Dizzy Dean Now In Role of Coach For Chicago Cubs

Released as Player and Then Signed Again as Coach. Will Get Double Pay.

The inimitable Dizzy Dean tried to quit baseball but wound up by moving from Chicago Cubs' bench to the club's coaching lines—at double pay.

In a surprise move which climaxed a day of Dean developments and actually left the once-great pitcher momentarily speechless, the Cubs refused Dean's request for voluntary retirement, gave him his unconditional release and signed him as a coaching aide to Manager Jimmy Wilson.

"Boy, has this club been good to me," said Dean when the Cub general manager, James Gallagher, announced Dean would remain with the team. That remark succinctly summed up Dean's case. For the Cubs gave Dean a new contract as a coach, starting his pay immediately, and will also give him the remainder of his reported $10,000 player contract at the end of the season.

Thus ends—for at least a year—the playing career of one of baseball's great pitchers, one who won thirty games and lost only seven for St. Louis Cardinals in 1934 and who in six seasons as a Cardinal averaged twenty-two victories a year.

That was before O' Diz, whose colorful escapades, suspensions and salary holdouts made him the "newspaper" figure in baseball, came to Chicago in April, 1938—costing the Cubs $135,000 and three players.

That year Dizzy played a part in the Cub pennant-winning drive, winning up with a seven-win and one-loss record. But the next two seasons, when he could win only nine games against seven losses, brought disappointment and heartbreak. Even a flaming competitive spirit could not overcome his sidearm "nothing ball," and he was knocked from the box repeatedly.

During those two years he said he visited about 100 physicians, and last year asked to be sent to Tulsa, where he won eight and lost eight games.

But even today, as he decided to quit as a player, his heart would not allow him to say "this is final." "I'm going to coach this year," he said, "and try to pitch once more after a year of rest for my arm. If I can't pitch, then I'll be through for good."

Gallagher and Manager Wilson both paid tribute to that Dean spirit, Gallagher remarking: "He's too valuable a baseball man to wind up in the minors—or picking cotton. He'll be of great value helping young pitchers."

Dean, who was reported to have received contracts of $20,000, $20,000 and $10,000 for three seasons with the Cubs, said he hurt his arm against Boston in 1937, ten days after breaking his toe in the 1937 all-star game. Gone from that day, he said, was the burning speed and tireless durability which had seen him "fork 'em through" to carry almost single-handedly the Cardinals to the 1934 pennant and world championship against Detroit Tigers.

He beat the Tigers, 11-0, in the decisive game of that series, and that six-hit performance, he said, was his greatest baseball thrill.

Dean, whose greying hair belies the 30-year age the record book lists for him, was the first player to sign with the Cubs for the 1940 season, and his reported $10,000 contract caused a rumble of discontent among some players. In his only start this season he lasted one inning against Pittsburgh, allowing three hits and three runs. To date he has been pitching in batting practice, and he'll continue that as part of his new job.

CARRIES GOLF CLUB IN PLANE

Group Captain J. Silvester is probably the only member of the Royal Air Force who carries a golf club on bombing flights over Germany. One of the R.A.F.'s keenest golfers, Silvester says, he does this so that "if we are forced down I can keep my swing going."

UNIVERSITY GOLF CHAMPION

T. M. Paterson, of Glasgow, won the Scottish Universities individual golf championship at Carnoustie with two rounds of 80. Edinburgh University was not represented for the second year in succession.

TO BATTLE AGAIN

New York—Ty Cobb and Babe Ruth, two all-time baseball greats, return to competition in mid-June—but this time at golf. Ruth has accepted Cobb's challenge for a match in New York for the benefit of British war relief. Since their retirement from the major leagues each has adopted golf. Both have belittled the other's fairway skill. The Babe says he'll outslug the Georgia Peach. Ty says most of Babe's wallops will wind up in the rough. Anyway, it'll be a battle.

Two Wrongs Make One Right for Frank Colman

Two wrongs made a right for Frank Colman, a Canadian-born youngster who is banking on his hitting ability to make the grade one of these days in major league baseball.

