Young Girls at South Porcupine Help Add to the Funds of Red Cross

Example of Youngsters Suggests Plan to Help Secure Workers for Red Cross. High School Girls Asked to Help at Vacation Time. Other South Porcupine and Dome News.

South Porcupine, July 16th. Special to The Advance.

The following little incident was brought to our notice this week. It is worthy of mention here for more than one reason. This is vacation time for children and thought for others is hardly to be expected of them: Yet, last week three little girls (all under 12) came into the Red Cross rooms. One handed in $1.90, "This", she said "we made by ourselves and we want to give it to Red Cross work."

Pleased and smiling, and very bashful they accepted the thanks of the lady in charge. We heard of the incident, and got in touch with one of the children. She told us that the three: Eva Rintamaki, Carrie Ursula and Audrey Allen had 'got up' a little play, they had sold tickets at 5 cents each to all the people that they knew and had produced this play to the best of their ability in the basement of the Allen house at 82 William avenue on July 10th. They called the play "The Doctor's Visit."

No doubt these youngsters will spend a much happier vacation knowing they have done what they could for others. The Red Cross regular workers are finding it difficult to find workers to replace those who are temporarily away on holiday. How about some of the High School girls and older public school girls copying the example set by these smaller children and asking at the Red Cross rooms for some work that they can do for others during vacation?

On Monday afternoon at 2.30 there will be a special welcome for all girls who wish to help. And while speaking of workers it seems to be generally misunderstood concerning sewing to be taken home. Should any lady desire to work at home on any of the garments (now being called for in greater and greater numbers for the victims of Britain's bomber areas), they may do so, and any of the supervisors in charge at the Rooms will be only too glad to instruct such volunteers.

Police Court

Cases against M. Markovich—Oreskavich, N. Pecanic in connection with killing lambs for sale without proper license were withdrawn.

Two illegal parkers—Cooke and McKechnie—paid $1 and costs.

Non-stoppers—La Courcierre, Helminen and Brieh—each paid $1 and costs.

R. Hortness and A. Foster paid $10 and costs for speeding.

L. LaMothe paid $10 and costs for careless driving. Constable Waads attested that he was driving at 80 to 85 miles per hour towards Schumacher. "Any special reason for haste?" asked his Worship. "No sir"—"Then just going nowhere in a hurry" was the comment of the bench.

A. Tissaro, for having no license on a bicycle paid $1 and costs.

Three drunks contributed the usual to the town coffers.

K. McLander pleaded guilty to careless driving and was fined $20 and costs.

N. Glanville was charged with assaulting Mrs. O'Donnell on July 5th in Schumacher. A plea of Not Guilty was entered by defendant. Complainant stated that she was engaged in taking the census in Schumacher. On the day in question she had called upon Mr. Glanville in this connection. She was asked to wait, and did so for twenty minutes. Finding that he did not come downstairs she left for a time. Upon returning Mr. Glanville had gone out. She had obtained the necessary information from another source, and later met Mr. Glanville up town. He used insulting language to her she stated and grabbed the census papers—and tried to take them from her. She hit him, she acknowledged "slapped him on the face with her open palm, protecting Government property." He also said (she stated) that he would knock her down if she repeated it.

Dean Kester for accused asked if Glanville had struck her, the answer was in the negative. Two witnesses testified seeing the lady strike accused, but saw no interference on his part.

Other details in connection with the case were heard and both parties concerned were questioned, but the final outcome was that the case was dismissed by Magistrate Atkinson.

"The Evidence," he said, "is too contradictory."

A case involving family quarrels over children was also dismissed.

J. Young—for consuming beer in a public place—pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

A case of assault preferred by a wife against her husband was withdrawn.

E. Tennant for driving with four in the front seat, paid $10 and costs.

R. Brown, charged with speeding, was not present. Information was given that he had been called to report for the Air Force. Case was dismissed. Magistrate smilingly commenting that the speeder was possibly practising for the air force.

John Allen, of Allen's Beach, and Albert D'Anjou, of the same address, were both given three months hard labour, premises made public for one year and beer seized, on a charge of selling beer.

Dean Kester, K.C., appeared for accused.

Constable Stromberg of the provincial police gave evidence that he went to Allen's Beach on July 6th with general authority to search the premises. He described the premises and produced a plan of the place for the magistrate.

He watched, hidden in the bush 200 yards from the back of the premises, through army glasses, from 1.30 to 4.30, and saw about 25 cars per hour pull in to the place. Allen was Master of Ceremonies, directing traffic, etc. Two fellows were working under his direction, and Mrs. Allen was in the store. Beer was carried out to the cars, and emptied taken away. A wheelbarrow was used for this work.

Both watched where the beer was being obtained, and six cases were found later in a haystack.

In the bushes another cache was found and also a case almost filled with beer-bottle caps.

Allen was not seen to take any money but the others were.

E. D. Anjou pleaded guilty to selling beer. It was all his beer he pleaded that was found. He had been selling beer there since May 24th. Allen did not assist.

"Maybe he knew I was selling beer, but he did not stop me," said accused. Allen denied selling, but later in response to a question by the Magistrate admitted that he paid D'Anjou $5 a week and allowed him to sell beer to make up.

Defendant was said the Bench, responsible "prima facie" for the beer selling.

"We won't quibble with words. Look at the broad picture. A tourist place, beans and soft drinks and beer sold—with permission of the proprietor. He asks me to believe he doesn't make a profit. They expressed themselves truthfully but unfortunately for them," passed sentence as above.

P. Lasuk, for having beer illegally, comes up next week.

In Whitney the following speeders were fined $10 and costs—Campbell, Gagon, Carr, Gervoise, Roy, Campbell, Lafontaine and Jones.
