TIMMINS, ONTARIO

Members Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association; Ontario-TWO PHONES-26 and 2020

Published Every Monday and Thursday by GEO. LAKE, Owner and Publisher

Subscription Rates: Canada-$3.00 Per Year. United States-$3.50 Per Year

Timmins, Ont., Monday, July 21st, 1941

THOSE BRITISH!

to understand the British people, when few Brit- and disregard of decency and human dignity. ish really understand themselves. The fact of the burial. The injured were hurried to hospital, and, would be like arresting and punishing three and self-sacrificing devotion to their care. One to leave another with a monopoly. baby, fifteen months old, was brought into St. The Advance rejoices with The Ottawa Journal and all the skill and experience of specialists giv- Soviet gangsters. nations—conquer a people like this?

was an instant demand to know why the child | The war has been in progress long enough to should not receive that special attention, when all show that Russia can hold out, if she wills. She the British people had given so much thought and can no more be conquered by Germany than care for their pet dogs and cats and birds. Those China can be subdued by the Japs. If Russia posed of as humanely as science knew. To brutal enemy, and even that treachery is not unthinkminds, it must indeed be difficult to understand able from the record. The longer Russia holds how so much kindness and sentimentality for the out, the sooner Britain and her Allies will win est; the loving are the daring."

SEEING STRAIGHT

processors and the second

The Ottawa Journal had an editorial the other day headed:-"We Should See Straight." It newspaper's reasoning is cock-eyed.

the truth about all the German losses."

gruber had taken a couple of pot shots at him.

Nazis can bring to bear against Britain." All that of course is true, and that was why The Adabsolutely correct. The more Germans killed off by the Russians the better. The Advance is all for that. But because The Advance is for Canada, Britain, democracy, it sincerely hopes that the Russians will not emerge from the conflict strong enough to continue their career as gangously attacked the other gangster that the second and too late." gangster is to be accepted as any better than he | ----was. The contemptible attack on Poland, the GRAVEL A villainous assault on Finland, the aggression against Roumania are only recent evidences of the Russian gangster spirit. Before that there the deliberate policy of the Soviet to send emissaries all over the world to injure neighbors and is proof held in more than one country to-day with God's help we shall not fail." Quebec Newspaper Association: Class "A" Weekly Group that while Germany and Italy had paid spies in every country, these agents were expected to work in the interests of the Nazis and the Fascists. The Soviet agents were accounted successful if they created injury and damage to the country in which they were, even though it was no advantage Russia's record in sheer murder and torture and bergh says:-"I give you my word that I have no deviltry has never been exceeded by any other gangster nation, past or present. The slaughter of the unfortunate children of the czar before lini will pledge their oath to the late Col. Lind-It is little wonder that other peoples are unable Stalin has few parallels in history for brutality

If there is to be any straight thinking, two facts matter seems to be that they are so human that must be kept in mind. One of these is that it was they almost appear inhuman. At the present Russia's policy to stand back in general from the time, with death raining on them from the skies, present world war in the hope and belief that they go about their daily business as if life were when both sides in the struggle were eventually that the Russians deliberately set fire to the forest Russians now have air superiority over Germany of little moment. At least there is little fear of exhausted, the Soviet then would be the military to halt the invading force. It may be that this are actually believed in well-informed circles in death evidenced on any side. Yet at the same, lord of the earth. The other fact is that all knew time, if one turns aside from the daily dangers, it in their hearts that after Germany was subdued, will be noted that the British apparently have an Russia would have to be dealt with. The winalmost exaggerated devotion to the saving of life. ning of the war against the Nazis and the Fascists Some months ago a Hun air raid destroyed much would be a criminal farce if the Soviet were pervaluable property and caused the loss of many mitted to hold on to its plunder from robbery and lives. Incendiary bombs, as well as explosives, murder and rapine. People who did any straight did enormous damage. Every effort-even in the thinking knew that Russia's gangsterism would face of the most serious danger-was made to see have to be curbed and cured, or the last stage of that all the dead were given formal and dignified the world would be even worse than the first. It as usual, the doctors and nurses showed heroic the gangster groups, with no higher purpose than

