Dropped Between Stitches of the McIntyre Community Building, and the auditorium of the Timmins High and Vocational School . . . at the former place, the Princess Alice Club will entertain at a Christmas dance—the first open event the club has sponsored . . . proceeds, of course, will go to carrying on the work of the club.

which assists in the nursing at the Children's Clinic . . . from advance reports, seems there'll be a really good time . . . lunch, a fine setting, and the music of Henry Kel-neck's orchestra . . . and, at the latter place, the students of the third and fourth forms are playing host and hostess at the annual graduation dance in honour of graduates of 1940 and 1941 . . . one evening that there's plenty to do,, yourself.

and every opportunity of enjoying large crowds at two more pre-Christ-the Brigade's first annual dance the guests-of-honour on Saturday evening at a farewell party, when many members of the Porcupine Ski Club, of which they have been members for a long time, gathered to wish them luck in their new

Montreal home, and all happiness

. . . they're mighty sorry to see this couple leave Timmins and they're see the "pals" they leave here in Congratulations and best wishes to three couples who said their "I do's" on Tuesday morning in two charming ceremonies . . . the first wedding took wedding ceremony, Miss Cecile L'Heu-couples will take up residence in Tim-mins, although Mr. and Mrs. Bacon are at present honeymooning at points

A nice, big bouquet to the new president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Mrs. W. A.

Devine . . . for the past few years, it has been Mrs. Devine's good work that has kept Auxiliary news up to date . . . she deserves the honour of being president of the Auxiliary, and upon her election, she remembered that it was exactly ten years ago that she was president of the Auxiliary once before . . .that was for the 1931 term . . . and, to the past-president, Mrs. Robt. Hardy . . . she's done a grand job, and the members appreciate her fine work . . . this is an interesting time of the year for women's organizations, for most of them have their elections with the coming of the

And, while speaking of the Ladies Auxiliary election . . . Mrs. L. Nichol-there's no doubt that Mrs. Nicholson the members made plans for that con-presenting on Sunday evening, December 14th in the Palace Theatre . . . the Auxiliary is sponsoring the affair, and Another cocuple who left Tim-mins this week . . . Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Dorey . . . were honoured at a farewell event on Sunday . . . Mr.

Mrs. Tony Dominico were the host and hostess at the farewell dinner party, and a few friends of the well-known ball player and his wife gathered to wish them success and happiness in their new home, and to make a presentation of a pair of etchings . . . Reg. Dorey, who has played ball in this district for the past six years, and Mrs.

Dorey, will now be residents of Kitchener, where has has a fine new Monday evening found many of the Eastern Star Knitters gathered at the home of Mrs. Malcolm McMillan, at the McIntyre property in Schumacher, for the weekly knitting bee . . . while working on the articles which form part of their war work, the members decided that during the Christmas season they announcement will be made of the next meeting, which will not take place un-

Four more quilts for use in Eingland's bombed areas . . . four more gifts of comfort and warmth where they will be so greatly needed . .

these are part of the work done by the Women's Institute during war time . . . on Tuesday they held an open quilting bee, to which all women were welcome . . . this was the second in the series, and makes eleven quilts that the members have completed in the past few weeks . . . after a busy afternoon, the members thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon tea that was served, and went home with new ideas for the Twenty more parcels . . . that is the number packed by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the regular weekly comfort fund tea on Wednesday afternoon, and swelling the total of parcels sent by the Auxiliary to three hundred and fifty-two . . . that is an impressive total, and one that large organizations next event.

would hold no knitting meetings . .

til some time during the new year.

there'll be plenty of good music.

new year.

will pass much too quickly.

the Northland.

"You to the left and I to the right, For the ways of men must sever-And it may be for a day and a

And it well may be forever. But whether we meet or whether (For our ways are past our knowing)

A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart, On the ways we all are going!

For we know not where we are

A 'phone bell tingled about 1.15 on Saturday afternoon, and an excited and delighted voice said, "Hello, Ann, I wanted you know that I'm quite sure of making the trip with Matt to Bermuda . . . we just received a wire from his "boss" and he has made arrangements for my passage on board ship" ... the voice belonged to the new Mrs. Matthew E. Gooding, who had just changed her name that morning at 11 o'clock from Kathleen Patricia King . . . "Pat" as she is better known to her many friends, and "Matt", who although practically a newcomer to this district, had many friends here, left and there will be all the "specials" to on the 2 o'clock train on Saturday afternoon for an Eastern Canadian port, on one of the most romantic journeys that could be imagined . first of all, they'll take passage to Bermuda, where they will spend a short time before a month with the groom's parents in St. Philips, Barbados, the British West Indies.

