

PUBLISHED BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

COPYRIGHT

more than perhaps greater qualities.

DR. MARY BARNWELL was not merely | "It's just as you like, my friend. If men I had known in the Quartiera good doctor, but a charming wo- you wish, please tell me. man.. . She was in love with Brere-

CHAPTER XI

HE TELLS OF THE HONEYMOON joined Brereton for bathing and in the afternoon, he took her to Dinan.

In the days that followed, the doctor taken the villa in Brittany.

one of the islands to which, in a small where it happened." motor-boat he kept at the fishing port, they would sometimes go.

things, come to an end, and on the was her name?" morning of her last day he asked her where she would like to go.

"The Island of the Tower." she said. It was, as last days so often are, perfect, and from the clear space in front of the Tower they looked over a sea of on the shingle below them said Mary, "I'm rather glad to get back strutable reason as Les Cubans. Her any man-certainly not as she loved and into harness again-but this time partner a dubious American. I'm not. But in any case, it's quite your breath all the time.'

myself to get into such an idiotic state. That first night I was crazy about her. strangers, and that if we lived together out If I hadn't been happy with you I One of my American friends knew his all our lives we should still be stranshould have fallen back politely but way about there and an introduction gers at the end of it. firmly on my work."

"I know that. But I'm glad you it was difficult; it wasnt.

Yvette has seen fit to pack for us." many ways."

ever heard you say, Paul.'

"Then you're not interested in the ways in which you are so exceptional?' he smiled.

"Of course, I am silly!" "Then I will tell you. You have -my honeymoon." "And that was exceptional?" "Surely."

cunning-merely that I was wildly

Men, Women Over 40 Feel Weak, Worn, Old

Want Normal Pep, Vim, Vitalit

PAUL BRERETON, a famous wealthy curious and thought-knowing you- increasing and unreasonable hatred. artist. At 43, as far as a man may, he that the only way to get you to talk | 'I begged her to marry me. My understands woman. Certainly far was-not to appear in the least cur- friends made no attempt to disguise

VONS, who is very much in love. smiled. "And there's no reason why I butterfly in captivity. SONIA, who may not have been much shouldn't tell you. It's an old story of an actress but had other and now, but there must be dozens of peo- Church. Imagine the scene. The ple who knew all about it."

"I think I should like to tell you. terly sophisticated, utterly cynical. ton, and the woman in the picture There was a time when it hurt intolerwhich Paul Brereton painted in ably, and I could not have borne to tell I, and for a day or so stayed in Dinard. it, but to-day I can think of her al- | She liked Dinard, but to me, it was . . . most impersonally. I don't even hate well, Dinard, and I took L'Hermitage her any more. Once she came to this furnished complete with Madame Ber- she is bound to have made her own very island with me, and after lunch ger. And there we spent our honey-The following morning Dr. Mary we sat just where we are sitting now." moon. "This place must be painful for you,"

saw Brittany under the guidance of that day-wearing a white linen frock all. She was cold as ice. And one day one who knew and loved it. She made and her hair blown in the wind. She in Dinard—we went into the Casino sion is made for her. It's a long time dustry. He was one of the original fox no further mention of Quimper, nor had been sitting with head averted from there several times a week for the danc- since I told anyone the story—indeed, ranchers in this part of the country. in his turn, refer again to me, looking out over the sea, appar- ing—she ran into some people she knew I don't think I have ever actually told He was a member of the Madawaska that honeymoon for which he had ently lost in thought. Suddenly she who were members of a concert party the whole story before—but as I tell it turned to me and said: 'Take me back! there. I did my best. I asked the to you I see how fantastic and incred-Towards the end of her stay, it was __take me away! I can't stand this whole party out to L'Hermitage on the lible it seems. Yet at the time I acted MacLean, of Kingston, and four income tax blank. tactitly assumed that they would meet loneliness any longer!' It was like a Sunday, but when they had gone on in the only way that seemed possible. on the beach in the morning, and when blow in the face. I'd no idea that she the Monday morning, she seemed to the most incredible part of it, to me, i their bathe was over he would suggest felt like that about things. It marked wilt. She had no interest whatever in that I can come out here and tell it to something for the afternoon—a walk, a the beginning of the end. Odd that I my painting. It was 'nice' or 'clever' ride, an afternoon on the beach or on should be telling you about it just and more she hated the in- feeling than if it had happened to

