

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

I have seen England green with spring,
And white with orchards blossoming;
England, blithe and golden-gay
With primroses on an April day;
England beauty-garlanded
And crowned with roses white and red;
England rich and great with sheaves
And yellow fruit in tawny leaves;
England folded, field and bush,
In the hoar-frost's dazzling plush.

I have seen England dark with grief
And red with wounds beyond belief;
England grimed with battle-sweat,
Hard-pressed and grim and sore beset;
England blackened to the bone,
Ringed round with fire, betrayed,
Alone—

But standing with her courage whole
Before the frontiers of the soul,
Enduring all that men may be
Unbound and unafraid and free—

Two Englands in my day have been—
England burning, England green;
But God shall show a third to me—
England bright with Victory!

"Lines From England" was written by Ada Jackson, for Christmas 1941, but at this time of Victory Loan Drive, seems very appropriate on Saturday evening, when speaking to a local gathering, the editor of The Advance, Mr. G. A. Macdonald used this poem in closing his address. He dedicated it to the women, for he said, it was one of the best poems he had read and it was written by a woman. . . . today, Ann wishes to add to that that it might be dedicated to two Timmins lads and their English brides, who will be taking up residence here when "England is bright with Victory!" . . . Corporal Donald McChesney and Sapper R. ("Bob") Morin, both stationed somewhere in England.

There was a special treat in store for Ann on Saturday evening when she made her way over to Schumacher to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McChesney, 58 First Avenue. . . . a treat that will not be forgotten. . . . Mrs. McChesney, whose second youngest son, Corporal Donald McChesney, was married in January to a charming English girl across the Atlantic on that "tight little isle," . . . received a small piece of the wedding cake. . . . and with her usual generosity, she invited Ann to "taste" some of the cake. . . . it made Saturday evening a special occasion, for there are few who can say that they have tasted wedding cake sent from England during these days of war.

In the pleasant hour spent with the McChesneys, Ann heard letters from both the new bride and groom. . . . and it seemed that the charm of "Vera" McChesney, made its way into every line of the letters to her new parents. . . . the new Mrs. McChesney is the former Lucy Olive Veronica Evans, of Shrewsbury, England. . . . and she's looking forward to making her home in Canada after the Victory is won. . . . there are many who will welcome her to the Porcupine Camp, along with her husband, who is now serving with the Royal Canadian Engineers somewhere in England. . . . Don's two brothers, Clayton and Bruce, were both present at the ceremony and reception.

At her wedding, Vera McChesney carried a bouquet of flowers that was sent right from the Porcupine to England by Mrs. J. McChesney. . . . no wonder the bride didn't throw her bouquet away at the ceremony, but kept it as a souvenir of her new parents in Canada. . . . in her letters, Vera told the McChesneys about the admiration those flowers received, and mentioned that when she returned to work after the honeymoon, and brought with her the flowers so that her co-workers might see them, even the colonel remarked on their beauty.

Sapper R. ("Bob") Morin and Miss Doreen Jean Murphy were married on December 20th, 1941, at St. Ignace Church, Sunbury, England. . . . most of the local lads who are with the No. 2 Road Construction Company, Royal Canadian Engineers, with whom the bridegroom is stationed somewhere in England, were at the wedding, and brought quite a bit of Canada to the occasion. . . . another bit of Canada that is perhaps unexpected to local people who think of her as an English girl, is the bride who was born in Nova Scotia. . . . so she won't be coming to a strange land when the war is won, but will be making her new home in the land of her birth. . . . Bob Morin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Morin of 13 1/2 Wilson Avenue. . . . his bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.

E. Murphy of 18 Carleton Road, Ashford, Middlesex, England. . . . elsewhere in today's paper are further details of both weddings.

Speaking to the members of the Nurses Alumnae, and numerous active and inactive members of the Nursing Division in this district on Thursday evening, Miss Madeleine Baker, R.N., Provincial Organizer of Central Registries in Ontario, urged local nurses to form a central registry here. . . . she outlined the various steps in such an organization, and a committee was appointed to study her recommendations. . . . the visitor, on her first trip to the Northland, expressed surprise at the efficiency of the nursing service here, and the hope that she will visit this district again soon.

