

Dropped Between Stitches

By Ann

The wee dancing stars of Margaret Easton charmed the audiences, last Thursday and Friday, at the Goldfields theatre. . . . Congratulations must be paid to Margaret for the skill and labor used in teaching these pupils what they know, and compliments must also be added to the girls for the way they performed. . . . Everyone was extremely thrilled by the dancing of the little girls and are looking forward to seeing them perform again. . . . The mothers also deserve credit for their help in making the event a success.

A successful bake sale was held by the Catholic Women's League last Thursday afternoon, at the Style Shop Furriers. . . . Both baked beans and home baking was sold and everything was cleared before the afternoon was over. . . . Proceeds will be used for charity work.

Here is a note of reminder of the Algonquin dance at the McIntyre Gymn on June 12th. . . . This dance is being held under the auspices of the N. C. O's and should prove to be a gay one. . . . Tickets may be obtained from Moseley and Ball Timmins, Larry Wilson's in Schumacher, or from any member of the local company or the C. W. S. F. . . . the date again, Friday, June 12th, at the McIntyre Gymn.

Miss Mary Elston, daughter of Mrs. Elston and the late Ralph Elston is wearing a lovely diamond, placed there by Michael Yasinechuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yasinechuk, of Thorold Ontario. . . . The wedding will take place some time in June.

Miss Jean Caron, bride-to-be, received a beautiful pair of brown and fawn tweed McBrian traveling bags from the staff of Kresge's on Saturday night. . . . Miss Caron will become the bride of Constable Joe Handley on June 15. . . . Another member of the staff of Kresge's to receive a gift was Louisa Lafontaine. . . . Louisa was presented with a lovely gold and black compact from her friends at the store. . . . She left on Monday take up residence in Hamilton where she will be employed at a Government factory.

June 10 is the date of the tea and fashion show sponsored by the Arbustus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. . . . During the afternoon models will display lovely summer frocks from the A. J. Shragge store. . . . This will be about the only summer fashion show ever held in Timmins. . . . As a door prize, a beautiful silver tray is being given away. . . . It is now being shown in A. J. Shragge's window and the lady who wins it will be a very lucky lady, indeed.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Fred Jackson, Worthy Matron, will preside. . . . Mrs. Malcolm MacMillan will be commentator and the following ladies will be models: Mrs. G. A. Henderson, Mrs. H. Shantz, Mrs. Jack Dalton, Jr., Mrs. O. R. Kennie, Misses Vivian Pierce, Nancy Bennet, Bette MacMillan, Margaret Smith, Janet Fisher, Ann Groen, and Janet Wallace.

Plans were made on Monday night at the general meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, for Wednesday afternoon tea to be held instead of the regular Thursday night knitting bees. . . . Mrs. Harvey is being hostess to her friends at a strawberry tea on Wednesday afternoon, June 10th, and all members are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Nicholson or Mrs. McGarry so that

Mrs. Harvey will have an idea of how many to cater to. . . . Mrs. Precious brought in a beautiful quilt, which she had made, to the meeting and will send it to the Provincial Command Bomb Victims fund.

A pleasant evening was spent by the Mattagami Ladies' Club at their regular weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Guindon. . . . knitting took up most of the evening and later Private E. Guindon drew the winning ticket for the weekly raffle. . . . this was won by Mrs. E. Ellis. . . . Congratulations.

"No nation can prosper until it learns that there is as much dignity in tilling soil as in writing a poem". . . . This little piece was submitted by Mrs. Wheeler, a member of the I. O. D. E. and it was taken out of the I. O. D. E. magazine, "The Echo". . . . There is a great deal of knowledge in this little verse, and it seems very appropriate for times like these.

The members of the I. O. D. E. met on Tuesday evening, at the Town Hall. . . . various committees submitted their reports and Mrs. Wheeler of the Guide committee, announced that the 106th Company of the Guides will be holding a tea at St. Mathew's Church hall on Saturday afternoon, June 6th. . . . Everybody is welcome. . . . This should prove to be a very delightful affair, and everyone who enjoys teas will want to keep this date in mind. . . . Mrs. Wheeler then mentioned that Miss Kaye Starling of the 51st Company was leaving to join the women's branch of the R. C. A. F. . . . Everyone wished her luck and commented on her good work among the Guides. . . . The meeting closed with the members reciting the I. O. D. E. motto.

Following the meeting of the I. O. D. E. on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Wheeler made a request to any lady in town who would like to volunteer to make leather jackets for mine sweepers to give her name to either Mrs. Wheeler or Mrs. Booker. . . . At present Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Booker are the only ladies making these jackets, and apparently they are quite serviceable and will stand plenty of wear and tear. . . . So, ladies, here is your chance to do your bit for the country, by making leather jackets for the mine sweepers.

A box of needles was packed by three members of the I. O. D. E. on Wednesday afternoon and sent to the Corvette, "Timmins". . . . It included boxing gloves, a softball set, monopoly game, hockey game, an electric toaster and iron, cribbage boards, checker sets, a dart game, playing cards, and several good books. . . . All there were donated by the I. O. D. E. and friends and if anyone is interested in sending a box, more battery radios, toasters and irons are needed.

