Twelve More Men Left Timmins for Army Last Week

Four Less Than Left Previous Week but Still Good Average.

Twelve more Timmins men left this week for the Canadian Active Army. The biggest contingent of men left last night when almost half of the total amount entrained for the District Recruiting Headquarters at Toronto. Five men left yesterday and the other seven left on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week and on Monday of this week.

The five men who left yesterday were: Clifford Smith, James Henry Young, Stanley William Bailey, Henry Clermont and George Benson Stewart. All of the five were sent to the District's headquarters in Toronto.

Three men left on Monday and were also destined to join the Army at the District Recruiting headquarters at Toronto. They were: George Joseph Sasseville, Henry Waldo Ramsey and Albert Paul Jorgenson.

Recruiting officials at the Timmins Armouries announced yesterday afternoon that there were a great many openings in the Active Army at the present time. Many men were needed in all branches and they could be enlisted in Timmins. The Timmins recruiting officials are empowered to sign anybody for any branch of the army and not for the Algonquin Regiment only, as a rumour had it last week.

Two Bandits Hold up Paris Cafe and Get Loot of Some $65

Believed Culprits Came from Outside.

Two men, one about 5' 4" and the other about 6' walked into the Paris Cafe, in Timmins early yesterday morning and held up the proprietor at the point of a gun. The hold-up men made their getaway with sixty-five dollars in cash and the police are still looking for the thieves.

Yesterday morning Chief of Police Leo H. Gagnon threw out one of the largest dragnets that has ever been spread out from Timmins in an effort to cut off any avenue of escape that the men may have. Police officials in North Bay, Kirkland Lake, Raysby and other Northern Ontario centres were contacted and asked to watch for the criminals. Complete descriptions of the men were forwarded to all other towns and it is expected that the hold-up artists will be brought to justice in short order.

The story given to the police was that the two men entered the restaurant a about ten minutes after six yesterday morning and ordered a couple of bottles of Coca-Cola and then tendered a ten-dollar bill for payment. The proprietor of the cafe had to go into the kitchen to get the change and as he went to the kitchen one of the men followed him to the door of the kitchen and waited just outside of the door. When the owner returned with the change the man pulled out a revolver and ordered him to turn over his money. He handed over the sixty-five dollars. The two men left immediately.

One of the hold-up men was described as a man about six feet tall and wearing a fawn coloured parka. The hood of the parka was pulled up over the man's head and he was wearing goggles and a moustache.

The other man was described as being about five feet, four inches tall and wearing a green parka. The hood of this parka was also pulled up over the man's head. Police said that this second man had done nothing other than stand guard near the door while the other man held up the proprietor.

A canvass of all rooming houses and hide-outs in Timmins was made by police yesterday but it failed to turn up any suspects or any new clues. Police in Timmins learned that two parkas

Christmas Trees Made of Lace Net Curtains

Half the family fun of Christmas is in getting ready—especially if there are school-agers in the house who like to make things. Why not keep them busy during the coming restless weeks with the responsibility for the family Christmas decorations? Suppose you decide on a white Christmas—all through the house, a frosty glittering effect that will be entirely different from anything the family has had before. How to achieve it? Why, that's easy. Use lace net curtains to make the fantastic every snow-night trees. The scraps of lace net can be used for ornaments as daintily as snowflakes. Use these gossamer white trees for the table centerpiece, for the mantel (against a silver or green metallic paper backdrop), or for Christmas windows. Or make a big one for the family tree just to be different. Set it in the middle of a Christmas room from which most of the furniture has been removed and white tulle or cheesecloth hung over the wall and spangled with silver stars. Light the room indirectly and see what a Christmas setting that will be for the holiday fun. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for our bulletin, "Lace Net Curtains Into Christmas Trees."

Some Stories

IN A BAD WAY
The class had been dismissed, but young Freddie, who had neglected to do his homework, had been told to remain behind. "Set it in the middle of a Christmas room from which most of the furniture has been removed and white tulle or cheesecloth hung over the wall and spangled with silver stars. Light the room indirectly and see what a Christmas setting that will be for the holiday fun. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope for our bulletin, "Lace Net Curtains Into Christmas Trees."

OLD PROBLEM SOLVED
Kidder—Which end of a cow gets up first?
Chugwater—My experience in buying beef is that both ends of the animal rise at the same time.—Exchange.