The two wrongs that have had so much to do with the career of the 23-year-old London, Ontario ball player were injuries suffered by teammates—one last year while he was playing with Wilmington in the Interstate League and the other at the start of this season with Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League.

Colman was a southpaw pitcher with a flair for banging out base hits, when he started with the Wilmington club. Then Billy Southworth, Jr., sprained an ankle and Manager Charlie Berry shot Colman into Southworth's outfield post. Colman showed the move was a good one by batting .361 for 73 games, being runner up for the circuit batting title. He was also named the most valuable player in the league.

It looked as if Colman was doomed to ride the bench this season with the Leafs until veteran John Tyler suffered an injury. The Canadian, who had sat out the first 11 games, was sent in to fill the rightfield breach by Manager Lena Blackburner and has responded by batting .409 in 16 games.

Before Southworth's injury, Colman was gaining a pitching reputation with Wilmington with a record of 10 victories and four losses when a sore arm overtook him. Over one stretch he hurled 32 consecutive scoreless innings for a league record.

Bothered with arm trouble, Colman turned to his batting ability to earn a regular spot. Discussing Colman's slugging potentialities, one Toronto club official said: "Why he hits the worst balls—ones that would hit him if he didn't hit them—and he gets base hits. The pitchers are going to have difficulty throwing to a guy like that."

He gained his first baseball experience pitching in the London City League.

Budpath Looks Like Ontario's Best Now After King's Plate

Ontario Horsemen Trying to Pick Ontario's Best Three-Year-Old Now After the Excitement of King's Plate.

Horsemen and race followers in Ontario this week were beginning to forget about the King's Plate in concentrating upon the seasonal task of determining an Ontario three-year-old champion. The first strong piece of evidence to work on was Budpath's stirring victory before 25,000 people in the 82nd running of the Plate last Saturday at Woodbine Park on the Ontario racing season's opening day.

The H. C. Hatch-owned colt, by Buddy Bauer out of Luress, won the $8,000-added, nine furlongs event drawing away after shaking off Harry Giddings' Undisturbed in a tense riding battle round the last two turns.

Time Was Slow
Budpath's time was not good, at 1:56 4-5, but it was good enough to beat Undisturbed by two and one-half lengths.

J. Heffering's Attribus was third, another three and one-half lengths back, and Taffrail, from the Waterloo stable of J. Frowed Seagram, was fourth by a half a length.

Budpath was the horse to beat from the beginning, when he bounded out of the outside slot on the Puett starting gate and cut across the track to the rail. As the field went by the grandstand the first time, Budpath was in front, running easily, with G. M. Hendrie's Passa Grille second and Undisturbed third.

In the backstretch, Undisturbed started his bid, overhauling Passa Grille easily. Budpath had a one-length lead on Undisturbed at that point, then Charlie Smith gave the big Giddings' gelding the whip. He responded, going into the second-last turn, and caught Budpath for an instant. Budpath raced ahead with Undisturbed for a few strides, then pulled ahead under slight urging by the veteran rider, Bobby Watson, and drew away to win handily.

The race, open only to Ontario-born three-year-olds which previously had not won a three-year-old event, was worth $6,670 and the King's 50 guineas to the winner and $500 to Hatch as breeder of the winner. Giddings received $1,200 for Undisturbed's second place; third was worth $700 and fourth $100.

Budpath paid $8.50, $3.40 and $3.25 in the pari-mutuels.

King's Plate Winner Has Injured Foot

H. C. Hatch's Budpath picked up a nail late Saturday while being walked from Woodbine Park's winners circle to the barns after winning the 82nd running of the King's Plate.

Trainer Lloyd Gentry did not announce the extent of the injury, but it was believed the colt would be out of training for about 10 days unless an infection forces a longer lay-off.

Three Sydney Pucksters Slated to Join Ottawa

Manager Jim McCaffrey said last week-end that Dick Kowcinak, Steve Lateski and Remi Van Daele, key players in Sydney Millionaires' march to the Allan Cup finals this season, will play for his Ottawa Senators of the Quebec Senior Hockey League in 1941-42.

