

YOLLES STORE PACKED WITH USEFUL GIFTS

Henry Houle, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Villeneuve . . . Mrs. Houle is the former Lucienne Allard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludger Allard, and the wedding took place at 8 o'clock that morning, with the Rev. Fr. Morin officiating at 9 o'clock. Léonie Grenier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Grenier, became the bride of Leo Villeneuve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Villeneuve with Fr. Kinlough officiating.

"The Red Cross Handkerchief Drive for Bombed Victims and Civilians Overseas" . . . that is the appeal being made to Canadian citizens at this Christmas time . . . plain handkerchiefs for men, women and boys, inexpensive, are the type that are desired, and these are to be dropped in boxes stationed at the Empire Cigar store, Sam Bucovetzky Ltd., Kresge's, Woolworths, Friedman's, Mark Bowie's, Ostromer's and the Esquire Shoppe . . . the boxes will remain at these stores until after the New Year, so while you are doing your Christmas shopping remember the people "over there" who need your help so desperately . . . the boxes were stationed yesterday . . . the Red Cross, through Mrs. N. H. Russell, wishes to thank all citizens of this district who replied so readily to the request for blankets . . . over seven hundred blankets were sent recently to the headquarters in Toronto, and the Red Cross office in the basement of the Post Office building will be open on Tuesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to accept further donations of blankets . . . Christmas is a time of giving, so give to these causes where giving is needed.

Last week this column carried a few notes about a shower that Mrs. Gerry Morrow and Mrs. Fred Jackson held for Miss Ann Jopson . . . at that time, Ann and Al Craig hadn't announced the date of the wedding, but today it can be told that Ann and Al will become "Mr. and Mrs." in Niagara Falls on December 31st . . . if all the good wishes that friends extend to the couple will add to their happiness, they will be very, very happy . . . Ann has been a popular employee of the Hollinger Mine office staff for several years, and Al worked at the mine before he took position on the Gold Coast in Africa, from which he returned only recently.

Above is a view of the many gift suggestions at the Yolles Furniture Company for Christmas 1941. Included are household articles from the smallest to the largest gift-suggestions that will help any shopper at this busy Christmas time, and will delight the recipient. Home gifts are fine gifts for they bring delight to every member of the family —(advt.)

come . . . Jean had an especially large supply of children's books when she was a student at the Central Public School, and her school pals and her brother, Stuart's, spent many pleasant hours at the Scott home . . . Jack Henry Meek is considered a lucky man by Jean's friends here, and to the couple go the sincere good wishes of all who know the family of the late Geo. Stuart Scott.

Friday's special event was the Lions Club dance at the Riverside Pavilion, with a merry, altho' not large, crowd, taking part in the celebrations . . . there were many extra-special prizes for the dancers, a $50.00 clothing voucher going to Mrs. Fournier, and other equally imposing amounts to four other lucky people . . . a war savings certificate was won by Miss M. Peel and Mr. R. Lainsbury in a spotlight dance, and Mr. Lainsbury promptly presented the prize to his charming partner.

And, while so many people enjoyed the Lions Club dance, many women of the Presbyterian Church were the guests of Mrs. T. J. Faulkner, of 117 Cedar street south, at a Christmas party . . . the occasion was held to celebrate the completion of the 1941 quota of work for this knitting group, and the members were justly proud of the fact that they have sent several parcels to men overseas, that were not included in their quota . . . an exchange of gifts was a pleasant Christmas touch, and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

In last week's Advance was an article telling something about the various paintings on display, but no written words can do them justice . . . especially when they come from someone who does not even profess to know much about art . . . except that when it's good, it certainly is good . . . Helen Chisholm, who went to Timmins schools, has a long and successful life to look forward to in her chosen field, and she certainly deserves the good wishes of the people in this district.

Many people are wondering at this time of year what to give children in the way of books for Christmas gifts . . . if you are one of these people, just take a walk over to the Timmins Public Library . . . you will be amazed at the variety of children's books in the special display which will be featured until Christmas . . . there are all kinds of ideas for the children of your own family, your friend's family, and friends of your children.

We will gain the inevitable triumph, so help us God! . . . impressive words from a man whose name is known throughout the world . . . President Franklin D. Roosevelt, of the United States of America . . . forty-eight states united in one great nation, and now in the war that has engulfed the world . . . they are fighting a country that can only be classed as another land that wants to do away with freedom . . . perhaps, then, it was a good omen, that as Canada honoured her dead of the first world war, and, once again, just as President Roosevelt spoke the above words, this northern sun (which, it must be admitted, is not very eager to blaze forth at this time of year), shone through the clouds with the clear light of summer days.

There's a very "gay" voice that usually calls Ann to tell about the doings at the United Church choir . . . for quite a long time, there have been no "doings," consequently no calls . . . so it made Saturday a very nice day last week to have that "gay" voice back telling about the Christmas supper and social the choir members enjoyed on Friday evening, after the practice . . . there was a beautiful Christmas tree, laden with pretty Christmas baubles and the gifts which the members made a habit of presenting to one another . . . Santa Claus, of course, made the distribution . . . and, to top off the evening, a delicious supper was served by the committee in charge.

