

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

If you saw many women making their way to the Oddfellows Hall on Saturday afternoon, and you were not one of these lucky ones, here is the explanation . . . that was the time of the St. Patrick's Afternoon tea and sale of home-baking held by the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church . . . those district women who were present, are eager in their praise of the gracious hospitality offered to all their guests by the members of the Auxiliary, and compliment the Auxiliary on the fine arrangements and the delightful setting . . . it was one of those affairs where time passes much too quickly, and where everything is "just right" . . . too bad the Auxiliary does not entertain publicly more often.

And while on the subject of afternoon tea parties . . . April 18 is the date chosen by the Women's Missionary Society of the Timmins United Church for the annual tea and sale of baking . . . plans were made at the regular meeting last week, but further information will come at a later date . . . tell you all about it then, but don't forget that April 18th is reserved.

Extra coaches were put on the excursion train which left on Thursday evening for Toronto . . . Timmins fans followed the Buffalo-Ankerite team to the hockey play-offs in Toronto and Hamilton, and if lusty cheers have anything to do with it, the local team will have a great deal of support . . . the Timmins station is seldom as busy as it was that day, and the most frequent remark was "Are you going, too . . . that's swell."

At the monthly business meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew's Anglican Church last week, the members made plans for an Easter tea and sale of baking to be held on April 8th in the rectory . . . further plans will be discussed at a work meeting on Friday, March 27th at the home of Mrs. C. Manzie, 153 1/2 Pine street north . . . all members should be present.

"Aunt Eva" . . . a name that to children and adults alike spells moments of pleasure . . . a name that appears in each issue of "The Evening Citizen", as it is published in Ottawa . . . and a name that has brought great pleasure to Timmins children this week . . . yes, Aunt Eva, who is in real-life Miss Eva Bilsky, sister of Mrs. A. J. Shragze, is a visitor in the northland, and in keeping with her habit of spending most of her time with children, she began on Sunday afternoon by entertaining the children from the Shelter at the A. J. Shragze home . . . she told them some of her original stories, telling the stories as well as she writes them . . . she treated them to a supper that contained everything in which children delight, right up to the candied cake . . . and, then, when darkness began to cast its shadows, she said good-bye to them, giving each child an autographed story, as well as an English bone-china cup and saucer.

Miss Bilsky has travelled near and far, and in her journeys, she has found many things to write about . . . she has put her educating stories into the mouths of animals, fairies, and the like . . . each story has a moral, and in giving the children pleasant moments in fairyland or animal land, teaches them the things that make children "good" . . . in Ottawa, "Aunt Eva" has her own "Sunshine Class" of charming children from the Mutchmore Street School . . . these children, and children throughout many countries, love her and think of her as their very own "Aunt Eva" . . . but she is even more than an "Aunt" to them . . . she is like a fairy godmother whose old attic (the nook where Miss Bilsky does her story-writing) is visited by the numerous characters of storyland, and whose stories and memory will live with them forever.

Among Aunt Eva's stories are tales of the Indians, as told to her while she spent a month visiting on a Canadian Reservation . . . while the guest of the Algonquin tribe she was honoured with an Indian name "Wab-Mi-Mi-Que" or "White Dove" . . . these stories are among the many included in Aunt Eva's scrap books . . . Ann spent a pleasant half hour looking through one of those scrap-books this week, and among other things she noticed that there were letters from many part of the world, addressed to Aunt Eva, and thinking her for her wonderful stories . . . some of the letters were from children, but a majority of them seemed to be from adults who expressed their gratitude to the writer for her wonderful way of telling stories to their children . . . welcome to "Aunt Eva" . . . let's hope she stays in Timmins for a long time . . . it's her first visit here in twelve years.

After a lapse of about a year, the Sweet Caporal Club is re-organizing, and will open its activities on Friday with an afternoon tea in aid of the Bombed Victims Fund . . . the event will take place at the home of the president, Mrs. C. M. MacEwre, 37 Laurier avenue, from 2 to 6 p.m., and all women of the district are extended a sincere welcome to attend . . . a special attraction will be tea-cup reading, with glances into the future for the guests . . . the Sweet Caporal

Club, which sent cigarettes to Porcupine men on service overseas, ceased its activities several months ago due to the illness of many of its members, but now, the president is glad to report that all members are "back on their feet" and the club will swing into action again . . . after the tea, the usual weekly meetings will be begun, and the fees will be used, as before, to purchase cigarettes for "our boys over there" . . . give them a good start by being at the Bombed Victims Tea on Friday.

