

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

A novel way of answering a roll call has been devised by Mrs. R. MacTaggart, who is convener of the fancy work booth for the afternoon tea and sale to be held by the Women's Institute on Wednesday, April 29th. Mrs. MacTaggart has asked the members to come to the April meeting, on the fifteenth "armed" with an apron to donate to the booth in answer to roll call. All members are asked to take note. Last week the members went to work with a will, and packed a large box for the sailors of the ship Gaspe. Their adopted children... included were many knitted articles, sweets, tobacco, and reading material... all the things that will make a sailor "happy."

Mrs. K. Stevens and Mrs. L. Mason, two valued members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, who are leaving to take up residence in Southern Ontario, were honoured at the knitting meeting on Thursday evening in the Legion hall. And they each received gifts to take with them to their new homes, as souvenirs of the days spent with their fellow-members of the Auxiliary... another member who received tribute at the meeting, was Mrs. L. Nicholson, press correspondent, who was wished a "happy birthday"... and many of them.

Gold Nugget Rebekahs are planning a rummage sale to take place in the near future... and after the Easter holiday, they expect to hold a home-baking sale... plans for both events were made at the regular meeting on Thursday evening in the lodge rooms of the Oddfellows Hall, and further announcement will be made at an early date.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. T. Trothier, who were married on Friday morning in St. Anthony's Cathedral. Mrs. Trothier is the former Miss Muriel Chenier, and at present the couple are on a wedding trip to Saskatchewan... they will reside in Timmins.

Mrs. Cloutier, a popular member of the knitting group headed by Mrs. Harry Lloyd, was surprised by her fellow-knitters and her family at a birthday party on Friday evening... after the regular weekly knitting, Mrs. H. Lloyd asked Mrs. Cloutier to help her in carrying the wool to the Lloyd home... while they made the trip, other members of the group went to the Cloutier home, and were ready to call out "surprise, surprise" when Mrs. Cloutier returned... the group presented the "honour" with a lovely crystal brooch, and joined in her happiness during the "great day."

More aprons... this time the work is being done by the Ladies' Guild of St. Matthew's Church... members and friends were the guests of Mrs. Manzie on Friday evening and several dainty aprons were completed for the apron booth at the afternoon tea and sale on April 8th, at the rectory... they'll be mighty nice additions to your kitchen wardrobe, and give that special touch of spring to your work.

Two new members were welcomed at the first meeting of the Sweet Caporal Club for the new term on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. O. McGinn... Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. F. Wharton... a special guest was Miss Mabel Sundstrom, and former members, now in Southern Ontario, were "missed" during the evening... they are Mrs. Sleep and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence (the latter in Toronto)... the newly re-organized club will write to these former members, and hope that both will return at least to visit the club, if not to become members once again.

In reply to several enquiries, the following is the line-up of April dances... April 10th, the Kinsmen dance at the Riverside Pavilion, with music by the Henry Kelneck orchestra... April 18th, the Easy Aces dance at the Hollinger hall... and April 24th, the long-awaited Porcupine Ski Club spring dance, which will wind up the affairs of the local club for the 1941-1942 season... these of course, are only the extra dances... there will be the usual Easter season dances, as well as regular week night events as they have been taking place throughout the winter months.

If you haven't done this before, do it right now... mark down either Saturday evening, April 18th, or Monday evening, April 20th, as a date that you will want to remember... it is one that you will keep with the Porcupine Skating Club to see the art of figure-skating as portrayed by the members and by special guest artists... scenic effects, costumes, etc., will add to the gala performance, and you won't want to be one of the unlucky ones who say, "I was too late in getting a ticket... they were all gone"... tickets go on sale April 1st, and may be had by writing to the club, so sit down and write that letter now.

Early spring weddings... good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sparrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Widar Anderson, whose marriages took place on Saturday... the Sparrow-Cottrell nuptials were solemnized at Timmins United Church, and a reception took place in the evening at the Oddfellows Hall... the bride is the former Miss Hazel Cottrell... while at Niagara Falls, Ontario, on the same day, Bernice Ross became the bride of Widar Anderson... both are formerly of Timmins, Bernice being the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross, formerly resident at 58 Balsam street north, and Widar's parents, of Timmins, attending the wedding in Niagara Falls... and also, to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kowal, whose marriage was solemnized at Timmins United Church on Sunday afternoon... Mrs. Kowal is the former Miss Lena Eftoda, and the couple has taken up residence at 37 Sixth avenue.

A new plan for the training of students of the School of Nursing of the Toronto University has been inaugurated, and brings to Timmins this week Miss Margaret Prowse from that school... Miss Prowse will remain in Timmins one month, working with the Public Health Nurses of our town, and then will go on to other cities and towns for further practical training... other nurses will follow her to Timmins, and so the work will go on... of course, this is field work in public health nursing, and will be a form of help for the student in completing her training... facilities in town are very advantageous for this type of work, and upon request from the University, the Board of Health and the School Boards, etc., have agreed to this new method of training... local schools, school boards, medical officers, and clubs will co-operate in the work, and will assist in making Miss Prowse and other students of the School of Nursing, capable and efficient members of the nursing groups.