When Matt leaves for his new position with the Aluminum Bauxite Company in McKenzie, British Guiana. Patricia will remain with his parents until the company's houses, which are now being built, are completed . . . and just to show you how thrilled and excited Mrs. Gooding was about her new "title", when she and her husband reached the train, she had forgotten about that 'phone call to this writer . . . among her last words were to remind her mother to 'phone Ann about those good

For quite some time Pat and Matt | place at 8 o'clock and made Eteinnette had been planning to become "Mr. and Tremblay, a pretty brunette bride, as Mrs.", but no definite date had been she became Mrs. Jean-Louis Bacon . . set . . . early in the summer, Patricia at 9 o'clock, in an interesting double accepted Matt's fraternity pin, and only a few weeks ago, Matt adorned reux became the bride of Mr. Omer her third finger, left hand, with Fournier, while her brother Mr. Donat a beautiful ruby and diamond ring L'Heureux, was united in marriage to ... to let you in on a secret, they | Miss Germaine Rancourt . . . all three were planning to say their "I do's' within not too many months on i Thursday morning, Pat told about Matt leaving on Sunday for his new post in south. British Guiana . . . that evening, they changed their plans and decided to have those wedding bells ring on Saturday morning . . . it was a charming ceremony, informal, with many friends of the happy couple extending good wishes as they left the church . . . and for the many who were unable to be present, Mr. and Mrs. Gooding, good luck, good hope, success and happiness Pat is the daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. E. H. King, of 113 Maple

Sunday, December 7th, will be the last in the series of concerts presented by the McIntyre Concert Band, under the auspices of the Schumacher Lions' Club, and with the proceeds going to the British Bombed Victims . . . the band will be directed by Lieut. J. W. S. Lomas . . . among the foremost items on the programme will be the singing of Mrs. J. M. Barry, wife of Dr. Barry, of Timmins . . . Mrs. Barry is wellknown throughout the district not only for her pleasing voice, but for her active work in the Red Cross . . . then, for the first time in the series, a choir will perform, with two selections by the Schumacher High School Girls' Choir, directed by Mr. Fred Roy . . . remember, it will take place on Sunday evening in the McIntyre Building, and what's more there'll be special solo selections by members of the band.

street south, who are real old-timers of this Northland.

If you were among the lucky people who attended the Rebekah annual tea | on Thursday afternoon, you'll be among those who are complimenting the members on its success . . . seems that this annual affairs improves with each year, although those who have been fortunate enough to be present at several of the events, feel each year that it is so fine that nothing can be done to improve it . . . imagine their surprise to find something new, for example, like the novelty table that caused much favourable comment this year a special feature was the dancing of Margaret Easton Shields' pupils, the singing by Mrs. Leck Jr., and Miss McLeod and last but definitely not least, a little four-year-old lad, Bobbie Webber . . . prizes and a dainty afternoon tea, as well as tables carrying delicious home-baking and aprons, were only a few of the other features, all of which deserve special mention.

To-morrow (Friday) night, will find "big doings" at the auditorium

Guaranteed PERMANENTS Priced from $2.50 A Complete Beauty Service

Milady Beauty Parlour

18 Pine St. N. McInnis Block

PHONE 985

cause they will not stop at this number but will keep up the good work.

From the Frost Feather, the official bulletin of the Porcupine Ski Club, comes this interesting paragraph-"Sunday, December 7th, is the big day of the official 41-42 opening, and with special permission of old man winter and his jolly snowmakers, we hope to have a few inches of snow by way of local colour . . . A record turnout is expected-we expect each member to spread this news to any new friends you have who may be interested in the "King of Sports" . . . The interior of the Chalet has been brightened up for your approval-you may also notice a more comfortable couch has been procured, at your service when you stagger in after "just one more run" which developed into ten or even fifteen more runs" . . , those few lines will tell you just what fun the members of the Ski Club are planning for this year, and, well, if you haven't yet procured the pin that makes you a member, it's high time.