One of the most-feted brides-to-be of this pre-Christmas season, is Ann Semchison, who on Saturday becomes the bride of Ken Gallagher of the R.C.A.F., now stationed at Dartmouth, N.S. . . . Ken will be here on leave, and the ceremony will take place at the United Church at 3:30 p.m. . . . on Thursday evening of last week, Ann was the guest-of-honour at a linen shower held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Barkwell . . . and then, of course, you remember about those previous interesting events in her honour . . . the first at her home, the second at the M. Williams home on Hemlock street, with Ida and Mary Williams as hostesses.

You probably noticed in last week's Advance the announcement of the engagement of Miss Jean Ellis Scott, daughter of Mrs. Scott and the late Mr. Geo. Stuart Scott (formerly engineer to Mr. Jack Henry Meek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Meek, of Toronto . . . the marriage to take place in the Queen City on December 20th . . . Jean and her mother, who formerly resided on Hemlock street near Seventh avenue, now make their home in Toronto, but there are many friends in this district who remember them both with a "warm glow of friendship" . . . they were and are, to excuse the term, "swell" people . . . their home here was charming and they always made a guest feel well.

On Sunday evening, a very, very large audience crowded the Palace Theatre to capacity, to hear the excellent programme given by the Schubert Choral Society under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion . . . a programme that won new laurels for this fine group of the Auxiliary, which realized a magnificent sum for their comfort fund coffers . . . and, on the evenings of February 18th and 19th, 1942, (imagine, plans for the New Year, and a "date" for you), this same choral group will present the "Pirates of Penzance" on the stage of the Goldfields Theatre under the auspices of the L.O.D.E. . . . certainly something to look forward to.

The voice had changed but the manner of speaking was the same . . . yes, it was Able-Seaman Bob Hardy who came home Monday to make Christmas just perfect for his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Rebt. Hardy, of 6 Transmission Line . . . of course, there's still her son, Harry (you remember both ladies, who is also in the service, but there's hope that he, too, will come home sometime during the holiday season . . . all of which makes Mr. and Mrs. Hardy two very happy people . . . it's all of fifteen months since Bob was home last, so no wonder his voice has changed . . . it was hard to believe that the voice at the other end of the line belonged to the same lad Ann spoke to when he was here on his last leave, but true enough, it was the reason for the joy in Mrs. Hardy's voice . . . Bob, if you remember, was the first Timmins lad to join the navy, and he's been to many interesting and exciting places in the last two years . . . perhaps the least exciting, however, was the hospital in which he spent the two weeks previous to coming home with a foot ailment, that is now all better, he's happy to say . . . welcome home, Bob, your friends have all missed you.

Fireside Club Holds Programme Meeting With Special Guests

Christmas Carols, Stories, Featured at Meeting.

In another part of town, at the town hall to be exact, an enthusiastic group of women skiers convened that Friday evening . . . they made plans for the active winter season that is ahead for the Porcupine Ski Club . . . a season that every skier looks forward to with the greatest possible pleasure . . . and they welcomed a guest here, Miss A. Hansman, of the Laurentian Ski Club in North Bay . . . one of the important discussions centred around the ski meet the male members are holding at Arnprior for the Gold Belt Championship, and reached a decision to hold a separate women's meet that place at the same time.

On Sunday evening, a very, very large audience crowded the Palace Theatre to capacity, to hear the excellent programme given by the Schubert Choral Society under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion . . . a programme that won new laurels for this fine group of the Auxiliary, which realized a magnificent sum for their comfort fund coffers . . . and, on the evenings of February 18th and 19th, 1942, (imagine, plans for the New Year, and a "date" for you), this same choral group will present the "Pirates of Penzance" on the stage of the Goldfields Theatre under the auspices of the L.O.D.E. . . . certainly something to look forward to.

After the closing carol, the members and their guests enjoyed a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held on January 5th.

Handkerchief Drive for Bombed Victims and for Civilians

Stores Co-operating with Red Cross to Secure Supply of Handkerchiefs for Overseas.

On Wednesday of this week the Red Cross launched a new appeal to citizens of Canada—"The Red Cross Handkerchief Drive for Bombed Victims and Civilians Overseas." Boxes were stationed at eight well-known Timmins stores, the Empire Cigar store, Sam Bucovetzky Ltd., the S. S. Kresge Co., the F. W. Woolworth store, Friedman's Department store, Mark Bowie and Co., Ostromer and Co., and the Esquire Shoppe.

The appeal is for inexpensive, plain handkerchiefs for men, women or boys, and at this time of year, when so many people are Christmas shopping, the appeal can be readily answered by Timmins and district shoppers. The boxes will remain open until after the New Year, so do your bit by dropping one or more handkerchiefs into any