"It gives me rather a creepy feeling. to her, I think." on. Tell me where you met her-what All things, particularly pleasant I don't think I like it. But please go was the most beautiful girl I have ever

"Brown eyes with red specks in stand the lonliness any longer. them?" she asked quietly.

lapis lazuli. The world was full of the One night I had been to the Casino plaintive cries of gulls wheeling over- de Paris with some American painters head and the gentle surge of the sea It's a kind of music-hall appealing to "Usually, at the end of a holiday," in a 'Dancing Act' known for some in- loved me. I don't think she ever loved

"She was, I think, the loveliest creatime you settled down to your work. ture I've ever seen," he went on sim-I'm agraid you are cursing me under ply. "You've seen her portraits. I always feel that I could never quite cap-"I'm far too selfish to have allowed ture her beauty. But that came later. deardful fact that she and I were "With one woman only," she pointed was arranged. I'm not suggesting that didn't Are we going to eat-or aren't 'Her partner faded out-he never I practically finished the picture which was anything but her partner-and she you have seen at Cheriton. I had been "We are. We will now see what dined with me at the Tour d'Argent- working for a long time in silence-As he laid out the contents of the She hadn't a great deal to say but I suddenly stood up and stretched herbasket, he remarked: "You are, if I found that she was English. She came self. I can see her now. And then she may say so, an exceptional woman in from-of all unlikely places-Peckham said, quietly: I shan't stay here, Paul.' It was a bit of a facer to find that the "That's .e first priggish thing I've loveliest and most exotic creature in said, hardly any feeling. She had the world was the daughter of a green- merely stated a fact. And I knew that grocer in Peckham Rye; she had a it was no use my attempting to intronatural gift for dancing, I suppose and duce any emotional factor into the certainly a figure and face that were situation. very nearly perfect. The odd thing about her was that she had never had never shown the least curiosity about a dancing lesson in her life. Dancing in New York, now. And he's going on only when she was dancing. "You don't think it was just natural gent I fell in love with her. I had dancing partner but in the same se- principal for the past two years of the child in the death at St. Mary's Hosknown many other women-some of them guite as beautiful in their way but I had never before lost my balance, ny sense of perspective..

"She was not very intelligent and here." often spoke with an appalling cockney accent. She was, I suppose, the love- gested. liest guttersnipe that ever happened. I painted her, but she was a very restive, troublesome model. And I hated to think of her dancing on the stage their belief that I was mad. I suppose "A most intelligent woman!" he'I was: it is idle to attempt to keep a > building was filled with men and woartists, models . . . what you will.. Ut-

"That night we left Paris, she and 'I painted her . . . I could have gone on painting her for ever but all the to you, she would have a legal claim on "No. But I can see her as she was time she was aloof—not really there at action of sitting. Movement was life friend of mine and not to me at all."

"I can understand," Dr. Barnwell gine that many women have been in said quietly. "A day or so after the concert party's

She was sitting there by my side when I suppose there's a rough kind of jusshe suddenly burst out that she couldn't tice in it." "I knew then, in that most disquiet-

"That was she.. I met her in Paris, ing moment, that I had failed com-"You had failed?" the doctor asked. pletely with her." "Yes. The failure was mine-not dancing."

"She certainly wasn't your type," the doctor commented.

