Lions Helping the Local Committee for Plebiscite

Lions Determined to Get Big "Yes" Vote on April 27th - Vote $100 to British Child War Victims.

The Timmins Lions Club took steps this week at their regular meeting in the Lions Hall on Mountjoy street, to assist the local committee to obtain a definite affirmative vote in the plebiscite that will be held on April 27th. The plan was introduced by Lions Harold Pirie and Ken Hulme and supported by all members. Lion Wendell Brewer was named as the Lions representative on the local committee.

Since the formation of the committee in Timmins a lot of work has been done and several meetings have been held with the local member of parliament, J. A. Bradette, addressing the last meeting. The object of the committee is to arouse interest in the plebiscite and to assure its passing by every person out to vote. All the members of the Lions were in favour of the idea and promised to do all they possibly could with their work.

Monday's meeting took the form of a business meeting and President Stan Fowler presided. The local club decided to vote another $100.00 to the Lions British Child War Victims Fund.

Several such donations have been sent from the local club in the past year. Another matter that was discussed was the straightening of a Timmins child's eyes. This is one of the most important works of the Lions club and they decided to finance the cost of an operation that will correct the child's eye.

Hot ashes placed against the rear wall of a vacant building at 18 Pine street south, on Monday resulted in a fire that could have been very dangerous had not the firemen answered the call promptly. The building was located in the business section and was owned by Harry Friedman. The fire could very easily have spread through a very important section of the town, if it had not been extinguished immediately.

The started to run up the wall and the smoke was very heavy and hampered operations by the firemen. Seven hundred feet of hose was used to battle the blaze that was quickly brought under control and extinguished. The loss was covered by insurance.

Two other fire calls were both "duds," the fires being out by the time the firemen arrived on the scene. One was on Friday when a call came from L. D.
