What the Dome Mine Employees are Doing in War Effort

Record of Dome School Also Outlined.

South Porcupine, March 4—(Special to The Advance)—Those who listened to the Dome broadcast (from the Dome School) on Sunday night when Mr. R. E. Dye by interview and talk told what Dome Mines is doing and has done in a patriotic way, could not fail but be impressed with his statements.

545 employees have bought bonds amounting to $53,400—(objective, $57,300)—which Mr. Dye confidently expects to be reached before closing date Tuesday. Mr. Dye gives us official figures today as $59,500.

Employees interview — Bill Kellow, Jack McGinn, Andy Cummings, Harry Costain; and Mrs. C. H. Libby, representing the women—all gave convincing emphasis of the "all-out" energy behind the Dome Loan drive.

Music by the Cornishmen under Bill Kellow ("Lead Kindly Light") and the "Singing Sisters"—Mrs. Stanlake, Mrs. Libby, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Allen, who gave "The White Cliffs of Dover" beautifully—lightened the programme.

The Dome School came proudly into the limelight too, Miss M. Lynch, principal, gave an account of what this home-like school is doing for Canada. Up to December this small school has bought $1,083 worth of war savings stamps—averaging $1.78 per pupil. In the inspectorate the average is 70 cents per pupil.

They have "adopted" two British prisoners of war in Germany and are supplying them with reading material, musical instruments, and music and sporting goods.

The following boys who have enlisted with His Majesty's forces are all Dome school ex-pupils:— Air Force; Orry Costain, Jos. Mitchell, Callum Stevenson, Bruce Stovel, Jos. Woods.

Canadian Navy: Stanley Millions, Bill Richardson, John Kobzey, Jack Purke, Basil Libby, Reggie Libby, Tom Webb, Bill Horner, A. McGinn. (Waiting call)—C. Chevier, Niel Pirie, S. McGinn.

Canadian Army: Walter Baker, Bazil Doran, Tony Procopio, J. Shumilak, S. Schumilak.

Concert to Help Victory Loan Drive at South Porcupine

Other Items of Interest from South Porcupine and the Dome.

South Porcupine, March 4th. Special to The Advance. One of the most interesting and pleasing events in connection with the Victory Loan drive was the concert given by our public school choir (Dome included) and children in the Kiwanis hall on Friday last. A full hall listened to our children at their best. There is something about the Kiwanis hall that makes all singing sound well, and there was something about our children urging by patriotic songs and tableaux the pride we should have in our great country and help which should be willingly given, which stirred up the patriotism, innate in us all.

South Porcupine Victory Loan Drive Still Going Strong

South Porcupine, March 4—(Special to The Advance)—South Porcupine Victory Loan drive is still going strong. Sol Sky, chairman of the Loan drive in South End, says that our new objective is now $300,000 (former objective $185,000). He reports that thirty canvassers (Kiwanians, C.W.S.F. and volunteers) are giving their undivided attention to this end and are calling at every house in the community.

Many reports that in a number of homes the men are working at the mines and buying bonds through the mines. These statements are carefully checked with every source and if not found correct, a new canvasser is sent to that party. It is remarkable to note that nearly 100 per cent. of the men have subscribed to the Victory Loan. In isolated instances only has it been definitely proved that a family could not afford to buy. Canvassing cards are 75 per cent complete so it is expected that before the closing date South Porcupine will go over the top as we did before and be over 150 per cent of our original objective. The committee in charge asks again the co-operation of all citizens. All who have bought are asked to do a little more, and those who have not, to try their utmost to buy—our money, our lives, our freedom are at stake! South Porcupine has always proudly done her duty for her country and will not fail Canada now.

The girl, on the witness stand was closely questioned by both Mr. Yates and Mr. Gardner but refused to say very much in connection with the case. Lombard was not called upon to testify. Other cases in court were minor infringements of the traffic laws.

GETTING IT WRONG
The former vicar and his wife decided to attend the church social of his old parish. The new vicar greeted his predecessor heartily. "I'm very pleased to see you again," he said. "And this is your most charming wife?" The other vicar fixed his host with an accusing stare. "This," he said reprovingly, "is my only wife."—Globe and Mail.