THE BREAK

"I realized that afternoon the rather

'That evening, without my asking her, she sat for me on the Terrace and an admirable restaurant then and now, there was nothing to say-when she

"There was no passion in what she

' What do you want to do?' I asked "'I shall go back to Les Cubans. He's came naturally to her. She was happy to Hollywood. I shall find him there." "However, that night at Tour d'Ar- might have been in love with her and Vocational School. S. E. Henry, family and to the husband and little cond I knew that it was not so. "'I'm sorry,' I said . . . lamely enough. I can't help it. I shall go mad if I stay will be principal of the High School, ger, of Timmins, daughter of Mr. and there. I suppose you won't help me to been principal here and also during his age. Since her marriage she had lived get to America? Why should you?" | previous terms in the High School as | with her husband at the Ankerite Mine "But, of course, I did help her. I assistant to the principal, he made On account of serious illness she was at the Casino de Paris-hated it with booked her passage to New York. In- many friends who will wish him well brought to St. Mary's hospital where deed. I begged her to let me go with in his new location." ner but she was adamant. 'It's no use,' > saw her off on the boat at St. Malo carrying the town name. Although the report further said that office and livone evening. I'd given her five hun- Hollinger F. C. was in the league and ing quarters for the Dominion police dred pounds and begged her to write on the quay.. The boat was full of trippers who were returning to Southampton and England and she stood white-faced, by the rail, looking down "The tide was out, and (as St. Malo the boats have to go through a big lock at such times. When the boat moved from the quay I walked along to the lock for a last glimpse of her as the • boat went through. When at length it slowly edged itself into the lock she wasn't to be seen. She had gone below I never saw her again."

"Never?"

"But you heard from her?" "No. Not a word."

"Is she dead?"

"I don't know." "But this was eighteen years ago!

Did you try to find her?" dancing acts-including Les Cubans. river is a danger to the public. The automobile was stolen from in front of She had not rejoined her old partner bridge is not wide enough for two cars the home of Gordon Anderson, Pem-

"She is still your wife?" certain that she was appearing some against the side of the bridge by a car station some forty-two miles west of years after she left me at a cabaret passing another car, and the youngster Pembroke. Those in the car were said show in Buenos Ayres. But I heard of only escaped serious hurt by good for- to have obtained ten gallons of gas it months afterward and although I tune. Had the child been seriously without paying for it. Provincial Conattempted to pick up the trail there, crushed or fatally hurt, about the only stable Kenny, formerly of the Porcunothing came of it. It may not have satisfaction for the public would be to pine, was set on the trail and he startbeen she at all, but a man I know thought he recognized one of the pictures that I had made of her."

"She would be about forty now?" "Thirty-nine or so."

"Did you attempt to find her par-covered.. He found an aunt but she "They were dead, my agent dishad known nothing of her for years. "What an amazing story! You appear to have made no effort to prevent blooded light,"

Arnprior, Passes at Age of 76 Years

Fayden Dies Suddenly. "But did you appreciate that she had no intention of keeping in touch died in that town on Saturday, May Porcupine No. 453, Matheson No. 461, C. Evans. "I did consider it. But I felt that if 9th, at the advanced age of 76 years. Iroquois Falls No. 468. and Timmins she were in trouble she would let me He was the father of Mrs. R. A. Mac- No. 459. The Lodge opened at 11a.m. know, as I had asked her to do. She Fayden, of 185 Spruce street north, Bro. J. Finlay, N. G. in the chair. Bro. had the address of my lawyers both in Timmins, and was known to many George Drew P. G. in a brief address here. In referring to his death and extended a cordial welcome to the visfuneral. The Arnprior Chronicle of recent date had the following report: George MacLean Dies Suddenly very great success," the doctor com-The funeral of George William Mac-Lean of 164 Elgin street was held Tuesday afternoon from his residence unthe case. Had she been even a mod- der Masonic auspices to Arnprior erately second-rate success they would cemetery and was attended by a large have been no trouble in finding her. number of friends. The service was Application was made to every thea- conducted by Rev D. H. Woodhouse of Grace-St. Andrew's church and Rev. H.

