

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

There are so many "bear-stories" being told these days that "Ann" just felt tempted to "chime in" too... early Sunday morning, while driving out to their cottage near Bayside Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sillanpaa met a playful bear... it was a very large bear, and one that no person would have cared to play with... Mr. and Mrs. Sillanpaa were in a car, and somehow, the car attracted the bear's attention... running along side it along the highway, the bear would pause every now and then, tilt its head enquiringly to one side, and study this modern machine... as the car drew nearer, the bear would pick up its hind legs and race along... if the slow trot of a bear... a large one... can be called racing... and then, when at a safe distance again, repeat its study of the auto... perhaps he learned something... but the occupants of the matter of study certainly learned that they would not like to encounter Mr. Bruin while on foot.

Over "Kresge way" there's another new diamond with a beautiful sparkle... and it's flashing on the third finger, left hand, of charming Bessie Stencilik... the lucky fellow is AC2 Aubrey Robinson of the R.C.A.F., stationed at Hagersville... and right here and now... why do so many people say that they don't want to have any mention of their weddings-to-be in the "paper" till the event has taken place?... unless it's a great big secret, most people usually know about these things, and certainly, there are others who would like to know... for example, there are a few very popular couples who have decided that autumn 1941 would be the ideal time for their weddings... but they say—please, just wait till after the wedding.

Last week, this column told something about the marriage in Calgary of Herbert Hutton of the R.C.A.F. and Velma Eimes... both of Timmins... Herb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hatton of 44 Tuke street, and Velma is the daughter of Mrs. J. Eimes of 59 Elm street north... well, to begin at the beginning... last week's column described Velma's charming blue wedding dress, and said the wedding would take place in a United Church... now, in a letter to his mother, Herb says that "his bride was very, very lovely"... he continues that "pals" of his from the airforce formed a guard of honor as he and his bride left the church... and then, they honeymooned at lovely lakes in Alberta before returning last week to take up residence in a comfortable apartment in the heart of Calgary.

September 8th ushers in a week of celebrating... a week of "Legion V" celebration... of course, it's all being arranged and conducted by the local branch of the Canadian Legion, and star of the celebration will be Miss Jeanette Carrette, who comes all the way from South America, where she has been on a successful tour, to take part in the production... dancing star of Horace Heidt's orchestra, featured on concert, stage and screen, Miss Garrette in her letter to the Timmins Legion, says "It's the first time I've been asked to help in any War effort and I'm just tickled to be able to spare a week as my share of doing something to help this event... you'll probably remember the lovely lady from her appearance here in September 1939, when she made a great hit.

Not only will the Legion presentation feature outstanding out-of-town talent but... and many of you will be "extra-pleased" at this news... there'll be numbers by the dancing pupils of Mrs. Wm. Shields... see Margaret Easton... Margaret will be back from a honeymoon trip just in time to take charge of the dancing performances of her pupils... on the Legion week will take place at the Timmins arena from September 8th to September 13th... it'll be a lot of fun.

Twelve marriages since last Thursday... that is the handsome total for Timmins... and then there were other weddings in the district... as well as some weddings that aren't to be told about... best wishes to Trooper and Mrs. Kenneth Singleton... Private and Mrs. Lloyd Johnston... Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gauthier... Mr. and Mrs. Camille Legault... Mr. and Mrs. Armand Decoeur... Mr. and Mrs. Henri Decoeur... Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Laine... Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Rajala... Mr. and Mrs. William Kuinka... Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Garstin... Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fanelli... and Mr. and Mrs. Ignace Stubinski.

Starting the "parade of weddings" on Friday were Trooper and Mrs. Kenneth Singleton and Private and Mrs. Lloyd Johnston... both military weddings... at the St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Miss Mabel Westine became the bride of Trooper Kenneth Singleton of the Tank Corps, stationed at Camp Borden... while Miss Mary Grachuk, in her uniform of the C.W. S.F., was united in marriage to Private Lloyd Johnston, stationed at Camp Borden in a quiet ceremony at Timmins United Church... following the ceremony, the bride and groom walked hand in hand along the street by the church... one in the neat khaki of her service, and the other in the blue uniform of his regiment.

Continuing the parade, Rita Marion Martin and Eugene Gauthier became "Mr. and Mrs." on Saturday morning at the Notre Dame des Lourdes Church... then, at nine o'clock in St. Anthony's Cathedral, took place a very unusual ceremony in which a sister and her two brothers were married... Elizabeth Decoeur was the sister who became the bride of Camille Legault... while her two brothers changed the names of Miss Carmen Dube to Mrs. Armand Decoeur, and Miss Marie Valde Mailloux to Mrs. Henri Decoeur... each of the brides wore white satin... each was given in marriage by her father... and each couple was honoured at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Decoeur Sr., after the ceremony.