Sixty members of the Nursing Division of the S.J.A.B. were inspected by the Lady District Superintendent, Mrs. T. Gilmour, of Toronto, who visited them officially on Friday evening. . . . Mrs. Gilmour, who arrived in Canada recently from England, is a registered nurse, and has done much work in England during this war. . . . she was accompanied to Timmins by Colonel W. R. Nesbitt, Provincial Commissioner.

Among local clubs making large purchases of the Victory Bonds are the Porcupine Ski Club and the Porcupine Skating Club. . . . the Ski Club purchased more bonds last week, bringing their total, including 1941 purchases to five hundred dollars in Victory Bonds. . . . while the Porcupine Skating Club announced the purchase of a one thousand dollar bond at the Victory Loan concert in the McIntyre Arena on Sunday evening.

Skipper Lieutenant John May, formerly with the Thornwick Bay, trawler adopted by the Kinettes here, did his men a good turn when he wrote to Mrs. R. B. Stock, president of the Kinettes, telling her that he had been transferred from the Thornwick Bay to the Ship Southern Wave. . . . Mrs. Stock immediately went to work, and last week her efforts were met with success. . . . the teachers of the Public Schools in Timmins announced that they would adopt the Southern Wave, and supply knitted articles and "goodies" for its men. . . . perhaps the fact that the men of the Thornwick Bay who have written to members of the Kinette knitting group have addressed these ladies as "Misses" has something to do with the eager manner in which the Kinettes are helping all sailors. . . . whatever it is, the group is anxious to carry on its work, and hopes that parcel restrictions will not delay articles that are needed by the men of the Thornwick Bay.

It was an impressive sight, and one that showed Canadians and Americans are as if one in this war for freedom and right. . . . as the McIntyre Concert Band played "The Star Spangled Banner" each person in the audience of hundreds at the McIntyre Arena on Sunday evening stood in respect to the allied nation. . . . in respect, because like Canadians, the people of the United States are going to win this war. . . . and, another point from that Sunday evening concert. . . . there won't be very many people in this district who will not have heard of the excellence of skaters of the Porcupine Skating Club. . . . another advance "showing" of part of what will take place at the annual carnival on April 18th and 20th, was given the audience at the concert. . . . and that showing said that there will be large crowds at all performances of the carnival.

Members of the Women's Institute who wish to take part in the sleigh ride party to be held on Wednesday evening, March 11th, from the Hollinger hall, and returning to the hall for spaghetti supper, are asked to contact Mrs. H. J. McGarry, phone 2273J and leave their names with her so that arrangements may be made to accommodate members. . . . the members are asked to let Mrs. McGarry know of their intention to take part in the sleigh ride as soon as possible. . . . certainly every member should have her name on that list.

Congratulations and best wishes to the two couples who took their marriage vows during the week-end. . . . both bridegrooms are members of the R.C.A.F., and were on leave during the week-end. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Gerald ("Moon") Mullen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moskal. . . . Mrs. Mullen, who changed her surname on Saturday, is the former Nancy Heppelwhite, of Schumacher, and the ceremony took place at the Trinity United Mansie. . . . while Mrs. Moskal is the former Mary Stachow. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Moskal's marriage ceremony took place in the rectory at the Church of Nativity. . . . and both couples are in Southern Ontario at present.

Mrs. Crews and Mrs. Jack Lake, of 111 Hemlock street, were hostesses on Monday evening to the knitting group of Eastern Star. . . . there was a good attendance of members and the hostesses served a delicious lunch. . . . plans were made to hold the next knitting meeting on Monday, March 16th at the home of Miss Gertrude Doherty in the Sky Block.

