

Hollinger Wins First Against the Bisons

Ankerite Squad Unable to Withstand Repeated Power Plays by Hollinger Squad

Russ Bentley, in Hollinger Goal, Gets Large Share of Credit for Victory in McIntyre Arena on Friday Night in Third Game of Mines League Hockey Schedule. Carnegies and Young Shine on One Ankerite Line.

Buffalo Ankerite Bisons fell before the crushing power plays of the Hollinger in the third game of the Mines League schedule played on Friday night at the McIntyre arena. The Hollites obtained their edge in the first and second periods. They outscored the Bisons two to one in the first period and added to their margin with the only goal of the middle cant.

A good part of the credit for the victory was due to Russ Bentley in the Hollinger nets. Many times during the game he was the only player who stood between the goal and rushing Ankerite forwards. On one or two occasions his saves were nothing less than sensational. In the first period three Bisons got loose on a break-away and swarmed down the ice unopposed. Bentley came out to meet them and succeeded in disorganizing the play sufficiently to save a goal.

Ankerite drew first blood four minutes after the game began. The Carnegies and Jackie Young came down on a rushing attack. Ossie Carnegie supplied Young with a short, fast pass and the diminutive wingman swooped in on Bentley and then swerved at the net to slip the disc in behind him.

Hollinger started to apply the pressure and on play after play crowded into the Ankerite blue line and peppered the goal with rubber. The Bisons scored two goals within seven seconds when they did start to click. With Ossie Carnegie in the penalty box for tripping, Villeneuve took a pass from Lortie on a power attack that left the Hollinger defenceman gasping. On the next play after the face-off Bill Wilson took Horbel's pass to count.

Best and almost the only Bison defence in this hectic first period was the offense supplied by the line of Young and the Carnegie brothers. When they came down the ice they were always dangerous.

Half of the second period elapsed before the first goal was scored. Horbel gave Wink Wilson a lovely pass at the blue line and Wilson took the puck in to beat Kemp.

Hollinger started the third period a man short and soon he was joined by another Hollinger player, Palmateer. The Hollinger team stayed off the desperate Ankerite attack long enough to get one man back on the frozen surface but Palmateer was still in the box when the Carnegies and Young sallied down again. Herbie Carnegie passed to Young, who in turn, passed to Ossie Carnegie. Their triangle passing in front of the net was good for a counter.

Hollinger soon evened up the period score when Palmateer took a pass from Horbel, who in turn took a relay from Bill Wilson, to count. Less than a minute later the Bisons scored again. Allen shot from the side and the puck struck Morris, who was standing by the Hollinger goal, in the leg, caromed off and into the net.

After a face-off near the Hollinger goal, Delmonte and Palmateer broke away together and came down the ice together. They scored with Palmateer passing and Delmonte scoring.

MORE BRITISH TROOPS LAND TO ASSIST GREEKS

Additional British troops landed in Greece over the week-end as the Italians continue their defeat.

50 TANKS COLUMN IN DESERT SURROUNDED BY THE BRITISH

A Cairo despatch said to-day that a column of 50 Italian tanks has been surrounded in the desert by a Regiment of British Hussars.

A STERN TEST

Little Jean one day turned to her mother, who was a widow. "Mother," she said, "do you really and truly love me?" "Of course child," was the answer. "Why do you ask?" "And will you prove it to me?" "Yes, if I can." "Well then, go and marry the man round the corner who has the sweetie shop." —Globe and Mail

The Passing Hour: Electrical underwear has been invented for men who do the deep sea diving for the navy. Maybe some of the boys are in for a shock.

SENSIBLE MANAGER

The woman had been very trying to the shop assistant whose temper was beginning to get a bit uncertain. "I think you had better fetch the manager," sniffed the customer. "Perhaps he'll have a little more sense than you seem to possess." "Oh he has, madam," was the tired reply. "He went out as you came in." —Montreal Herald.

Sudbury Man Again Appointed Northern Basketball Convener

Toronto, Nov. 23.—Fred W. Sheridan, Sudbury, has again been appointed Northern Ontario convener for the Ontario Basketball Association. His appointment was made at an O.B.A. meeting in Toronto.