At the regular knitting meeting of the Arbutus Chapter, Eastern Star on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Brown, 82 Preston street, a large number of members were present to continue the work and to make further plans for the Eastern Star Patriotic Tea and Sale which will take place on April 11th, from 3 to 6 p.m., at the Masonic Hall, 11 Tamarack street... special features of the event will be an apron table, a bake table, and a novelty table, and the members extend a welcome to all... after the work of the evening, Mrs. Brown served a delicious lunch, and plans were made to meet on Monday, April 6th, at the home of Mrs. Phillips, 155 Mountjoy street south.

Clever women, those members of La Federation des Femmes Canadiennes-Francaises... doing their "big" bit toward the winning of this war by their regular knitting, and by salvage work at home... by sending parcels to men on service... and by assisting numerous other organizations in their work... yet, these women have found time to think up a new way of helping... this time they're assisting in conserving paper... at a meeting on Sunday afternoon in St. Anthony's hall they decided that if each member made her own shopping bag... of odd pieces of material, the unused parts of oil cloths, or other fragments... the merchants would not have to pack the goods they bought into those large paper bags, and each day would bring a saving in paper... yes, it's a very good idea, and one that more Canadian women should adopt.

Signs of spring... best of all, a butterfly winging its way up Third avenue in the bright sunlight... tiny sprouts in the garden in front of the town hall... "hop-scotch" and "skipping" in local school yards... children finding the deepest parts of muddles through which to splash... seed-buying... cars splashing pedestrians... loungers along the streets... and every woman wanting a new spring hat!

The Porcupine Music Teachers' Association announces that on May 27th, at the McIntyre auditorium, Lawrence Defoe, famous Canadian tenor, will present a recital that will provide an excellent evening of music for people of this district... Mr. Defoe, who is conductor of the well-known Weston Singers, and is featured weekly on the CFRB radio station at Toronto, is outstanding in his field of music... local audiences will be thrilled with his beautiful voice, and will find in the recital all that any music-lover would want.

Elated good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lister, whose marriage took place in the rectory of the Church of Nativity on January 24... Mrs. Lister is the former Ann Lukon, and Ted and Ann announced their marriage on Monday... on Tuesday, they left on the Northland for Toronto, where Ted will join the Ordnance Corps of the Canadian Army, and Ann will take up residence... Ted was for a past few years a popular member of the McIntyre Hockey team, while Ann was a member of the Porcupine Skating Club, and an employee of the G. Chalmers Insurance office... both are well-known in the district, Ann's family being residents of Timmins for many years.

Seems that each week more and more people from this district leave to take up residence in other cities and towns... today, on the Northland, Mrs. Harry Linney is leaving for Toronto, where she will take up residence... Mr. Linney went to Toronto a few weeks ago, called there by the illness and death of his father... Iva and Harry have both been very popular in Timmins, and many friends are sorry to say "farewell," but all join in wishing them happiness in their new home.

To the appreciation expressed by the members of the Senior Catholic Women's League at the annual meeting last night for the work done by Mrs. H. See during her two years as president of the league, may well be added that of this writer... Mrs. See has been ready to give her time and her attention to any matter of publicity for the league at all times, and so "thank you"... while at the same time, a welcome to Mrs. A. Dorschner who was elected president for 1942 at the meeting last night... and, also, another "thank you," this time to Mrs. Berregh, who has carried the duties of press correspondent for the C.W.L. during the past year.

Today's issue of The Advance is the fashion edition, and in it you will find many suggestions on what is smart and right for spring 1942... if you have been having a "wee bit of trouble in making up your mind" let the columns of the shopping edition help you, and you'll know where to go to buy the new ensembles, and what to buy.

Mrs. A. Dorschner was elected president of the Senior Catholic Women's League at the regular annual election meeting held on Wednesday evening in the Church of Nativity hall, with a good attendance of members. Mrs. Dorschner will succeed Mrs. H. See, who has carried the duties of president for the past two years, and for whose work the League expressed appreciation at the meeting.

On behalf of the members and executive, Mrs. A. F. Carriere presented the retiring president Mrs. See with a beautiful dressing gown, while Mrs. Kirwin read an inspiring address of appreciation for the capable manner in which Mrs. See filled the chair during her years of office. Mrs. See thanked all concerned and wished the new executive all success, promising her full co-operation.

The meeting on Wednesday evening closed the eighth fiscal year of this sub-division of the Sr. C. W. L. and featured an outstanding report of war work done during the past year. Mrs. J. Beauchamp, recording secretary, submitted a very interesting report of the activities of the league for the past year.

After hearing the report, the Rev. Fr. Murray commended the league on a very successful year, remarking especially on the war donations and the active knitting groups. He also thanked the ladies for their ever-ready co-operation in charitable work of the parish.

