Government Notice-Under The Mining Tax Act

NOTICE

LANDS FORFEITED FOR ARREARS OF TAXES UNDER MINING TAX ACT

Pursuant to the provision of The Mining Tax A ct (Chap. 28, R.S.O. 1937) the following list is published of mining locations, mining claims and mining rights, in respect of which taxes imposed by the said Act are more than two years in default, and notice is hereby given that unless the amount due as shown on the said list shall have been paid on or before June 30th, 1942, the property in respect of which the taxes so remain unpaid shall on the day following the above date become forfeited to and revested in the Crown.

In the arrangement of the list, lands are given in the judicial district in which they are situated, commencing from the west, and in each district the lots in townships are placed first and in alphabetical order, according to the townships then follow the locations or claims not originally in surveyed territory, also alphabetically arranged and in sequence. Owners of property thus advertised are advised that extra costs are incurred if payment is delayed beyond February 28th, 1942, as the Act requires an additional notice to owners of claims on which the taxes have not been paid by this time for which there is a statutory charge.

Communications regarding this matter should be addressed to A. C. Young, Mine Assessor, Department Mines, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

H. C. RICKABY,

Toronto, 17th December, 1941

Deputy Minister of Mines.

Dropped Between Stitches

If I were Santa Claus this year I'd change his methods for the I'd give to all the children here But there are thing I'd take

I'd enter every home to steal, With giving I'd not be content. I'd find the heart-aches men conceal And take them with me when I went. I'd robe the invalid of pain; I'd steal the poor man's weight of care;

I'd take the prisoner's ball and chain And every crime which sent him

I'd take the mother's fears away, The doubts which often fret the wise-And all should wake on Christmas Day

With happy hearts and shining For old and young this is my God bless us all this Christması

And give us strength our tasks to And take our bitter griefs away!

For one and all, Ann could wish nothing better than to quote Edgar A. Guest's "A Christmas Bit" . . . and to add-Merry Christmas . . . it's an old greeting, and a simple one, but it's the greeting that means most of all . . may your home be happy, your friends many, and Santa Claus come with a bagfull of everything you could want.

Merriment and good-fellowship reigned supreme at the Christmas party held on Thursday evening in honour of the blind people of this district . . . it was a gesture that these people, and the many other guests will long remember, a gesture that was financed by the Canadian Institute for the Blind, and carried out by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire . . . just another in the many good deeds of both organizations . . . there were gifts for the guests of honour . . . there were songs and other entertainment and there was a delicious supper served by the Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge . . . everything was well-prepared and carried out in equally efficient manner . . . and compliments are due to each person who helped in making this first party for the blind a complete success.

Friday afternoon found many membale contained the knitted articles and and Mrs.

THE PARTY OF THE P the "goodies" that will make Christmas a merry one for the sailors, and will continue to give peasure long after the season is over . . . and, to complete a perfect afternoon of industry, the women packed seventeen quilts for the Red Shield to send to bombed victims in England . . . that's Christmas spirt of the best kind.

> To Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gallagher, married on Saturday afternoon in the United Church, are extended the sincere good wishes of many friends throughout the Northland . . . Mrs. Gallagher is the former Ann Semchison, and her husband, is ACI Kenneth Gallagher of the R.C.A.F. . . at the reception which followed the ceremony, and took place at the home of the groom's parents of Floral avenue the couple cut the beautifully-iced wedding cake with a knife made from a bayonet during the last great war, and used by the groom's mother and father in cutting their wedding cake, when the elder Mr. Gallagher was in the army defending his country as his son is doing in the war of to-day.

Tomorrow, Christmas eve, in Iroquois Falls, Barbara Stack and Phil Desilets will become "Mr. and Mrs." . . . both are well-known in Timmins, where they will take up residence, and where numerous friends will extend their best wishes . . . the bride-to-be has a sister in Timmins, and has been a frequent visitor to the town . . . welcome to Timmins.

And, all the way to Toronto, best wishes to two couples who said their "I do's" on Saturday. . . Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henry Meek . . . Ward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Allen of 18 Lincoln avenue, and his bride is the former Betty Jean Reid, daughter of Mr. T. Reid of Kingston and the late Mrs. Reid

... the groom is a former Timmins resident, and student of local schools . . . his parents, and his sister, Marjorie, were in Toronto for the wedding . . . while Mrs. Jack Henry Meek is popular Jean Ellis Scott, Timmins girl until only a few years ago when with her mother, the wife of the late Geo. Stuart Scott, and her brother, Stuart Scott, she took up residence in Toronto . . . her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Meek of Toronto.

Back to another wedding that mentioned earlier in this column . Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gallagher were among the dancers at the Riverside Pavilion after their marriage Saturday . . . following the reception at the bers of the Women's Institute the home of the groom's parents, the party guests of Mrs. C. Briggs, war services made its way to the pavilion, where convener, at a busy afternoon of pack- the dainty bride looked very charming ing a bale for the sailors of the ship and very happy in her bridal gown . . "Gaspe", which is the ship adopted by the Henry Kelneck orchestra played a the Institute some time ago . . . that selection especially for the new "Mr.

