

St. Matthew's is Scene of One of the Season's Loveliest Weddings

Friends Crowd Church for Ceremony as Popular Couple are United in Marriage. Miss Helen Crews Becomes Bride of Mr. John Baker Lake.

White gladioli adorned St. Matthew's Anglican Church on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, for one of the season's loveliest weddings, when Miss Helen Crews, only daughter of Mrs. W. Crews, of 111 Hemlock street, and the late Mr. Crews, became the bride of Mr. John Baker Lake, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lake, of 205 Maple street south. The Rev. Canon R. S. Cushing officiated.

During the ceremony, Miss Bernice Bridgman presided at the organ, and members of St. Matthew's Church Choir sang "A Voice That Breath'd O'er Eden."

Given in marriage by Mr. G. S. Lowe, the charming bride made a lovely picture in her gown of ivory satin. Fashioned with a long, fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline, the gown featured leg o' mutton sleeves which tapered to points over the wrists. The full skirt fell gracefully from honey-combing at the hipline into a long train, and her long veil of illusion net was caught daintily in a Mary Queen of Scots cap. She carried a simple bouquet of calla lilies, and wore the last birthday gift given to her by her late father, a beautiful single string of pearls.

Miss Barbara Lowe, as maid-of-honour, was attractively attired in turquoise blue chiffon, with a quilted taffeta jacket to match. Fashioned on long, slender lines, the frock fell into a full skirt, while the jacket was made with long fitted sleeves and a small Peter Pan collar. A shoulder-length veil was caught in a turquoise blue Mary Queen of Scots cap, and she carried an ivory prayer book, from which fell ivory streamers adorned with lily-of-the-valley.

Misses Marjorie Bull, Ann Jopson, and Mary Adams were the pretty bridesmaids, wearing identically fashioned gowns of chiffon and lace, in pastel shades. A dainty hood fell to the neckline of each gown, the bodice and hood being made of lace, while the bishop sleeves and flowing skirt were fashioned of chiffon. Simplicity was the keynote of the gowns, Miss Bull wearing powder blue chiffon, Miss Jopson in orchid chiffon, and Miss Adams in lemon chiffon. Each bridesmaid carried an ivory prayer-book, with lily-of-the-valley on its streamers. The prayer-books were the gifts of the bride and groom.

Mr. Merion Lake, cousin of the groom, was the best man, with Messrs. Frank Wills, of Schumacher, James Ormiston, and Wm. Leddy as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride's mother, who received the guests in a gown of New Zealand blue crepe, with black velvet accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom's mother chose black velvet, floor-length, with trim of gold sequins at the round neckline and fitted waist. Her accessories were also in black velvet, and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Stan Johns, in floral sheer, with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses, and Mrs. Jas. Keene, in black crepe, with gold sequin trim, matching accessories, and a corsage of red roses, presided at the tea table which was daintily centred with a four-tier wedding cake. Gladioli and other summer flowers adorned the home for the occasion. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Gerry Morrow, in cerise quilted taffeta; Mrs. Robt. Webb, in turquoise blue sheer, with rhinestone clip; Mrs. P. Masters, in olive green, with corsage of pink roses; Miss Ann McPherson in black taffeta; and Miss Adeline Jackson in burnt brown wool, with matching accessories.

At a reception which was held in the Masonic Hall, the bride and groom received a large number of guests, who enjoyed dancing to the music of Henry Kelnick's orchestra. A delicious lunch was served.

The bridal couple left on Wednesday for points south, the bride travelling in an ensemble of Elizabeth blue fine wool crepe, fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves, silver nailheads at the neckline, full skirt, and adorned with tiny velvet bows. She wore black velvet accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. Upon their return, the bride will take up residence at 111 Hemlock street, and the groom will leave to join the Ordnance Corps.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Avery, and daughter, Sharon, of Detroit; Mrs. Avery wearing airforce blue, with a corsage of pink roses; Mr. Geo. Lake, uncle of the groom, of Toronto; Miss Jean Pearce, of Toronto, in black lace, with a corsage of Talisman roses; and Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Owens (nee Eve Marshall), of Iroquois Falls.

The groom's gift to the bride was a utility sewing basket; the bride's gift to the groom was a Gruen wrist watch; to the maid-of-honour and bridesmaids ivory prayer books; to the groomsmen and ushers, leather wallets; to the organist, a pearl necklace.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Ann Jopson; Mrs. S. Johns and Mrs. J. Miller; Mrs. E. Stevens and Mrs. H. Roy; the Gold Nugget Bebekah Lodge; Mrs. Jas. Keene, and Mrs. G. S. Lowe and Miss Barbara Lowe.

September Meeting of United Church W.M.S.

