C.G.I.T. Prepares for Conference at Kirkland Lake

Also for Sunday Morning
Service, May 4th, at the United Church.

Arrangements for the executive of the Canadian Girls in Training to meet with the Rev. W. M. Mustard to plan the C.G.I.T. service for Sunday morning, May 4th, were made at the regular weekly meeting of the C.G.I.T. which took place on Tuesday evening. The president, Vera Spencer, the vice-president, Joyce Service, the secretary, Edna MacDonald, and Margaret McCaghy will form the executive to confer with Mr. Mustard.

Arrangements were also made to sell the remaining 54 boxes of chocolates at the W.M.S. tea and sale of home-baking, on Wednesday afternoon, April 23rd, with proceeds for the Ontario Girls' Work Board. Mrs. Earl Smith, leader, was in charge of the sale.

Mrs. Harold Guest, leader of the Voyageurs' group, announced the policy to be followed in the preparations for the Mothers and Daughters Banquet will be to have uniform dishes and lunch for all five groups.

Further arrangements were completed for the conference to take place in Kirkland Lake, Friday, April 25th, to Sunday, April 27th. Twenty-one representatives of the local group were planning to attend the conference, but due to the weather conditions, and the state of the roads, it has been decided to hold a meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, of these representatives. Although it is hoped that all may be able to attend the conference as planned, the condition of the roads makes it necessary to send a lesser number to Kirkland Lake.

After the department meeting, the groups worked on table decorations and favours for the Mother and Daughter Banquet.

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

A thing of beauty is a joy forever. Its loveliness increases. It will never pass into nothingness. (Keats.)

Flowers . . . beautiful baskets of the choicest blooms . . . three such were presented on Monday evening at the reception which followed the final performance of the Porcupine Skating Carnival, "Keen Edges," at the McIntyre Building . . . the first went to Miss Prudence Holbrook, one of the skating instructresses, and in making the presentation, Mr. R. J. Ennis general manager of the McIntyre Mines and honorary president of the Carnival committee, complimented "Miss Prudence" on her fine work in making the carnival the great success that it was.

Then, to Miss Mary Jane Halsted, instructress, Mr. Ennis presented the second basket of mixed flowers, humorously remarking that he had personally selected each rose . . . another remark made by the honorary president about "Miss Mary Jane" was that when he had seen her patience with the junior members of the club, he had told her . . . "You would make a fine mother" . . . then, when he had seen her in the number "Faith Resurgent", he had said . . . "You would be an ideal nun" . . . the final decision, he said, he would leave to her.

The third and final tribute went to Mrs. Constance Wilson Samuel, visiting artist, who was "Victory" in the carnival programme . . . Mr. Ennis thanked "Connie" for coming to the Porcupine to take part in the third annual carnival, and complimented her on her fine performance . . . he then thanked Dr. W. D. Robson, Mrs. N. H. Russell, "Tup Gilbert", the choir, the orchestra, the skaters, the "behind the scenes" mothers and fathers, and all who helped to make the carnival the beautiful and talented spectacle that it was.

Mr. D. E. Keeley, president of the club, introduced Mr. Ennis, and Mr. Ennis in turn, welcomed Mr. Ben Smith, of New York City, vice-president of the McIntyre Mines, who complimented the skaters on the carnival, and said that he believed there was no club could do better than this northern group . . . Mr. Smith came by air to Toronto, and from there by train to attend the carnival, and was accompanied by his charming daughter, Miss Cynthia Smith, and from Toronto by Lieutenant Stewart Reyburn, of the 48th Highlanders, former skating partner of Miss Sonia Henie . . . Lt. Reyburn said that the club had made wonderful progress in its three years, and recalled that his father had been among the first proponents of the art to present an ice-spectacle in this district (the Granite Club Skaters, four years ago) . . . he then wished the skaters every success and happiness on the "silver blades."

Lunch was served in the gymnasium prior to the presentations and dancing in the auditorium of the building . . . to show his pride in the carnival, the skaters, and all who took part in it, Mr. Smith, in extending his congratulations, said that he would arrange with Mr. Ennis for a party for the skaters, their mothers, fathers, sisters and brothers, and all others who took part, and added "send the bill to me" . . . the McIntyre Ambassadors' orchestra played for the dancing, and it was a happy celebration of a great event.

Four lovely young ladies, who are to be credited with the large sale of programmes, are Misses Elma Nykanen, Nelma Johnson, Velma Eimes, and Gertrude Teitto . . . they carried out the carnival spirit wearing radio costumes, and being present at all three performances . . . Saturday matinee, evening and Monday evening . . . the orchestra received a special tribute from Mr. Ennis, who said that the music was "better this year than it had been previously."