There was a large attendance of members at the regular knitting meeting of the Arbutus Chapter Eastern Star on Monday evening at the apartment of Miss Gertrude Doherty in the Sky Block . . . Miss Mildred Tackaberry was joint hostess, and the knitters spent a pleasant evening . . . a delicious lunch was served, the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, and Mrs. Isobel Brown, pouring tea . . . the next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March 30th, at the home of Mrs. Brown, 82-Preston street.

In answer to enquiries Evelyn Clark, vocalist with the Henry Kelleck orchestra, who has not been present to add her fine vocal talent to recent events, has not left the district, but is at home recuperating from a tonsil operation . . . seems a shame that anyone with such ability should have to have an operation like that, but there it is . . . she's getting along nicely, however, and hopes to be back with the orchestra soon . . . and it won't be any too soon for her many fans.

The knitting circle of La Federation des Femmes Canadiennes Francaises postponed the regular knitting meet from Monday this week, to Friday . . . to-morrow evening they will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Lloyd, Spruce street north, and it is hoped that a large number of members and friends will attend . . . everyone is welcome.

At its first public event, the St. Patrick's Tea in the St. John Ambulance Hall on Tuesday afternoon, the Mattagami Ladies' Club welcomed a large number of their friends from this district, and realized satisfactory proceeds with which they will send parcels to men in the services . . . everything about the event was pleasant, and Ann, among many others, will make a point of going to any other events sponsored by this club . . . they're a very charming group of women, and made every guest feel "right at home."

For some reason, St. Patrick's Day dances were not very well attended . . . only about fifty couples were the guests of the Canadian Legion at its first annual St. Patrick's Ball held in the McIntyre Auditorium on Tuesday, while about one hundred couples attended the Riverside Pavilion dance on the same evening . . . now these figures certainly do not seem to represent Timmins, where large crowds have always attended dances, but then perhaps, the dancing population may be getting smaller . . . whatever it is, it's too bad, 'cause these events were planned to give a good time to hundreds . . . the Legion is planning another similar event in the near future, so if a skating or skating accident kept you home from this one, don't feel too badly.

Parents and members of the Home and School Club are notified that a meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, March 24th, in the Central Public School, commencing at 8 o'clock . . . the teaching staff of the school is making all arrangements for this meeting, which will be in the form of a discussion of school work, giving parents an insight into the school lives of their children . . . different phases of the work will be discussed by the teachers, and parents should find this a very interesting meeting . . . added features will be a choir under the direction of Miss Haines, and an orchestra directed by Mr. King . . . Tuesday, March 24th.

Wedding notes . . . the Webber-Hale nuptials will be solemnized at Trinity United Church in Schumacher on Saturday, when the bridegroom, Ralph Webber, arrives home on leave from the R.C.A.F. . . his bride-to-be, Miss Kathleen Hale, or "Kitty" as she is popularly known, has been feted at numerous social functions during the past several weeks, the last of which was a shower on Tuesday evening at the Webber home . . . Kitty added many lovely gifts to those already presented to her by her many friends, and many more good wishes were showered upon her . . . and down to Niagara Falls, where a former Timmins couple is making plans for a wedding ceremony on March 30th . . . Bernice Ross and Weidar Anderson will become Mr. and Mrs. that day . . . they announced the engagement while on holiday here during the Christmas season.

With "Salute to the Victory Loan," the pupils and staff of the public schools in Timmins did their part to further the sale of bonds . . . the "Salute" was an outstanding programme of drills, dances, dramatics, and humour by the public school children . . . a programme which was carried out without any loss of time during the performance, and was done with an eagerness and perfection by each little member of the cast . . . on Friday (to-morrow) evening, the same performance will be repeated, but it will bear the title "Salute to the Southern Wave", and all proceeds will be used to purchase wool and comforts for these sailors who were recently adopted by the public school teachers association . . . Lions Club hall at 8 o'clock, Friday evening.