Just a bit later that morning, two very popular young people, Miss Delta Jacques... one of the pleasant girls working at London Life... and Mr. Harvey Laine said their "I do's" at the Presbyterian Church Manse... Delta was especially charming in a rich brown ensemble that flattered her petite beauty... while Saturday afternoon presumably was "weddingless", Sunday again started the parade with the marriage of Margaret Hegedus to Douglas Edward Rajala, both of Schumacher... and Rose Kramaruk to William Kuinka, both weddings taking place at Timmins United Church.

One of Monday's loveliest weddings was the "all-white" wedding which made Mabel Higginbotham and Don Garstin "Mr. and Mrs."... Mabel looked very lovely in the gown of lace and taffeta which she had made herself... and her bouquet was caught by one of the town's most popular and charming young ladies, her maid-of-honour, Miss Jean McChesney... so, if old sayings hold true, you'll soon be hearing about the betrothal of our former "Queen Esther"... also on Monday, at the Sacred Heart Church, Ida Mezzaville became Mrs. Albert Fanelli... while at the same church on Tuesday, Louise Tennell and Ignace Stubinski said their "I do's."

Altogether, it must be a record week... even for Timmins... at least one of the records accomplished was the first triple wedding for the town... another was the number of brides who had made their own wedding gowns

... and some for their attendants... one bride even made her own wedding cake... perhaps another would be that two of the couples were Schumacher residents... and another, would be the number of nationalities represented... although all in all, they were all Canadians.

A very popular bride-elect has been entertained at three events during the past few days... she is Miss Sheila Lang, who on September 13th will become the bride of Les Redford... on Saturday, she was guest-of-honour at a kitchen shower held at the Harkness home, with Mrs. A. R. Harkness, Miss Ellen and Miss Harriet Harkness as joint hostesses... on Monday evening, Mrs. Geo. Vaughan of Schumacher was hostess at a linen shower for Sheila... and yesterday, Mrs. J. E. Sullivan and Miss Ann Sullivan entertained at an afternoon tea and cup and saucer shower.

The Women's Institute is certainly planning an active month... on September 10th, there's the afternoon tea at Mrs. Vaccino's apartment over the A & P store... on September 12th, there's to be a round and square dance, with an old-time orchestra, at the Hollinger Hall... and September 22nd to September 26th, there's to be a short course in the planning and preparing of fruit, also at the Hollinger Hall... while this week-end, the banquet cloth which will be a feature of the afternoon tea, will be on display in the A. J. Shragge windows.

Wedding Monday at the United Church

Miss Mabel Higginbotham and Mr. Donald Belmore Garstin United in Marriage.

Adorned with gladioli, calla lilies, phlox, and other summer flowers, the Timmins United Church was the setting of an unusually lovely all-white wedding on Monday afternoon when Miss Mabel Higginbotham, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Higginbotham became the bride of Mr. Donald Belmore Garstin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Garstin, of London, England. The Rev. E. Gilmour-Smith officiated, and during the ceremony, Mr. Herbert C. Trener presided at the organ, while Mrs. Geo. Jenkin sang "I Love Thee."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a lovely picture in a gown of white lace and taffeta, made on fitted lines, with full flared skirt. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points over the wrists, the bodice was fitted, and the bride wore her mother's wedding veil of embroidered net caught in a lace Dutch cap. Her arm bouquet was made up of calla lilies, white roses and fern, and she wore the groom's gift, a gold locket and chain.

Miss Jean McChesney was the attractive maid-of-honour, daintily attired in white chiffon, floor-length. Her gown featured full bishop sleeves, a fitted bodice and round neckline, and a full skirt, and she wore a brightly coloured flowered cap, while carrying a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mr. Jim Creighton was groomsman, and the ushers were Messrs Arthur Higginbotham, brother of the bride, and Homer McIntosh. Little Miss Joyce Humphrey, cousin of the bride, was the dainty flower-girl, wearing a floor-length frock of white taffeta, with pink and white streamers, and a matching pokebonnet. Her colonial bouquet was made up of mixed flowers.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Higginbotham received the guests wearing a becoming ensemble of Elizabeth blue crepe, with corsage of Tallisman roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Albert Humphrey, in appliqued rose crepe. The bride and groom left on Tuesday to honeymoon at Toronto and other points south, before taking up residence in Hamilton. For travel, the bride chose a tailored ensemble of black wool crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of roses.
