

Toronto Maple Leafs in Stanley Cup Finals

Metz In Hero Spot Tuesday

Scores Winning Goal With Six Seconds to Beat Rangers Three to Two.

Toronto Maple Leafs advanced to the Stanley Cup finals on Tuesday night when they turned back the New York Rangers 3-2 in the sixth game of their best-of-seven series at Toronto. The Rangers fought hard to the last bell but Nick Metz slugged in the winning counter with only six seconds remaining.

The Leafs had gone into a two-goal lead, scoring one in the first and adding another in the second while holding the fast-travelling Rangers scoreless. In the third period the Rangers scored twice by sheer power alone and then in the dying seconds of the game Nick Metz waited in with the killer. The last goal was scored when Metz broke away from a scramble in front of the Toronto nets.

The Leafs now qualify to meet the Detroit Red Wings who entered the Stanley Cup play-offs on Tuesday night as well by virtue of their three to one win over the Boston Bruins in the second game of their best-of-three series. The Bruins, once a powerful clan of puck-chasers, have been considerably weakened this season with the loss of the Kraut line, who joined the R.C.A.F. about a month ago. At the time they joined the airmen the Krauts, Dumart, Schmidt and Bauer, were considered the best forward line in professional hockey.

First game of the Stanley Cup finals will be played on Saturday night when the Leafs and their traditional enemies the Red Wings, meet in Toronto. The Leafs have been in practically every semi-final or final for the Stanley Cup for the last ten years but in the one time that they met the Wings during that period they were beaten.

The best-of-seven series for the possession of the Stanley Cup, emblematic of the world's hockey championship, is expected to draw record-breaking crowds in both Toronto and Detroit and it will bring to a close the complicated play-off system of the N. H. L. in which seven teams participate all season and eliminate only one of the teams before going into the play-offs.

Oshawa Takes First of Eastern Canada Finals Last Night

Beat Montreal Three to Two in First of Seven Game Series.

The Oshawa Generals met the Montreal Mont Royals last night in Montreal in the first of a best-of-seven series for the junior championship of Eastern Canada and turned them back by a three to two score. The Generals have been travelling at a fast clip since entering the Memorial Cup play-offs but the Royals are the first tough team they have met.

The Royals were sent into the Eastern Canada finals last night as a result of their beating the Maritime representatives, the Halifax club, so badly in the first game that the rest of the series was called off. The Royals won the first game of a best of five series against Halifax by a 12-3 score. It was then decided to lengthen the final series from a best-of-five to a best-of-seven.

Former McIntyre Star Now Shining for Sudbury Incos

Normie Hann, Former Mac, Shortstop, Scores Twenty-One Points in Basketball Game With Sault.

Normie Hann, former starry McIntyre shortstop, broke into the sport news in a big way last Saturday night as he sent the Sudbury Incos into a sixteen-point lead in the Northern Ontario basketball play-offs against Sault Ste. Marie Leaders. He scored twenty-one points for the Sudbury team as they ran up a 33-22 score in the first of a two-game series for the Northern Ontario championship.

Sudbury made experience pay off as they scored ten points in the first half without a miss and led 19-12 at half time. The Sudbury team defeated North Bay in the semi-final round to qualify to meet the Sault in the final. Second game of the series will be played in Sault Ste. Marie on Saturday, April 11.

To Save Paper by Making Their Own Shopping Bags

La Federation Members Have Clever New Plan for Assisting in Another War Effort.

La Federation des Femmes Canadiennes-Francaises held its regular monthly meeting on Sunday afternoon in the basement of St. Anthony's Cathedral, with a very good attendance of members.

Plans were made to hold a bean supper on April 14th in the Cathedral hall. All proceeds of the event to be used to purchase comfies for the soldiers of the parish. It is hoped that this event will be well attended, so that all servicemen of St. Anthony's parish will receive gifts from its proceeds.

Continuing their efforts to help win this war in every way they can, the members decided to make their own shopping bags, to save the stores the use of paper bags, and thus save paper for Canada. Several of the bags have been completed, being made of old pieces of fabrics, of oil cloth, etc.

Gambles and Power Scrapping for the Top Commercial Spot

Gambles Must Win Two of Next Three Points to Tie and Three to Win.

Two down and one to go is the way the Gambles bowlers are perched this week in the Commercial Bowling league after taking two points on Monday night in a regular game with the T. & N. O. The fruiterers now have one game remaining with The Advance, winners of the first half, and they must take two of the three points to tie the current leaders, the Power team. If they can take the three points they will wind up on top of the heap and will automatically go into the play-offs with the printers.

Each team had four men out for Monday night's game and the fruiterers managed to eke out a two point win after three hard-fought games. Each of the teams averaged almost two hundred per man for the whole night with Gambles showing their best in the last game.

Johnny Moss, one of Gambles' best, came through with a high score in the first game to give the fruiterers the edge. He rolled a 365 game to help the fruiterers amass a total of 795 to win the piece by 31 pins. Joe Toal was high for the railroaders with 225 while Eric Fleming turned in a 211 count.