Five Northern Ontario sections which were all affiliated in the intermediate section of the O.B.A. last season, are back in the fold. They are: North Bay, Sudbury, Kirkland Lake, Noranda and Timmins. League winners of these sections will compete in play-offs at the end of the season for the Northern Ontario championship and the right to enter the O.B.A. finals.

All winners must be declared and ready to enter the first round of the O.B.A. play-offs by March 15. It is expected, however, that Northern Ontario clubs will be allowed a little longer to complete their play-offs.

Senior club playdowns will begin a week earlier than intermediates on March 8. It was agreed to allow Harley Moyer of Hamilton to proceed with formation of a provincial referee's association and the affiliation of the following district basketball centres: Eastern Ontario A.B.A., Niagara District B.A., London and District B.A., and Toronto and District A.B.A.

Residence transfers were given to players Orin Hanna and James Haines from Niagara Falls to St. Catharines, and James E. Wilson of Hamilton was expelled from all further participation in any capacity with any team or organization under the jurisdiction of the O.B.A.

GRATITUDE

Two Broadwayites sat in a restaurant. At the end of the meal one requested a loan.

"Can I borrow $20 for a week," he asked.

"Sure," replied the other, counting out the money.

As they rose, the latter spoke again "Remember," he reminded, "that's only for a week."

The borrower turned a vivid red. "You'll get your money," he screamed. "Stop hounding me!" —Kirkland-Lake Northern News.

43 at Ski Zone Meet in Kirkland Over the Week-End

Forty-three representatives from twelve clubs were present at a meeting of the Northern section of the Ontario Ski Zone, held in Kirkland Lake over the week-end. Eight were present from the Porcupine Ski Club.

Representatives were present from Kirkland Lake, North Bay, Coniston, Larder Lake, Sudbury, Noranda, Temiskaming, Englehart, New Liskeard, Eurlamaque, Iroquois Falls and Timmins.

Chairman of the northern division, Roy Hebert, gave a history of this division, formed five years ago at North Bay. It now extended from Chapleau on the West to Timmins on the north, and hoped in time that it would include Kapuskasing.

Three ski schools will be held this year and the gold belt will receive one of them. It probably will be held in Larder Lake.

Pinch hitting for Don Newton, Motion Picture director, Reg. Leach, of North Bay, said that the Ontario Ski Zone has the largest library of ski moving pictures in the world. Reels have been sent to points as far divergent as the State of Washington and Alaska.

Many other technical matters were discussed at the meetings which occupied all of Sunday.

Port Arthur News-Chronicle:—The story is told that an Indian girl meeting up with the police was asked for her registration card. "I haven't one," she said. "You should have." "Oh no, I shouldn't. It's only you foreigners who have to have registration cards."

THE ALGONQUINS

(From North Bay Nugget) "Oh, Anita, I'm so worried. You know you told me to put that piece of wedding cake under my pillow and I'd dream of my future husband?" "Yes, Theima, didn't it work?" "That's what worries me. I dreamed about the Algonquin Regiment."

Efficiency Magazine: At present we can look back and see how trifling our peace-time worries were. Truly they were not worth bothering about. We are now being tested by big troubles, and we should not waste our time fussing about small matters.

Globe and Mail:—Those crack Italian troops are beginning to reveal alarming fissures. Plainly they are not what they were cracked up to be.

Globe and Mail:—No doubt Nazi bombers are boasting that soon they will have bombed all the hospitals in London and neighbourhood.

MAYOR

EMILE BRUNETTE

I wish to thank the electorate of Timmins for the confidence it has shown in me by Re-electing me to the Mayoralty by Acclamation.

May I also say that the good work achieved for the municipality this year was due to the harmonious and efficient manner in which all Department heads have worked together one with another and with myself during the year.

Evidence of the capability of the present Council in keeping down costs and at the same time making more than the usual improvements to the Town, may be found in the financial statement which appears elsewhere in this issue.

I might add that the present council is the only body that has published a financial statement since 1937. This is evidence that our present municipal body would rather acquaint the public with the facts, than keep them in the dark as has been the habit in some cases in the past.