McCaffrey said the three visited Ottawa on their way to Winnipeg from Sydney, and that they will return here shortly.

Lateski, a centreman, played for Ottawa two years before going to Sydney; Van Daele, a defenseman, went to the Millionaires from Hershey of the American Hockey League in 1939; and Kowcinak, who plays centre, made the jump to Sydney from Kirkland Lake's championship Blue Devils last season.

Police Club Wants Juvenile Players Who Are Not Signed

T. P. A. A. A. Will Enter Team in Local Juvenile Baseball League. Practice This Afternoon.

It was announced by Leo H. Gagnon, Chief of Police and head of the T.P.A.A.A. that the police athletic organization will enter a team in the district juvenile baseball league. Three other teams have been entered and the T.P.A.A.A. executive has decided that they will make up a team from the players that are not yet tied up with any other club and enter it in the league.

The call is out for any lad under eighteen who wants to play on a team and is not yet signed, to turn out at the Gillies Lake field this afternoon at five o'clock. The T.P.A.A.A. coaches will be there and they will have baseballs and bats with them. The boys are asked to bring along gloves if they have them.

The T.P.A.A.A. has always been a supporter of baseball for the younger boys and had a good team last year. This year they have allowed the other teams to organize before them and they will probably come out with a strong team from the boys who are left over.

Whirlaway Win Third Race at Belmont on Tuesday. Beats Mioland

Race is Termed "Conditioner" For Future Assignments This Summer.

New York, May 21—Whirlaway put in a big early bid for the "horse of the year" honors Tuesday by easily whipping Mioland in a race that could be termed "Belmont's $50,000 bargain."

Making the first start of his career against older horses, Warren Wright's Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner hit his handicap rivals at the head of the stretch and ran away from them, just as he did with the 3-year-olds at Churchill Downs and Pimlico.

He did it this time, too, without his "barins" in the saddle. For Eddie Arcaro, the jockey hired to keep Whacky Whirly running in a straight line in the Derby and Preakness, was riding against him. Little Wendell Eads, who was blamed for the colt's defeats in the Blue Grass Stakes and the Derby trial, booted him home just as easily as Eddie.

Whirlaway bore out all the way down the stretch and he had a good-sized edge in weights over Mioland. But the fact remains that he came from far behind—nearly five lengths back at one time—and just ran past the others.

At the finish, Whirly was two lengths on top, while Mioland barely nosed out Mrs. Payne Whitney's Hash, piloted by Arcaro, for place. Mrs. George D. Widener's Your Chance was fourth and Gus Ring's Ringie last in the five-horse field.

Whirly won the race—running the 1 1-16th miles in 1:43 3-5—but the real winner of the show was Belmont Park, which paid only a total of $2,500 for this attraction and had a surprise field good enough for any $50,000 stake.

Each trainer, particularly Ben Jones for Whirlaway and Tom Smith for Mioland, had meant the race strictly as a "conditioner" for future assignments. Whirly may run in Friday's Peter Pan Handicap and definitely will start in the Belmont Stakes. Mioland is headed for the Metropolitan Handicap Saturday and the Suburban May 30.

So "hot" was this attraction that a crowd of 16,264 fans, largest week-day turnout of the New York racing season was on hand for the affair. They backed Whirly down to 3 to 4 in the mutuels and made Mioland second choice at 3 to 1.

Whirlaway packed 109 pounds, three under the scale for his age if this had been a handicap affair. Mioland was loaded with 127, exactly the burden for four-year-olds, while Hash carried 120, seven under scale weight.

TO THE DOGS

Racing is going to the dogs—in more ways than one. At a blood-stock sale at Newmarket, several well-bred horses were bought on behalf of a firm which supplies horse meat for dogs.

Baseball League Opens on Wednesday at Hollinger Park

Hollinger and McIntyre Tangle in League Opener Next Wednesday Afternoon.