Bartholomew's hospital, with two-thirds of his that the Russians are giving valuable aid to Brilittle body burned. With all the other cases, sure- tain and her allies in the task of subduing the ly this child with scarcely a chance for life under German gangsters. Hence, it would hope that the best circumstances, would be allowed to die- the Russian stories of all the Germans slaughtered one among so many. Instead, nurses and doctors might be true. But straight seeing seems to point stole time from sleep to care for that baby. A also to the fact that it is a good thing to see the special saline bath was constructed for the baby Germans reducing the military might of the en to an unknown youngster. To-day the child | As for the economic and political dogmas of the is fully recovered—a modern miracle. Can any Nazis, the Fascists and the Soviet, there doesn't gangster nation—any combination of gangster appear to be any difference except in name, so far as practical application is concerned. The When a Timmins lady-English by birth and whole battle is between totalitarianism and demobreeding—was told of this incident of the child cracy, between human bondage and freedom, beupon whom so much care was lavished, her reply tween gangsterism and the dignity of human kind.

that could not be sent to places of safety were dis- | succumbs, it will be because she sells out to the weak and helpless can go with a courage that but Britain and her Allies will have to win this laughs at danger and at death. The British poet war against national gangsterdom, and the more gave the answer:-"The bravest are the tender- of both Germans and Russians who fall in the present battle between the Nazis and the Soviet the better if will be for decent humanity.

TOO LITTLE AND TOO LATE

Adolph Schicklgruber apparently tries to steal would be very pleasing to The Advance and to everything he sees or hears or dreams about. His many other friends of The Ottawa Journal if it latest attempt at minor theft is to appropriate to would do as the heading of the editorial suggests himself the phrase coined in Britain and often and not as the body of the editorial indicates- applied to Canada's war effort. The phrase is:which is a polite way of saying that the Ottawa "Too little and too late." That appears to be the R.C.A.F., who has been at Brandon, tion in North Bay. case with the said Schicklgruber in his invasion Man., for some time is home on leave. The Ottawa Journal quotes a recent editorial of Russia. Four weeks ago yesterday he publicly note in The Advance: "Wouldn't it be a fine thing gave himself one month to conquer Russia. His if the Germans were telling the truth about all generals suggested two months; military experts the Russian losses, and the Russians were telling in other countries said if he could not do it in three months he could never accomplish his pur-To this comment The Journal adds the para- pose. But Adolph proudly predicted that just a phrase: - "Wouldn't it be a fine thing if every month was all he asked. The month has passed Canadian would put in cold storage until the war and none of his objectives have been achieved. is won and ended—as Mr. Churchill has done—his The oil and food he sought, and thought to secure Camp Shile, Manitoba, where he will detestation of communism, and welcome the aid in a few days have been either moved back or be stationed. of the Russians in this life-and-death struggle destroyed. His first effort was "Too little and too against a common enemy?" The answer to that late." The vigorous resistance offered by the Manning Pool, Toronto, was here on is a qualified "Yes," if there is to be straight- Russians shook his confidence a little, but he ralthinking. The help of the Russians should be wel- lied his spirits last week to announce a new drive comed in the same way that the police welcome | that would do the work in short order. That new the aid that sometimes comes to the law when drive is now apparently bogged down. "Too little two gangsters start at each other's throats. It and too late." Now Adolph Schicklgruber is callwould not be straight thinking, surely for the ing on Japan for aid. Changes in the Japanese police to be expected to sink their "detestation" of cabinet seem to suggest that the cry of Schickl-Gyp the Blood simply because Slugger Schickl- gruber is to be heeded. Whatever else that might be said about the Japanese, they have a record of on Wednesday evening. "Every fighting Russian, every Russian tank keeping their pledged word. They have a solemn and airplane and gun, is that much more defence pledge not to attack Russia. This pledge, howof Britain-and Canada," says The Journal, ever, was made after they had joined Germany as "Every German soldier killed or wounded or cap- allies of the Axis. It is inconceivable that the tured, every piece of German war equipment put pledge to Russia was made without Germany's out of action, reduces by so much the force the consent, and this fact is another proof of the treachery that seems to be uppermost in affairs of state to-day. Indications are that Japan will week. vance suggested it would be a fine thing if the rescind its pledge to Russia and try to fulfil its Russian stories about the German losses were pledge to aid the Nazis. But again Schicklgruber tor to Matachewan where she was the would appear to be "Too little and too late." Rus- guest of her son-in-law and daughter sia has a well-equipped force estimated at four million men to meet attack by Japan, and these millions are well supported by a powerful wing of the Russian air force. Japan, too, is liable to find North Bay, for a couple of weeks' holithat though Schicklgruber seems to have stolen days. sters. It doesn't seem straight thinking to insist the right to use the words, "Too little and too that simply because the one gangster treacher- late," Japan, too, may soon find itself "Too little Still stands the motto of the King:-"Put into your task whatever it may be all the were the blood purges among their own people and courage and purpose of which you are capable. in Toronto,

