

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

How it pours, pours, pours,
In a never-ending sheet!
How it drives beneath the doors!
How it soaks the passer's feet!
How it rattles on the shutter!
How it rumples up the lawn!
How 'twill sigh, and moan, and mutter,
From darkness until dawn.

Monday brought those words from Rossier Johnson's "Rhyme of the Rain" into the minds of many people in this Northland... and too, the expression — blue Monday... certainly, the rain did nothing to lighten the spirits of those who had been disappointed in the week-end... those sun-worshippers... and it wasn't at all pleasant to walk into the office or store, and feel like a drowned mouse for half the morning or afternoon.

Best wishes to a northern girl and her American husband... a girl whose friends think there is nothing too good for her... she is the former Vera Zuck, who now bears the name "Mrs. James Dwyer"... Vera and Jim were married while Vera was on holiday a few weeks ago, and she expects to leave in September for Chicago, where the Dwyers will make their home... Vera is originally a Cochrane girl, but she has been employed in Timmins for the past few years.

And to three couples who chose the week-end for their weddings... Mr. and Mrs. Deibert Carl Johns... and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas... and Mr. and Mrs. Real Scrippick... Mr. Carl Johns is the former Virginia McIvor, and both she and her husband are well-known in town and district... they were married on Friday while Carl was on leave from Barryfield, near Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas said their "I do's" at the Timmins United Church on Saturday afternoon... she is the former Celia Mary Grant... and Mr. and Mrs. Scrippick chose St. Anthony's Cathedral for their Saturday morning wedding... the bride is the former Lucienne Landriault... only three weddings over a week-end... seems much smaller than the average earlier in the summer... but the remainder of the month and September seem "bright" for weddings... Ann has not counted the number scheduled, but practically every day is "booked."

In the early spring this column told you about the hospitable people "over Troquois Falls way"... and many of you found that that was the exact truth... among the dancers at the annual golf club dance on Friday evening were Timmins representatives galore... many of whom were members of the Kinsmen Club and their wives... they enjoyed the friendliness of those Troquois Falls people... they enjoyed meeting the out-of-town guests from other Northern Ontario towns who "took in" the dance as part of the tournament... and, all 'round, they had a mighty good time.

Timmins and Porcupine people are busy today, and will be busy until next Tuesday talking about the coming visit of royalty... His Royal Highness, the Duke of Kent, who will be the guest of our town on Tuesday of next week... from the tiny tots to the oldest residents of the district, the announcement has caused excitement and thrilled expectancy... and to old-timers of the district it has brought back memories of another royal visit twenty years ago... yes, twenty years ago the Porcupine Camp was honoured by a visit from the present Duke of Windsor, who was then the Prince of Wales... he was welcomed with "open arms"... and that's the way the Duke of Kent will be received... his visit will be one of those important happenings that children of today will be telling their grandchildren about, many, many years from this year of 1941.

Three eager smiles, and a bit of amazement, greeted Ann when she stopped to see three little Misses... Gloria Ross, Ann Quinn, and Nancy Pickering at their lemonade and candy booth on Toke street yesterday... the smiles were the result of the natural charm of these youngsters, while the amazement was "to have their names in the paper"... the three girls worked all afternoon selling candy, lemonade and flowers, to donate their funds to one of the causes in aid of Britain.

Once again, a popular bride-to-be Miss Velma Eimes, was guest-of-honour last night when friends gathered at her home at a surprise shower party... and to wish her "bon voyage" on her trip out to Calgary, Alberta, where she will join her prospective bridegroom for their wedding on August 23rd... he is Herb Hatton of the R.C.A.F... with her, Velma will take those linen gifts which she received at the shower last night.

At the Timmins United Church on Thursday, August 21st, Miss Mae Bugera, R.N. will become the bride of Mr. Lloyd Cooper of Timmins... Miss Bugera, whose home is on second avenue in Schumacher, has been on the nursing staff at St. Mary's Hospital for the past twelve years, and is well-known as an efficient and kindly follower of the work of Florence Nightingale... best wishes.

St. Mary's Journal-Argus: Doctor—I'm sorry, but I can't cure your husband of talking in his sleep. Wife—Well, then, could you make him talk more distinctly?

Bride-to-be Guest of Honour at Linen Shower Last Night

A lovely August bride-to-be, Miss Velma Eimes, was guest-of-honour on Wednesday evening at a delightfully arranged linen shower held at her home by Miss Malla Rihinen and Mrs. Andrew Kolin. Summer flowers, in a pink and white setting, adorned the home, while pink and white streamers attached to chandeliers, were arranged to fall into each of the four corners, where the bride found the treasure—beautiful gifts to use in her new home.

Miss Eimes will leave on Tuesday of next week for Calgary, Alberta, where she will become the bride of Herb Hatton of the R.C.A.F., the wedding to take place on Saturday, August 23rd. Games and contests provided an evening of fun and merriment, and the hostesses served an especially dainty and delicious lunch, assisted by Mrs. S. Slack, Mrs. W. Niimimaki, and Miss Doris Koskela. Flower-like baskets of candies made lovely souvenirs of the event.

Among those who attended were: Mrs. S. Slack, Mrs. T. Homefelt, Mrs. W. Niimimaki, Mrs. L. Pihlaja, Mrs. J. Tolmonen, Mrs. H. J. Keineck, Mrs. T. Elmes (mother of the bride-to-be), Misses Nelma Johnson, Aune Alanen, Aite Niimimaki, Marietta Forsberg, Saara Rauha, Helen Korri, Anita Soiri, Laila Koskela, Helen Lehto, Soara Passi, Doris Koskela, Laura Kari, the hostesses Mrs. A. Kolin and Miss Malla Rihinen, and the guest-of-honour, Miss Velma Eimes. Unable to attend but sending lovely gifts were Mrs. Wm. Sillanpaa and Mrs. Chas. Haapanen.
