Council Threatens Tax Sale Unless Payments Start

making surveys for the installation of the machines. He wanted a retaining fee of $150 and after that a daily rate of $25. Chief of Police Leo H. Gagnon, who was still in the committee room at that time, said that he could get a man who was a policeman and in charge of that sort of work in Montreal to come up here for his expenses.
He was told to see the town clerk and to get in touch with the man. The definite decision, however was left over till the mayor returned.

Three petitions were received by the council. One was for a sidewalk on the west side of Balsam Street from Seventh to Ninth Avenues. The two other petitions were for sewers and water. One was from the residents on Ogden Avenue from Mountjoy to Balsam and the other was from people on Lincoln Avenue from North Road to Waterloo.

An application for a license to run a taxi stand was received by the council and it bore the "OK" seal of the chief of police. It was from Wilbert Brewer of 113 Birch street south and he said that he had been living in Timmins for the past sixteen years and wanted to start a taxi stand at 2 Elm street south. The license was granted.

Three old by-laws that had been passed as far back as 1934 were repealed and a new one passed authorizing the constables of the Timmins police force to act under the L.C.A.
It was pointed out that some of the by-laws had no more than one man on the present police force mentioned and were therefore useless.

A request for a refund of poll tax was refused to G. Mammoletti when it was shown that he was liable to tax under the act.

A matter of putting through a lane north of First Avenue that was deferred from last Fall, was brought up again and it was left to a committee composed of Councillor McDermott, Town Clerk Arthur Shaw and Town Engineer Jack McLean to decide it.
All the accounts were passed.

Six petitions were received asking for the contract for the sludge removal. The amounts varied from $100 to $135 and the matter was left to the Department of Public Works to decide, as long as they did the job cheaper than last year.

Canadian Poetry Topic at Meeting of Timmins Y.P.U.

Interesting and Informative Programme Last Night.

The Timmins United Church, Y.P.U. enjoyed a programme on Canadian poetry at the meeting on Wednesday evening in the church basement. The meeting opened with the hymn "Lord of the Lands" to the tune of "O Canada."

The Christian Culture Department was in charge of the meeting with acting convener, Helge Hongisto, presiding. The worship service was built around the 36th Psalm, and the sincerity of the feeling expressed in that portion of scripture helped to create a suitable atmosphere for the topic of the evening, "Canadian Poetry."

The convener introduced the topic and Peggy Webster very effectively sketched the life of E. Pauline Johnson, Canada's famous Indian poetess.
Supplementing her talk with several of Miss Johnson's poems, including the well-known "Song My Paddle Sings" Peggy Webster brought out some points of interest about the author that were new to the group.

Following the talk on Pauline Johnson, Elsie Claiworthy reviewed the life of Archibald Lampman, another of the truly great poets of the nation. She

About Some of the Early Writings of Churchill

(Manchester Guardian)

The other day I was reading the first book that the Prime Minister ever published "The story of the Malakand Field Force", the account of an Indian frontier war in which, as was his adventurous custom, he involved himself as the correspondent of the "Pioneer" newspaper at the age of 23.

Even then his gift of phrase showed itself, brilliant but at that time un-disciplined in his description of the Himalayas as "this tumult of ground".
But what particularly interested me was a despatch from the commander of the force, Major General Sir Bindon Blood, in which he commended the "courage and resolution" of Lieut. W.
L. S. Churchill, 4th Hussars, "who made himself useful at a critical moment."

also read several of the poet's works and they were much appreciated by the audience.

Mr. Mustard very kindly gathered up the loose ends, as it were, by a few brief comments on the value of Canadian literature and its place in our lives. The business meeting consisted only of the reading of the previous minutes and a word or two by Gordon Findlayson on the sale of tickets for the play, "Don't Darken My Door," to be presented May 6th and 7th, and which is progressing very favourably.

The meeting closed with a period of recreation arranged and conducted by Peggy Shaw. All the members had an opportunity to show their practical ability in supplying the last lines to limericks composed about the Y.P.U. members. Some of the work showed real merit in that it prompted a hearty laugh from the group when read. Next week's meeting will be under the direction of the Christian Mission Dept. and all members are asked to be present.

Interesting Meeting of the Schumacher W.M.S.

Schumacher, April 23—(Special to The Advance)—The Womens Missionary Society of Trinity United Church, met last Thursday afternoon in the Church parlour. Worship was led by Mrs. W. Leck, assisted by Mrs. George Shippam. Mrs. Leck gave an informal talk about her trip to the Missionary Conference held in Toronto. Mrs.
Bert Waite gave a talk from the Study Book, taking for her subject, "Oliver Jackson, B.D., O.B.E., Apostle of the Out Posts." This talk was very interesting and was much appreciated by all who attended. Mrs. Black was the soloist. Mrs. W. R. Fraser and Mrs. J.
M. Brownlee were hostesses and at the close of the meeting served a tasty lunch.

Annual Meeting of S. Porcupine Branch Consumers' Co-op.

Expect to Install "Self Service" at Early Date.

South Porcupine, April 23—(Special to The Advance)—A regular annual general meeting of the South Porcupine Branch of the Consumers' Cooperative Society was held on Sunday afternoon in the Kiwanis hall, with a good number of shareholders present.
The report of the Board of Directors was read and found satisfactory. The report remarked on the losses sustained in Timmins and Schumacher branches by the unfortunate fires which had occurred, but mentioned that the store in Schumacher will shortly re-open and feature self-service and this was hoped to be installed in the South Porcupine store soon.