Keep your hearts proud and your resolve unshak- bereavement Mr. King can scarcely be expected to en. Let us go forward to that task as one man, travel to England for some time. friends against which they had no quarrel. There a smile on our lips and our heads held high, and sevelt phrased it, the letter was "written to the mins streets?" newspapers and addressed to the President." The newspapers had the letter before the President to Russia. It should be remembered, too, that heard about it. In this letter the late Col. Lindconnection with any foreign government." Now, if only Adolph Schicklgruber and Modest Mussobergh's word of honour, that letter should be forwarded to London Punch.

> Reports from neutral sources suggest that the tinue. advance of the Finnish forces into Russia have been stopped by forest fires. The inference is is just a sample of what may be expected from the London, England. There is a tendency in Lon-Russians in defence of their country. If the Rus- don, however, to think that it not the lack of sians follow any such policy—and they appear planes but the lack of oil that is causing the to have done so up to the present—all that in- trouble for the Germans. vaders can hope for is peril.

> pathetic stories of the sad death of Premier King's be bombed from the air. It will be recalled that dog. There have also been pictures, in some of Mussolini's son once told about what "sport" it which the Premier did not wear a hat, so the was to bomb the Ethiopians from the air, but that caption noted that Mr. King was holding the dog son of a sawdust caesar found so little "sport" in in his arms. All will sincerely sympathize with flying against the British or the Greeks that he the Premier in the loss of his pet dog. After this has not been heard from since the real war began.

Mrs. Tony Campbell and daughter of Timmins, were recent visitors a

Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs

Brand were visitors at Marter, near

Miss Eleanor Bennett spent a few

Mrs. Wm. Bobbie and children, of Mr. and Mrs. R. Redden, of Cedar street north, returned this week-end

after a vacation spent in Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodland and family spent the week-end visiting

Mrs. L. Tansley and son, Warren, returned last week from a holiday spent

Thursday for a few weeks' vacation in

Mrs. W. J. Cahill and sons, Junior and Bobbie, were the guests of friends

Miss Carmel Kavanagh visited her

Mrs. Mary VanSyckle, of Kirkland

Pte. H. Harwood, of first Algonquin

A.C.2 Alex Bell, of the R.C.A.F. at

A.C.2 Bauman, who is with the R.

conto, was home on leave over the H. Rathwell, North Bay.

C. A. F. at Eglington Hunt Club, To-

Fifteen ladies, all members of the Eastern Star Knitting circle met at the

Mr. E. Colameco, of Timmins, left weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. D. Colameco, Balsam street.

Brown and Jimmie Wismuth were the

Mr. F. J. Wolno and son, Fred, left on Friday to join Mrs. Wolno and guests of relatives at New Liskeard last

Mr. and Mrs. T. Sullivan.

has many friends here.

home of Mrs. A. Demeza, 41 Main ave.

leave during the week-end, visiting his Regiment, left Timmins Friday for Lake, was a visitor to friends in Tim-parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Kavangh at visiting her sister, Mrs. Osborne Cur- southern points.

Krugersdorf, near New Liskeard, were days last week the guest of friends at Englehart, last Thursday.

recent visitors to Timmins.

at Toronto and Shelburne.

don. Columbus avenue.

in Kirkland Lake last week.

Kirkland Lake last week.

home at Gold Centre.

mins last week.

North Bay.

Kirkland Lake.

Nova Scotia.

It may be that the censors forbid any such question at present, as likely to give comfort to The late Col. Lindbergh has written another; the enemy, so The Advance is not going to take a letter. As the private secretary of President Roo- | chance in asking: "What about some oil for Tim-

> Reports suggest that the Dominion Government plans to set up bureaus of information in 48 of the United States. Well, that will mean about 150 good party men who will not need to draw unemployment insurance.

Soldiers still have to pay part fares for trips home on leave. If the government paid any attention to public opinion this would not long con-

Reports from Moscow to the effect that the

The Royal Air Force is giving Germany these Some of the newspapers have been full of days a long-needed lesson in what it feels like to

New Books Added to the Timmins

With Brief Notes About

The following are new books added

Non-Fiction

Living Treasure (Ivan Sanderson)ary graphs in Jamaica, British Honduras and Yucatan, runs into amus-

Allenby, a study in greatness (Archibald Wavell)—One Eastern campaigner writes about another.