Mr. MacLean died suddenly Saturday wartville, the son of George MacLean who came from the Ilse of Mull, Scotland, and Elizabeth Fox, who came from Kiledmond, Ireland.

He was married October 19, 1892, Arnprior to Miss Sarah Odbur Steele and came here to reside 38 years ago. He was a machine blacksmith by trade still your wife. If anything happened and was employed for a number of years with McLachlin Brothers Ltd. From 1917 until 1939, when he retired, "No. My will is drawn up and provi- he was engaged in the Silver Fox inlodge A.F. and A.M.

daughters, Mrs. R. A. MacFayden of Timmins; Mrs. J. E. Horner of Ottawa, Miss Mary MacLean of Ottawa, and ese maintain that the Allies are wag-Miss Jean MacLean of Montreal. He ing a war of hate. Whereas the Japs also leaves a sister, Mrs. M. D. Graham, of Arnprior and a cousin, John M. Bradley of Ottawa.

Osborne, Alex Reid, Dr. W. H. Steele, and Mrs. John Rodgers, Col. and Mrs. George Graham, John Hamilton and M. D. Graham, Major C. R. Graham Angus Bethune. The active pallbearers Miss A. Steele, Nursing Staff of Grace were J. S. Pritchard, Godfrey Burwash, Dart hospital, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs.

ray and H. N. Osborne. man pay his debt to her sex. In most tance included Mr. and Mrs. John M. kinghorne, Vic, Ina and Marion, Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Polkinhorne of Ot- M. D. Graham and family, Chris, Mrs. "From what I can gather not a few tawa, Mr. and Mrs. N. Lewis of Shaw- Schneider and Margaret, Miss Jessie English and American tastes. She was Sadie's. She never pretended that she of the women in Cheriton-for example ville, Fire Chief and Mrs. O'Kelly, of Mackey and Miss Catherine McNaugh-Ottawa and Mrs. Peter Carmichael and ton; cut flowers, Mrs. John Slater, P Miss Lillian Carmicheal, of Renfrew. Floral tributes were received as fol- Ottawa.

> Pillow, the family; wreaths, Madawaska lodge, A.F. & A.M., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Findlay, Mr and Mrs. Donald Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McAdam, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Osborne; sprays, Order of Eastern Star, Mr. and Mrs, John Watt: Mr. and Mrs. William and Mrs. A. Lappala. A large gather- Jury Finds That Death of George MacLean, of ing was present, not only from Timmins but also from Schumacher and South Porcupine, proving that during their stay here, Rev. and Mrs. Lappala have made a great many friends.

The ninth annual Lodge of Instruction of Cochrane District No. 59 I.O.O. Father of Mrs. R. A. Mac- F. was held in the Oddfellows hall, Timmins, on Tuesday May 24th, 1932, the following Lodges of the District be-Mr. George MacLean, of Arnprior, ing represented: - Cochrane No. 418, petition for the Morrison Shield which mine workers and Captain Stapely. was competed for annually by the Lodges of the District followed.

"You didn't advertise in the thea- P.. Maitland of the Presbyterian broke." "Mrs. J. P. Geddes, who un- later from internal haemorrhage, in derwent a serious operation at St. Porcupine General Hospital. Mary's hospital last week, is making G. Church, R. N., is relieving in the to be an experienced worker. hospital at Matheson for a month.' "Mrs. W. G. McLean, Sr., of Arnprior, Falica after the fall. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. A. McFayden." "Miss Burke, R. N., of St. Mary's hospital, visited friends in into the death of FrankFalica, find that Ottawa over the week-end." "Mr. and deceased died in the Porcupine Gener-Mrs. C. Lacy left on Monday for Ottawa to attend the graduation of their April 28th while working in 1703 slice

> Sudbury Star-The fellow who used to engrave the Lord's Prayer on the head of a pin was seen lately filling in "deductions" in the space alloted in the > Peterborough Examiner-The Japanjust want to love everybody to death.