And, to Toronto again . . . to a student of Branksome Hall, Miss Helen Russell, is extended the sympathy of her fritnds here . . . Helen, as you know, always spends holiday periods with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Russell, on Wilson avenue . . . but not this Christmas season, for Helen will spend the holiday in hospital, undergoing an operation . . . her friends are sorry to learn that she won't be here for Christmas, 1941, and they're wishing her a speedy recovery.

A good time was had by all. . . words that certainly tell the truth when those who were there talk about the annual staff party for the Shaheen's Dept. Store on Sunday evening . . . as during other years, Mrs. Shaheen played hostess to her employees and their friends, and the evening passed quickly for all present . . . an extra special gesture on the part of the staff was the presenting to Mrs. Shaheen of a beautiful chiffon velvet housecoat. with good wishes to their "grand boss.

To the many students . . . the men on service . . . and the others who have returned to Timmins and district for the holiday season . . . have a good time . . . you'd be surprised how many things there are to do in this district . . . one of the lads who returned to his home here during the week-end puts it this way . . . first of all, there's Mom and Dad and all my friends to see . . . gosh, how'll I even get around to doing all that? . . . then I want to get in a bit of skiing and skating . . . you know there's not much of it down south . . . oh, and a few strings of bowling . . . and I want to see a hockey game when I know some of the players . . . I want to dance and feel that I don't have to get up for class to-morrow morning

. . . eat Mom's extra-good turkey . . . sleep as long as I like . . . play Santa, Claus . . . see some shows . . . perhaps Dad will take me with him to the curling rink . . . and so many other things, but how will just some days provide time for even half of the things I want to do . . . and to think I'll have to go back down to Southern Ontario and do nothing for three months ... gosh!

Two more shower events for Ann Jopson, whose marriage to Allan Craig takes place on December 31st in Niagara Falls . . . Mrs. H. L. Traver entertained for Ann at a dinner party and linen shower, while Mrs. Jack Lake was hostess at party for the Hollinger staff in honour of the bride-elect . . at the home of Mrs. Traver, Ann received numerous lovely gifts which were presented to her in a novel "dream boat" . . . and at the staff shower, she was presented with a beautiful turquoise blue bedspread and comforter.

Last night, about thirty friends of Mrs. Wm. Sillanpaa gathered at the home of her sister. Mrs. J. Korri, Sixth avenue, to honour her on her birthday, and to present her with a lovely cameo broach, flowers and a vase . . . the guests spent a simply grand time with games and other entertainment, and a delicious lunch beginning with salad and ending with a three-layer birthday cake made especially for the occasion by the sister-in-law of the guest of honour.

And, last night, too, at St. Mary' residence auditorium, the student nurses, with their invited guests, enjoyed the annual visit of Santa Claus and a pleasant evening with musical and dramatic programme, dancing, refreshments, and all the pleasures of a happy Christmas . . . so many, many groups in town have started the celebrations, so make this a happy Christmas once again and keep up the good times . . . Merry Christmas!

Want Handkerchiefs for Bombed Victims and for Civilians

Red Cross Inaugurates New Campaign to Help the Gallant People Overseas.

Last week the Red Cross Society tarted another excellent campaign to help the gallant people overseas. Thi time it is an appeal to the people Canada to help by gifts of handkerchiefs. These are for bombed victim in Britain and for civilians in th bombed areas. It is suggested by the Red Cross that people out shopping will be very ready to answer this appeal when they understand what is desired. The idea is have Christmas shoppers and other donate handkerchiefs. Boxes have been stationed at eight well-known Timmins stores, the Empire Cigar store Sam Bucovetsky Ltd., the S. S. Kresge Co., the F. W. Woolworth store, Friedman's Department store, Mark Bowie and Co., Ostrosser and Co., and the Esquire Shoppe. The appeal is for inexpensive, plain

Bride-Elect is Honoured at Dinner and Linen Shower

Mrs. H. Traver of Toke Street Hostess at Event in Honour of Miss Ann Jopson.

Mrs. H. L. Traver entertained this week at a delightful dinner and linen shower in honour of Miss Ann Jopson, who was bridesmaid at the wedding of Mrs. Traver's son three years ago. The dinner table was appropriately centred with a beautiful cake upon which reigned cupid, blowing his silver rumpet and wings and sheated in a swowl of tulle. Responding to his call was a miniature bridal party, completing the picture of his work. Games were enjoyed, following which Miss Doris Reid presided at the piano while the hostess presented the gifts in her tea-wagon which had been converted into an attractive "Dream boat" Decorations were in white with red, and as the boat came towards the guest-of-honour, her friends sang "When My Dream Boat Comes Home." Guests were Miss Diane Melville, Miss Jean McChesney, Mrs. Jack Lake, Miss Marjorie Nelson, Mrs. John Platt, Mrs. F. Melville, Miss Doris Reid, Mrs. Witham, who poured coffee, and the guest of honour, Miss Jopson. Miss Doris Shaheen and Mrs. Len Traver were unable to be present but sent lovely gifts. Miss Jopson will become the bride of

Mr. Allan Craig of December 31st.