Berlin diary (W. L. Shirer)—The uncensored journals (1934-1941) of a foreign correspondent whose broadcast talks will be familiar to many readers. Darwin, Marx, Wagner (J. Barzun)-Materialism analyzed in the lives of its | three greatest modern exponents; in science, Darwin; in politics, Marx; in

Mumbo Jumbo Esquire (J. S. Childers)-The two Africas of cannibals and nightclubs, of swamps and skyscrapers, of deserts and golf courses described by an American Rhodes scholar. Mrs. Roy Miller and family left on | fort left Sunday for North Bay where > Sulfanilamide, hormones and eight other chemical substances, how they were discovered and who discovered for Kirkland Lake where they will Collins)-Tools, woods and other materials are fully discussed in this profusely illustrated book.

Mr. Jack Morrrison returned to his of London in the blitzkrieg. home in Timmins after spending two weeks' vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John Judd, of Shawville, Quebec. Bloodbird, by Thomas Burton. Mrs. J. Michalak, of Timmins, returned from Toronto after spending two weeks' vacation. Mariana, by Monica Dickens. Miss M. Clutchey is leaving for Montreal, where she will spend two weeks' vacation. Harper. The Ordeal of the Falcon, by Gosta Mr. Bert Hornby, of the R.C.A.F., left this morning for St. Thomas, after ents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hornby. Mr. and Mrs. Rene Souliere and Mr and Mrs. Hector Souliere and daughter, Cecile, are visiting Mr. and Mrs.

spending the week-end with his par-

Miss Rita Thrasher is visiting at her

Mr. and Mrs. P. Nolan and family

Mrs. Ira Fraser has been visiting at

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. O'Neill were guests

Mrs. Anita Gagne and son, Rene, and Mrs. Wm. Gauthier were guests last

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardiner were re-

Mrs. J. Stewart, of Cochrane, was a

Mrs. M. J. Maloney has been visit-

Pte. Carl Johns of the Ordinance

Corps visited at his home here last

Mr. and Mrs. M. Manderson, of Tim-

Miss Jerry Lafleur and Irene Roche-

Miss Louise Ferrari, of Timmins, lef

they will spend two weeks' vacation.

spend two weeks' vacation.

ing her mother, Mrs. A. S. Maloney cent visitors to Cochrane, the guests at the Noranda hotel, Noranda, last the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

were visitors last week at Englehart.

home in Douglas, Ont.

T. J. Pigeon, Madawaska.

week of friends in Rouyn.

of Mr. Gardiner's parents.

Chapeau, Ottawa Valley.

Mrs. B. Clarke of Perth, Ontario, is mins, left for two week's vacation for visitor to Timmins last week.

Mrs. R. Laberge returned to North Bay last week after spending three months in Timmins with his daughter, Mrs. R. Souliere and Mrs. H. Souliere.

The condition of Chief of Police William Clark, North Bay, who was strick-Friday for Toronto, after spending two en with a heart attack earlier this month, is now reported as much improved.

Mrs. William Brown, Miss Isobel The regular meeting of the Women's Institute last week was held as usual on Wednesday afternon, and not in the evening as suggested by the report in last Thursday's Advance. Mrs. J. Therriault was a recent visi-

> Mr. Morrison Parker, of Three Rivers, Que., was a visitor to Timmins last week, motoring up from the South to call on friends and acquaintances

Vernier Wallingford returned to his duties at the Noorduyn Aircraft Corporation in Montreal yesterday after spending a week's vacation with his Friends in Timmins were glad to father and brother in Timmins, welcome Mrs. A. H. Howe back to the Porcupine last week. Mrs. Howe lived in Timmins for a number of years and University, Kingston, where he is takmacher, left for Muskoka on holidays. During her visit down south she will ing a course in Radio Mechanics. attend the Raymond-Norwood wedding

Try The Advance Want Advertisements | tario Government.

Public Library.

Some of Them.

to the Timmins public library:-

A British field man, plotting evolutioning adventures in swampy jungles with crocodiles, giant crabs and snakes.

art. Wagner.

Magic in a Bottle (M. Silverman)-

Keeping Your House in Repair (A. F.