"Army" Armstrong topped all bowlers in the second game with a score of 254 and the game went to the railroaders by 98 pins. Johnny Moss stayed close with 238 while Lambert rolled the only other score over the 200 mark with 218.

The staying power of the Gambles entry began to assert itself in the last game and as a result the railroaders were forced to turn in their best bowling of the night. Each of the teams rolled their best games in the final fixture but Gambles held the edge with a total of 905 and took the game by 71 pins. Pete Nicolson was high for Gambles with 238 while Lambert crept in behind him with 236. Moss rolled 230 and Henry Horrester turned in a 201 effort. "Army" Armstrong rolled T. & N. O.'s best game with 232 while Burkholder rolled 203 and Joe Toal 200 even.

The honour roll for the night was: Moss 773, Lambert 635, Armstrong 627, Toal 616.

The scores were:

H. Horrester	128 142 201 471
H. Lambert	181 218 236 635
J. Moss	305 238 230 773

R.C.A.F. Flyers Eliminate Majors in Straight Games

Polish Off Hamilton 8-3 Saturday Night to Qualify for Eastern Finals.

The Royal Canadian Air Force Flyers qualified for the Eastern Canada finals on Saturday night at Hamilton as they handed George Redding's Majors their third straight defeat in the best of five series. The final score was 8-3. The Flyers matched the Flyers all the way through the first two periods until disaster struck them in the last period as the Flyers rapped in four fast goals.

The next opponents of the Flyers will be the winner of the series between Glace Bay Minns and Quebec Aces, and then the winner of that series will qualify to meet the winners from Western Canada.

Flyers took the first game of the series from the Majors 3-1 and then repeated in the second game taking it 8-3. The series went to the Flyers by a score of 19-7.

The series proved one other point—the Air Force doesn't rely entirely on Schmidt and Dumart, the two members of the Kraut line still in action now that Bobby Bane is on the sidelines with a fractured collar bone. Between them the Krauts obtained only three goals of the 19 Flyers scored in the series.

Dumart got two Saturday to split scoring laurels with Snell, the Winnipeg boy who is replacing Bauer. The shifty Al Campbell-Pickles MacNichol-Buddy Hellyer line got singletons and Vic Haneberry got the other.

Polly Mochonovich, one of Hamilton's hardest-working representatives, scored their most brilliant goal on a solo rush. Defenceman Smack Allen beat Goalee Len Pinke of Flyers on a blue-line shot, while speedy Johnny Conick counted the other Hamilton goal from the right side.

Holy Name Team from Kirkland Ekes Out Narrow Five to Four Score in Kirkland Lake.

For the first time this season, the Holy Name Juveniles of Kirkland Lake were held scoreless for the last period and were almost handed their first defeat of the year when a scrappy little band of puck-chasers from Timmins, the Hollman Pluggers, invaded the Lake Shore Arena last Thursday night to mix for three periods with the

Mystery, Comedy, in New Film, "The Body Disappears"

New Type of Thriller That Will Delight All.

A mystery-comedy that mixes hilarity with horror in a breezy story that will hold one's interest right up to the last reels is "The Body Disappears" which will be at the Cartier theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 2, 3 and 4, with the second hit, "Texas" starring William Holden and Claire Trevor. The laugh thriller is a new type of mystery that doesn't depend on mysterious props (creaking doors, clutched hands, haunted houses, etc.) for its excitement and yet it is crammed with suspense.

Pert, pretty Jane Wyman and debonair—Jeffrey Lynn are featured in the starring roles while the grand supporting cast is made up of Edward Everett Horton, Vera Lewis, Herbert Anderson, Marguerite Chapman and Willie Best.

Peter DeHaven (Jeffrey Lynn's role) does a bit too much celebrating at a bachelor party given him the night before his wedding and passes out cold. His pals, not wanting to pass up an obvious opportunity for some more fun, place him in the dissecting room of a local college where he is found by an eccentric professor, played by Edward Everett Horton, who is conducting a serum into him. He is revived, according to plan. But he also fades away. That is, his flesh, and bones seem to fade away, leaving only his clothes visible. Lynn, the professor's daughter, played by Jane Wyman, sees Peter and is very much impressed. Peter falls head over heels in love with Lynn.

Things become more precarious for Peter and more hilarious for the audience when the professor is thought insane and is put in an asylum leaving Peter invisible and facing a wedding he no longer desires.

D. Ross Lederman directed.

Many Gifted Stars in "Diamond Frontier"

The producers have gone into practically an untouched field for the background of their drama. The action takes place in South Africa, at the time of the great diamond discoveries, with the mad rush to the diggings, the lawlessness that followed in the wake of the stampede, and the colourful characters who flocked to the new El Dorado.

Momentous Event
The picture opens with the discovery, in the hands of village child n, of an
