Annual Spring Tea and Sale Held by Women's Institute on Wednesday

Weather Co-operates With Gold Star Branch to Make Event One of the Most Successful in Recent Months. Several Hundred Guests Attend Tea.

Patriotic colours were used in decorating the Hollinger hall for the annual spring tea and sale held by the Women's Institute, Gold Star branch, on Wednesday afternoon. A continuous patronage by local women, throughout the afternoon, made the event one of the most successful held in recent months, the ideal spring weather coinciding with the excellent arrangements made by the members.

The newly-elected president, Mrs. G. O. Davison, the past-president, Mrs. P. G. Howard, and Mrs. A. Hardem received the many guests, while Mrs. J. McGarry acted as treasurer. In charge of the bake table which was filled to overflowing with the finest in baking, were Mrs. M. Veinotte and Mrs. A. Jack, while at the aron table, which bore treasures of fancy work and novelties, were Mrs. B. Kempers and Mrs. R. MacTaggart.

Individual tea tables were arranged throughout the hall, and centred with tall vases of red and white carnations. Serving were Mrs. J. Holson, Mrs. A. Cassidy, Mrs. A. McCharles, Mrs. N. Young, Mrs. G. Kirk, Mrs. Carl Briggs, Mrs. S. Anderson, Mrs. H. Turner, Mrs. J. Kinsey, Mrs. H. Macintosh, Mrs. T. Marriott, Mrs. W. Johnson, and Mrs. C. Surman.

In the kitchen from which came delicious sandwiches, cakes and cookies, and a truly good cup of tea for each guest, were Mrs. F. Henderson, convenor, Mrs. J. Griffin, Mrs. J. Dicker, Mrs. D. Ellis, Mrs. G. Hebb, Mrs. T. Venner, and Mrs. H. Read.

During the afternoon, the guests were entertained by Mrs. A. Quenby, at the piano and Mrs. J. Griffin and Mrs. F. Whitehead, vocal soloists. Mrs. C. Surman accompanied both vocalists. Mrs. Griffin singing "Wish Me Luck," and "The White Cliffs of Dover," while Mrs. Whitehead sang "Just A Weary-ry For You," and "In the Garden of Your Heart." Other piano selections were given by Miss M. Thorburn, and a special feature were the whistling numbers by Mrs. R. MacTaggart.

At one end of the hall was displayed the beautiful dresden quilt, which had been made by Mrs. J. Dicker and Mrs. F. Henderson, and was won by Mrs. R. Allison, 42 Main avenue. Master David Fowler of 162 Elm street north, made the draw.

The members of the Institute wish to thank the Sons of England, who gave them the use of the flags and bunting which adorned the hall.

Mr. Henry Kelleck underwent an operation in St. Mary's Hospital on Tuesday morning.

Timmins Police Buy Bicycle to Deliver Summonses

New Red and White Vehicle Will Be Seen Around Town with Various Officers Riding.

Hearing a rumour that Hitler was putting his German Army on bicycles the Timmins Police Commission decided at their meeting on Tuesday night to do the same thing with members of the Timmins Police Department. A dual purpose is dealt with in the purchase of a bicycle: the department will save on tires and gasoline.

It was with this thought in mind the Commission authorized the purchase of a bicycle for the Police Department to be used for the delivery of summonses. First summons delivered yesterday afternoon.

Commenting on the new idea, Chief of Police Leo H. Gagnon, said that it gave him a splendid opportunity to make use of his "Hussars." Repair of the vehicle will be the responsibility of Sergeant Bill Thompson who is in charge of the repair of all mechanical transport of the department.

The Commission also authorized the purchase of fourteen new uniforms for the Police Department at their meeting besides passing the usual monthly accounts.

Funeral of the Late Robt. M. Wynne

Many at Funeral Services Held for Popular Pioneer Businessman.

The Rev. W. M. Mustard of First United Church, Timmins, conducted funeral services on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock for the late Mr. Robt. M. Wynne, who passed away on Thursday morning at the Private Patients' Pavilion of the Toronto General Hospital. The services were held in Walker's Funeral Home, where a large number of sorrowing friends gathered to pay tribute to a fine gentleman, and a true friend.

