(Contnued from Page One) other highlight. In the second part of the programme the clever dancers rendered the "Sailor's Hornpipe." This was much enjoyed, especially the clever and talented toe dance by Helen Rhea Channon. Those who took part in this exceptionally well trained and executed dance number included: Ruth Willson, Patricia Cornell, Barbara Bowie., Shirley Thompson and Mazell Menear. At the conclusion of the concert "Margaret" was personally thanked by the chairman and the large gathering.

Mrs. Gamble, concert pianist gave four selections during the evening "Trees.' "Humoresque," "Deep River, and "Danny Boy.' Each selection was given with much skill and talent. The artist also acted as the accompanist for the evening, her work being a high point in the success of the event.

The humourous side was not forgoten and Mrs. Thompson, had everyone in roars of laughter with her character inpersonations of the "Charge of the Light Brigade" This incuded, an Englishman, an Italian, a Jew and an American. As an encore a short imaginative sketch brought forth roars of laughter and also applause.

During the intermission. Comrade (Dr.) McClinton said "There's a catch in everything" and Comrade W. A. Devine, then outlined the Legion"s programme of sending cigarettes to the troops in England. 'A collection taken up for this purpose netted $20.00 which was also another highlight of the even-

All the artists contributed extra solos and musical selections for the second part of the programme; Mrs. Armitage singing "Old Fashioned Town" and "Little Old Garden"; Mrs. Barry and Mrs. McClinton, vocal duet, "When They Bloom For You'; Rev. F. J. Baine "Berceuse," a very beautiful composition with a touching appeal, and which is a great favourite of the artist, who seemed to live with its melody. Again Mrs. Armitage played the very intri-

The three lady vocalists combined together in two very sweetly sung melodies and the quartette also rendered another selection before the close Mr. Garfield Bender led all in community singing, "Silent Night," "Rule Britannia," and "There'll Always be an England," closing with the National Anthem, President Walter Greaves expressed the thoughts of all when he thanked Comrade (Dr.) McClinton and the contributing artists for their most enjoyable entertainment.

Coffee and doughnuts kindly donated by the chairman and served by the kitchen committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary under chairmanship of Mrs. Jennings and the social committee with Mrs. R. Hardy in charge, made a fitting close to the first"musicale" of the Legion. All present expressed desire for the return of the artists and they have promised to plan another event for the near future. Hearing that members from the South Porcupine branch were present, the artists volunteered to give the same programme there after plans for the evening have been com-

Annual Concert at Central School on Dec. 4th, 5th, 6th

Each year the annual concert of the Central public school appears to be more interesting than the year before. This year it is hoped to make this idea more evident than ever in the past, the pupils expecting the annual event for December, 1940, to be the best yet. The dates for the annual concert of the Central public school this year are Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week, Dec. 4th, 5th and 6th. The programme prepared for the occasion is a most attractive and interesting one.
