

Surprise Party in Honour of South Porcupine Couple

South Porcupine, Oct. 1—(Special to The Advance)—Mr. and Mrs. M. Billings have moved into their new home on Leighton Ave., Connaught Hill. On Monday a surprise house-warming party was staged by the choir of St. Paul's Anglican Church (of which both are members), who went in a body to the house and spent a social and musical evening bringing with them all that was necessary for entertainment.

During the evening a handsome floor lamp was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Billings with the best wishes of all present. Mr. M. Smith, who is organist at the church, was also made the recipient of a nice personal gift.

Those present were Archdeacon and Mrs. Woodall, Mrs. J. Naish, Mrs. P.

Reynolds, Mrs. H. Jones, Miss Oia Stanley, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mr. H. Edwards and Mr. M. Smith.

Children of the choir present were Miss Mary Harper, Miss Norgine White, Jackie Jay, Norman Harper, Bud Rosebrugh, Vernon Green and Richard Barnes.

Mrs. Billings, of Toronto, who is on a visit to her son, Mr. M. Billings, was also present.

All enjoyed the delicious lunch served at the end of a very pleasant evening.

Lieutenant J. A. Weinstein

Pictured above is Lieutenant J. A. Weinstein, of the R.C.E., Dundas, Saskatchewan, who left last week after spending a leave at the home of Mrs. Weinstein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halperin, of Maple street south. He was accompanied to Timmins by Mrs. Weinstein, who is remaining here for a further holiday.

Creemore Star:—The story of a motorist crashing into the side of a long freight train may sound like carelessness on the part of a car driver, but statistics report numerous similar accidents. Long trains of freight cars which are unlighted are not particularly visible until you are right onto them. We have never had the experience, but there are so many of such accidents reported it looks as if such misfortunes are a real possibility.

LOCALS

Mrs. J. H. Sullivan, of New Liskeard, was a visitor to Timmins last week.

Miss Ruth Schmeizle left on Sunday for Hamilton, where she will take up residence.

Mr. Victor Luchen, of Schumacher, left on Saturday for Kingston, in answer to his call from the R.C.N.

Mr. Johnny Michelak left on Saturday for Kingston in answer to his call from the R.C.N.

Miss Mabel Sundstrom has returned after a few weeks' holiday spent at her home in Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. James McLean has returned from Hamilton where he resided for the past six months.

Miss Rose Pasnik, of Kenora, Ont., was a week-end visitor at the home of Miss Kay MacInnis, Kent avenue.

Mrs. Bound, of the Bucovetsky staff, will leave next week to take up residence in Toronto.

Another test of Onakawana lignite was made on a T. & N. O. freight locomotive last week, but no results were given out as to the test.

Gunner Gunnar Kallunki, of Fort St. John, N.S., is spending a leave at the home of his parents in town.

Private Rolland Levesque, of Debert, N.S., accompanied by Mrs. Levesque, is spending a leave with relatives and family in town.

Trooper Garth Porter, of the Tank Corps, Camp Borden, spent week-end leave at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Porter.

Second Lieut. Dan Casey, of Brockville, formerly manager of the Simpson Co., branch here, spent leave with friends in town this week.

Mrs. Oscar Valimaa and Miss Elma Ylilinen of Fort William are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Merikallio, 90 Fourth avenue. Mrs. Valimaa is Mrs. Merikallio's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lake (nee Helen Crews) are expected to return this (Thursday) evening after a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Waterloo and many other southern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan H. Baker announce the engagement of their daughter, Ellen Beryl, to Mr. Thomas Earl Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hawkins, Edmonton, Alberta, the marriage to take place on October 11th, 1941.

Messrs Louis Doiron, Seaborn Allbright, and Joe Colhoun, left on Tuesday morning for Toronto, where they attended the Evans-Callon wedding on Wednesday, and where Mr. Colhoun's marriage to Miss Vi Davidson will take place on Saturday.

Another Shipment Made by Women's Institute on Tuesday

To pack another bundle for the sailors on board the "Gaspé Bay," minesweeper adopted by the local branch of the Institute, the members of the Women's Institute met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Briggs, the war services convener, 19 Commercial avenue.

When completed, the shipment contained 24 pairs of seamen's socks (long); 9 turtle-neck sweaters; 1 sleeveless sweater; 6 helmets; 2 scarves (72"); 4 dozen chocolate bars; 40 packages cigarettes; 5 boxes candy; 1 package biscuits; and 2 packs of playing cards. After the packing, the hostess served a delicious lunch to those who attended.

Among those present were: Mrs. P. G. Howard; Mrs. H. McGarry; Mrs. J. Dicker; Mrs. R. McTaggart; Mrs. S. Henderson; Mrs. C. Surman; Mrs. J. Griffin; Mrs. E. Brand; Mrs. A. McCharles and the hostess, Mrs. C. Briggs.

GIRL GUIDES

TIMMINS

The Guides of the 106th I.O.D.E. Co. held their meeting on Monday in St. Matthew's Hall.

The meeting opened with roll call and inspection. When the Guides had formed Horseshoe the flag was raised and the National Anthem sung.

The Guides went to the patrol corners for work. The Cadets instructed groups of Guides in Morse and knots. The Guides played a new game and then reformed Horseshoe for Taps.

A Court of Honour of all the patrol leaders was held after the meeting.

The 56th Brownie Pack held another meeting last Wednesday.

The Pack is complete and it is asked that no more join until Christmas.

Pow-Wow was held towards the end of the meetings, and each Brownie wore her Indian feathers.

Helen Skubinski, Maxine Armstrong, Ida Baxter, Joan Avery, Margaret Ann Murray, and Lois Williams will be enrolled next week.

Meeting as usual at 5.30. Betty Ross was home sick and we hope she will get better soon.

Protect Children From DIPHTHERIA

Diphtheria is a dangerous disease for children, which may be prevented by inoculation with Toxoid.

Children between the ages of 6 months to 6 years may be inoculated to prevent Diphtheria and should have this protection before entering school.

This may be done by your own family physician. Consult him.

Inoculation is a sure means of protection. It is harmless and lasting.

Children who are not old enough to attend school, may be inoculated free of charge by the Medical Officer of Health.
