Jack Young Gets Three Hits on McIntyre Flagship as Alex Brownlee Scores Shut-Out Win

Jackie Ladds and Bill Lahti Also Score Direct Hits to Send the McIntyre Flagship to the Bottom. Brownlee Stood Out Like a Black-eye as he Took Year's First Shut-Out.

Recognized as one of the top-ranking goaltenders in Canada, Alex Brownlee, former Dome custodian and now with the Buffalo-Ankerite Elsons, scored the first shut-out of the current N.O.H.A. season at the McIntyre Arena on Monday night as his team swept to a convincing 6-0 win over "Admiral" Nelson's McIntyre Men.

In spite of the heavy torpedo attack launched by the Ankerite crew the game stood out as a real thriller and there wasn't a man on the ice working harder for the shut-out than Brownlee himself. He made dozens of miraculous saves in the last few minutes as an attempt to save the white-washer Jack Young, Jackie Ladds and Manny McIntyre were other players that stood out well throughout the entire contest.

Jackie Ladds was given a penalty in the first period and just as he returned the Ankerite crew scored their first direct hit when Bill Lahti dented the trine at the 3:50 mark. It was the only hit scored in the first encounter but "Admiral" Nelson's flagship limped off the ice licking its first wounds.

In the second period the attack became more ferocious than ever and the terrific power of the Ankerite gun-bomb was too much for the Admiral's feet. In one of the many full-time attacks Jackie Young slipped a heavy bomb amidships to send his outfit two ahead. Ossie Carnegie was chased for tripping Holouka and at the height of the McIntyre invasion of the Ankerite citadel Jackie Ladds broke away and got in the clear to cripple the McIntyre battleship with another torpedo. Manny McIntyre got credit for an assist on the play.

Jackie Young, complete master of the fight at this stage, broke away alone again in the third period as he took the disc away from Johnson at the blue line and pulled Porter away out to slip the rubber in. On this play, Young made Johnson look foolish as he slipped the puck from him and went in with nobody to beat. Eleven minutes later Jackie Ladds scored his second direct hit on the McIntyre flagship when he poked up a wild McIntyre pass and screeched in alone to drive the disc past Porter. It was a crippling blow to the McIntyre battle fleet but it was left to Jack Young to finally sink the crippled ship. There was only three minutes left when Young drifted in for the kill. Every minute he took a shot a Porter before Jack finally got his stick on the rubber and when he took a shot he didn't hit any of the posts but aimed for the centre and almost drove the puck through the trine.

For the remaining three minutes the McIntyre club fought fiercely but they were fighting a losing battle as Brownlee decided that he was finally going to get his shut-out. He had come dangerously close to getting one on two or three previous occasions but this time it was his day. His efforts in the last three minutes were rewarded as his team skated off the ice with a clear sheet.

Annual Bonselpiel of Ontario Curling Association

To be Held at Toronto, Feb. 16th to Feb. 21st.

Toronto, Jan. 7.—Plans have been completed and preparations are well under way for the 15th annual bonselpiel of the Ontario Curling Association, which will be held on the 25 sheets of artificial ice of the four Toronto curling clubs from Monday, Feb. 16 to Saturday, Feb. 21. The programme is similar to those of recent years, there being six trophy competitions with every rink guaranteed a minimum of four games and prizes being awarded to the winner, runners-up and defeated semi-finalists in each of the six events.

During the past two years the Bonselpiel Committee has made substantial contributions to the Red Cross from the annual income and this will be continued again this year but, in addition, a further contribution will be made towards the war effort as all individual prizes, a total of 96, will be in the form of War Savings Certificates. Members of trophy-winning rinks will also be given suitable mementoes of their victories. There will also be grand aggregate jewels for the members of the rink with the highest percentage of wins.

The annual banquet and entertainment will be held on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 17, in the Royal York Hotel, and the other features of the bonselpiel will be continued. The committee has revised the rules of the competitions in order to eliminate several features which have caused inconvenience to the competitors. The events are: Royal York, open to all rinks; Barks-Ellis-Ryrie and Seiberling, open to all rinks winning their first games in the primary; the North American Life and Seagram, for rinks that lose their opening game; and the O'Keefe, for rinks which fail to win more than one game in any of the other competitions.

The previous maximum of 124 rinks will prevail and already a number of entries have been received although the announcements and invitations were not mailed until New Year's eve. Entries close on Monday, Feb. 9 and the draws will be made on Wednesday so that skips may be notified of the time and place of their first games by Friday. All information regarding further particulars and entry forms may be secured from the secretary, W. J. Stewart, 84 Wellington Street West, Toronto. Entries are confined to clubs that are members of the Ontario Curling Association and other recognized curling associations.

St. Thomas Times-Journal: We wonder what the Mayor of Nashville, Tenn., has been doing all these years. He certainly belongs to the "Believe-It-or-Not" category, for it was only the other day that he saw his first movie. We presume he is not a young man, because Nashville is a city of about 150,000 people, and mere youths do not become mayors of such large communities. We imagined a city child of 12 who had never seen a movie would be a rarity. But the Mayor of Nashville!

The competition was a very interesting one and consisted of a number of shots that are used in games. Eight different shots were included in the contest and points were given for the best execution of the shots. Every curler in the McIntyre took part in the contest and the winners in the various divisions are given below.

Leading the skips' division was Jim Dutton with 41, with J. Seubert second with 38, and E. Olive third with 37.

A Jacob finished at the top of the vice-skips' division with 36 and W. J. Doyle was third with 35.

C. Barron finished the seconds section with 25 while C. Watson was second with 26.

E. N. Ward won the leads division with 33 while F. Bowman's 18 was good enough to take the second prize in that division.

All this week a special Knock-Out Draw Competition has been taking place and prizes will be offered. The competition will be completed this week-end and next week the curlers will start to curl for the McIntyre Mine Trophy event. Every curler in the district should be sure to enter the big McIntyre Mine Trophy event next week. This week's competition is to fill in time before the start of the big event next week.

Porkies Out-Lucked at Every Turn After Almost Tying Up the Game in the Third Canto

Came from Behind a Five to One Lead in the Second Period to Almost Square the Game Early in the Last Period. Hollinger Went on Rampage Then to Finish 7-4.

The fighting heart of the Dome Porkies almost pulled a bad game out of the fire last night at the Porcupine Arena when the Porkies fought their way back into the running after trailing by four goals in the second period. They finally got the score up to 5-4 but then they were stopped and the Hollinger steam-rolled in two more goals to make the decision safe. Right at the end of the game with only seconds left to play Andy Bruce and Vic Haneberry came to blows and rolled around on the ice before the scrap was broken up by the referees.

The game was one of the fastest seen here for some time and the ice was very hard and fast but the play seemed to develop more into a game of shinny when the puck got inside the blue lines. The leading scorer of the night was Alex Stewart, who gathered in three goals to boost his standing in the scoring race. One of his goals was a nice solo effort and the other two were set up for him by Mike Miller.

The loss left the Porkies farther down in the cellar and they will have to snap out of their losing streak soon if they want to stay in the running. Tough luck was the cause of last night's loss and coupled with that was the loss of two of their best defencemen, Al Taylor and Neil Pirie. Pirie left to join the Royal Canadian Navy and Taylor was sick. Their places on the blue line were filled by Manny Mansfield and Myles.

Hollinger: goal, Bentley; defence, McKay, Delmonte; centre, Horbul; forwards, Haneberry, Bill Wilson; alternates, Williams, Wink Wilson, Baker, Miller, Wickens, Stewart.