Yesterday afternoon Ann stood watching as about three hundred pupils Friday, December 12th, will find of the Central Public School enjoyed the acting of their fellow pupils . . mas celebrations . . . at the Riverside and by the way, their own singing . . Pavilion, the Lions' Club will entertain during the intervals, the music-teacher at its annual dance, with most of the would lead the classes in a sing-song proceeds going to war work . . . music of Christmas carols, and how greatly will be by Henry Kelneck's orchestra, they enjoyed it? . . . every little voice, even those to whom the words were make this a "special event" . . . at the not so easy to remember, joined eagerly McIntyre, the St. John Ambulance Briin the songs, and true Christmas spirit gade is extending an invitation to its rang in every line . . . a special light many friends to enjoy themselves at of happiness came into the eyes of those children, who, thank goodness, Joe Adamo and his McIntyre orchesare Canadian children who can enjoy tra will supply the music, and plans Christmas this year . . . there are so are under way for a long evening that many others who cannot, and who have lost so many things that went to make life happy for them . . . and, too, it Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beatty were seemed right that when Christmas in homes of European countries, was shown, the pupils who were on the stage were pupils from all countries . . . when a Russian Christmas was presented, acting their parts were children of Dutch, Finnish, English, Scottish, and many other origins . . . and when the Dutch or Scandinavian Christmas was hoping they'll come back often to were children of other descents if only adults would work together as so much more happiness in the world.

From Toronto comes the news that in that city on December 20th a former Timmins man, H. Ward Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, of 18 Lincoln avenue, town, will be united in marriage to Miss Betty Jean Reid, daughter of Mr. T. Reid, of Kingston, and the late Mrs. Reid . . . and also, while on the subject of weddings, belated best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Manny Abrams, who have returned from a honeymoon trip to points south and taken up residence in Timmins invitation extended by the institute vember. to all soldiers, sailors, or airmen, to A contribution of $20.00 was voted for these men, and there's to be an- will also be donated. vener, Mrs. A. MacDonald, Mrs. C. Briggs and Mrs. C. McChesney.

Matheson-Moxon Nuptials at United Church Saturday son was elected secretary, and it will be Mr. and Mrs. R. Matheson Take Wedding Vows. To part of her job to record work of the Auxiliary to your reporter . . . a wel-Reside in Timmins.

The Rev. W. M. Mustard officiated will "carry on" . . . before their election at a quiet yet charming marriage on Saturday evening, when he united in cert the Schubert Choral Society is marriage Miss Marcelle Bernice Moxon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moxon, of Halifax, Nova Scotia, and Mr. Roderick Matheson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Matheson, of Scotland. The ceremony took place in the manse of the Timmins United Church.

The bride was lovely in a frock of rose wool sheer, with brown accessories, and a corsage of baby mums and lilyof-the-valley, and was attended by Mrs. Douglas McKinnon as matron-of-honour, wearing a becoming frock of brown crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of bronze baby mums. Mrs. D. McKinnon acted as grooms-

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the McKinnon home on 20 Wende avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Matheson have taken up residence in Timmins.

Ladies' Auxiliary Packs Twenty More Parcels This Week

Total of Three Hundred and Fifty-Two Parcels Has Been Sent by Members to Men on Active Service.

