Major W. Nicholson Porcupine Pioneer Passes at Dugwal

South Porcupine, May 29.—(Special to The Advance)—The Porcupine Camp was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Major Wallace Bruce Nicholson, aged 54, who died of a heart seizure on Saturday at his farm at Dugwal (formerly called Drinkwater Pit) near Connaught.

Last Thursday "Wally," as he was generally known, was in town talking and visiting with old friends apparently in his usual good health. On Saturday at 1 p.m., his housekeeper, Miss Mary Menard, was attracted by the barking of his dog who sensed that something was wrong with his master. She went outside in time to see Mr. Nicholson fall in the field. When she reached him he was dead.

The deceased was a well-known figure locally. During the last war he was instrumental (as a Captain) in bringing the 159th Northern Ontario Regiment up to strength for overseas service. He went over with them and fought in France—after the Armistice going to Siberia with the army of occupation. He was promoted to the rank of Major and settled on his land-grant from the Government, after a time of prospecting and mine work. He became a popular figure in the little settlement near Connaught and when the name of Drinkwater Pit was changed it was renamed "Dugwal," in honour of "Doug" (his blind brother) in Winnipeg and "Wal" (himself). He agitated for a school at this place and saw this materialize eight years ago. The school at "Dugwal" is on the old highway and Wally was one of the first board members.

Born in Ottawa he became a Porcupine pioneer in 1911, when he came north during the early prospecting. He was a member of the Porcupine Prospectors' Association and secretary for this body at one time.

He is survived by three brothers—William, of Montreal, Douglas, of Winnipeg, and Alec, of St. Paul, Minnesota; and two sisters, Mrs. John McLeod, of Wilmington, Delaware, and Mrs. McLaren, of Winnipeg. All with the exception of Alec are at South Porcupine for the funeral. A nephew, John Meed, is also here. William was a Northern Ontario hockey (professional) player well known in Cobalt in the early days.

The funeral is being held this afternoon (Wednesday) from St. Paul's Anglican Church, South Porcupine, with Archdeacon Woodall officiating. The funeral was very largely attended, a large number from Timmins being present.

Pallbearers (all old friends) are:—Messrs M. O'Rourke (Timmins Mining Recorder); H. C. Scarth (manager Imperial Bank, Timmins); P. C. Evans, J. R. Loneragan, J. J. Gallagher (South Porcupine), and Alex Stirling (Timmins).

Masonic rites will be performed at the graveside and a Veteran Guard of Honour will be present.

Among the beautiful floral tributes were flowers from the following:

The Family; Timmins Branch Canadian Legion; Bruce McColeman; Golden Beaver Lodge A. F. & A. M., Timmins; W. H. Bromley; Harry Scarth; Old-timers' Wreath—J. J. Gallagher; Dr. Wm. McLaren; E. C. Stevenson; Frank C. Evans; Chas. McInnis; E. D. McDonald; A. Ewing and John McLaren.

Dinner Meet Brings Club Activities to Close for Season

The Fern Cottage dining room was the setting on Monday evening for the annual dinner of the Fireside Club, which forms part of the final meeting for the season. About thirty-five members were present at the dinner, later making their way to the Timmins United Church where an interesting programme composed the latter part of the evening's entertainment.

The programme was given by children who had taken part in the recent Music Festival, among the performers being honour students in the Festival classes. "O Canada" opened the programme, which included instrumental and vocal selections.

Donald Weir, in the six years and under class, gave the pretty solo, "My Comical Puppy," while Betty Rose, who was in the nine years and under group, played the piano solo, "Hornpipe." Victor Roberts' "The Waterfall," was excellent for a boy from the ten years and under class, and May Huckerby delighted the gathering with "If I Were a Rose," from the ten years and under class.

Jack Taylor (twelve years and under) sang "Mother's Day Song" and "Robin Lend Me Thy Bow," while Pamela Rose and Joan Jeffries joined talents in the song "The Sea Shell." "Allegro In F Minor" was the piano solo by Ruth Mustard (fourteen years and under).

Mayzell Menear charmed the group with "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" from the fourteen years and under class; Barbara Barry and Barbara Honey cleverly played "Malaguena," and Beulah Wood gave the beautiful soprano solo, "Caro Mio Bien."

Mrs. Wendell Brewer moved a vote of thanks to the performers for their very splendid entertainment, and the meeting closed with Taps. Regret was expressed at the fact that one of the little performers, Patricia Beattie, was unable to be present due to illness.

Red Cross Drive in Municipal Building Raises Total of $901.00

Backing the Red Cross drive to the very limit and giving till it hurts, the members of the Timmins Municipal Building staff have exceeded their total of last year by 23%. This announcement was made yesterday afternoon at the regular council meeting by Clerk-Treasurer Art Shaw. The council was well-pleased with the result and congratulated the staff for their fine contribution.

The total amount raised for the Red Cross by the members of the Municipal Staff was $901.00. This works out to an average of seven dollars per person and it is estimated that the average per capita for the Town of Timmins to reach the objective is a little more than a dollar and a half.

Scouts at S. Porcupine Show Honour to H. Pyke

South Porcupine, May 20th. Special to The Advance.

Harry Pyke who leaves early next month for the R.C.A.P. was presented with a parting gift of a pen and pencil set from his brother Scouts at their last meeting.

The Scouts held a meeting on Thursday in the Scout Hall. The programme was rather novel as it was a "Backward" night. The meeting opened with lowering of the flag and campfire and closed with flag-raising.

One game of the evening was a "Salvage Hunt." Each patrol was given salvageable articles to collect. Half an hour was given for collecting. The "Wolves" won. At the close of the meeting the Scoutmaster—George Kaufman—expressed his pleasure at the way the boys were passing their tests, especially the newer Scouts, and he urged the others to greater effort.