War work has played a primary part in the past year's work, and reports show that it is ever increasing. Much credit is due to Mrs. R. A. Delahunt, the capable convener, who has spent much time and effort to aid all members willing to do war work. Mrs. Delahunt gave her report as follows: Medical and airforce scarves; 54 pairs mitts; 101 helmets and caps; 1 pair wristlets; 11 pairs gloves; 126 face-cloths; 37 sleeveless sweaters; 41 turtle-neck sweaters. Three groups of workers have met at the Red Cross rooms one day a month, and four knitting groups have met once a week and been very active.

Following the election of officers plans were made to hold a bake sale on Saturday, April 18th, with Mrs. D. Carlin and Mrs. Rogers as conveners. Further announcement of time and place will be made at a later date.

Schumacher High School Theatre Night Big Success

Two Plays Ably Presented by Schumacher H. S. Pupils.

Schumacher, April 1—(Special to The Advance) — Friday evening last was Theatre Night at the Schumacher High School, and the auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity for the occasion. All present felt amply rewarded by the able presentation of two plays by the students of the school, with the other items on the programme so well given and so interesting that the event looked like four times the value for the night. Drama, comedy, dancing and music featured the programme and there was not an item on the list that did not win and deserve the highest praise. On the students of the school, on the staff, on the high school board, and on the people of Schumacher, the event reflected the highest of credit.

The programme opened with an overture by the Schumacher High School orchestra, setting a high standard for the balance of the programme. Next came the one-act comedy, "Nellie McNabb," very cleverly presented. The characters in this play were: The Maid, Lottie—Edna Battigelli. The Mother, Mrs. Stratford—Jean Urquhart. Younger Daughter, Daphne—Patricia Barker.

Elder Daughter, Ursula—Jean Barr. Rolly Martin—Edward Brooker. John Appleford—William Welt. The scene is in the drawing room of the Stratford home. Preparations were being made for Ursula's wedding to a man of her mother's choice but not of hers. At the same time Mrs. Stratford is making plans for a big social event for the debut of Daphne. The latter is in love with Rolly Martin, hardworking and ambitious, but not wealthy. Daphne dislikes social events and marries Rolly in a quaint church at the top of a hill on impulse while the couple are out for a lovers' walk. The problem for the girls is to break the news about the wedding kept secret and the big social wedding that Ursula does not want. The girls write to "Nellie McNabb," who conducts a column for the loverlorn, for advice. John Appleford, a prominent writer, always held up by Mrs. Stratford as a model of wisdom and social grace, reads out the questions of the girls and the answers given. He agrees with "Nellie McNabb's" advice to the girls to "follow their hearts," and so does Mrs. Stratford. Then the daughters confess they were the girls concerned. At first the mother is shocked, but forgives the girls, eventually telling them that she herself has been secretly married to John Appleford. All those on the cast of this play are to be complimented on the fine dramatic ability displayed by them.

The Girls' Choir under the leadership of Mr. Fred Roy gave two numbers, "The Rose of Trahe" and "Apple Blossom Time," delighting all with their talent and harmony. Later in the evening the Girls' Choir gave "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," and "There's a Health Unto His Majesty," their able presentation winning an encore. "Bonnie Mary of Argyll," being given as the responding number.

The dance session by the girls of Grade X was a highlight of the evening. "Lazy Dan," a soft shoe dance, was very cleverly presented by Betty Keeley, Norma Tario, Kathleen Corris and Katherine Lafontaine. The girls, with faces and arms blackened and colourfully dressed, received lots of applause. "Sweet Peggy," an Irish jig, was effectively presented by Jessie Scullion, Lily McGowan, Ann Marie Miller and Eileen Soucie. Attractively dressed in Irish costumes of green and white they did their parts well and were enthusiastically encored.

The High School orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Fred Roy, gave the selections, Minuet, "Military Symphony" (Haydn), and Mazurka, "Golden Moments" (Zamecnik). These numbers were well given and much appreciated.

Louis Kilsanich gave a clarinet solo, accompanied by Mr. Fred Roy at the piano, and this number made a special hit, the audience insisting on an encore.

The concluding number on the programme was the drama, "Drums of Oude." The parts in this were taken as follows: Capt. Hector McGregor—Kirby Joyner. Stewart (the entry)—Dale McLeod. Hindustani servants—Norman Cripps, Jack Tomlinson. Sergt. McDougal—Robt. Boyce. Lieut. Alan Hartley—John Flowers. Mrs. Jack Clayton—Isabel Flowers. The play is a powerful drama depicting the native uprising against the British in 1857 in India. It was presented very capably by the talented cast.

Another feature of the evening worthy of special note was a display of knitted articles made by the students of the school. This was in a booth in one of the corridors. To date the girls have given 340 articles to the Red Cross Society. They have also a bag fund for the former pupils of the school who are now in the Canadian Armed Forces. The proceeds of Theatre Night will be given to the school's war work.