The honorary pall bearers were E. D. bert, Ida Robertson, Mission Circle, Mr John Watt, George Clarke, George Mur- Leonard Dodd, "454 Gilmour Street Ottawa" Mr. and M. Miller; baskets, Friends who attended from a dis- Mr., and Mrs. J. M. Bradley, Mrs. Pol-Leitch, Soldiers' Settlement Board, a

F. Falica Was Accidental

South Porcupine, June 3rd Special to The Advance.

An inquiry into the death of Frank Falica, who died on May 7th following an accident at the Buffalo-Ankerite mine on April 28th, was held in the Township Building on Wednesday afternoon of last week under Corner F

Jurors under the foremanship of W G. Skinner were:-Ross Bywlay, Ivan Lang, Tom Noel and W. G. Butler.

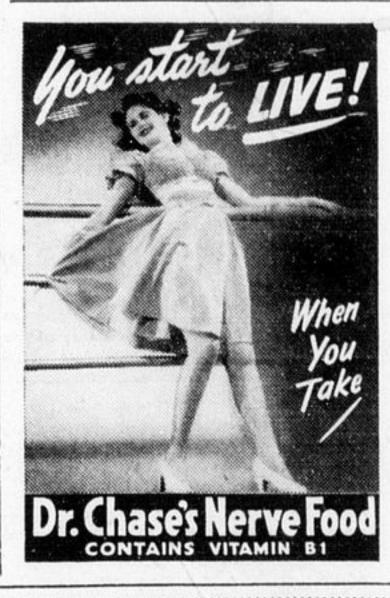

Crown Atorney S. Caldbick and Miniting brethen on behalf of the mem- es Inspector Weir were both present bers of the Timmins Lodge. The com- and evidence was given by doctors, Falica was working as a scaler with Eli Jarvi underground. They had er-Local items in The Advance ten years ected a platform to work upon when a ago included: "A. F. Kenning, M.P.P., large piece of rock fell upon the platwas called to Pembroke this week on form tearing it from its support and account of the serious illness of his sis- Falica fell some fifteen feet on to rock ter. Mr. Kenning left at an early hour below. His injuries were internal fol-

Falica had been working in several good progress toward recovery." "Miss places in the mine and was supposed

A. Sgro, gave evidence of assisting

The jury brought in the following verict:- "We, your jury set to inquire al Hospital at 12 p.m. on May 7th on daughter, Violet, at the Ottawa Civic and fill stope No. 2 section of Buffalo-Ankerite Mine in the Township of Deloro. Death was accidental."

Our long years of experience will assure you of correct information, fair rates and prompt claims attention. Do not take the risk of driving your car or truck without proper protection...

We also sell Fire, Sickness & Accident, Life Insurance and Real Estate

SULLIVAN & NEWTON

(Est. 1912) 21 PINE ST. NORTH

INSURANCE

TIMMINS

REAL ESTATE

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

O. E. Kristensen

CHIROPRACTOR RADIONICS ANALYSIS X-RAY — SHORTWAVE Consultation is Free Bank of Commerce Building PHONE 697

G. N. ROSS CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT 60 THIRD AVENUE

Phone 640 Timmins, Ont

Arch.Gillies, B.A.Sc., O.L.S.

Registered Architect Ontario Land Surveyor

Building Plans Estimates, Etc. 23 Fourth Ave.

Accounting Systems Installed Income Tax Returns File 1

Phones 270-228-286 P.O. Box 147

J. J. Turner & Sons, Ltd. We Manufacture and Carry in Stock

FLAGS HAVERSACKS DOG SLEIGHS DOG HARNESS TOBOGGANS TARPAULINS BLANKETS Ask Your Local Dealer for Prices or

PETERBOROUGH, ONT. Agents Everywhere

F. BAUMAN

Swiss Watchmaker Graduate of the Famous Horologkal Institute of Switzerland Phone 1365

Empire Block

Barristers, Solicitors, Etc. MASSEY BLOCK

TIMMINS, ONT. and South Porcupine

Barrister, Solicitor, Etc. Bank of Commerce Building Timmins, Ont.