The northern section of the Temiskaming Baseball league is all ready to open next Wednesday afternoon at the Hollinger Ball Park with Barton's Bombers taking on the fast McIntyre outfit in the opener.

A tentative schedule drawn up a couple of weeks ago has not yet met with the approval of the team managers and has no yet been released. The first few games have been decided on though and Hollinger and McIntyre are slated to meet in the opener next Wednesday. Second game of the schedule will be at the McIntyre Park next Friday afternoon. It is expected that a schedule will be published next week.

Both teams have been practicing daily and should be in the best of shape for the opening. A lot of new faces are to be found on each of the teams and it will be noticed that a lot of the former favourites are missing.

The date again of the opening is next Wednesday afternoon, May 28th. There will likely be a band at the game and the nine officials are expected to take part in the opening ceremonies.

The southern section of the Temiskaming Baseball league is expected to open on the same day. There are four teams in the Kirkland Lake end of the league.

CRICKET PLAYER

Don Bradman, Australia's best-known cricket player, has been recommended for discharge from the Royal Australian Air Force on medical grounds. Bradman, supposed to take charge of physical training in South Australia, recently spent three weeks in hospital for treatment of rheumatism in the back.

All Canadians May Join in Taking Up the Victory Loan

Recognizing the value of the dollars of people of modest means, Finance Minister J. L. Isley, when making his announcement of the forthcoming Victory Loan to raise $600,000,000 to meet current war expenditures, stressed the fact that the bonds will be sold on an installment plan so that incomes in the lower brackets may be channelled to purchase Victory Bonds.

"These arrangements will enable every Canadian to give the greatest possible support to the loan," Mr. Isley said.

The bonds, offered in four denominations of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars, will be available with payments spread over a six-month period, the Finance Minister pointed out. Details as to the operations of this plan would be announced later, as would the interest rate and the term of the loan.

The new loan will be the third and largest war loan in Canada since hostilities opened.

Subscription books will be opened on June 2.

When announcing the Victory Loan in the House of Commons, Mr. Isley said: "Canada will ask her citizens for $600,000,000 in the forthcoming Victory Loan with the full hope and expectation that subscriptions from coast-to-coast will be considerably in excess of that amount."

"To provide for such response and to insure that all Canadians may be given an opportunity to take part in this important phase of our war work, the Minister of Finance will reserve the right to accept all or any part of the over-subscription. The degree of co-operation which has been offered by people everywhere in Canada gives every ground for confidence."

"The bonds of this Victory Loan will be available in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, and may be purchased outright or upon easy terms of payment. The installment plan which has been worked out will enable any purchaser to pay for bonds over a period of six months. These arrangements will enable every Canadian to give the greatest possible support to this loan."

"In November of this year there mature an issue of $140,000,000 Dominion of Canada 5% bonds; holders of these bonds will be given the privilege of turning them in, at an attractive price, in exchange for bonds of the Victory Loan, 1941."

"The success of a war loan is not measured merely by reaching or passing an objective; it is measured also in the number of individual subscribers. If, as is fully expected, large numbers of Canadians in all walks of life buy Victory Bonds it will speak the will and determination of this nation emphatically."

"The dollars of the man and woman of modest means are just as important in this war as those of the wealthier individual or of the large corporation. We believe that Canadians generally will rally to this loan in a manner that will help our own defense, give heart to our allies and raise the admiration and consolidate the support of our friends across the border."

About a Dozen Northern Centres Represented in Second Annual Tournament. A Record Entry is Expected When Outside Entries Are All in.

Provincial Police Still Translating Illegal Literature

Ontario Provincial Police in Timmins are still translating the literature that was seized in the raid in Walker township, east of Monteith, last Sunday. The literature is all what is commonly known as "Jehovah's Witnesses" pamphlets and booklets. Most of the books are of the hard bound type.

A number of sample copies are in the Provincial Police office in Timmins and they are all written by J. P. Rutherford. They are published by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society and the International Bible Students. One of the subjects covered is written in thirteen different languages.