Mrs. J. Teeple, first vice-president presided in the absence of Mrs. A. Gillies, at the September meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Timmins United Church.

Mrs. J. Weir gave a stirring talk on community friendship, and Mrs. A. B. Ramsay spoke briefly on Temperance and told of a forthcoming event on November 3rd, when Dr. Demille will again visit Timmins.

The worship service was taken by Mrs. Olsher, and Mrs. A. A. Rose, literature secretary, very capably introduced the new study book, which is about West China.

Miss Mayowna gave a splendid address on the Couchiching Conference of the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs, having attended the conference in August. Members were greatly interested in her comments on the outstanding speakers at the conference, who spoke on world affairs as they are to-day.

W. I. Short Course Begins on Monday Afternoon

Donating articles for the Bombed Victims of England, the Womens Institute enjoyed themselves in "giving" by holding a Bombed Victims' Shower at the regular monthly meeting held on Wednesday afternoon in the Hollinger Hall. Many were the donations made by the members, who realize that more than ever, England's people need the help of Canadians.

Three members were sent as delegates to the area convention in New Liskeard, and are at present attending the event. They are Mrs. Kirk,

MRS. JOHN BAKER LAKE

Mrs. A. MacDonald, and Mrs. E. A. Day. Two other members left this (Thursday) morning for Forquiss Junction, where they will attend a local leader training school. These two members, Mrs. J. McChesney and Mrs. J. McNulty, will attend classes on vegetable preparation, and will return to demonstrate to the members of the local branch all that they have learned.

Helen Abel, of headquarters at Toronto, will arrive in town on the morning of September 22nd, to hold the first class for the preserving of fruits, etc., at the Hollinger hall at 2 o'clock that afternoon. It is hoped that as many members of the Institute as possible will take advantage of this opportunity to learn the approved methods for preserving, as this method of preparing fruit is one that is advised by the Canadian Government at the present time.

Indefinite plans were made for the Hallowe'en Tea which will be held on Wednesday afternoon October 29th.

Some Hunters May Face Charges in Police Court

Game Warden Phil Boudreau indicated this morning to The Advance that several persons in the district will probably be facing charges next week of hunting ducks on Sunday before the season was open. He said that he encountered several parties in possession of ducks on Sunday but as yet he has not laid any charges.

The game warden reported that the ducks are in the district in about the same quantity as last year. There are not exceptionally large amounts of the birds in the district although some hunters have gone out for one day and returned with a large number of birds.

Lions Club Observes Reconsecration Week at Monday's Meeting

The Timmins Lions Club held a very special meeting on Monday evening of this week. It was a Ladies' Night and the meeting had a double purpose as it was dedicated to observing Reconsecration Week. A fine programme was arranged and the meeting was one of the most successful for weeks. President Stan Fowler presided.

The meeting was devoted to the Reconsecration to Democracy Week and the guest speaker chosen for the occasion was Austin Neame. Mr. Neame was introduced by Lion M. E. Williams and his short address explained the purpose of the meeting and in it he brought in the Reconsecration pledge. The pledge asked that all free people reconsecrate themselves with faith, with courage, and with the knowledge that though the path may be hard and the day dark our effort cannot fail.

Mr. Neame was thanked for his address by Lion Ed. Copps. The orchestra under the direction of Wallace Young, A.T.C.M. then played a few patriotic selections.

In opening the meeting the Lions and their ladies joined in singing "There'll Always be an England". Lion H. Tremear then said grace and the assembled Lions and ladies sat down to their dinner.

The tables were set in V formation with the head table set in the three dots and a dash system. Decorations were red and blue V's on all the tables and Union Jacks and American flags were also placed at each place. The setting in the banquet hall was one of victory with V's throughout.

After dinner the programme was started beginning with a toast to the King following which Rev. Gilmour Smith read the Reconsecration Prayer as all joined with him. The guest speaker was then introduced.

After the address by Mr. Austin Neame, Rev. Gilmour Smith read the Reconsecration Grace. A toast to the ladies was proposed by Lion Dr. M. J. Kelly and was responded to by Mrs. Wendall Brewer.

Before the conclusion of the meeting Secretary Harold Pirie announced that the first Zone meeting of the Lions would be held at Duparquet, Quebec, on Sunday, September 28th.

Blairmore Enterprise—Our lead pencil has got worn down to two inches in length and we lost it on Saturday, which accounts for less news matter in this week's issue. We would appreciate anyone donating a new pencil to us right now.

Globe and Mail—It will be recalled that one of the opinions Charles Lindbergh brought back to the United States was that the Russian Air Force was in a deplorable condition. He ought now to apologize to Hitler for unfittingly deceiving him.