Meeting women of other organizations at an open church afternoon tea for the first time since their inauguration. . . . members of the Woman's Association of the Mountjoy United Church were delighted with the success of the event. . . . the decorations of the church, and the delicious sandwiches, etc., served with the afternoon tea, made a special appeal to the guests. . . . while the bake table was soon "sold out" . . . proceeds of course, go toward furnishing the kitchen of the new church. . . . this, of course, was Saturday's Daffodil tea.

After the recent skating party and home-made bean supper held by the Fireside Club, the members held a business meeting during which they heard details of a newly organized service club, which will combine the work of all clubs. . . . it is the Mrs. Winston Churchill Club, and will provide recreation for one million women in England who are doing their part in winning this war by active service. . . . and therefore are not at home. . . . Mrs. Geo. Mitchell read details of the organization to the members and other clubs who wish to learn more about the work might get in touch with her.

In South Porcupine on Saturday evening, the women of the South Porcupine Lutheran Finnish Church gathered in large numbers to honour Mrs. Pikkusaari, wife of the Finnish Lutheran minister in this district, at a shower. . . . many lovely gifts were presented to the popular guest of honour, who has acted as organizer of the church choir, and she also received a fine cheque from the congregation.

Mrs. C. G. Lacy, Noble Grand of the Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge, was hostess on Tuesday evening to the knitting group of the lodge, which enjoyed the hospitality of her home, and completed several knitted articles during the evening. . . . the hostess served a delicious lunch, and members made plans for another quilting bee in the near future.

Felicitations are sent to Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie Keith, who became the proud parents of a baby son at Kingston this week. . . . Mrs. Keith is the former Mary Emma Skavlem, and her mother Mrs. H. G. Skavlem left on Wednesday to become acquainted with her new grandchild.

Several enquiries have been made about the annual afternoon tea and fashion show held in the S. Bucovsky store about this time of each year, and the many women who are looking forward to the event will be glad to know that it is to be held on March 18th (Wednesday). . . . the event, this year, will be sponsored by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, and from advance notices will be just as entertaining as it has been in the past. . . . and, a reminder. . . . the Dime Club is entertaining next Wednesday at an afternoon tea in the Hollinger Hall. . . . you should be there.

From events of the future, back to the present day. . . . or, at least, the day before. . . . yesterday afternoon found Timmins women dividing their time between two delightful occasions. . . . from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, they were the guests of the War Beavers at an afternoon tea and sale of home-baking in the St. John Ambulance hall, with all proceeds going toward the purchase of cigarettes for the Porcupine lads on active service. . . . and from 3 to 6 o'clock, they were the pleased guests of the Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge at an afternoon tea and sale of home-baking held at the spacious and charming home of the Matiland McChesneys at 20 Hart street. . . . certainly the setting was ideal, and nothing was neglected in carrying out the event to suit this setting. . . . elsewhere in to-day's paper are carried details of both events.

Members of the Ladies' Guild of the Anglican Church are asked to remember the monthly meeting which will be held on Friday, March 13th in the parish hall. . . . this will be the monthly business meeting, and will commence at three o'clock. . . . it is expected that plans will be made for future activities, so come along members, and help to make those plans.

The men of the Corvette which bears the name of Timmins will be well supplied with all the good things of life if the people of Timmins "have anything to say about it" . . . and they certainly seem to have had a great deal to do with the matter up to date. . . . at present the corvette boasts two radios, one for the officers and one for the sailors. . . . donated by the Town of Timmins and the Hadassah Chapter. . . . other donations have been made from the Timmins High and Vocational School, and on Tuesday evening at the meeting of the I.O.D.E. the members discussed plans for further gifts to these men.

Friends in this district will say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hume B. Douglas (the former Joy Wookley), this evening when the popular couple leaves for southern points. . . . Mr. Douglas has joined the Canadian Active Army, and is going to Brockville for the officers' training course. . . . from there he will probably be sent to some other point in Canada, and Mrs. Douglas will accompany him. . . . they have resided in Apartment 2 over the Bank of Commerce Building in Schumacher since their marriage.

Globe and Mail—Again it should be stressed that in subscribing to the Victory Bond issue, the individual Canadian is merely lending money to all Canadians as a body. And that is good enough security for any hesitating investor.