The carnival itself was an extravaganza of graceful and talented skating, beautiful settings and costumes, and ripping music . . . certainly, it was a performance that carried away the onlooker . . . that is why, at one moment, the audience would be hushed in silence, and at another, would burst into loud laughter or excited applause . . . yes, it's amazing what has been done with youngsters and with the senior members of the club in three years . . . strength, talent, and grace had been combined in a rainbow of colour and action, which came to a thrilling end with a display of three flags united . . . the American flag, the Union Jack and the flag of Canada.

Costumes were in a large measure responsible for the beauty of the performance . . . they were breathtakingly lovely . . . in the number "Faith Resurgent", Miss Mary Jane Halsted presented a striking symbol of faith and hope, as the spotlight picked out the large cross which adorned her costume . . . her attendants, choir boys, proceeded along the smooth ice surface, carrying flickering tapers, and, then, in the stillness of "world-awaiting", Miss Halsted appeared, to add to the great wish which had fallen over the audience . . . it was an unforgettable moment and one of the most impressive numbers of the programme, with the Finnish choir providing to its glory with the singing of "The Lost Chord" and "In a Monastery Garden."

"Blue Shadows", "Scotch on Ice", "Wings", "Hey, Hey, Farmer Grey", "Dresden Dolls", and every other number of the programme was highlighted with attractive costumes . . . in Blue Shadows the lovely performers seemed to "float" in their shadowy blue frocks.

and, as the spotlight flickered over them, the colours seemed to change into tens of delightful shades and hues . . . "Park Avenue Fantasy" with Mary Jane Halsted and Prudence Holbrook brought sophistication, with costumes of shimmering satin in black and powder blue, and tiny evening caps to match.

No words can say "Thank You" better than those two simple words . . . a "thank you" to about three hundred skaters of all ages . . . a "thank you", to choir, to committee, to orchestra, to executive, to visitors, and most of all, to instructresses, from the people of the Porcupine, and from all who had the privilege of being present at "Keen Edges" . . . may our club continue on its road to success and glory, to the eventual fame which is due to such talented people.

Writing to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McChesney, Donald McChesney, with the 1st Tunneling Division of the Canadian Engineers at Gibraltar, says that each day the Spanish merchants bring fresh fruit and vegetables to the "Rock" . . . he adds that it costs only 12c to see to good show, and 18c for a shave and haircut . . . which means that the Canadian soldiers on the "Rock" are in no need, and that they are enjoying life.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Charbonneau, have announced the engagement of their younger daughter, Mabel Florina, to John VanRassel, of the R.C.A.P., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. VanRassel, Timmins . . . the marriage will take place quietly early next month, and many friends throughout the district are extending sincere good wishes to the popular couple.

At the regular meeting of the Arbutus Chapter Eastern Star on Tuesday evening, the quilt which was made by the members was drawn for, and was won by Mrs. R. Cole . . . the draw was made by Mrs. Fulmer and after the meeting, tea was served . . . plans were made for the afternoon meeting of the knitting club, to-day, which is taking place at the home of Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Elm street south . . . and, also, for the Monday evening meeting, which will take place at the home of Mrs. D. McInnis, 54 Balsam street south.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Londry, whose wedding was a very lovely event at South Porcupine yesterday afternoon . . . the bride was formerly Miss Gwendolyn Boyne Luxton, a popular member of the younger set, and the daughter of one of the pioneer families of this district . . . also to Mr. and Mrs. Ulyse Ethier and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belchat, who were united in marriage in a lovely double wedding ceremony at the Notre Dame des Lourdes Church yesterday morning . . . the former bride was Miss Alice Bastarache, while Mrs. Belchat was her sister, Miss Blanche Bastarache.

Another popular couple will soon leave for Southern Ontario . . . they are Mr. and Mrs. Burton Crocker, and family, who will take up residence in Hamilton . . . on Saturday evening, their friends surprised them with a farewell party, during which a beautiful presentation was made . . . the event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McEachran, 78 Way avenue . . . Mr. Crocker will leave about April 30th, and Mrs. Crocker and family will follow after the close of the present school term.

Over thirty dollars was the amount forwarded to the Bombed Victims' Fund from the whist drive held in the Hollinger Hall on Monday evening . . . hostesses were Mrs. J. Shaw and Mrs. J. Ormston, who are to be complimented on the pleasant evening they arranged . . . Fine prizes were awarded, and, once again, the large attendance was provided the opportunity to enjoy a pleasant evening while contributing to a worthy cause.

It was with pride that Timmins residents welcomed the Grey and Simcoe Regiment to Timmins yesterday . . . most of the boys, you'll remember, are from Timmins, Kirkland Lake, New Liskeard, Halleybury, Cobalt, and other northern towns, and as one of them said . . . "It seemed like old home week" . . . they have visited numerous northern towns on their trip to Timmins, and will stop at others on their way back to Camp Borden . . . then, of course, there were the drivers, most of whom come from Winnipeg . . . they were very enthusiastic about the North Land, and especially about Timmins and its hospitable people . . . The only trouble, they said, was that they weren't staying long enough.