Sales were compared from 1931 to 1940. In 1931 sales were $51,361.64; in 1940 $625,795.51. Members in 1931 were numbered at 52; in 1941 the number is 1,138.

Supervisory Committees were appointed—for South Porcupine—Messrs Haikkila, M. Rauhala, O. Savijari and O. Pajunen.

For the Dome—Messrs D. Leiferman, P. Andrews and G. McDonnell.

The duties of these committees are to supervise accounts receivable and remedy trouble in the stores and be of service in things of general interest to members.

Educational and Social Committees formed for South Porcupine included Messrs Rauhala, O. Savijari, Miss Vieno Ranta and Mrs. M. Kautto.

A general meeting of the directors and members is to be held on April 30th in the evening in Harmony hall, Timmins.

VISITORS TO CAMP

Mr. Ben Smith, vice-president of the McIntyre Mines, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Cynthia Smith, flew from New York City to Toronto on Sunday, arriving by train in the Porcupine Camp, to attend the Porcupine Skating Carnival "Keen Edges" on Monday evening. From Toronto, they were accompanied by Lieutenant Stewart Reyburn, of the 48th Highlanders, former skating partner of Miss Sonia Henie.

Mr. Enzo Colameco left on Wednesday to spend a few months in Toronto.

Blairmore Enterprise—When a Cal-garian woman heard that a swarm of moths were heading for the city, she purchased a big supply of moth killer.

Spirit of St. George Has Inspired Freedom

ture of the dear islands across the sea.
All were proud of the stock from which they came and were joining in celebrating St. George's Day for the liberty and high ideals the day commemorated. There were some dark days now but soon would come the brilliant light of victory.

Bro. K. Cambridge proposed the toast to the "Daughters of England."
"We are glad to help our brothers and fathers and sons in the fight for liberty and the right" said Mrs. Trevenna in responding, "and we have full confidence that the victory will be won and that democracy will survive."

R. Stoneman, Vice-President of Lodge Goldfields, proposed the toast to "The Guests," response being made by Mr. Austin Neame. "In these momentous times," said Mr. Neame, "our thoughts go back to the Old Land that we love—to the fathers, brothers, sons and other relatives facing odds in the common cause. Our thoughts also turn to Greece and the troops there." He mentioned the fact that not only was the evening the anniversary of St. George but it was also the anniversary of the victory of the naval battle of Zeebrugge.
"Once again," he concluded, "England fights the dragon of evil and oppression. We have the dragon by the tail and I hope to see the twisting of the dragon's tail until the damn thing drops off."

The toast to the press was proposed by Mr. Al Wetmore, in humorous vein, and responded to in similar way by G. A. Macdonald, who concluded by tribute to the stirring courage and stamina of the people of the Old Land who have borne more than any other nation ever before was called upon to endure, and still have their full courage and determination and humour.

The address of the evening was by Bro. I. M. Marshall, who condensed into a brief speech a galaxy of inspiring thoughts. In opening he made humorous reference to the Englishman from Cornwall—a good miner and a good fellow. One Cornishman coming to this country had taken a place on a farm. Set at digging potatoes, his natural proclivities tempted him to "sink a shaft." The farmer seeing the deep hole cried:—"What are you trying to do?" The reply given in broad dialect by Mr. Marshall—was to the effect that he was digging potatoes but the vein seemed to be petering out.

"We ought to think more and talk more about St. George and England and what they mean to the world," said Mr. Marshall, adding that this would mean inspiration to richer and fuller life. On his first visit to England at the time of the last war, he had found the country even more beautiful than friends and fancy had pictured it. And the English people were worthy of the "most beautiful country in the world."

"The English," he said, "have given us the common law and social standards, based on the Christian religion and the rights of others. The English have always been leaders in every struggle upwards made in mankind's history. In the battle for liberty and righteousness they will march on despite all obstacles—march on to final victory. That is the spirit of St.

George, the spirit of England."

After thanking all who had contributed in any way to the success of the evening, President Burgess called on Mr. A. Jenkins to act as master of ceremonies for the programme. The programme opened with an instrumental solo by Mr. J. Wilson that won much favour. Vocal solos by Miss Peggy Wetmore, Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. J. Griffin were very pleasing numbers on the programme and were greatly appreciated. Miss P. Strongman delighted all with a tap dance, while the tap dancing of Master J.
Thompson won very insistent encore and his second number was equally approved. Another outstanding number on the programme was the vocal duet by Mrs. Stanlake and Mrs. Webb, the harmonious blending of these two fine voices being a delight to all. By special request they sang, "Whispering Hope," as an encore. Mrs. Surman and Mrs. C. Wilkins added to the effectiveness of the numbers by their piano accompaniments, while Mrs. Armitage gave equally pleasing service by her accompaniment for Miss Peggy Wetmore's solos.

Another special feature of the evening was the singing of "There'll Always be an England." Led by Mr.
Jenkins, the men sang it, the ladies sang it, and all together made it ring around the hall, the sweet voices of the youngsters present singing the popular melody with special feeling.

At the completion of the a few happy hours were spent in music for this being attributed by Smithie and his orchestra.
