

Regulations for Maximum Prices Effective Dec. 1st

Government Announces the Postponement from Original Date of Nov. 17th.

Ottawa, Canada, Nov. 19, 1941.—Hon. J. L. Halsey, Minister of Finance, announced this week that on the recommendation of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board the Government has decided to postpone the effective date of the Maximum Prices Regulations from November 17 to December 1.

The reason for the postponement is to ensure the most effective possible administration and enforcement of the Regulations from the moment they come into operation. No change in policy is involved.

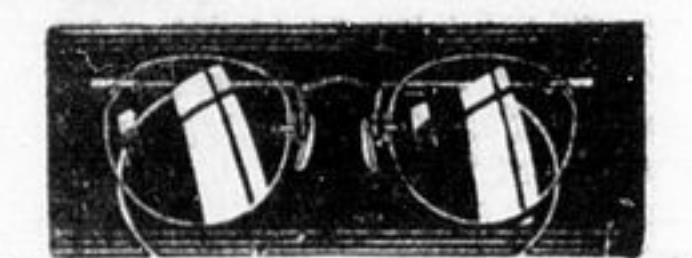

The Board is anxious to have a competent organization equipped and ready to deal with any kind of problem or difficulty which may arise when the new price policy goes into effect. Considerable progress has already been made, but there remain some important appointments of necessary commodity administrators to be made, and the organization of staff is not yet complete.

Mr. Hector McKinnon, Chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, stated that careful consideration is being given to the many questions which have been raised by all sections of the public. The Board regards it of the highest importance that the new policy should come into operation in a manner which will enable the public, both buyers and sellers, to be given promptly all necessary information, answers to questions, and decisions, in regard to the many problems which are bound to arise. The Board has accordingly made the recommendation to the Minister to defer the date of commencement to December 1, by which time all businesses dealing in food, feeds, and clothing are required to secure a license.

This means that on and after December 1st no person may sell or supply any goods or services at a price higher than the maximum price as provided in the regulations, that is, the highest price charged by the same seller for the same kind and quality of goods and services during the "basic period" from September 15 to October 11.

Mr. Halsey declared that the Government was accepting the Board's recommendation without question. "We have placed the responsibility for the administration of the price-ceiling policy squarely on the shoulders of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board," he stated, "and naturally we accept their view that the difficult task of organization requires a little more time than was originally estimated. If a short postponement will result in more efficient administration and enforcement it is certainly in the public interest."

The Minister pointed out that the announcement of general price control had been made by the Prime Minister of October 18th. It was important to have the announcement made immediately after the basic period, September 15 to October 11, so that people should know what the maximum prices were going to be, and so that preparations might be begun without delay of putting the policy into effect at the earliest possible moment. The announcement itself had already helped to keep prices from rising, and if any prices had risen since October 11 they would have to be immediately reduced to the old level on December 1.

Brownies
The 1st Timmins Brownies pack opened its meeting with the Brownies coming very quietly from their Sixer Corners to wake Brown Owl with the Brownie Song.

During the evening those trying their Golden Hand Test practiced bandaging a cut finger and knee; another group practiced skipping and the Tweenies were taught the Promise Law and Motto.

The meeting closed with a few songs and the Pack Howl.

The 2nd Timmins Brownie Pack spent a considerable length of time during their meeting in the passing of tests. Elaine Craig, Jessie Dunsmore, Helen Beckett, Grace Greaves, Gwen McElwee, Joan McElwee, Joyce Lawlor, Gwen Brown, and Anne Nankervis pass the Ball-throwing test. Sally Porritt, Ruth Welcher and Dorothy Whitford passed the four knots. Carol Aineburt, Grace Blackman, Margaret Craig, Ruth Dupee, Doreen Collins, Joyce Hefferman, Elsie Hefferman, Joan Parks, Willa McAllum, Barbara Whitford, Viola Welcher, Helen Holland passed traffic signals and nature.

The Brownies then enjoyed two good games, Brownies' Joy and the Seven Capers. They sang a few songs in their Bow-Wow circle and the meeting was brought to a close with the Brownies Squeeze.

Girl Guides

The 108th I.O.D.E. Company were hostesses to the 46th and 50th I.O.D.E. Brownies Packs at a delightful party on Monday evening.

Jean Carson, Evril Ede and Lois Southam were in charge of the entertainment and a grand time was had by all.

At the close of the party the Patrol Leaders served a delightful lunch which they had prepared.

The 1st Timmins Company held a Court of Honour before its regular meeting on Thursday evening. The ordinary meeting started at 7:30 p.m.

A very interesting game using the 16 points of the compass was played. The Guides found this to be both instructive and enjoyable.

The remainder of the evening was spent in practice for the Athlete's Badge, Morse Code and the recruits were taught the four knots and their uses.

During the campfire the weekly paper was read. The Kingfisher Patrol will be Duty Patrol for next week. The meeting closed with Evensong and Taps.

Mrs. Agnes M. King Dies at Age of 76 at Home of Her Son

Late Mrs. King Had Given Notable Service to Her Day and Generation in Church, Musical and Other Circles.

Funeral services will be held at the United Church tomorrow (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock for the late Mrs. Agnes Maud King, who passed away at St. Mary's Hospital on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The remains will be sent to St. Catharines, where interment will be made in the Victoria Lawn cemetery in the plot where her husband, the Rev. Howard King, is interred. The services will be conducted by the Rev. W. M. Mustard.