Quiet and unassuming, the late Mr. Wynne was among the most popular of local businessmen. His good nature and his ready help made him a friend of all who knew him, and there are many in this district who remember acts of kindness that he did for them.

Fallbearers were old friends of the late Mr. Wynne, Messrs R. Richardson, Alf Prout, Tom Vansickle, Tom Benbow, Lu Marshall, and Ian Gordon. No flowers was the request made by the family.

Born in County Armagh, Northern Ireland, the late Mr. Wynne was in fifty-sixth year. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wynne, he came to Canada over thirty years ago, and during the years that he made his home in this new land, he made several trips to his home and parents in Ireland. He was educated at Gibson's Academy, City of Armagh, later attending the Coleraine Academy, and then being assistant manager in the linen factory operated by his family. This type of work, however, was not for Mr. Wynne, who wanted to explore the new fields in Canada. He joined his uncle at Chicoutimi, and became connected with a lumber business in that town. With this firm he travelled to Jack-soboro and later to the mining town, of Timmins, which was in its infancy at that time.

In Timmins, Mr. Wynne took up definite residence, and was connected with several businesses. His first undertaking was the Star Transfer, later the City Service Garage, and finally, in contracting work for the Hollinger. Taken ill several months ago, he spent much of his time at his home, 58 Balsam street north, but, about two weeks before his death, he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, and from there to the Toronto Hospital. Although they knew of his illness, the death was a great shock to numerous friends throughout the North Country.

Left to mourn his loss are his widow, one daughter, Miss Marjorie Nelson, of Timmins; his mother, two sisters, and an aunt, at Armagh, Ireland; and one sister, Mrs. J. Cunningham, of Petrolia, Ont.

Funeral on Tuesday of the Late Jalmar Arthur Peterson

The funeral service for Jalmar Arthur Peterson, who passed away peacefully at his home, 144 Commercial Ave., Timmins, Monday at 3.30 a.m., was conducted by the Rev. A. I. Heinonen at Walker's Funeral Chapel Tuesday at 4 p.m. The Chapel was filled to overflowing as relatives, fellow-members of the Finnish United Church and friends from Timmins, Schumacher, South Porcupine, Porcupine, Cochrane, Kapuskasing, Kirkland Lake and other communities in the district gathered to pay their respects to a most widely known, respected and loved Finnish Canadian of Finnish origin.

The late Mr. Peterson was during several years treasurer and member of the Board of Stewards and the Official Board of the Finnish congregation and was almost every year elected to represent the pastoral charge at Cochrane Presbytery meetings and meetings of the Toronto Conference of the United Church of Canada. He understood well the many difficulties that immigrants of Finnish origin have in Canada. Although himself born in Canada, he sympathized deeply with the immigrants and did all in his power to help the Finns to understand and to appreciate the Christian life and ideals and best traditions of the people of their adopted country. His noble Christian character won for him a great number of friends among Canadians of all racial origins.

After the service in the chapel, the body was taken on the Northland to Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., for interment in the family plot.

Mr. Peterson died of heart failure. He was born at Port Arthur, Ont., Jan. 30th, 1894. He moved with his parents to Sault Ste. Marie, an infant, Sept. 18th, 1919, he married Anna Greta Vastila at Sault Ste. Marie. From the Sault they moved to Monteth in the year 1924 and to Timmins in 1935. Mr. Peterson has been employed as a clerk at the office of A. E. Wicks Limited sawmill in Timmins.

To mourn his loss he leaves his wife and one son, Ruben, in Timmins; three brothers, Alexander, Emil and Edward at Sault Ste. Marie, and one sister, Mathilda (Mrs. Mitchell), at Windsor, Ont. Many floral offerings were received from friends all over Northern Ontario. The pallbearers were: A. E. Humphries, Joseph Aho, Nillo Vastila, Veikko Ryhanen, Leivo Punkari and L. Hongisto.

Funeral Service at Walker's for Late Isadore Schwartz

Interment Made in Montreal Where Deceased Formerly Resided.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at Walker's Funeral Home for the late Mr. Isadore Schwartz, who passed away in St. Mary's hospital on Tuesday morning, April 24th. Taken ill only a few days before his death, the sudden passing of the popular member of the Hebrew population of the town, was a great shock to his many friends of all nationalities. The remains were sent to Montreal on the 2 o'clock train Sunday, interment taking place in that city.

