L. A. Elliot, a student at one of the universities who is working at the Mc-Intyre Mine for the summer nonths, asked the council if they would consider giving him back his poll tax money. He pointed out that the men from the universities were sent up here to learn the mining business as a part of their education and said that they had only a few months to work and that their living expenses were higher than down south. He also added that the students were all in the army as well because they took the Canadian Officers' Training Course at school. The council decided that they would keep the poll tax because, they said, if the university students came up here to work in the summer months it was just because they could get a better job here than down below. Besides, they were keeping a lot of northern men out of work.

Leo H. Gagnon, chief constable wrote to the council asking them to cancel taxi drivers' license No. 169 that had been issued to Wilfred Therrien It was pointed out that Therrien had been convicted on a charge of drunk driving recently and had been sent to Haileybury for ten days. As is the custom the man loses his driver's license. J. E. Lacourciere wrote the council Mr. and Mrs. Edward Belanger, who about a lane between Birch and Maple streets. He asked when a meeting could be arranged between him and the Municipal Board so that he could present a number of grievances that some petitioners had given to him. Council decided that they would let him know when the Munic'pal Board would be sitting here so that he could present his objections.

A letter of thanks was received from the Timmins Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union thanking the council for granting them permission to use Cedar street last week for a meeting. They expressed the hope that the council found that their meeting ran smoothly without any trouble.

The secretary of the Canadian Federation of Mayors wrote to the council saying that Timmins was included on the itinerary of the visiting London, England, firemen and that And, to a couple who have lived in they would visit here on Tuesday Timmins for the past eighteen years, September 9th.