The Misses Lila Brousseau and Alice Sergt.-Pilot Hedley Everard, of the Lauzon are spending two weeks' vaca-

Bomber's Moon (Negley Farson) -Drawings as well as text tell the story

Fiction The Desperate Pursuit, by Neil Bell

Thomas, Thomas, Ancil, Thomas, by Tristram Coffin. Chaffinch's, by Joseph Freeman.

Half That Glory, by Stanley Gray. Trumpet in the Wilderness, by R. S.

Pal Joey, by John O'Hara. The Misses Elliot of Geneva, by W

H. Smith. The Princess, by Phil Stong. Not to the Strong, by J. P. Thorn-

The Ill-Made Knight, by T. H

Melanie, by G. Kaus. And New Stars Burn, by Baldwin,

A House for Emily, by Reeves. No Truce with Time, by Waugh, The Red Tapeworm, by Mackenzie Junior Miss, By Benson. Proceed, Sergeant Lamb, by Graves Fool of Time, by Seymour. This Is Life, by Bailey.

Renegade Ranger, by Lee. Tadpole Hall, by Ashton. The Singing Widow, by Johns. Your Deal, My Lovely, by Cheyney The Creaking Chair, by Meynell. No Murder of Mine, by Campbell.

The Lady in the Fur Coat, by Tilsey

Gun Gospel, by Macrae. Death at the Helm, by Rhode. Sealed Room Murder, by Penny. The Mystery of Mar Saba, by Hunter

Kirkland Lake Council Awaits Approval Meters

Kirkland Lake council has passed the necessary by-law to install a parking meter system in that town. There was considerable opposition to the plan, the objections being headed by T. J. Miron, president of Kirkland's R.M. Warren Carver, formerly of The new board of trade, and also one of Advance staff, but now in the Royal | the party representatives for Kirkland Canadian Air Force, was home on leave | Lake area for provincial government Miss Francis Raymond, of Schu- during the week-end from Queen's affairs. Despite Mr. Mirons appeal in the matter for a delay, counci pro- mental opposite." ceeded with the plan. All that is needed now is permission from the On-

The Porcupine Advance

Phone 26

1c A WORD PER INSERTION (minimum 25c)

11/20 A WORD PER INSERTION IF CHARGED (Minimum 35c)

All Classified Advertising must be paid before insertion to obtain cash rate. The Advance will not be responsible for errors occurring in telephoned advertisements, or as a result of copy not carefully, legibly written. Mistakes occurring from these sources are whelly at advertiser's risk.

FOR RENT

FURNISHED APARTMENT FOR RENT-From two to four rooms. References exchanged. Apply to 58 Mountjoy South, Phone 1437, or call

FOR RENT-Bachelor apartments and single rooms; suitable for office and living quarters. Apply Sky Block, Room 208, Phone 2135.

HELP WANTED

WANTED - Supervisor for Kiwanis Playground for August. Salary $100. Apply Box 771, South Porcupine.

MISCELLANEOUS

WANTED, by the Childrens Aid Society, families willing to give homes on a boarding basis to Protestant children 10 to 14 years of age. If interested, phone 855, or call at Room 4. Municipal Building, Timmins.

You'll appreciate the quality and the fine service we offer.

Phone 129

"NO HEADACHES NOW - - -

"I feel fit as a fiddle. It's surprising what glasses can do. Close work used to give me unbearable headaches. I was never bothered at any other time so I concluded it must be my eyes. Mr. Curtis put a stop to all that, and now I have no further trouble. Expert Optical Service costs less at Curtis' and payment may be spread over a convenient period. LIBERAL TERMS MAY BE

ARRANGED AT

CURTIS OPTICAL COMPANY 14 Pine St. N.

Funeral Services For Late Andrew Marttila

The Reverend A. I. Heinonen conducted Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Chapel of Walker's Funeral Home and in the Timmins Cemetery the funeral services for Andrew Marttila of 41 Bruce avenue, South Porcupine, who died in St. Mary's Hospital, Timmins, Wednesday, July 16, after an illness of a couple of months.

The late Mr. Marttila was born in Uusimaa Province, Finland, about 70 years ago. He came to Canada from Finland November 15, 1909, having lived in Sudbury district and during the past twenty years in the Porcupine

As far as is known he had no relatives living in Canada.

NOT WITHOUT HOPE

"I shall never marry," declared Mike, 'until I find a girl who is my exact

"Well," observed Cora, "there are a lot of intelligent girls in the area." -Globe and Mail.