Trans-Canada Air Lines' stewardess personnel are now represented in all the armed services with the departure of Miss Patricia Rand, above, this week to join the R.C.N.V.R. as a nursing sister Native of Moncton, N.B., Miss Rand has for the past 18 months been a stewardess on the main line of T.C.A. between Winnipeg and Lethbridge. She is the third to leave on active service. Two of her sister stewardesses are now with the R.C.A.F. and R.C.A.S.C.

The Porcupine Male Choir will be the featured guests at the social evening to be held by the St. David's Welsh Society on Saturday evening, March 21st, in the Hollinger hall . . . the society is making extensive plans for an evening of real entertainment, and everyone is welcomed . . . it will be fun.

Celebrating St. Patrick's Day the Syrian Canadian Women's Auxiliary held a social evening and bingo party at the home of the president, Mrs. M. Shaheen, 53 Birch street . . . the programme was planned by the entertainment committee, which includes Miss Emma Ellis, Mrs. Frank A. Ellis, and Mrs. Albert Ansara . . . Bingo prizes were won by Mrs. Geo. A. Ellis and Mr. Edward Ellis, and a delicious lunch was served.

Man Gets Into Trouble Begging Tuesday Afternoon

Drops Into Police Officer's Apartment by Mistake. Is Given Sixty Days.

Robert Durnean, a man of about forty-five years of age, made a bad mistake Tuesday afternoon and as a result he was sent to jail for two months yesterday morning when he appeared before Magistrate Atkinson on a charge of begging. His big mistake was that he dropped into an apartment rented by a police officer and asked for some money.

When he appeared before the magistrate he pleaded guilty but asked that he be granted his freedom so that he could return to Ottawa. He said that he had money enough to pay for his passage and was prepared to leave if he was let off. Magistrate Atkinson was considering leniency for the man but when he glanced over the man's long record he sentenced him to sixty days in Halesbury.

Arthur Barnett, alias Art Smuck, a twenty-four year old man working in Timmins, was arrested on Tuesday on a warrant sworn out by the Brantford Police Officer on a charge of the Brantford police on a charge of non-support and he will be held in the Timmins jail till an escort is sent from Brantford.

Arnold White, 69 Kirby avenue, was arrested at 11:30 p.m. on Tuesday and charged with careless driving. Police claim that he was backing out of a laneway and crashed into the side of a car.

St. Patrick's Day is Celebrated by Pavilion Dancers

About One Hundred Couples Attend Annual Dance in Honour of Ireland's St. Patrick.

The Riverside Pavilion was decorated with large green shamrocks for the St. Patrick's Day dance on Tuesday, when about one hundred couples honoured the Irish by dancing to the music of Henry Kelleck's orchestra. Selections were especially dedicated to members of the armed forces, each branch of which was well represented, and Gerald Killeen, blind vocalist of the Buffalo-Ankerite Mine, sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and in answer to a special request "The White Cliffs of Dover."

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tennyson, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalley, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hass, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Abell, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pellow, Mr. and Mrs. E. Vedova, Mr. and Mrs. K. Leahy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. A. IN MEMORIAM

IN LOVING MEMORY of my dear son, Bill Black, who died at South Porcupine, 20th February, 1920; also my dear daughter, Mrs. J. D. McCrae, who died at South Porcupine, 23rd March, 1927.
Ever remembered by their mother, Mrs. E. Watson, and Jack and Walter McCrae, 108 Third Ave., Schumacher. -11p

IN MEMORIAM

PARSONS — In loving memory of Thomas W. Parsons, who died suddenly March 22nd, 1941.
Those whom we love go out of sight
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.

However long our lives may last,
Whatever hands we view,
Whatever joy or grief be ours,
We will always think of you.

Memories are treasures, no one can steal.
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal.
Life is eternal—that will remain,
In God's own time—we'll meet again.
—Ever remembered by his sister, Hilda, and Percy and family. -11p

IN MEMORIAM

IN LOVING MEMORY of my dear brother, Thomas William Parsons, who lost his life at the Hollinger Mine March 22nd, 1941.
To-day recalls sad memories
Of a dear brother gone to rest.
The ones that are thinking of him
To-day
Are the ones that love him best.
In my heart there is a picture
Worth more than silver or gold.
That picture is of my dear brother
Who in memory shall never grow old.
—Sadly missed by Sister Ivy, Brother-in-law Alfred and family. -11p