Keene. The value of this parcel was fifty dollars, and twenty-five dollars worth of goods were donated by the I. O. D. E. Other articles were donated by friends.

The box included the following items: one set of boxing gloves, one softball set, one monopoly game, one electric toaster, two electric irons, two cribbage boards, two sets of checkers, two domino sets, one dart game, several packs of playing cards, and quite a number of good books. Those who are interested in making up parcels for the ship, must remember that the boys need more battery radios, electric toasters, and electric irons.

Warn Shoppers Against Illegal Buying Practices

Warning was levelled at shoppers who violate rationing regulations by purchasing the same rationed articles at many stores at the same time in order to bring their purchases far in excess of rationed proportions allowed. The warning was issued in the Northern Ontario region through the North Bay regional office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, to shoppers, who, according to reports continually reaching the Board, are deliberately going from store to store stocking up in such rationed items as sugar, tea, and coffee.

L. O. D. E. Meet at Town Hall on Tuesday Evening

Reports from Various Committees Given. Box of Clothing Packed for the Bomb Victims.

The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire met on Tuesday evening at the Town Hall. The meeting was opened by Regent Mrs. James Keene, with the usual prayer, and the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. Mackie. A roll-call was then taken of all officers and members, showing a very satisfactory number in attendance.

The business of the meeting was then started with the various committees giving in their reports. The treasurer's report was adopted and read by the treasurer, Mrs. R. S. Anderson.

Then Mrs. A. Booker the convener told the members that she had that day packed a box for the Bomb Victims in Britain. It included a quilt, children's sleepers, pajamas and baby's dresses. A large consignment of knitted goods was also graciously donated for this box, by the Dime Club, and the Nurses Alumnae of St. Mary's Hospital, also added a large assortment of baby's clothing.

The report was submitted by the educational secretary, Mrs. Geo. Hale, who told the members of her work at various outlying schools, and added that the bursary would be given by the I. O. D. E. She asked for donations to be given to the Lucy Morrison Memorial Scholarship.

Mrs. Pozzetti, secretary of the welfare committee, and also the "Echo" secretary, then gave in their reports. Mrs. Wheeler of the Guide committee, gave in her report of the work of the Guides. She reported that the 106th Company under the leadership of Captain Bailey, are holding a tea in St. Mathew's Church hall on Saturday June 6th. Everybody is invited to come. She also added that the 51st Company would be leasing one of their oldest members, Miss Kaye Starling. Miss Starling is leaving very soon to join the women's branch of the R. C. A. F. She has been a member of the Guides for the last ten years, and the girls in the 51st Company and the I. O. D. E. will miss her very much. If Miss Starling's work in the Air-Force is as good as her work among the Guides, she will be very successful.

The report for the hospital committee was not read owing to the absence of the convener, Mrs. Warnock. Regent Mrs. James Keene, then thanked all the members and their friends for their untiring efforts on the tag day for the blind, which was very successful. Various matters were talked about, of which later reports will be given.

The meeting closed with the members reciting the I. O. D. E. motto, "Our deeds shall know their worth." On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Booker and her committee packed boxes to be sent to the Corvette, "Timmins". These boxes include electric irons, toasters, boxing gloves and very good books. Mrs. Gains also added a softball outfit for the members of the ship to use when they have a shore leave.

One of the most popular numbers on the programme on Sunday evening of last week, sponsored by the Porcupine Male Choir for the Bomb Victims' Fund was the Russian dance by Mr. and Mrs. M. Kwinka. It had colour and action and was presented with a talent and enthusiasm that made it a big hit. In the report in last week's paper "The Advance" gave the names of these clever dancers as Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kwinka. The credit for this much-appreciated dance number should have been given to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kwinka.

Further Attractions for the Legion's "V" Carnival, June 22-27

This week the Legion "V" Carnival committee received a very generous offer. This came from a group of very talented musicians, most of whom are members of the McIntyre Concert Band. Realizing that no stage show would be complete without a first-class aggregation of musicians and that the high-rated artists appearing would want the best, they banded together and through Mr. Ollie Brandes, asked for more information in regard to the Legion war effort. They were shown the figures relative to the number of cigarettes sent overseas, the cost of this splendid work; the large amount of assistance given locally to those who are in need among dependants, discharged soldiers of the present army, and the old "vets." The group became interested and on Monday of this week offered their services for the entire week, June 22nd to 27th, at no cost to the Legion. The orchestra will consist of about twelve members and should be classed as another attraction for the great programme planned.

Another offer also given freely is that of the Dalton-Dwyer Bus Lines. These prominent transportation directors have arranged for special rates on their buses from Timmins to Schumacher and return. The tickets will also give admission to the Arena. By his very generous fare, all the family will be able to travel in comfort to the arena and return after they have enjoyed the programme. Owners of cars can leave them at home and still ride to the Legion "V" Carnival, actually saving money. No gas coupon; no wear and tear on tires or engine. With both the above gestures of fullest co-operation the Legion "V" Carnival is an assured success and the thanks of the committee are extended to Ollie Brandes and his orchestra and also to those two popular citizens Messrs J. Dalton and Fred Dwyer.