The late Mr. Schwartz, who made his home at 58 Balsam street north, was born in Germany, and lived for several years in Montreal before coming to Timmins eight years ago. He was sixty-five years old. In Timmins, Mr. Schwartz established the firm known as Northern Jewellers, which was made popular by his kindness and good work.

A member of the Jonic Lodge, No. 54, Schwartz leaves to mourn his loss his A. F. & A. M., of Montreal, the late Mr. wife, and one son, Ralph, a driver in the Canadian Army overseas. Also surviving is a brother, who resides in Montreal.

St. Mary's Journal-Argus—"So you've been cured of your insomnia? It must be an immense relief." "Relief? Why, I lie awake half the night thinking how I used to suffer from it."

Sons of England Banquet Told Spirit of St. George Will Bring the Victory

some humorous allusions, referred to the fact that the Bomb Victims Fund, now one of the most popular war funds in Canada, had been started by the Sons of England as part of their war effort. He concluded with the tribute of Mrs. Patriarche to the bomb victims—"The Little People of England"—"No roll of honour is huge enough to set forth their names... Each dawn shall tell how they arose in humble cheerfulness to light their tiny corner of the earth with a candle of faith; each sunset shall be a flaming beacon to remind all men of their burning steadfastness."

"The Land of Our Birth" was proposed by Bro. W. E. Jenkins, Treasurer of the local S.O.E., the response being given by the whole gathering rising and singing with heartfelt enthusiasm, "There'll Always be an England."

Mayor Emile Brunette in answer to the call for a few words, spoke of the significance of the St. George observance to the present world struggle. He told of hearing Mayor LaGuardia at a St. George banquet at Ottawa last year telling of St. George slaying the dragon in olden times and pointing out that the spirit of St. George will slay the modern dragon personified in Hitler and his fellow gangsters. The mayor concluded with the wish that all turn out on Monday to give the government the support asked for unrestricted conduct of Canada's war effort by a large affirmative vote on the plebiscite.

The address of the evening was by Mr. S. J. Morgan who took as his theme, "The Spirit of England," as outlined in the great poem by Helen Gray Cone. Mr. Morgan gave this poem in full, the spirit of the poem being summarized in the lines:—

Glorious thought and glory of deed,
Glorious of Hampden and Rummynede,
Glorious of ships that sought far goals
Glorious of words and glory of souls.

The spirit of St. George was the spirit of England, said Mr. Morgan, and in eloquent words he traced the story of the battle for freedom, for righteousness, for advancement, for high ideals, as exemplified in the life of St. George and repeated in English history from century to century. The spirit of St. George prevailed at Runnymede in 1215, he said, and again in the days of Queen Elizabeth, Drake, Nelson, in the war of 1914 to 1918, and he believed it would win once more in the present conflict with the modern dragon. "We need the spirit of St. George," the speaker said, "the spirit of faith, of courage, of duty, of sacrifice." He added that St. George, Drake, Nelson, and all the other heroes of the past were watching to-day for the signs from the people of to-day that the spirit of St. George lived still in full strength in English hearts. Against this spirit no powers of evil could prevail. Mr. Morgan urged all to do their full part in the present battle with the dragons of darkness, so that a better world for all may issue from the shambles of the present. In closing his able address he urged all to vote "Yes" on the plebiscite as a patriotic duty. He called for a show of hands of those in favour of a "yes" vote. Every hand went up. "But that is not enough," he said, "all must back their thought with their vote."

After the banquet Bro. A. Atkinson, P.P., was chairman at an excellent programme presented. This programme included splendid war work pictures shown by Geo. Jensen, vocal solos by Miss Peggy Wetmore and Miss Bernice McGrath, instrumental numbers, and dance numbers by Miss Dora Anderson and Master J. Thomson. Every item on the programme was specially appreciated for excellence and interest. Dancing concluded a delightful evening. Mrs. C. Wilkins being the pianist for the evening.
