He tried to sell it but it was returned to him, and so his idea to get rid of the car (and the payments) resulted in his action. Eastern Porcupine Red Cross Shipments During Past Month

Ladies of District Have Made Noble Response to All Calls.

The following is the shipment of work done during the month of October by the Eastern Porcupine District Red Cross:—

- Articles for Air Raid Victims in Britain: 23 wool dresses, size 50; 54 pairs flannelette bloomers, size 38; 72 pairs flannelette bloomers, size 4; 37 cotton slips, size 38; 30 suits flannelette pyjamas, size 18; 19 flannelette nightgowns, size 18; 50 wool skirts, size 14; 13 wool coats, size 4; 3 wool coats, size 2; 1 girl's bonnet, size 4; 1 boy's beret, size 2.

Articles for Hospital Supplies: 18 suits men's pyjamas; 5 hospital bed gowns; 2 flannel dressing gowns; 24 pillow cases; 26 surgical towels; 48 sheets.

From the above, it can be ascertained easily that the ladies of the district are responding in splendid manner to the latest call upon them for service. As long as there are women as noble and self-sacrificing as those who have been turning out regularly in response to the appeals of the Red Cross, our soldiers overseas and our comrades in arms in England can find solace and cheer in the fact that their needs will not be forgotten.

To the ranks of these people who are devoting much of their time to the service of their country, we shall be glad to welcome all those who have been prevented by circumstances from participating in the work hitherto. Supplies and instructions can be obtained at the Red Cross Workrooms; and if you wish someone to accompany you just contact your next door neighbour, because it is altogether possible that either she is accustomed to visit workrooms regularly or she wishes to start.

Some where in England, Nov. 6th: There is one Nazi airman who will get a hot reception if he is ever taken prisoner by members of this particular Canadian brigade. It's his mean disposition they don't like.

Canadians Hold Grudge Against This Mean Nazi

The men braved the storm and black-out to enjoy a moving picture programme arranged by the Canadian Legion War Services. The recreation hall was at the extreme end of the camp compound and several hundred of the lads had sloshed through mud and water to reach it.

A few minutes after they had wrapped themselves into chairs to watch the antics of a "silly symphony" star, the Nazi dropped a bomb just outside the theatre door. Fortunately, it didn't explode but for reasons of safety the hall was quickly vacated and the men were told the show was postponed—at least until the bomb could be removed and rendered harmless.

Just typical of the downright crudeness of the Germans, is the way they described it.

North Bay Nugget: German railway passengers now have to change trains as many as a dozen times on what was previously a straightforward trip. And even then the locomotive drivers are lucky if they come through with a tender behind.

To-morrow is Poppy Day in Schumacher

South Porcupine Also Holding Poppy Day on Friday.

In the township of Tisdale "Poppy Day", this year is being held on Friday, November 8th. In Schumacher, it is learned, a good group of taggers is being organized to make a thorough job of the sale of poppies there. At South Porcupine it is expected to dispose of 6,000 poppies. In buying a poppy on Poppy Day three worthy causes are advanced:—First, the wearing of the poppy is a tribute to the memory of the gallant men who gave their lives for freedom and the right in the last war; second, the poppies being made by disabled soldiers, their sale means a livelihood for the heroes of the last war; third, the profits from the sale of the poppies goes to the relief funds of the Legion branches to help returned men and their families.