Leonard G. Van Laven, on whose farm the cache was discovered, has been placed under arrest and was brought to Iroquois Falls where he will appear today. His case will be remanded today because the Provincial Police and the Crown Attorney have not yet received word from the attorney-general's department to proceed with the case.

Two Burned Men are Not in Any Danger But Badly Burned

Edward MacNamara, 21 Messines avenue, and Alphonse Herron, 58 First avenue, the two men who were burned when the Fesserton Timber Co. gasoline boat exploded on Kenogami Lake yesterday, were taken to the hospital on their arrival about three o'clock yesterday afternoon.

MacNamara was the man who was badly burned about the forehead, face and hands. Although he is only suffering from first degree burns they are very painful but not serious. The burns are not on large areas. He is expected to be in the hospital for about a week.

Herron was burned about the face and hands but the burns are not as deep as the burns on MacNamara and he is expected to be out of the hospital in a few days.

The cause of the explosion that was responsible for the two men suffering the burns was thought to be the back-firing of the gasoline engine in the boat that they were using to tow a boom of logs across the lake. The back-fire started a blaze and when the blaze reached the gas tank the boat was blown to pieces.

The men are being treated by Dr. McInnis in Timmins.

Window Display in Town Attracts Crowds

Hundreds of people have been attracted by the window display at the offices of the Timmins committee for the Victory Loan Campaign. In one of the windows there is a display with two of the German machine guns used in the last war, as well as some fragments of a German bomb.

In the other windows, soldiers' equipment, etc., is shown. It can all be supplied with the purchase of a $100 Victory Loan Bond. The display includes Anti-Gas Capes, Anti-Gas Hoods, Anti-Gas Detectors, Soldier's Battle Dress, Mess Tins, Ammunition Pouches, etc. On the wall behind the display are some photographs of different units of the British Fleet and the Royal Air Force. All the equipment was loaned to the Committee by the Algonquin Regiment and some fragments of a German bomb are displayed, being sent to Canada by Sapper Nick Salamone from England.

The big Northern Ontario and Quebec Bowling Association Tournament gets under way at the Empire Bowling alleys tonight. A record entry list has been received and more entries are expected to come in today from Kirkland Lake, North Bay, Iroquois Falls, South Porcupine and other northern centres. Entries have already been received from Toronto, Noranda, Sudbury, Smooth Rock Falls, and Duparquet, Quebec.

The only big name in the tournament so far is the ladies' team from Toronto. It is the Seagram's entry and the ladies have quite a reputation as bowlers. It was expected that the Creighton Mines entry from Sudbury would be in the play but as yet no word has been received from them.

All the team events will be played at 7:30 tonight and tomorrow night. The doubles events for both ladies and men will toe the mark at 9:00 each night and the singles for both ladies and men will be played at 10:30 both nights. A schedule of the teams to play will be posted in the lobby of the bowling alleys late each afternoon before play.

Saturday is reserved for the out-of-town bowlers and there will be bowling from ten in the morning till the tournament finishes on Saturday night.

The record entry list is comprised of 25 entries in the men's team events and 6 in the ladies' team events. The executive expects to have about forty or fifty entries in the men's events by the time the entries are in from the outside centres and they expect to have about twelve entries in the ladies' section.

Sixty entries have been received in the men's singles and the same number have entered in the men's doubles. Expected in each of those events are about 100. 25 entries are already in for the mixed doubles and the executive expects to have about 40 entered in that event.

Twenty ladies have entered in the ladies' singles competition out of an expected forty and ten teams have entered in the ladies' doubles out of an expected twenty.

Big prize of the tournament is the Brunswick-Balke-Coller trophy for the winners of the men's team event. The Sole Brothers trophy goes to the winner of the ladies' team event. Cash prizes also accompany the trophies and the cash prize for the men's event is guaranteed to be at least $50.

All the trophies will be placed on exhibition before the tournament goes into the last day. They will probably be placed on exhibit somewhere in the Bowling Alleys.