CRITICS CONFOUNDED
When Ole Bull, the famous Norwegian violinist came to play in America, there were some jealous musicians here who attacked him through the press. Mr. James Gordon Bennett very graciously offered him the columns of the New York Herald so that he might make his reply. But so that Ole Bull knew that he possessed a far better weapon than a printing press.
"I think Mr. Bennett," he replied in his broken English, "it is best to write against me and I plays against them."
The great acclaim he received at the hands of the American public proved that he was right.—Globe and Mail.

THE RESULT
A wedding car was seen driving through the streets of Sudbury the other morning. Inscribed in chalk on the back were the words, "Result of Careless talk."—Sudbury Star.

TYPICAL CANADA
Sentry: "Halt! Who goes there?"
Voice: "Canadian."
Sentry: "Advance and recite 'O Canada'."
Voice: "I don't know it."
Sentry: "Proceed, Canadian."—Gerraldton Times.

LOYAL TO "THE HOUSE"
A member of the House of Representatives, who was very much impressed by the dignity of his position, was awakened by his wife one night with: "John, there are burglars in the house!"
"You must be mistaken, my dear," replied the solon, sleepily. "There may be a few in the Senate, but in the House—the idea is preposterous."—Globe and Mail.

NOT A "RED"
Patient: "Doctor, don't you think I look terribly pale? What would you advise me to do?"
Doctor: "Wipe some of the powder off."—Huntingdon Gleaner.

SO DISAPPOINTING
Stranger—So little Willie, who used to make mud pies all the time, turned out to be a sculptor?
Pa Sikes—Yes, blame it; I thought it was a sign he'd be a baker.—Exchange.

PACE MODULATED
"This dry weather's slowing up the vegetables."
"It certainly is; my scarlet runners are barely creeping."—Globe and Mail.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL
After going through her weekly housekeeping accounts the young wife sighed.
"How are we to meet the high cost of living?" she asked sadly.
"You don't have to meet it," replied her husband from behind his newspaper. "It overtakes you."—Exchange.

ONE QUALIFICATION
Captain of a youthful cricket team (to new resident)—Will you join our cricket club, sir?
New resident—Well, really, I'm afraid I know absolutely nothing about the game. I couldn't do anything except umpire.—Globe and Mail.

WHERE HE WANTED HITLER
Moscow radio has broadcast a story among German prisoners. Hitler was inspecting troops. He asked a soldier: "What would be your last wish if a Russian bomb fell near you?" The soldier replied: "I would wish that my beloved Fuehrer could be at my side!"—Detroit Free Press.

THAT'S DIFFRENT
They had taken the scene in the film dozens of times, until the producer was exasperated.
"Rotten!" he shrieked to the "star." "Your acting is terrible in this scene. This man is proposing marriage to you, and you have to refuse him nicely. Dash it all, you must have had dozens of men propose to you!"
"Sure, I have," came the reply, "but I've never refused any of them before."—Globe and Mail.

BECOMING A HABIT
They'd been married long enough for the glamour to have faded, but she was a trier. On the eve of her birthday, she asked sweetly:
"What are you going to give me for a birthday present tomorrow, darling?"
"Nothing!" he replied curtly.
"But, dearest," she went on, the sweetness turning sour, "can't you think of something original? You gave me that last year."—Exchange.

PERHAPS RIGHT
Yet another gleam from the examination papers:
Question—For what were the Phoenicians famous?
Answer—Blinds.—Globe and Mail.

SAILOR'S SUITS
A lady was one of a party of sight-seers being shown around a warship at Portsmouth. Turning to the sailor who was acting as their guide, she asked: "Can you tell me why sailors wear such loose fitting clothes?"
Rather tired of the lady's repeated enquiries the sailor answered: "Certainly, mum. It's to allow for shrinkage when we fall overboard."—Montreal Star.

ALL COME DOWN AGAIN
Elderly Lady (about to go up in an airplane): "Oh, Mr. Pilot, you will bring me back all right, won't you?"
Pilot: "Yes, indeed, madam. I never left anybody up there yet."—Montreal Star.

Brampton Conservator—The Dean of Christ Church, Oxford, Dr. John Lowe, formerly of Trinity College, Toronto, was the preacher at the parish church of Rothwell, Kettering, England. The local paper in reporting the Dean's sermon concluded thus: "Though he has a strong Canadian accent, he was understood quite well."
