Schoolboy Finds a Quantity of Partly Refined Gold Ore

Ore is Turned Over to Timmins Police by Caretaker. "Gold Squad" Investigating.

Timmins police received a quantity of gold on Tuesday afternoon from the caretaker at the Sacred Heart School. The gold had been found in the schoolyard and had been turned in to the caretaker. He in turn brought the stuff to the police station and they turned it over to the "Gold Squad." The "Gold Squad" is now investigating

The young lad that found the gold, that was still in the crude stage, did the right thing in turning it in. Constable Bert Braney of the "Gold Squad" asked yesterday that thanks be extended to the caretaker and the boy for turning the gold-bearing ore over to the authorities.

The package was found wrapped in a part of the Toronto Star Weekly and was in the last stage before being meltled into a gold button. The stuff lookas it was not tested yet.

Delightful Evening at the Thirteenth Annual Ladies' Auxiliary Banquet

Banquet Tables Beautifully Adorned. Interesting Toasts and Responses. Birthday Cake a Special Feature. After the Banquet Ladies Were Hostesses to Members

Narcissus and daffodils adorned the Second Annual banquet tables at the thirteenth birthday banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion on Monday evening in the Legion hall when fifty of the members gathered to celebrate May, 12, 13, & 14 the organization of the group.

After proposing the toast to "The King" the president Mrs. Robt. Hardy, in a brief address welcomed the members to the event. Other toasts were "To the Canadian Legion, by Mrs. H. Turner, 1st Vice-president, response by Mrs. B. Finchen, 2nd Vice-president who spoke highly of the work of the Legion in connection with ex-service-10.45 a.m.—Second Morning Worship men and with men of the present army; "To the Ladies' Auxiliary" by Louis XIII," 1 entry. and every effort of the organization. Miss Mamis Borland made the toast to "The Provincial Command", which Mrs. J. Smith responded, mentioning that it would be impossible for the higher offices to function if it were not for branches like that in

Honouring members who have passed away, as suggested by the president, a period of silence was carried through, the names of the departed members being read. The members were sorry that Mrs. E. Price, immediate Past President, was unable to be present owing to ill

The prize was a fine pair of pillow slips. After the close of the banquet the members were hostesses to the men of the Legion, and several men at present in service, at a pleasant social evening that gave all a very happy time. Included on the interesting program were dances by three pupils of Miss Margaret Easton. Miss Helen Rhea Channon, whose lovely brown curls and sweet manners, combined with her highly talented dancing, make her a favorite at all events, delighted the gathering with "Waltz Ballet", and in response to the insistent applause, she returned with a short encore of the same number. Little Miss Lois Doolan gave a smooth, fast and rhythmic tap dance and little Miss Christine Rose gave a very difficult dance of the ballet type. All artists showed great skill, and the talent of their teacher. Wilson Thomson, in his usual happy style, gave his rendition of "The Captain of the Barge", which brought roars of enthusiastic laughter, and the encore "The Shift-Boss", a special re-

Mystery found its way into the programme with card tricks which mystified the onlookers. They were performed by Mr. S. Viret who is one of the best in this type of entertainment locally. A period of community singing added to the general enjoyment, and proved very impressive when the entire gathering rose to sing "There'll Always be an England." Walter Greaves, president of the Legion made his welcome to the ladies by rendering the

"Legion Theme Song." Old country favourites such as Veleta, Military Two-Step, Barn Dance, Lambeth Walk and "Boomps-aDaisy" were featured during the dancing, with an exhibition of the latter by Lance-Corporal Wilkinson and Mrs. R. Hardy. These exponents of the dance made a "bright spot" on the dance programme. W. A. Devine presided at final touch to a splendid evening.

The beautiful sewing cabinet, which was desired by all who saw it (made and donated to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion by Mr. R. Backhouse) was won by Mrs. Dupont of the Buffalo-Ankerite Property. The proceeds of the ticket sale on the cabinet will be used to send comforts to the men serving overseas.
