South Porcupine Guides Asking for Used Uniforms

South Porcupine, June 24—(Special to The Advance)—We have been asked to publicize the following:—

The Girl Guide troop is needing a few uniforms. Will any ex-Guide, or the mother of such, please see if she has an old uniform not in use that can be made over to fit a Guide? If so, please get in touch with a member of the Guide Committee (or a Guide), as these ladies are holding a "bee" soon when the uniforms will be adjusted.

A price may be put upon the uniforms if they are in good condition.

Shower in Honour of School Teacher at South Porcupine

Other Items of Interest from South Porcupine and the Dome.

South Porcupine, June 24—(Special to The Advance)—On Saturday afternoon the home of Mrs. Wm. McDowell at the Bank of Toronto was the scene of a very lovely linen shower party in honour of Miss Montgomery, of the public school staff, who is leaving at the end of the school term, for her home at Carp, to be married. Miss Edna Ball and Miss Ola Stanley acted as joint hostesses at the affair with Mrs. McDowell, and Miss Stanley played the wedding march as Miss Montgomery entered the room. A corsage was pinned upon the guest of honour before she was presented with a number of lovely gifts for her linen closet. Twenty-three guests were present and a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses. Miss Montgomery has been on the teaching staff of our Public School for three years and she will carry away with her best wishes for her wedded happiness, from us all.

Style and Fashion Show of Cottons at South Porcupine

South Porcupine, June 14—(Special to The Advance)—The Style and Fashion Show of Cottons put on by the Wabasso Cotton Co., of Three Rivers, Quebec, and sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion drew a large crowd of over 300 ladies to the Legion hall on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ballingal, who conducted the affair spoke of the use of cottons in the lovely little bride. United Church articles, numberless ways of creating the home beautiful with the aid of cottons.

Mrs. Countryman introduced the speaker. The models who illustrated the dresses made from cotton goods gave a clear idea of what can be done to produce stylish and beautiful creations, and were young ladies from four years onward. Mrs. George Kaufman modelled house dresses and aprons, and Mrs. Ken Myers besides appearing in several stylish creations was the lovely little bride.

Also modelling were: Mrs. Harry Hall, Miss Eleanor Burke, Miss Lynn Beard, Miss Mary Countryman, Miss Irene Libby, Miss Jean Jordison, Miss K. Connelly, Miss Janet Proulx, Miss Diane Dunn, Miss Barbara Ewing, and the two youngest models, who won all hearts, little Betty Anderson and Master Robert Quesnel.

Large "Dunny Banks" were given to the youngest performers, and the grand door prize of a "Wabasso bed set" was won by Mrs. John Bawtin-hem and a second prize by Mrs. Chas. Mack.

The nice sum of $62.75 was realized by the ladies from this fashion show; over $30 of this amount will be devoted to the "soldiers comfort fund" sponsored by the Auxiliary.

Busy Youngsters

need energy giving FOOD

Youngsters between 2 and 6 are often the "busiest" people in the world. From early morning they're busy playing, romping and learning—busy every minute until bedtime. They need energy-giving food, naiter. Timmins Dairy Milk, containing all health vitamins and a generous supply of calcium and phosphorous, will guard little bodies from "overwork", "over-play" and fretfulness. Give them a quart every day—at meal times, with cereals, vegetables and in soups. To get Timmins Dairy milk, phone 935 or ask for it at your neighbourhood dealers.