Province to Probe Fight in Sudbury C. I. O. Office

Attorney-General Gordon Conant this week directed the Provincial Police to investigate fully the trouble last week in the Sudbury office of the C.I.O. Two union officials, Foster Emerson and John Wheelahan, were slightly injured in the affair and the office was almost wrecked, chairs and furniture being thrown around and the office files and documents strewn all over. Tenants in another part of the building heard the disturbance and called the police. When the officers arrived they found the office looking as if a cyclone had struck it, while Emerson and Wheelahan acted as if they were seriously hurt. Police say that the union officials suggested that they knew the men who had caused the trouble. The police could not learn the names of these alleged disturbers, and Emerson left Sudbury without preferring any charges.

In the meantime, however, Hon. Mr. Conant received a letter from Peter Dunlop, secretary of the Hamilton Labour Council, in which it was said: "Justice demands impartial treatment of all parties, and we urge you now to show that the establishment of law and order does not only mean the use of law to attempt to smash the organizations of the working people of Canada." Hon. Mr. Conant has taken up this challenge and says that the whole matter will be investigated. Sudbury police showed every willingness to cooperate in the prosecution of any individual or group attempting to get away with lawlessness, but the Sudbury union officials did not appear to be ready to help in any action, as they refused to name these they said were guilty or to lay any charges themselves.

Another Excellent Legion Smoker on Saturday Night

February Event Keeps Up the High Standard of Entertainment Set This Year

Many compliments were given the Timmins branch of the Legion on Saturday, and another successful smoker was marked up. Despite many big counter-attractions there was a very large attendance and all enjoyed the fine programme that had been planned. President Austin Neame occupied the chair for the evening and in a short address welcomed all to the club. He told of the renovation now in course of operation and said when all the work is completed, Timmins branch will have one of the finest club rooms in the province. He asked all to make the building their meeting place and extended this invitation to all the Active Service Forces who may be spending a leave in Timmins. The programme was as follows: Instrumental duet, Wilkins and Wilson. Local Solos, Art Jenkins. Piano Accordion solos, Young Belanger. Songs, by Bob Whiteman. Guitar Selections, by Eric and Ralph Nicholson. The latter, the youngest son of Les. Nicholson, came in for a special toast as he leaves soon to do his duty with the Royal Canadian Navy. Laughing Song, by Ben Davis. Walter Greaves rendered the Legion Theme Song. Joe Ormston was also on the programme but due to the gathering wishing to listen to the news, postponed his appearance to some future occasion. All the artists gave of the very best and all could be placed on the "Star" list. Each and every item was given the finest of attention and their responses to additional selections were much appreciated. Walter Devine, acted as the pianist for the entire programme and assisted in the enjoyment of the event by leading in community singing. The featured supper was a great success, and the committee served wieners, rolls and cheese, the Legion helping the War effort again by paying a tax for the "Hot Dogs". The holder of the ticket for the "Dresden" Doll prize was not present to claim his prize. The ticket was Series 8—No. 72. This prize can be secured from the Steward, upon presentation of this numbered coupon. The next smoker event is planned for Saturday, March 28th, with Jack Brady as chairman. The only part of the programme arranged so far is the "McGinty's Lunch," another special for the event.

Election Meeting of Junior C.W.L. to be Held on April 7th

Nominations Take Place at Monthly Meeting on Tuesday.

Miss Mae Andrews, president, was in the chair for the regular meeting of the Junior Catholic Women's League held on Tuesday evening in the basement of the Church of Nativity, with a fairly good attendance of members. Following the routine business of the meeting, the president, who had represented the league at the salvage meeting recently, gave an outline of the articles to save, and explained the campaign in detail. She read literature on the prices by various members of parliament, which were very interesting to all members. Mrs. T. J. Carbone was appointed chairman of the nominating committee, and plans were made to hold the annual election meeting on Tuesday, April 7th. It was decided that the league would donate a layette to the Victorian Order of Nurses.