SOLICITOR

13 Third Ave. Timmins

BARRISTERS and SOLICITORS 21/2 Third Avenue JAMES R. MacBRIEN FRANK H. BAILEY, L.L.B.

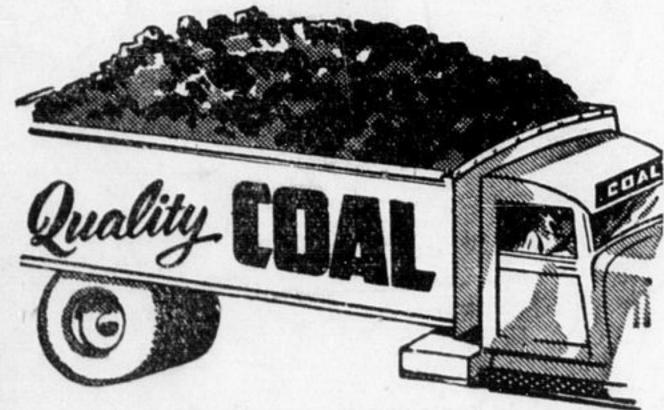

J. E. LACOURCIERE LAWYER, AVOCAT

NOTARY PUBLIC Hamilton Block, 30 Third Ave. Telephone 1545 Res. 51 Mountjoy St. S. Phone 1548

SPECIALIST Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat -14 - 26

Toronto Telegram—There would be no trouble getting out a huge vote if electors could answer the query, "What do you think of the plebiscite?"

Order Your Coal NOW from Fogg's

WESTERN CANADA COAL Alexo, Canmore Briquettes, Glocoal Michel, Western Canada and Glocoal Stoker Coals

Pennsylvania Anthracite — Purity Egg Steam Coal Pocohantas, Marne and Hempkill Stoker By Product Coke

John W. Fogg, Limited Lumber, Cement, Building Material, Coal and Coke, Mine and Mill Supplies

READ OFFICE & YARD YARD TIMMINS SCHUMACHER PHONE 117 PHONE 725

BRANCH OFFICE KIRKLAND LAKE PHONE 393 ****************

what happened. The whole point is that whatever I did I had lost her-if indeed I had ever had her."

The doctor nodded: "I'm afraid a girl like that wouldn't have a lot of chance in the kind of world she went back to."

"I've wondered about that too."

with you at all? After all, you were husband and wife.' London and New York and they had instruction to help her if she asked for it. She knew that when she went. "Evidently she did not become a

I'm afraid the contrary was "We were married in the English trical agent."

trical papers?" "No. That might have embarrassed her. I'm practically certain she is no in his 77th year. He was born in Stelonger on the stage. After all a dancer's life-as such-is not a long one.' "And any day she may walk in out of the blue?"

"She's not likely to. By this time "She can't have married again. She's you almost impersonally-with no more love with you?" "In a way. But not the one woman "Sadie. An unlovely name, but she visit I brought her across to this island. I wanted to love me. Life is like that "It was bad luck," she said. "I ima-

"What on earth do you mean?" "It is right and seemly that there should be one woman who can make a men's lives there is such a woman."

"Perhaps! Does it matter?" "Evidently not to you," she said with "It certainly doesn't make me conceited-even if it's true. You see, where

"Even so," he said. (To be Continued) women are concerned, I failed."

—are in love with you."

