friends here. For once in his life he had a "grouch", hard as that is to believe of this cheerful old soldier. "They won't accept me for service," Tommy said indignantly, and he was not comforted even when it was pointed out that he had done double service in the last war.

Among the local and personal notes in The Haileyburian last week was the following item of local interest:—"Mrs. S. D. Briden, who has spent the summer in the Porcupine district with her son, William, and Mrs. Briden, and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Briden at Kirkland Lake, was in Haileybury for a few days with Mr. Briden and other members of the family this week before going to Ottawa, where she will visit her sisters, the Misses Hopper. Mrs. Briden is considerably improved in health since her serious illness last year."

Pictures of the prospective bride and groom and the accompanying announcement in The Globe and Mail on Tuesday regarding the engagement of Miss Frances Elaine Gardner to Mr. Lloyd James Seymour will be of interest to many in Timmins and district. Mr. Seymour is the son of Rev. H. P. L. Seymour and Mrs. Seymour of Kingston, and the bride is the daughter of Inspector and Mrs. Francis Gardner, of Belleville. For several years Inspector Gardner was stationed in the North, living at South Porcupine, Haileybury and Cochrane, and the family being well-known and popular in the North.

Present Veteran Firemen With Gift At Dinner Monday

Twenty-three Years a Member of Volunteer Brigade, Jack Morrison Honoured.

Secretary of the Volunteer Fire Brigade for 23 years, Mr. Jack Morrison was the recipient of a fine pen and pencil set from the other members of the brigade 15 or 20 of whom gathered at the Legion Hall on Monday night for a testimonial dinner and social entertainment.

The presentation was made by Councillor Karl Eyre, Chairman of the council's Fire and Light Committee. Also present was Councillor Philip Fay.

Ernest Hill, an ex-Chief of the Fire Department, was present along with the present Chief, Alex Borland.

A vocal solo was given by Arthur Jenkins. "Scotty" Wilson played the piano accompaniment.

Speakers included Councillors Eyre and Fay, Fire Chief Borland, Ernest Hill, Walter Greaves, president of the local branch of the Canadian Legion and many others. Almost every man present was called upon. They all paid their respects to Mr. Morrison and he, in return thanked them for their gift to him.

There were songs; there was festivity and generally a good time at the social event which followed the banquet.

Princess Elizabeth to the Children of the Empire

The following is the text of the address given over the radio on Monday by Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth to the children of the Empire:

"In wishing you all good evening, I feel that I am speaking to friends and companions who have shared with my sister and myself many a happy childhood's hour. Thousands of you in this country have had to leave your homes and be separated from your fathers and mothers. My sister, Margaret Rose, and I feel so much for you, as we know from experience what it means to be away from those we love most of all. To you living in new surroundings we send a message of true sympathy, and at the same time we would like to thank the kind people who have welcomed you to their homes in the country."

"All of us children who are still at home think continually of our friends and relations who have gone overseas, who have travelled thousands of miles to find a war-time home and a kindly welcome in Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and the United States of America."

"My sister and I feel we know quite a lot about these countries. Our father and mother have so often talked to us of their visits to different parts of the world, so it is not difficult for us to picture the sort of life you are all leading and to think of all the new sights you must be seeing and the adventures you must be having. But I am sure that you, too, are often thinking of the Old Country. I know you won't forget us. It is just because we are not forgetting you that I want, on behalf of all the children at home, to send you my love and best wishes to you and to your kind hosts as well."

Before I finish, I can truthfully say to you all that we children at home are full of cheerfulness and courage. We are trying to do all we can to help our gallant sailors, soldiers and airmen, and we are trying, too, to bear our own share of the danger and sadness of war. We know, every one of us, that in the end all will be well, for God will care for us and give us victory and peace. And when peace comes, remember, it will be for us, the children of today, to make the world of tomorrow a better and happier place.

"My sister is by my side and we are both going to say goodnight to you. Come on, Margaret."

Princess Margaret Rose: "Goodnight, children."

Princess Elizabeth: "Goodnight, and good luck to you all."

Handsome Sum Realized at Stag for F. Callery

Officials of the McIntyre Arena said today that a handsome sum of money had been realized through the stag party held there last Friday night for Fred Callery, formerly a pitcher for the McIntyre ball team who now is in hospital in Ottawa suffering from back injuries which will keep him in a plaster cast for months.

It was estimated that more than 800 men attended the party which lasted into the " wee sma " hours of the morning.

Delnaur Mines to Start Development Campaign

Toronto, Oct. 16—A group of four patented claims in the Porcupine district which have been the object of sporadic surface tests, the old Ankerite Extension property, has been taken over by a new company known as Delnaur Gold Mines and funds have been arranged for a development campaign.

Previous efforts to explore and develop the ground were so sporadic that results cannot be correlated. However the property is considered to be in an excellent location, with favourable geological structure. It adjoins Delnite and Aunor on the south and the new south break at Buffalo Ankerite is believed to extend onto the Delnaur property.

Local interests are supplying the funds, but two other groups from the United States are also prepared to participate in the arrangements.
