Jitney Dancing Featured at Legion Carnival This Week

Loose"—Helen Rhea Channen portraying the gob in a beautiful toe dance.

The Sailors' Hornpipe was cleverly performed by Helen Borland, Doreen Little, Ruth Wilson, Patricia Cornell, Claire Donoghue, Shirley Thompson, Barbara Bowie, Mayzell Menear, Lois Doolan, Joan Jeffries, Patricia Brewer, Kenneth Robb. The "Tapping Tars" were Claire Fluet, Frances Borland, Jean Shields, Lois Doolan and Barbara Bowie, and when they had completed their attractive routine, they carried forth a pretty pink basket which proved that its contents were equally charming, for out came little Valerie Montgomery as the Hula Dancer, clad in a bright grass skirt and gracefully gliding through the Hawaiian dance.

"Moments of Mirth" was the title of the humorous portion of the programme supplied by Woodhouse and Hawkins, the radio team whose programme is broadcast weekly on Canadian networks.

Monday evening's programme was repeated on Wednesday, and will have its final presentation on Friday evening, while Tuesday evening's programme will be featured this (Thursday) evening, and again on Saturday.

Worthy Grand Matron of Grand Chapter Speaks at Eastern Star Banquet

Arbutus Chapter Entertains in Honour of Distinguished Visitors. Mrs. Lottie Davidson is Guest-Speaker at Banquet. Meeting and Social Evening in Masonic Hall.

"It is a great pleasure to be in Arbutus Chapter", said Mrs. Lottie Davidson, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, resident in Toronto, in answering the toast to "Grand Chapter" made by Sister Rose Anderson at a banquet held in honour of the visiting officers at the McIntyre Auditorium on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Davidson was accompanied to Timmins by Mrs. Florence Eastman, Associate Grand Matron of Grand Chapter, of Ottawa; and Mrs. Violet Stewart, Past District Deputy Grand Matron of District No. 10, of Mimico.

Mrs. Davidson thanked the local chapter for the tribute to Grand Chapter, adding that good wishes are always a source of inspiration. Grand Chapter, she said, has been in existence for nearly twenty-seven years, and has done an inestimable amount of good as a fraternal institution. Certainly no organization could have finer or nobler purposes than those of the Eastern Star, and all who belong to it are proud to be remembered as its members.

The speaker paid special tribute to Mrs. Violet Day, Grand Conduress of the Grand Chapter of O.E.S., a resident of Timmins. Only a few years ago, said Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Day was a comparative stranger to Grand Chapter. At the grand sessions, Mrs. Day ran for the North Chair, and accomplished something unique in the annals of the Chapter, winning the chair at her first attempt. Since that time, Grand Chapter has learned that she is a valuable and important member of the Order, and that she lives the principles of the Order. "I believe," continued the speaker, "that she is doing something for somebody else every minute or thinking of something that can be done."

"These things are sometimes contagious", went on Mrs. Davidson in paying tribute to Dr. E. A. F. Day, of the Grand Executive of the Grand Chapter. Dr. Day, said Mrs. Davidson, attended Grand Session and offered his name for the Grand Executive. He was elected, thus bringing a double honour to Arbutus Chapter in the fact that two members of this group are with the Grand Chapter.

Mrs. Davidson made special mention of the fact that all Grand Officers are always faithful to their order. So often, she said, members of organizations served in official capacities, and when no longer carrying on these duties, forgot about their work. This was not true in the case of the Eastern Star, and the speaker told the story of Sister Meadows, who although forbidden by her doctors to walk the steps to the Chapter rooms, had been present at a meeting when the Grand Officers visited her branch.

"Our Order is Growing", said the Worthy Grand Matron. "This year on two occasions I have been asked for special permission to initiate seven new members at one time." Real achievement is to be found in the elevation of the fundamental efforts of the Order, and to-day its members have a wonderful opportunity to show what can be done. "Let us plan and build the future without thought of personal achievement; bury all that is selfish within us that our Order may achieve that end," concluded Mrs. Davidson.

Brother Wm. Pritchard proposed the "Toast to the King", in response to which all joined in the singing of "God Save the King", with Miss Mildred Tackaberry at the piano.

Sister Violet Morrow gave the "Toast to the Visitors", expressing the hope that this meeting will linger in their memories. Mrs. Violet Stewart, Past District Deputy of No. 10 District, gave the response.

Among those at the head table were the visiting officers: Mrs. Fred Jackson, Worthy Matron of Arbutus Chapter, Timmins; Mrs. Violet Day, Grand Conduress of Grand Chapter; Mr. Houston, Presiding Patron, of South Porcupine; Mr. Vernon Neilly, chairman for the evening; Brother Wm. Pritchard and Mrs. Pritchard; Mrs. Rose Anderson, Past District Deputy and Grand Matron of District No. 16; Mrs. Isobel Brown, Past District Deputy Grand Matron, also of Timmins; and Mrs. Hamilton, District Converter of the Patriotic Fund, of Kirkland Lake. Guests were present from South Porcupine, Timmins and Kirkland Lake. Dinner was served at three long tables, and one smaller table which formed the letter "E" and which bore vases of mixed flowers from the garden of Mrs. Malcolm MacMillan at the McIntyre. Place cards were made in the form of a star, bearing the five colours of the Order—yellow, white, blue, green and red.

After the banquet, members of the Order met in the Masonic hall for a business meeting and social evening.