TEN YEARS AGO IN TIMMINS

From data in the Porcupine Advance Fyles

In The Advance ten years ago: - recovery and not in danger. "After the summer holidays there will be some changes at the Timmins High | years ago to the bereaved parents and High and Vocational School, has re- pital on Friday, May 27th, 1932, of Mrs. signed and after the summer vacation | Chas, Spadafore. The late Mrs. Spad-"She laughed: 'I'm sorry, too. Only W. W. Tanner, of Vankleek Hill, Ont., afore was formerly Miss Margaret Auand A. A. Rose, of Sault Ste. Marie, will Mrs. David Auger. Her sad death, was "'Shall we go back to Paris?" I sug- take charge of the vocational work as the first break in the family circle of director of the Technical School. Dur- twelve. At the time of death Mrs. "'No. It would be almost the same ing the two years that Mr. Henry has Spadafore was only nineteen years of

There was disappointment expressed that skill, and care could do. she insisted. 'You will only spoil your among Timmins football enthusiasts There was a report ten years ago in own work as well as mine ... I'm sorry ten years ago because it looked as if town that the R. C. M. P. headquarters Timmins was not going to have a foot- for the North Land might be transfer-"And that was that. She went. I ball team in the league with the team red from Cochrane to Timmins. The represented the town, there were many officers would be made in the post ofwho missed the town name from the fice building, the janitor's quarters to N. O. F. A., especially in view of the be used for this purpose and a suitable fact that in previous years the Tim-

> N. O. F. A. In the absence from town of H. H. Moore, the president," said The Ad- ing up on reckless driving and other vance ten years ago, "Reg Smith, vice- breaches of the Highway Traffic Act president, occupied the chair at the Jerry Robitaille was given ten days in weekly luncheon of the Timmins Ki- jail. The police told of his reckless wanis Club on Monday. The speaker driving in town some nights ago when for the day was Chief H. Jones, who he appeared to be well under the ingave a very interesting and informa- fluence of liquor. Another man on tive address on police work. Chief less serious count of reckless driving Jones spoke on the duties of a police- was assessed $25.00 and costs. For man and gave an outline of the routine speeding still another paid ten and of the work. He gave examples of his own experiences to show the variety of the work of the police officer. A- May 31, 1932, was to the effect that mong the visitors for the day was Kiwanian J. Dunn, of New Liskeard."

The Advance said ten years ago:-"Yes. I put enquiry agents on the "Under the present conditions of traf- ing an auto and were landed in the job. They tracked down dozens of fic on the bridge over the Mattagami Pembroke jail. On Sunday evening an "Legally, I suppose. I'm almost On Sunday a youngster was crowded the stolen one had stopped at a filling

> On Tuesday afternoon, May 31, 1932, the three young men in it having takshortly after 5 o'clock little Jeanne D' en occasion to have a sleep.

to observe this rule."

There was very wide sympathy ten she passed away on Friday despite all mins team had taken a big place in the for the janitor of the post office. Chief Jones and his men ten years ago showed that they had been check-

Word from Pembroke on Tuesday

three young men from Timmins, Eli house or flat to be secured elsewhere

Ranger, Noel Ranger, and J. Dubeau had been arrested on a charge of stealto pass on the bridge if there are foot broke taxi driver. The police learned passengers on the bridge at the time, that a car answering the description of know that it was not the fault of the ed in pursuit. The provincial police at motorists. That would be poor com- Mattawa was also notified and while fort. It is a fact that motorists have Constable Kenny was pursuing the car been repeatedly urged not to attempt from the east, the Mattawa police stato pass other cars on the bridge, and rted east to head the car off. About the majority of the drivers have tried eight miles east of Mattawa the police found the car at the side of the road,

Arc Gauthier, the five year old daugh- In The Advance ten years ago:-"Due ter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gauthier, 30 to the fact that Mrs. A. Lappala is leaher leaving you. Forgive me-but, for First avenue met with an accident that ving Timmins this week, a farewell reone in love, you appear in a very cold- resulted in serious injuries, though the ception was held at the Finnish United Third Avenue child later was reported as making good Church last Sunday afternoon, for Rev.

S. A. Caldbick

Dean Kester, K.C. BARRISTER NOTARY

MacBrien & Bailey

DR. E. L. ROBERTS Timmins Empire Block

Ottawa Journal-Maka called it a quiet day when there were "only three air raid alerts" and went to the