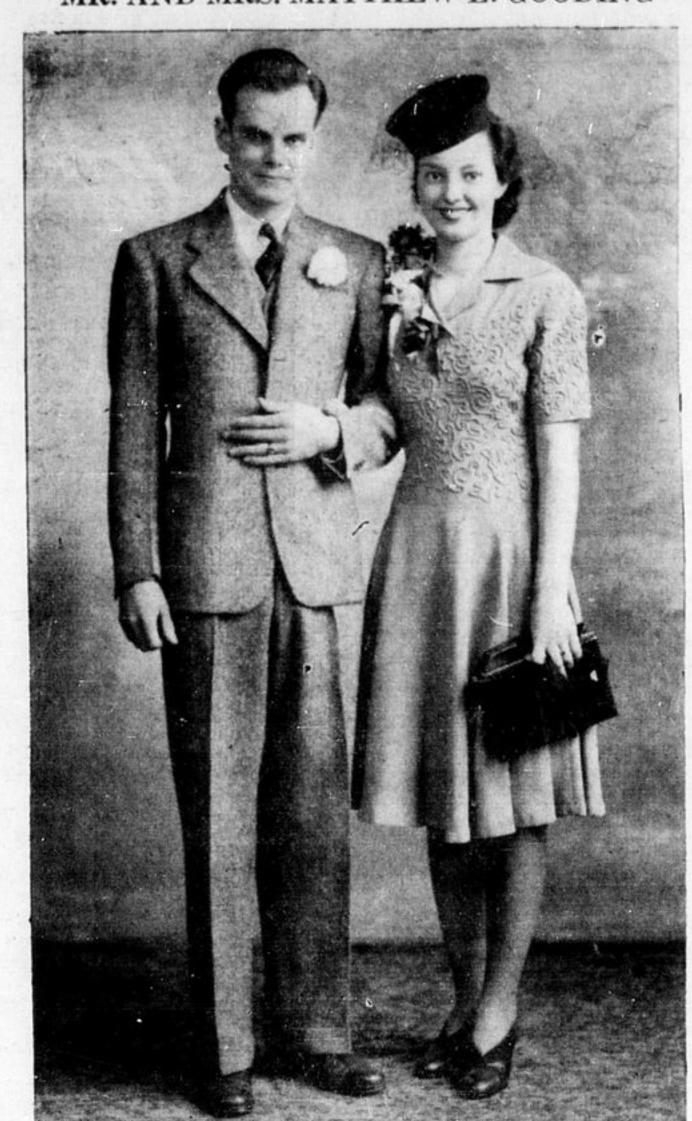

Thirteen and one-half tables of whist were played on Tuesday evening at the regular weekly whist drive held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion in the Legion hall, with winners as follows: Ladies, 1st, Mrs. Beaulne, 2nd, Mrs. Levert, 3rd, Mrs. Smith; Gentlemen, 1st, Mrs. Nixon, 2nd, Mrs L. Durkin, and 3rd, Mrs. Vacchino (all playing as gentlemen). Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. Sinclair were the winners of lucky number

On Wednesday afternoon, the members enjoyed their weekly comfort fund tea, and packed twenty more parcels to send to the men overseas. This brings the total number of parcels sent up-to-date to three hundred and fiftytwo, which is a record number for any organization.

Sudbury Star-Having lost more men might well be proud of . . . it's a num- than she has, Russia now pushes back ber that the members should be con- the Nazis in five places. Einstein could gratulated on, and they deserve the explain it, but he fritters his time away complimentary remarks even more, be- on stars.

MR. AND MRS. MATTHEW E. GOODING shown, taking part in their ceremonies Fireside Club Makes well as these children there would be Plans for Election and Program Meet Reports of War Services Committees in Civilians Work.

The Fireside Club met in the United Church basement on Monday evening and opened the meeting by singing carols. Mrs. G. F. Mitchell presided and the various reports were given.

Mrs. . Runnalls, convener of civilian war services committee, reported twen-There was a good-sized crowd at the ty-three articles completed in first two Women's Institute dance in the Hollin- weeks of November while Miss Nina ger hall last night, although very few MacLeod, wool convener, reported men in uniform took advantage of the thirty-two articles knitted during No-attend their dances without charge . . . for Russian Red Cross Relief and a luckily, the invitation will remain open cotton quilt asked for by the V. O. N.

other war services dance on December A nominating committee, under the ing tea supplies overseas, particularly 12th . . . Smithy and His Vagabonds supervision of the past president, Mrs. for the victims of the bomb raids, and played for the round and square danc- F. Greenwood, was appointed to draw who has addressed service clubs and ing and those in charge of the arrange- up a slate of officers for 1942, to be other bodies and this part of the North ments were Mrs. H. J. McGarry, con- presented at the January business to further the plan, this week received meeting on December 15th, when all later.

Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. Matthew E. Gooding, shortly after their marriage on Saturday morning in Timmins United Church. The bride is the former Miss Kathleen Patricia King, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. E. H. King, while Mr. Gooding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gooding, of St. Philips. Barbados, British West Indies The couple are on a wedding trip to Bermuda and Barbados, and will take up residence in McKenzie, British Guiana.

members and friends are invited to be present at this Christmas meeting. Gifts of canned goods will be given by the members to be sent in the Christmas cheer hampers.

The meeting adjourned and was followed by a pleasant social hour.