The late Mrs. King was born in Stockton-on-Tees, England, on June 5th, 1865, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Semple. During her girlhood she attended Miss Cleminson's School for Young Ladies, and later became a teacher of Art and Music at the same school.

In 1888 Mrs. King came to Winnipeg, Manitoba, and she was very proud of her connection with the life in these early days around the Red River. In Winnipeg she met the Rev. Howard King, who was Master at St. John's College in Winnipeg, and was married to him on July 15th, 1895, at her home in Stockton-on-Tees. On returning to Canada, their first charge was the parish at Rapid City, Manitoba.

In 1897, the Rev. and Mrs. King were called to Oak Lake, Manitoba, and in 1900 they moved to St. Andrew's, Manitoba. In 1906, the family took up residence in Armstrong, B.C., and remained there until Archbishop Anderson, of Cochrane, called Mr. King to take over the Chaplaincy to the Returned Soldiers Settlement at Kapuskasing in 1918. In 1920, the family moved to Cochrane where they remained until Mr. King retired from the church in 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. King lived their retired life in St. Catharines, and after Mr. King's death in 1928, Mrs. King made St. Catharines and London, Ontario, as well as Victoria, B.C., her home. She was president of the Deaneery of East Middlesex for a year prior to her last illness. In September of this year, owing to failing health, she came to Timmins to stay with her son, Ernest, and his family.

Her wonderful musical knowledge and ability helped a great deal in organizing Church Choirs, and aided her in training many organists who are still playing in churches she had left. Mrs. King instituted many branches of the Anglican W.A. during her life time. Her efforts in this field of Church work caused her to be constituted a Life member of the W.A. at Armstrong B.C. in 1913, and upon coming to this new north country, she carried on this work which was dear to her. She instituted branches at Kapuskasing, South Porcupine, Iroquois Falls and Cochrane.

Mrs. King leaves to mourn her passing three sons, Ernest, postmaster at Timmins; Arthur, manager of the Bank of Montreal, at Duke Lake, Saskatchewan; and Norman, engineer with the McIntyre at Belle Terre, Quebec. Four granddaughters, Patricia and Vera Jane, of Timmins, Elaine Agnes of Duke Lake, and Sheila of Belle Terre, also survive.

ASSEMBLY

The Assembly opened as usual with a Scripture reading and the singing of "God Save the King."

Mr. Murray commented on the excellent conduct of our senior team on their trip to North Bay, and read a very favourable letter which he received from the principal of the North Bay High School.

The school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Young entertained us with a very difficult and beautiful musical selection called "Slavonic Dance."

Heidi Bauman gave a book review on "Ben Hur" after which Priscilla Ayers delivered a very interesting talk on Iceland and stressed its importance in the present conflict as a stepping stone to the New World.

Following this, the senior team, those stalwarts of T.H.V.S., were introduced to the students by Captain Bill Carson.

DEBATING

An interesting debate was held on Friday, November 14, at 4.15 in the Assembly Hall. The subject was: "Resolved that the individual is made happier as his life is made easier by science." Visiting debaters were Margaret Anderson and Iano Vitalean, of Cochrane High School. Opposing them were Sidney Halperin and Jorma Kallikowski, of T. H. and V. S. The arguments were well presented by all contestants and it was only after long deliberations that the decision was made in favour of the Cochrane team.

A delicious lunch was served at the close of the afternoon for which a vote of thanks was tendered Miss Hayden.

At the same time an exchange team from T. H. and V. S., Irene O'Grady and Gladys Roy, debated at Cochrane on the same subject and were victorious.

GIRLS' SPORTS

All girls taking P.T. seem to be doing well in their classes in the gymnasium, of course it could not be that the girls are putting their best efforts into showing off to the boys who happen to be looking on.

Well—Pauline Auger's team certainly received a double beating last Wednesday. They met with DeMarco's team and Bauman's team in a double-header that was really a double-header. They lost the first game by a score of 26-2; with Florence Anderson getting the only basket for the Auger team. Then in the game with Bauman's, Auger was winning at half time by the score of 5-3 but got over-confident and bang—they lost by 7-5. Florence got one basket and a free shot and Jeannine Brown accounted for the other basket. Oh, well, it is only in fun anyway; still a win is better than a loss; especially a double-header loss.

C4 really enjoys P.T. classes. We take up the different passes in basketball, new tricks to keep the opposing team guessing, and in our class everyone generally participates. If we happen to be in the gym and play basketball there is very keen competition. When school first started, there were enough girls to form three or four teams and therefore we could only play about ten minutes each, but now we are able to play the whole period because there are only twelve girls; just enough to make up two teams, so we have a lot of fun.

Well till next week. ENJOY ALL SPORTS AND BE SPORTY.

SO LONG AND CHINS UP.

Special Business Meeting

South Porcupine A.Y.P.A.

The A.Y.P.A. of St. Paul's Church, South Porcupine, held a special business meeting on Wednesday, November 19th. An important decision was made to organize a Junior branch of the A.Y.P.A. which will include members from the age of 14 on, and will work in co-ordination with the Senior branch. Both groups will meet at 7.30 p.m. and the Junior Group will adjourn at 8.45. All Junior members of the church are urged to attend.

Preparations were then made for the selling of home made candy at the Congregational dinner to be held on December 1st. A committee was formed to meet the members of the Timmins A.Y.P.A. to prepare a schedule for game competitions during the winter months.

The discussion period on the subject of "Strikes" was led by Harry Hall and proved very interesting and instructive. Games and lunch followed. The discussion topic for next week will be "Conscription."
