Navy League to Appeal for Another $200,000 This Year

Representative to be in Timmins Shortly for This Work. A representative of the Navy League of Canada is to be in Timmins at an early date in connection with the League's present campaign to secure an additional $200,000 to carry on its work, especially for the merchant marine. The Navy League has always made a strong popular appeal to the people of Timmins and district because the people here are well informed of the great work carried on by this organization for the men of the merchant marine. Indeed, it is not too much to say that in addition to its educational and other general work for the navy and for sailors, the Navy League of Canada has done more for the men of the merchant marine than any other organization in this Dominion. Indeed, in many cases the Navy League is the only society or group giving any form of extended help to the men of the merchant marine. Some weeks ago Capt. G. P. Morris was in town representing the British Sailors Society, the oldest sailors society in the world doing work similar to that of the Navy League on a wide scale that touches life for the sailors on the seven seas. Capt. Morris was for years with the Navy League of Canada and was a regular visitor to Timmins. On this latest visit, however, he was careful to explain that he was now with the older sailors' society and that his collections were for the British Sailors' Society. Because of this explanation no one who gave to Capt. Morris should think that they have contributed to the Navy League this year. They certainly gave to a worthy cause, but there is still the Navy League to maintain, as the Navy League is doing a wonderful work. When the new representative of the Navy League makes his call at an early date, all should not only give him the most cordial welcome, but also should make their usual contributions as generous as possible as the need is very great. In a letter from Col. A. E. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the war service board of the Navy League of Canada, the following reference to the present drive for additional funds is made:—"The Navy League of Canada has undertaken a tremendous task at the various ports on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts and two very large places are in the course of erection at the present time in order that sleeping accommodation, recreational, canteen and other facilities be provided for the merchant sailors who are on shore leave from day to day. More and more the merchant navy is taking a very high place in the 'Battle of the Atlantic,' and it is not an uncommon thing for the men of the Royal Navy to say 'the merchant navy is our first line of defence, for the merchant navy gives us the tools, the ammunition and the supplies with which to fight the battles of the Empire, and without the merchant navy the war would be over.' The work of the Navy League has grown to such an extent that it is now necessary to make an extraordinary appeal for an additional $200,000 for this year, and, therefore, we urge every possible subscriber to give all that he or she is able to give at this time. Your contribution will give a real impetus to the morale of those men on whom we all depend so much, and who depend so greatly on us all."

Dogs Liable to be Shot at Sight in Harley Twp.

Many in Timmins think that the authorities here are pretty "tough" in regard to dogs running at large or dogs without tags. Here, however, the worst that happens to dogs at large is for the canines to be impounded and a fee of $1 imposed for the release of each one so caught, or a fine imposed on the owner for allowing the animal to run at large. As for dogs without tags, practically the same procedure is followed. In the township of Harley, near New Liskeard, the authorities are a lot "tougher" than that. Recently a couple of police dogs killed practically the whole flock of sheep at the farm of Mr. Ed. Fowler in that township. Now the authorities have given official notice that all dogs in the township are to be tagged at once, and that animals running about without the necessary tags are liable to be shot on sight.

August Siirenen Dies of Seizure at Lumber Camp