Liskeard Kiwanis Sends 7,500 Tea Bags Overseas

Mr. Lawrence Isaacs, who has organized and developed the plan of senda letter from the president of the New Arrangements were made to send Liskeard Kiwanis Club saying that the Christmas cheer to needy families and Club has just forwarded 7,500 tea bags plans were made for the programme overseas and hopes to supplement this

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beatty Honoured at Farewell Party

Porcupine Ski Club and Other Friends Honour Well-known Couple.

evening to honour Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beatty at a farewell party, the well-known couple leaving to take up residence in Montreal. Mr. Beatty left on Wednesday afternoon, while Mrs. Beatty will join him in January. A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing, singing, and other amusements, a dainty lunch also being served. was made to Mr. Beatty by the Porcu- Lions Club Meeting pine Ski Club, of which both he and Mrs. Beatty have been valued members. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Redford, Frank Scully, Mr. and Mrs. James 3rd Vice-President. Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. R. James, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. James, Mr. and Mrs. G. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wemyss, Misses Sadie Pasanen, Olive LaFernier, Ann Mac-Phail, Rita Prout, Florence Nicholson, Evelyn Rymer, Marie Rochefort, Ellen Harkness, Louise Guiho, Messrs Vic Thompson, Ero Niemi, Ted Fitzgerald, Merton Lake, Bill Doran, Dave Moore Henry Donovan, Martin McHgh, C. G. Winton, and the guests-of-honour, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beatty.

Porcupine Ski Club to Open Officially December 7th.

The official opening of the Porcupine Ski Club for the 1941-42 season will be held on Sunday, December 7th, at the club chalet. The executive of the club announces that the opening will tee is to give a three-minute review of be held whether there is snow or not, and the event promises to be interesting for all who attend.

troduction of the executive to the mem- prises. bers, a coloured movie "Snow Time showing excellent films of skiing in the Laurentians, Gatineau Hills, Blue Mountains, Caledon and Huntsville. Also to be shown are films of skiing taken in the vicinity of the club.

Supper is to be served at the club. Photo-Royal Studio and it is hoped that all members, and those wishing to become members will turn out for the event.

Mr. Doug. Carriere Speaks to Sr. C. W. L.

Mr. Doug Carriere was guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Senior Catholic Women's League held on Wednesday evening in the basement of the Church of Nativity, with the president, Mrs. H. See in the chair. Mr. Carriere spoke on the "Modern Trend in Secondary Education," and gave an interesting account of the life and work of the Timmins High School Members of the Porcupine Ski Club and other friends gathered on Saturday Regular business was transacted, and it was decided to hold the next meeting on Wednesday, January 7th, in the Church of Nativity hall.

Very Interesting Programme for Next

Lion Emil Brunette will be the chairman of the next regular meeting of the Timmins Lions Club to be held in the Empire Hotel next Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Len McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. at six o'clock. Lion Brunette is the

The meeting promises to be a very interesting one and the arranging of a programme has been left in the hands of the Harolds-Lions Harold Pirie and Harold Collins. They promise to have a very interesting and amusing programme lined up that will hold the attention of all present

The Lions also report that tickets are going fast for the dance that the club is holding at the Riverside Pavilion a week from tomorrow on Friday, December 12th. Anyone wanting tickets can secure them from any member of the club and it would be advisable to get the tickets early for this annual popular event.

Inventory Week at the Timmins Kiwanis Club

Monday, Dec. 8th, is being observed as "Inventory Week" at the Kiwanis luncheon at the Empire hotel. At this meeting the chairman of each committhe committee's work for the year, an inventory thus being presented of the Kiwanis activities. It should prove a The programme will include the in- most interesting event with many sur-

A. VERCIVAL 7 Cedar St. S. FUMIGATOR Electric Sprayers For Rent

Quistmas thotographs 8" x 10" ENLARGEMENT FREE

With every order of photographs amounting to $5.00 or more. Make your appointment now! It takes time to finish good photographs.

The Royal Studio A. TOMKINSON

9 Balsam Street North

Phone 417

1942 MOTOR VEHICLE PERMITS AND DRIVERS', LICENSES will be available

DECEMBER 1st, 1941

THE TERM of 1941 permits and licenses has been extended to January 31st, 1942, after which date they will be invalid and those operating with them subject to the penalties provided. There will be no further extension of their term.

Secure yours early and avoid the usual rush of the last few weeks.

For your convenience, permits and licenses are issued through the offices of 191 agents located throughout the Province.

Preserve your 1941 plates. Do not destroy or throw them away. During the first two weeks of February they will be collected through Gasoline Service Stations by The Canadian Red Cross Society.

November 26th, 1941

T. B. McQUESTEN Minister of Highways

When driving along our highways give our Soldier boys a ride.